About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Partnership Act 1963 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 1 October 2005. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 1 October 2005.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Partnership Act 1963

An Act relating to partnership

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Partnership Act 1963.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition 'incorporated limited partnership—see section 51.' means that the term 'incorporated limited partnership' is defined in that section.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

5 Application of certain laws and rules of equity

- (1) The rules of equity and the common law applying to partnership continue in force except as far as they are inconsistent with this Act.
- (2) However, except as provided (expressly or by necessary implication) under this or another Act, the law relating to partnership does not apply in relation to an incorporated limited partnership, the partners in an incorporated limited partnership or the relationship between an incorporated limited partnership and its partners.

Note A reference to an Act includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the Act, including regulations (see Legislation Act, s 104).

Part 2 Nature of partnership

6 Meaning of partnership

- (1) Partnership is the relation between people carrying on a business in common with a view of profit, and includes an incorporated limited partnership.

Note Partnership includes an external partnership in some stated provisions in part 6 (Incorporated limited partnerships).

- (2) The relation between members of a corporation (other than an incorporated limited partnership), whether formed or incorporated in or outside the ACT, is not a partnership under this Act.

 - (d) the lending of money to a person engaged or about to engage in a business under a contract, made in writing with that person and signed by or on behalf of all the parties to the contract, by virtue of which the lender is entitled to receive a rate of interest varying with, or a share of, the profits arising from carrying on the business, does not, of itself, make the lender a partner with the person carrying on the business or liable as a partner with that person; and
 - (e) a person who receives by way of periodical payment a portion of the profits of a business in consideration of the sale by the person of the goodwill of the business is not, by reason only of the receipt of that portion, a partner with respect to the business or liable as a partner with respect to the business.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

(2) The powers of an incorporated limited partnership may be limited by the partnership agreement.

66 Relationship of partners to others and between themselves

(1) Except as otherwise provided by the partnership agreement or agreed between the partners in an incorporated limited partnership—

(a) a general partner, the partnership, or an officer, employee, agent or representative of a general partner or the partnership, is not an agent of a limited partner, and the acts of a general partner, the partnership, or the officer, employee, agent or representative, do not bind a limited partner; and

(b) a limited partner is not an agent of, or fiduciary for, a general partner, another limited partner or the partnership, and the acts of a limited partner do not bind a general partner, another limited partner or the partnership itself.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the making of, or limit or restrict, an agreement between a partner (the first person) and either another partner or the incorporated limited partnership (the second person) under which—

(a) the first person acts as an agent of the second person and, by acting as an agent, binds the second person; or

- (b) the partnership acts as an agent of a partner and, by acting as an agent, binds the first person.
- (3) Any consent or authority that under this Act is required or permitted to be given by a partner, 2 or more partners or all the partners may, for an incorporated limited partnership and without limiting any other way that it might be given, be given by that partner or those partners under the partnership agreement either in relation to all cases, or in relation to all cases subject to stated exceptions, or in relation to any stated case or class of case.

- (5) A limited partner, as limited partner, is not a proper party to any proceeding begun in a court or tribunal by or against the incorporated limited partnership, other than a proceeding begun by the partnership against the limited partner or by the limited partner against the partnership.
- (6) This section is subject to section 68 (Limited partner not to take part in incorporated limited partnership's management).
- (7) In subsection (1):
general partner includes, if the general partner is a partnership or an external partnership, a partner in that partnership.

Division 6.5 Liability and powers of limited partners

67 Limitation of liability of limited partners

68 Limited partner not to take part in incorporated limited partnership's management

- (1) A limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership must not take part in the management of the incorporated limited partnership's business.

 - (b) at the time of the act or omission the third party had reasonable grounds to believe that the limited partner was a general partner in the partnership.

- (3) The limited partner is liable for the loss or injury to the same extent that the limited partner would have been liable if the limited partner were a general partner in the partnership.

Note A limited partner is not an agent of the incorporated limited partnership, and the acts of a limited partner do not bind a general partner, another limited partner or the partnership itself (see s 66 (1)).

- (4) A limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership is not to be regarded as taking part in the management of the partnership's business only because the limited partner or a person acting on behalf of the limited partner—
- (a) is an employee of, or an independent contractor engaged by, the partnership, a general partner in the partnership or an associate of the general partner, or is an officer of a general partner that is a corporation or of an associate of a general partner that is a corporation; or

- (f) exercises a power of the limited partner under subsection (5) or has, or exercises, a right to—
 - (i) have access to and inspect the books or records of the partnership or copy any of them; or
 - (ii) examine the state or prospects of the business of the partnership or advise, or consult with, other partners in relation to them; or

- (h) is or acts as a lender to, or fiduciary for, an associate of the partnership; or
- (i) to the extent authorised by the partnership agreement, participates on, or has or exercises any right to appoint 1 or more people to, remove 1 or more people from, or to nominate 1 or more people for appointment to or removal from, a committee that considers, approves of, consents to or disapproves of any 1 or more of the following proposals from a general partner:

 - (iv) a proposal relating to any actual or potential transaction or anything else involving any actual or potential conflict of interest;
 - (v) a proposal relating to any actual or potential transaction, contract, arrangement or understanding between 1 or more of the partners, or their associates, and the general partner, the partnership or any associate of the general partner or of the partnership;
 - (vi) a proposal for the delegation, waiver, release or variation of an authority, right, duty or obligation of the general partner;
 - (vii) a proposal for the appointment or approval under the partnership agreement of anyone as a senior executive of the general partner or an associate of the general partner; or
- (j) nominates, selects, investigates, evaluates or negotiates with anyone in relation to the removal or replacement of a general partner, or participates on a committee that proposes, considers, approves of, consents to or disapproves of any nomination, selection, appointment, change in control or ownership, suspension, replacement or removal of a general partner or an associate of a general partner; or

- (k) takes any action, or participates in any action taken by any other limited partner, for the purpose of registering or maintaining the registration of the partnership or a general partner in the partnership as a VCLP or AFOF under the Venture Capital Act 2002 (Cwlth), part 2 (Registration of venture capital limited partnerships and Australian venture capital funds of funds).
- (5) A limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership or a person authorised by the limited partner may, if and to the extent the partner or person is authorised by the partnership agreement—

- (6) The operation of this section may not be varied by the partnership agreement or with the consent of the partners, whether given under the partnership agreement or otherwise.

Note Section 66 (4) (Relationship of partners to others and between themselves) enables partners to give consent in accordance with the partnership agreement.
- (7) Subsection (4) does not imply that a limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership is to be regarded as taking part in the management of the partnership's business only because the limited partner or a person acting on behalf of the partner does any thing in relation to the conduct of that business that is not mentioned in that subsection.
- (8) For this section, a limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership that is a venture capital management partnership under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cwlth), section 94D (3) (Corporate limited partnerships) is not to be regarded as taking part in the management of the partnership's business only because of any act the limited partner takes in relation to the incorporated limited partnership in the capacity of a partner or associate of a partner in the venture capital management partnership.

71 Change in partners

- (1) A limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership may, with the general partners' consent and the transferee's agreement, transfer all or part of the limited partner's interest in the partnership.
- (2) If all of the limited partner's interest in the incorporated limited partnership is transferred to a single transferee, the transferee becomes a limited partner in substitution for the transferor with all the rights and obligations of the transferor.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) only part of the interest of the limited partner (the transferor) in the incorporated limited partnership is transferred to a transferee; and
 - (b) the part of the interest that is transferred is (or includes) part of the transferor's legal interest in the partnership (whether or not the part of the interest that is transferred also includes all or part of the transferor's beneficial interest in the partnership).
- (4) If this subsection applies, the transferee becomes a limited partner in substitution for the transferor in relation to the transferred part and with all the rights and obligations of the transferor in relation to that part.
- (5) A person may be admitted as a partner in an incorporated limited partnership without the consent of any limited partner.

- (6) The operation of this section may be varied with the partners' consent.

72 Change in status of partners

- (1) If a general partner becomes a limited partner, the partner remains liable for any liability of the incorporated limited partnership that arose before the partner became a limited partner to the extent that the partnership cannot satisfy the liability or to the greater extent provided by the partnership agreement.
- (2) If a limited partner becomes a general partner, the partner remains not liable (subject to section 68 (2) and (3)) for any liability of the incorporated limited partnership that arose before the partner became a general partner.

Note Section 68 (2) and (3) imposes liability in certain circumstances on a limited partner who takes part in the management of the business of the incorporated limited partnership.

73 Liability for conduct, acts or omissions outside the ACT

A limited partner in an incorporated limited partnership may only be liable for a liability incurred by the partnership because of either of the following in circumstances where the limited partner would be liable if the conduct or acts happened in the ACT:

- (a) the conduct of the partnership's business outside the ACT;
- (b) acts outside the ACT of a general partner, a limited partner, the partnership or any officer, employee or agent of a general partner or the partnership.

Note Section 68 (2) and (3) imposes liability in certain circumstances on a limited partner who takes part in the management of the business of the incorporated limited partnership.

74 Incorporated limited partnerships formed under corresponding laws

- (1) A partner in a recognised incorporated limited partnership is liable for a liability incurred by the partnership as a result of either of the following, only in circumstances where the partner would be liable under the corresponding law if the conduct, acts or omissions happened in the place where the partnership was formed:

- (3) However, the Minister may declare a law of a State or another Territory to be a corresponding law only if under that law a partner in an incorporated limited partnership formed in accordance with this part and registered or otherwise recognised under that law is liable for a liability incurred by the partnership as a result of either of the following, only in circumstances where the partner would be liable under this Act if the conduct, acts or omissions happened in the ACT:

75 Effect of s 73 and s 74

Section 73 or section 74 does not imply that a limited partner has any liability (or apart from that section would have any liability) in connection with the conduct of a partnership's business, or acts or omissions outside the ACT, that the limited partner would not have in connection with the conduct of a partnership's business or acts or omissions in the ACT.

3 Legislation history

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Partnership Ordinance 1963 No 5 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).
