Public Access to Government Contracts Act 2000    No 75

Republication No 2

Republication date: 12 September 2001

Last amendment made by Act 2001 No 44

Amendments incorporated to 12 September 2001

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Public Access to Government Contracts Act 2000 as in force on 12 September 2001. It includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 12 September 2001 and any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes).

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Public Access to Government Contracts Act 2000

An Act to make public, as far as possible, the terms of government contracts

---

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Public Access to Government Contracts Act 2000.

3 Definitions

In this Act:

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155).

confidentiality clause means a provision in a government contract that requires a government agency that is a party to the contract to keep confidential particular terms of the contract or of another contract to which a government agency is a party, and includes 2 or more provisions in a government contract that together have that effect, whether or not they appear together in the contract.

Example

Provisions in a government contract that are in the form of clauses M and N in the schedule to this Act together constitute a single confidentiality clause. This applies whether or not the provisions appear together in the contract.

government agency means the Territory or a Territory instrumentality, but does not include a Territory owned corporation.

public text, of a government contract—see section 6.

Territory owned corporation means a Territory owned corporation under the Territory Owned Corporations Act 1990.

4 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See Legislation Act 2001, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Government contracts that Act applies to

- (1) This Act applies to a contract in writing (a government contract) that is—
  - (a) a contract to which a government agency is a party; or
  - (b) an amendment of such a contract;
made after the commencement of this section.
- (2) However, this Act does not apply to—
  - (a) a contract of employment; or
  - (b) a contract for consideration (whether monetary or otherwise) worth $50 000 or less; or
  - (c) a contract for the settlement of liability to an individual.

Part 2                      Making government contracts public

6           Public text of a contract

- (1) Within 21 days after making a government contract, the government agency must prepare a public text of the contract in accordance with this section.
- (2) The public text must include all the text of the contract that is not confidential together with the following information, if it does not appear in that text:
  - (a) details identifying each party;
  - (b) details, of which the government agency is aware, of the cross-ownership of relevant companies;
  - (c) the duration of the contract;
  - (d) any transfer of assets under the contract;
  - (e) the effect of any maintenance provisions;
  - (f) the full consideration to be given by the government agency;
  - (g) the effect of provisions dealing with renegotiation and renewal rights;
  - (h) risk allocation among the parties at the various stages of the contract;
  - (i) the effect of any penalty provisions;
  - (j) the effect of guarantees, loans or undertakings;
  - (k) any information required by law to be disclosed to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission;
  - (l) any other information needed to understand the contract.

- (3) If a term of the contract that does not appear in the public text of the contract because it is confidential—

- (a) ceases to be confidential in accordance with the contract; or
- (b) otherwise becomes public knowledge;

the government party must prepare a new public text that includes the term within 21 days.

7 Government contracts must be made public

The current public text of the contract must be made available to the public by—

- (a) making paper copies available for purchase; or
- (b) making electronic copies available without charge.

Example

Electronic copies might be made available on a website, or distributed by email.

8 Registration of government contracts with confidentiality clauses

- (1) The auditor-general must maintain a register of contracts containing confidentiality clauses.
- (2) A government agency that agrees to a confidentiality clause must provide the auditor-general with a copy of the contract containing it within 14 days after the contract, or an amendment inserting the clause into the contract, is made.

9 Assembly to be informed of confidentiality clauses

- (1) For the 6 months after the commencement of this Act, and for each 6 month period after that, the auditor-general must give the appropriate Legislative Assembly committee a list of the contracts inserted in the register mentioned in section 8 in the 6 month period.

- (2) The auditor-general must give the committee the list of contracts for each 6 month period as soon as reasonably possible after the end of the period.
- (3) A government agency must, when asked by the committee, give the committee the information the committee requires about a decision to agree to a confidentiality clause.
- (4) In this section:
appropriate Legislative Assembly committee means—
  - (a) the public accounts committee of the Legislative Assembly; or
  - (b) another Legislative Assembly committee nominated by the Speaker for the purpose, from time to time.

10 No liability for complying with pt 2

- (1) This section applies to a government agency that is a party to a government contract.
- (2) The agency is not liable to another party to the contract or anyone else for anything done in good faith to comply with this part.

Part 3                      Confidentiality clauses in a government contract

11      Notice of Act to other parties

If a confidentiality clause is proposed during the negotiation of a government contract, the government agency must ensure that the effect of this Act is drawn to the attention of the other party.

12      Confidentiality clause in a government contract

If a government contract is to make certain information confidential, it must do so using provisions that—

- (a) follow the effect of the model confidentiality clause in the schedule as far as required; and
- (b) do not constrain disclosure to a greater extent than provided in the model clause.

13      Grounds for confidentiality of information

- (1) A government agency may agree to make information confidential under a government contract only if it has satisfied itself, in accordance with this section—
  - (a) that the release of the information would result in—
    - (i) the unreasonable disclosure of personal information; or
    - (ii) the disclosure of a trade secret; or
    - (iii) the unreasonable disclosure of information with commercial value; or
    - (iv) the unreasonable disclosure of information about the business affairs of a person; or
  - (b) that it is required by, or gives effect to, an obligation of confidentiality that arises from another source.

- (2) However, a government agency must not agree to make information confidential if—
- (a) it would inappropriately restrict a government agency in the management or use of Territory assets; or
  - (b) it would not be in the public interest to do so; or
  - (c) the information is already public knowledge; or
  - (d) the information has been obtained by the government agency from another source; or
  - (e) the agreement would require the confidentiality to apply for longer than is necessary to protect the interest concerned.

14 Invalidity of non-complying confidentiality clauses

A confidentiality clause has no effect if—

- (a) it does not comply with section 12 (Confidentiality clause in a government contract); or
- (b) the agreement by the government agency to the clause was not in accordance with section 13 (Grounds for confidentiality of information).

Part 4                      Miscellaneous

15      Effect of disclosure of confidential information

If information required to be kept confidential by a confidentiality clause is disclosed under this Act, that disclosure does not affect the continuing force of the confidentiality clause under the contract.

16      Effect of other disclosure laws

This Act does not change the effect of any other Territory law that deals with an obligation either to disclose or not to disclose information.

17      Regulation-making power

The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note      Regulations must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

Schedule                      Model confidentiality clause

(see s 12)

M.      Definition of *confidential information

In this agreement, confidential information means [list of the kinds of information to be kept confidential].

N.      Confidentiality obligations of the Territory

N.1 In giving effect to the principles of open and accountable government, the Territory may disclose information unless it has otherwise agreed, or is otherwise bound, to treat the information as confidential.

N.2 Except as provided in this agreement, the Territory must not disclose the confidential information to any person without the prior consent of X (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld) except where the confidential information—

- (a) is required or authorised to be disclosed by law; or
- (b) is disclosed to the Territory's solicitors, auditors, insurers, or advisers or to the Territory ombudsman; or
- (c) is disclosed by the responsible Minister in reporting to the Legislative Assembly or its committees; or
- (d) is generally available to the public; or
- (e) is in the possession of the Territory without restriction in relation to disclosure before the date of receipt from X; or
- (f) is reasonably necessary for the enforcement of the criminal law or for the protection of public revenue.

N.3 The Public Access to Government Contracts Act 2000 applies to this contract.

N.4 The following grounds mentioned in the Public Access to Government Contracts Act 2000, section 13 (1) apply to clause M and this clause: [list of relevant grounds in section 13 (1)].

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnotes.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.
