71ZA Claims

- (1) A claim for compensation must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) be given to the board within the appropriate period; and
 - (c) state the full name and home address of the claimant; and
 - (d) contain full particulars of the claim; and
 - (e) be accompanied by a statutory declaration to the effect that the particulars contained in the claim are true.
- (2) The board must reject a claim that does not, at the time it is given, comply with subsection (1).

- (3) The appropriate period is the earlier of—
- (a) 1 year after the day the claimant becomes aware of the failure to account to which the claim relates; or
 - (b) 2 years after the day the failure to account happens.
- (4) However, if before the end of the period within which a claim for compensation would, apart from this subsection, be required to be given, a notice about the making of the claim is published under section 71Z, the appropriate period is the period mentioned in the notice.
