A2011-41

Republication No 21

Effective: 16 July 2024

Republication date: 16 July 2024

Last amendment made by A2024-29

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Unit Titles (Management) Act 2011 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 16 July 2024. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 16 July 2024.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $160 for an individual and $810 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Unit Titles (Management) Act 2011

An Act to provide for the management of units plans, and for other purposes

---

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Unit Titles (Management) Act 2011.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition ‘class A unit—see the Unit Titles Act 2001, section 10.’ means that the term ‘class A unit’ is defined in that Act, section 10 and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

6 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are to—

- (a) make it clear who is responsible for managing units plans; and
- (b) help people who manage, or help in the management of units plans, understand and exercise their functions; and
- (c) assist in the resolution of disputes in relation to the management of units plans; and
- (d) make the law about the management of units plans easier to use generally.

Part 2 Management of units plans

Division 2.1 Who manages a units plan?

7 Owners corporation

The owners corporation for a units plan is responsible for managing the units plan.

Note An owners corporation may be helped by 1 or more of the following:

- (a) the executive committee of the owners corporation;
- (b) a manager engaged under s 50;
- (c) a service contractor engaged under s 60.

Division 2.2 Owners corporation—general

8 Owners corporation—establishment

- (1) On the registration of a units plan, an owners corporation for the units plan is established under the name ‘The Owners—Units Plan No X’.
- (2) To remove any doubt, an owners corporation continued in existence under this Act is established under this section.

Note 1 An owners corporation in existence under the Unit Titles Act 2001 immediately before the commencement of s 150 (expired) is continued in existence as an owners corporation under that section.

Note 2 Establish includes constitute and continue in existence (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1, def establish).

- (3) In this section:

X means the number given to the units plan by the registrar-general on its registration.

9 Owners corporation—legal status

- (1) An owners corporation is a corporation.
- (2) An owners corporation—
  - (a) has perpetual succession; and
  - (b) may have a common seal; and
  - (c) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

9A Execution of documents by owners corporation

An owners corporation must execute a document in 1 of the following ways:

- (a) if the owners corporation has a common seal—by attaching the seal to the document—
  - (i) as authorised by a resolution of the owners corporation; and
  - (ii) with 2 executive members witnessing the attaching and signing the document as witnesses;
- (b) without using a common seal—
  - (i) by 2 executive members, as authorised by a resolution of the owners corporation, signing the document; or
  - (ii) if a manager for the owners corporation is delegated this function—by the manager, as authorised by a resolution of the owners corporation, signing the document.

Division 2.3 Owners corporation—membership and representatives

10 Members of owners corporation

- (1) The members of an owners corporation for a units plan are the owners of the units.
- (2) If a unit is owned by 2 or more part-owners, each part-owner is a member of the owners corporation.

11 Part-owners of units—authorisation of representatives

- (1) This section applies if a unit is owned by 2 or more part-owners.
- (2) The part-owners of the unit must, by written notice to the owners corporation, authorise an individual to represent them as their agent (the part-owners' representative) for this Act.
- (3) The part-owners' representative must be one of the owners.

Note If a company is a part-owner of the unit, the company's own representative may also be authorised as the part-owners' representative (see s 14 (Company-owned units—functions of representatives)).

- (4) The notice of authorisation must—
  - (a) be given to the owners corporation within 14 days after the lodgment for registration of the instrument under which the unit first becomes owned by the part-owners; and
  - (b) include the full name and an address for correspondence of the representative; and
  - (c) be signed by each part-owner of the unit.
- (5) The part-owners of the unit may change their representative by written notice to the owners corporation.

- (6) The notice of change of authorisation must—
  - (a) include the full name and an address for correspondence of the new representative; and
  - (b) be signed by each part-owner of the unit.
- (7) The part-owners' representative may change the address for correspondence of the representative by written notice to the owners corporation.
- (8) The notice of change of address must be signed by the representative.
- (9) This section may be enforced in the same way as a rule of the owners corporation (see section 107 (Effect of rules)).

12 Part-owners of units—functions of representatives

- (1) This section applies if a unit is owned by 2 or more part-owners.
- (2) Anything that an owner of the unit may do, or is required to do, under this Act may be done by the part-owners' representative acting as the agent for the part-owners.
- (3) Any document, including a notice, that this Act requires the owners corporation or someone else to give to the part-owners may be given to the representative alone on their behalf under section 124 (Service of documents on members, interested people and occupiers).

Note The owners corporation must give notice of a general meeting to the part-owners' representative on behalf of the part-owners to comply with sch 3, s 3.6 (1) (a) (which requires notices to be given to each member of the owners corporation).

- (4) If a document is given to the part-owners by being given to the representative on their behalf, the representative must tell the other part-owners that the document has been given to the representative and (if asked) give them a copy of the document.

- (5) Subsection (4) may be enforced in the same way as a rule of the owners corporation (see section 107 (Effect of rules)).

Example—s (4) and s (5)

In breach of s (4), a part-owners' representative for a unit does not tell a part-owner of the unit about a notice of a determination of general fund contribution (under s 78 (1)) given to the representative on the unit owners' behalf.

The part-owner may rely on s (5) to enforce s (4) against the representative for the unit. The relevant enforcement action is the same as for a breach of the owners corporation rules—a civil action for breach of an agreement under seal (see s 107).

13 Company-owned units—authorisation of representatives

- (1) This section applies if a company is the owner of a unit.

Note Owner includes a part-owner (see dict).

- (2) The company must, by written notice to the owners corporation, authorise an individual to represent it as its agent (the company's representative) for this Act.
- (3) The company's representative must be an officer or employee of the company.
- (4) The notice of authorisation must—
- (a) be given to the owners corporation within 14 days after the lodgment for registration of the instrument under which the company becomes an owner of the unit; and
  - (b) include the full name and an address for correspondence of the representative; and
  - (c) be signed on behalf of the company.
- (5) The company may change its representative by written notice to the owners corporation.
- (6) The notice of change of authorisation must—
- (a) include the full name and an address for correspondence of the new representative; and

- (b) be signed on behalf of the company.
- (7) The company's representative may change the address for correspondence of the representative by written notice to the owners corporation.
- (8) The notice of change of address must be signed by the representative.
- (9) This section may be enforced in the same way as a rule of the owners corporation (see section 107 (Effect of rules)).

14 Company-owned units—functions of representatives

- (1) This section applies if a company is the owner of a unit.
- (2) Anything that the company may do, or is required to do, under this Act may be done by the company's representative acting as the agent for the company.
- (3) Any document, including a notice, that this Act requires the owners corporation or someone else to give to the company may be given to the representative on its behalf under section 124 (Service of documents on members, interested people and occupiers).

Note The owners corporation must give notice of a general meeting to the company's representative on behalf of the company to comply with sch 3, s 3.6 (1) (a) (which requires notices to be given to each member of the owners corporation).

15 Evidence of representative status

Evidence of any of the following facts about a part-owners' representative or a company's representative may be given by a certificate executed by the executive committee:

- (a) the fact that the authorisation of a named representative was in force on a stated date;
- (b) the fact that a stated address for correspondence for a representative was the latest address for correspondence for the representative notified to the corporation on a stated date.

Part 3                      Functions of owners corporations

  - (c) any other function given to the corporation under this Act or another territory law.

Note 1    The executive committee of an owners corporation exercises the functions of the corporation (see s 35 (1)). The executive committee must exercise its functions in accordance with any decision made by the owners corporation at a general meeting (see s 35 (3)).

Note 2    A provision of a law that gives an entity (including a person) a function also gives the entity powers necessary and convenient to exercise the function (see Legislation Act, s 196 and dict, pt 1, def entity).

- (2) The owners corporation must comply with all applicable laws in force in the Territory.

17              Owners corporation—general meetings

Three years after approving the plan, the owners corporation finds out that major work is required to water and sewerage pipes in the common property at an estimated cost of $60 000. The owners corporation, by ordinary resolution, amends the sinking fund plan to include the additional expected sinking fund expenditure and require additional contributions of $10 000 a year for the remaining years in the plan. Note              The owners corporation may make alternative rules under s 108.

107              Effect of rules

- (1) There are taken to be agreements under seal between an owners corporation and each of its members, and between each member and each other member, under which the corporation and its members agree to be bound by the rules of the corporation.
- (2) An occupier of a unit (who is not the owner of the unit) is bound by each rule of the corporation as if the occupier were the owner of the unit except to the extent that—
  - (a) the rule requires payments to be made to the general fund or a sinking fund; or
  - (b) the rule provides otherwise.
- (3) If the unit owner does not occupy the unit, the owner is liable separately and together with an occupier of the unit for any breach of the rules of the owners corporation by the occupier, unless the owner proves that the owner took reasonable precautions and exercised appropriate care to prevent the breach.
- (4) An occupier of a unit who occupies the unit under a residential tenancy agreement is not bound by any rule of the owners corporation to the extent that the rule is inconsistent with the standard residential tenancy terms, other than a pet friendly rule.

  - (h) prohibiting a unit owner from keeping an animal, or allowing an animal to be kept, within the unit or the common property in any circumstances.

  - (f) if the person does not comply with the notice—
    - (i) the person commits an offence; and
    - (ii) the owners corporation may, without further notice, apply to the ACAT for an order in relation to the failure to comply with the notice.

- (2) The complainant may ask the owners corporation to give the accused person a rule infringement notice for the contravention.

3.15 Ordinary resolutions

- (1) For an owners corporation with more than 2 members, the requirement for passing an ordinary resolution at a general meeting is that—
  - (a) unless a poll is taken—the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution is greater than the number of votes cast against it; or

Notes for s (2)—owners corporations with 1 or 2 members

- 1 If the owners corporation has 2 members, both must be present to make up a quorum for consideration of the resolution (see s 3.12), unless either is not entitled to vote on the resolution (see s 3.20).
- 2 An abstention for any unit does not in itself prevent an ordinary resolution from being passed, if at least 1 vote is cast in favour of the resolution.
- 3 A vote may be cast for a unit on an ordinary resolution even if an amount owing to the owners corporation remains unpaid (see s 3.20 (3)).

3.16 Special resolutions

- (1) For an owners corporation with more than 3 members, the requirements for passing a special resolution at a general meeting are that—
  - (a) unless a poll is taken—
    - (i) the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution is greater than the number of votes cast against it; and

Notes for s (3)—owners corporations with 1 or 2 members

- 2 An abstention for any unit does not in itself prevent a special resolution from being passed, if at least 1 vote is cast in favour of the resolution.
- 3 A vote may be cast for a unit on a special resolution even if an amount owing to the owners corporation remains unpaid (see s 3.20 (3)).

3.17 Unopposed resolutions

The requirements for passing an unopposed resolution at a general meeting are that—

- (a) no votes are cast against the resolution; and
- (b) at least 1 vote is cast in favour of the resolution.

Note 1 An abstention for any unit does not in itself prevent an unopposed resolution from being passed, if at least 1 vote is cast in favour of the resolution.

Note 2 If the owners corporation has 2 members, both must be present to make up a quorum for consideration of the resolution (see s 3.12), unless either is not entitled to vote on the resolution (see s 3.20).

Note 2 If the owners corporation has 2 members, both must be present to make up a quorum for consideration of the resolution (see s 3.12), unless either is not entitled to vote on the resolution (see s 3.20).

3.19 Evidence of resolutions of owners corporation

Evidence of the following facts about a resolution of an owners corporation may be given by a certificate issued by the executive committee:

- (a) the fact that at a general meeting held on a stated date a resolution in the terms set out in the certificate was passed;
- (b) the fact that the resolution was an ordinary, special, unopposed or unanimous resolution.

Part 3.3 Voting at general meetings

3.20 Who is entitled to vote?

- (1) The people entitled to vote on a motion at a general meeting of an owners corporation are as follows:
  - (a) for a unit owned by a single individual—the unit owner;
  - (b) for a unit owned by a single company—the company’s representative;
  - (c) for a unit owned by 2 or more part-owners—the part-owners’ representative.
- (2) However, if a unit is subject to a mortgage and a mortgagee voting notice is in force for the unit, the person entitled to vote for the unit is the mortgagee’s representative rather than the relevant person mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) If the owners corporation has 3 or more members, a person is only entitled to vote for a unit on a motion requiring an ordinary or special resolution if all amounts payable to the owners corporation for the unit have been paid.
- (4) In addition, a person is not entitled to vote on a motion at a general meeting if an ACAT order requires the person to not vote on the motion or at the meeting.

3.21 General meeting—decisions about staged development

- (1) This section applies to a motion at a general meeting of an owners corporation for a staged development if the development has not been completed.
- (2) The people entitled to vote on the motion are as follows:
  - (a) if the motion is only about an uncompleted stage of the development—the people entitled to vote under section 3.20 in relation to units in the uncompleted stages of the development;

- (b) if the motion is only about a completed stage of the development—the people entitled to vote under section 3.20 in relation to units in the completed stages of the development;
- (c) in any other case—the people entitled to vote under section 3.20.

3.21A General meeting—decisions about defective building work

- (1) This section applies to a motion at a general meeting of an owners corporation in relation to defective building work.
- (2) The developer of the units plan is not entitled to vote, or exercise a proxy vote, in relation to the motion unless—
  - (a) the members of the owners corporation, other than the developer, pass a special resolution allowing the developer to vote; or
  - (b) the ACAT makes a declaration under subsection (3).
- (3) On application, the ACAT may make a declaration that the developer may vote on a motion if—
  - (a) the ACAT is satisfied, to the extent practicable, that the developer is not likely to be responsible for the defective building work; or
  - (b) taking into account the interests of the owners corporation, the individual unit owners and the developer—barring the developer from voting would be unreasonable.
- (4) This section does not apply if the developer owns all of the units in the units plan.

3.22 One vote—1 unit

A single vote is exercisable for each unit at a general meeting.

3.23 Voting by mortgagees

- (1) If the interest of a unit owner is subject to a mortgage, the mortgagee may give the owners corporation written notice (a mortgagee voting notice) that—
  - (a) the unit is subject to the mortgage; and
  - (b) the mortgagee proposes to exercise the voting right given under section 3.20 (2); and
  - (c) an individual named in the notice (the mortgagee's representative) is authorised to vote at general meetings for the unit on behalf of the mortgagee, instead of the person otherwise entitled to vote for the unit.
- (2) The mortgagee voting notice must state the full name and address for correspondence of the mortgagee's representative.
- (3) If a unit is owned by 2 or more part-owners, and the interest of 1 of the owners who has more than a ½ share in the unit is subject to a mortgage, the mortgagee may give a mortgagee voting notice under this section.
- (4) If the interest of a unit owner is subject to 2 or more mortgages, this section applies only to the mortgagee whose mortgage has priority.

3.24 Mortgagee voting notice—amendment and revocation

- (1) The mortgagee may change the mortgagee's representative by written notice to the owners corporation.
- (2) The notice of change of representative must—
  - (a) include the full name and an address for correspondence of the new representative; and
  - (b) be signed by the mortgagee.

- (3) The mortgagee's representative may change the address for correspondence by written notice to the owners corporation of the change.
- (4) The notice of change of address must be signed by the representative.
- (5) A mortgagee voting notice—
  - (a) is revoked when the mortgagee gives written notice of revocation to the owners corporation; or
  - (b) is taken to be revoked when the mortgage is discharged.
- (6) A mortgagee who has given a mortgagee voting notice to an owners corporation commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, the mortgagee fails to give written notice to the corporation of the discharge of the mortgage within 14 days after the discharge.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

3.25 Evidence of mortgagee's entitlement to vote

Evidence of any of the following facts may be given by a certificate issued by the executive committee:

- (a) the fact that the authorisation of a named mortgagee's representative to vote for a stated unit was in force on a stated date;
- (b) the fact that a stated address for correspondence for a mortgagee's representative was the latest address for correspondence for the representative notified to the corporation on a stated date;
- (c) the fact that notice of the revocation of a mortgagee voting notice was given to the owners corporation by a named mortgagee on a stated date;
- (d) the fact that notice of the discharge of a mortgage was given to the owners corporation on a stated date.

3.26 Proxy votes

- (1) Votes at a general meeting may be cast by proxy (whether or not a poll is demanded).

Note 1 If a form is approved under s 146 for this provision, the form must be used.

Note 2 Also, a proxy form must accompany the notice of general meeting (see s 3.7 (2) (a)).

- (2) A person entitled to vote at a general meeting of an owners corporation must not—

(a) appoint a proxy for more than 1 year after the day the appointment is made; or

(b) appoint a person as a proxy if the person is—

(i) the manager; or

(ii) a service contractor.

- (3) A person, other than the chairperson, must not exercise more than the following number of proxy votes in a vote on a matter at a general meeting:

(a) if there are more than 20 units in the units plan—a number that is not more than 5% of the total number of units;

(b) in any other case—1.

- (4) If a person holds more proxy votes than they can exercise under subsection (3), the chairperson must exercise the excess proxy votes.

3.27 Proxy votes—limit on developer

- (1) This section applies to a developer of a units plan who is appointed as the proxy under a contract for the sale of a unit in the units plan.

- (2) The developer must not exercise 3 or more proxy votes in a vote on a matter at a general meeting of the owners corporation for the units plan unless—
  - (a) each contract for the sale of a unit in the units plan contains a proxy disclosure statement; and
  - (b) the use of each proxy vote is consistent with the statement; and
  - (c) the matter being voted on relates to development (the development matter) rather than the ordinary operation of the owners corporation.
- (3) If the developer exercises a proxy vote in contravention of this section, the proxy vote is void.
- (4) For this section, a proxy disclosure statement is a statement that includes the following:
  - (a) if a person is appointed as a proxy—the name of the person;
  - (b) if the proxy is appointed by naming the occupant of a position—the name of the position;
  - (c) the length of time of the appointment;
  - (d) a sufficient description of the development matter for the buyer of a unit to easily identify the matter.

3.28 Value of votes

- (1) Every vote at a general meeting is of equal value, unless a poll is taken.
- (2) On a poll, the value of each vote (the voting value) is the value that is proportional to the unit entitlement of the unit for which it is exercised.

3.29 Polls

- (1) A poll may be demanded on an ordinary or special resolution at a general meeting by anyone present and entitled to vote at the meeting.
- (2) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (3) A poll may be taken in any way the chairperson considers appropriate.
- (4) The result of a poll—
  - (a) must be declared at the meeting by the chairperson as soon as it is worked out; and
  - (b) decides whether or not the resolution for which the poll was demanded has been carried.

3.30 Voting by chairperson

At a general meeting, the chairperson may (whether or not a poll is demanded)—

- (a) exercise a deliberative vote as a member; and
- (b) if there is an equality of votes—also exercise a casting vote, unless the owners corporation has only 2 members.

3.31 Absentee votes

- (1) A person entitled to vote on a motion may cast an absentee vote on the motion by recording the vote on an absentee voting paper and giving it to the owners corporation before the meeting begins.

Note An absentee voting form must accompany the notice of general meeting (see s 3.7 (2) (b)).

- (2) The absentee voting paper must be in the form approved by the executive committee.
- (3) An absentee vote under this section is a valid vote.

- (4) A person who casts an absentee vote under this section is taken to be present at the general meeting at which the motion is moved (except for the purposes of making up a quorum) and to have voted on the resolution.

3.31A Alternative voting mechanism

- (1) An owners corporation may, by resolution passed at a general meeting, agree to a way of voting on a matter, or a class of matters, to be decided by the owners corporation.

3.32 People under 18 or under other legal disabilities

- (1) The right of a person to vote at a general meeting must not be exercised by the person if—
- (a) the person is under 18 years old; or
  - (b) the person is under any other legal disability preventing the person from dealing with the person's property.
- (2) The right to vote of an incapacitated person (under subsection (1)) may be exercised—
- (a) if the person is under 18 years old—by the person's parent or guardian; or
  - (b) if the person is under any other legal disability—by a person for the time being authorised by law to control the person's property.

3.33 Declaration by chairperson of result of voting

- (1) A declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that a motion has been passed is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded against or in favour of the motion.

6 Expired transitional or validating provisions

This Act may be affected by transitional or validating provisions that have expired. The expiry does not affect any continuing operation of the provisions (see Legislation Act 2001, s 88 (1)).

Expired provisions are removed from the republished law when the expiry takes effect and are listed in the amendment history using the abbreviation ‘exp’ followed by the date of the expiry.

To find the expired provisions see the version of this Act before the expiry took effect. The ACT legislation register has point-in-time versions of this Act.
