Attorney-General

LIQUOR AMENDMENT BILL 2000

This Bill provides for amendments to the Liquor Act 1975 which would permit the making of a regulation that would restrict holders of liquor licenses under sections 45, 47, 48 and 49 of the Act to sell liquor, or liquor of a prescribed kind, in a container of a kind prescribed under the regulations at specified times of the year.

Notes on Clauses

Clause 1     Short Title

This clause explains that when the Bill becomes an Act, it will be known as the Liquor Amendment Act 2000

Clause 2     Commencement

The amendments will commence on notification of the making of this Act in the Gazette.

Clause 3     Act amended –

This clause amends the Liquor Act 1975.

Clause 4 – 7     Licences

These clauses amend sections 45 (General licences), 47 (Off licences), 48 (Club licences) and 49 (Special licences) by adding a subsection which provides that the regulations which will be made pursuant to the new legislation may provide that a licence does not authorise the licensee to sell liquor, or liquor of a prescribed kind, in a container of a prescribed kind within a prescribed period.
