

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

Gungahlin Drive Extension Declaration 2004 (No 1)

Disallowable Instrument DI2004-153

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Overview

Parts of the Gungahlin Drive Extension project (GDE) to be constructed are in an area of reserved land.

Section 6A of the Gungahlin Drive Extension Authorisation Act 2004 states that the Minister may, in writing, declare that land which is or may be reserved land to be not reserved land, and if the Minister makes such a declaration that land ceases to be a reserved area. It also states that if the Minister makes such a declaration, the Minister may, in writing, state the purposes for which the land may be used under the Territory plan.

Such a declaration is a disallowable instrument.
