Outline

The Boxing Control Act 1993 ("the Act") provides a legislative regime to regulate the conduct of amateur and professional boxing in the Australian Capital Territory. The Act provides that regulations may be made to exempt certain boxing contests from the application of the Act. The Boxing Control Regulations ("the Regulations") lists certain boxing contests that have been exempted.

The Boxing Control Regulations (Amendment) will amend the Regulations by specifying two contests that will be exempt from the application of the Act.

Revenue/Cost Implications

The regulation has no revenue or cost implications.

Detail of Amending Regulation

Clause 1 refers to the commencement date of the regulation. The regulation will commence on 19 August 1995.
