

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

MOTOR TRAFFIC (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE (No. 3) 1986

No. 341986

The Motor Traffic (Amendment) Ordinance (No.3) 1986 ("the Amending Ordinance") amends the Motor Traffic Ordinance 1936 ("the Principal Ordinance") to enable persons employed by Australia Post to ride low-powered motor cycles on footpaths whilst delivering postal articles.

The Amending Ordinance will provide a safer working environment for those persons employed by Australia Post to deliver mail without creating any hazard for the public at large.

Details of the Amending Ordinance are set out in the Attachment.
