

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY.

MOTOR TRAFFIC ORDINANCE 1958.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

No. 10 of 1958

Provision for short term registrations (of less than twelve months' duration) was included in the Motor Traffic Ordinance in 1927. A surcharge of 5/- was added to the normal registration fee for these shorter periods.

The surcharge of 5/- falls far short of the cost of providing the service and so by this Ordinance, which amends section 52 of the Motor Traffic Ordinance, it is increased to 15/-.

Sub-section (3) of section 52 is amended also by the omission of reference to the forms in the First Schedule. This Schedule was repealed by the Motor Traffic Ordinance 1956.
