COMMONWEALTH MOTOR OMNIBUS SERVICES ORDINANCE 1955

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

No. 12 of 1955

This Ordinance authorises the establishment, maintenance and conduct of the Canberra motor omnibus service.

A limitation on the liability of the Commonwealth arising out of the operation of a motor omnibus service, is contained in the Transportation By-laws made under the Seat of Government (Administration Act) 1910-1947. The By-laws are to be repealed and a provision dealing with such a limitation is included in this Ordinance.

Power is given to make regulations covering fares, the conduct of drivers and conductors and the conditions under which passengers are carried.
