  - "conductor" means a conductor of an omnibus, and includes a driver of an omnibus on which no conductor is employed;
  - "holiday" means—
    - (a) a day that is observed, by virtue of sub-section (1.) or (2.) of section seventy-six of the Public Service Act 1922-1955, as a holiday for officers of the Public Service of the Commonwealth employed in the Territory;
    - (b) the first Monday in the month of October in any year; or
    - (c) a day proclaimed by an Ordinance to be a holiday in the Territory, without restriction as to the classes of persons by whom it is to be observed;
  - "inspector" means an inspector appointed under section 5 of the Commonwealth Motor Omnibus Services Ordinance 1955;
  - "journey" means a journey in an omnibus;
  - "motor omnibus" or "omnibus" means a motor omnibus employed in a Commonwealth motor omnibus service;
  - "omnibus stop" means a stopping-place for omnibuses indicated by a shed, post, sign or notice erected, placed or marked at the side of a road;
  - "road" includes a street, lane or other thoroughfare used by omnibuses;

* Notified in the Commonwealth Gazette on 26th July, 1956.

“school child” means a person under the age of eighteen years who is attending school, but does not include a person who has attained the age of fourteen years and is attending school on a part-time basis only;

“section stop” means an omnibus stop at or near a location specified in the First Schedule to these Regulations, being an omnibus stop indicated by a shed, post, sign or notice on which there is painted or marked, by authority of the Minister, the word “section”;

“the City Area” has the same meaning as in the City Area Leases Ordinance 1936-1951;

“the full fare”, in relation to a journey, means the fare prescribed by regulation 4 or 5 of these Regulations, as the case may be, in respect of the journey;

“the Transport Manager” means the person occupying the office of Transport Manager in the Transport Section of the Australian Capital Territory Services Branch of the Department of the Interior.

Fares on routes
within City Area.

4.—(1.) Subject to these Regulations, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a passenger in an omnibus, being a journey on a route that does not extend beyond the City Area, is—

- (a) where the journey consists of one section—Sixpence;
- (b) where the journey consists of more than one section but not more than four sections—Sixpence plus Twopence for each section in excess of one; and
- (c) where the journey consists of more than four sections—One shilling plus One penny for each section in excess of four.

(2.) For the purposes of these Regulations, the number of sections of which such a journey in an omnibus consists is—

- (a) where the omnibus does not, during the journey, pass any section stop, being an omnibus stop for the purposes of omnibuses travelling in the direction in which the journey proceeds—one; and
- (b) in any other case—the number of such section stops passed by the omnibus during the journey, plus one.

(3.) Where a passenger commences or ends a journey at a section stop, that section stop shall not be taken into account in determining the number of sections of which the journey consists.

(4.) Where a passenger commences a journey on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the fare to be charged in respect of the journey is the amount to be charged under sub-regulation (1.) of this regulation plus One penny.

Fares on routes
City Area.

5.—(1.) Subject to these Regulations, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a passenger in a motor omnibus on a route that extends beyond the City Area, being a journey from a place in the City Area to a place outside the City Area specified in the first column of the Second Schedule to these Regulations, or from a place so specified to a place in the City Area, is the amount shown in the second column of that Schedule opposite to the name of the place so specified.

(2.) Where a passenger commences such a journey on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the fare to be charged in respect of the journey is the amount to be charged under the last preceding sub-regulation plus One penny.

6.—(1.) Subject to this regulation, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a child is one-half of the full fare in respect of the journey or, if the full fare in respect of the journey is not an even number of pence, one-half of the amount ascertained by deducting One penny from the full fare. Children's fares.

(2.) The fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a child when travelling to or from Sunday-school or a Church service is One penny, irrespective of the length of the journey.

(3.) The fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a school child when travelling from his home to school, or from school to his home, in an omnibus provided specially for school children travelling to or from school is One penny, irrespective of the length of the journey.

(4.) Where an omnibus provided specially for school children travelling to or from school is not available to a school child, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey by that child, when travelling from his home to school, or from school to his home, is One penny, irrespective of the length of the journey.

7. Where on account of floods or other special circumstances an omnibus deviates from its usual route, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a passenger in the omnibus, being a journey that commences and ends at places on the usual route, is the fare that would have been charged if no deviation from that route had occurred. Deviations from routes.

8. For the purposes of these Regulations, where a passenger in an omnibus travels to the terminus of a route and returns on the same omnibus without alighting from it, he shall be deemed to have ended a journey upon the arrival of the omnibus at the terminus and to have commenced another journey upon its departure from the terminus. Journeys to and from terminus.

9.—(1.) Subject to this regulation, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey by a person to whom the full fare would, but for this sub-regulation, be applicable, being a person who is in receipt of an invalid or age pension under the Social Services Act 1947-1955, is one-half of the full fare in respect of the journey or, if the full fare in respect of the journey is not an even number of pence, one-half of the amount ascertained by deducting One penny from the full fare. Concession fares.

(2.) Subject to this regulation, the fare to be charged in respect of a journey to or from the Canberra University College, the Canberra Technical College or a High School by a person to whom the full fare would, but for this sub-regulation, be applicable, being a person who—

(a) is a student under the age of twenty-one years attending a course of study or instruction at that College or High School; and

- (b) is travelling to that College or High School for purposes connected with that course or from that College or High School after attending it for purposes connected with that course, is one-half of the full fare in respect of the journey or, if the full fare in respect of the journey is not an even number of pence, one-half of the amount ascertained by deducting One penny from the the full fare.

(3.) The preceding provisions of this regulation do not apply in relation to a person unless he produces to the conductor and, if so required by an inspector, to the inspector, written evidence, of a kind approved by the Transport Manager, identifying him as a person referred to in sub-regulation (1.) or (2.) of this regulation, as the case requires.

Exemptions.

10.—(1.) Subject to this regulation, but notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 4, 5 or 6 of these Regulations, no fare is chargeable in respect of a journey in an omnibus by—

- (a) a child under the age of five years who is not occupying a seat in the omnibus;
  - (b) a person who is an incapacitated returned soldier; or
  - (c) a member of the Police Force of the Territory, or a person employed in the Transport Section of the Australian Capital Territory Services Branch of the Department of the Interior, while travelling on duty or between his home and a place where he performs duty for the purpose of commencing, or immediately after completing, duty.
- (2.) The last preceding sub-regulation does not apply—

- (a) in relation to a person referred to in paragraph (b) of that sub-regulation, unless he produces to the conductor and, if so required by an inspector, to the inspector, written evidence, of a kind approved by the Transport Manager, identifying him as such a person; or
- (b) in relation to a person referred to in paragraph (c) of that sub-regulation, unless that person is in uniform or produces to the conductor and, if so required by an inspector, to the inspector, written evidence, of a kind approved by the Transport Manager, identifying him as such a person.

(3.) In this regulation, “incapacitated returned soldier” means a person who is in receipt of a pension under the Repatriation Act 1920-1955 in respect of an incapacity, being total incapacity for the purposes of that Act, incapacity of the nature specified in the Fourth Schedule to that Act or such other serious incapacity as the Minister approves for the purposes of this regulation.
