Second-hand Dealers Regulations 2002 No 8

made under the

Second-hand Dealers Act 1906

Republication No 2

Republication date: 3 October 2002

Regulations not amended up to this date

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Second-hand Dealers Regulations 2002, made under the Second-hand Dealers Act 1906 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 3 October 2002. It also includes any commencement, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial amendments

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Second-hand Dealers Regulations 2002

made under the

Second-hand Dealers Act 1906

1 Name of regulations

These regulations are the Second-hand Dealers Regulations 2002.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of these regulations is part of these regulations.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of these regulations defines certain words and expressions used in these regulations, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other words and expressions defined elsewhere in these regulations or in other legislation.

For example, the signpost definition 'credit card—see the Fair Trading Act 1992, section 28 (Unsolicited credit and debit cards).' means that the expression 'credit card' is defined in that section and the definition applies to these regulations.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire regulations unless the definition, or another provision of the regulations, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in these regulations is explanatory and is not part of these regulations.

Note See Legislation Act 2001, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Kinds of second-hand goods—Act, dict, def of second-hand goods

- (1) Goods of the kinds mentioned in schedule 1 are second-hand goods.
- (2) However, goods of the following kinds are not second-hand goods:
 - (a) goods held for sale by a charitable organisation;
 - (b) goods offered for sale by a person (other than a licensed second-hand dealer) at a trash and treasure market;

- (c) goods taken as a trade-in by a person (other than a licensed second-hand dealer) as part of the sale of goods that are not second-hand goods.

(3) In this regulation:

charitable organisation means a body carried on for a religious, educational, benevolent or charitable purpose, other than a body carried on for the financial benefit of its members.

6 Meaning of photo identification document

In these regulations:

photo identification document, for a person, means any of the following kinds of documents issued to the person if the document contains a recent photograph of the person and shows the particulars mentioned in schedule 2, part 2.1, column 3 for the document:

- (a) a current Australian driver licence;
- (b) a current external driver licence written in English;
- (c) a current external driver licence not written in English together with—
 - (i) an international driving permit; or
 - (ii) an official English translation of the licence;
- (d) a current passport written in English;
- (e) a current passport not written in English together with an English translation of the passport;
- (f) a current proof of age card;
- (g) a current Australian student identification card.

7 Meaning of non-photo identification document

In these regulations:

non-photo identification document, for a person, means any of the following documents if the document shows the particulars mentioned in schedule 2, part 2.2, column 3 for the document:

- (a) the person's birth certificate;
- (b) the person's citizenship certificate;
- (c) an extract from the electoral roll;
- (d) a record about land titles;
- (e) a current entitlement card;
- (f) a current credit or debit card issued to the person;
- (g) a document issued by a financial institution;
- (h) a service bill;
- (i) a document issued by the Territory.

8 Making records about goods bought or received—Act, s 6 (1)

- (1) This regulation applies if a second-hand dealer buys, or receives in another way, second-hand goods from a person.
- (2) The dealer must make a record of the following:
 - (a) the date and time when the dealer bought or received the goods from the person;
 - (b) a description of the goods, including colour, any brand name, serial number or other identifiable number and any hallmark, inscription or engraving on the goods;
 - (c) the person's verified full name;
 - (d) the person's home address, home telephone number and date of birth;

- (e) for at least—
 - (i) 1 photo identification document for the person—the kind of document and the required particulars; or
 - (ii) 3 non-photo identification documents for the person, 1 of which must show the person's home address—
 - (A) the required particulars; and
 - (B) for a birth certificate, citizenship certificate or extract from the electoral roll—the kind of document;
- (f) if the goods were bought by the dealer—the amount paid to the person;
- (g) if the goods were received in another way by the dealer—the consideration given to the person for the goods;
- (h) the stock number given to the goods by the dealer.
- (3) For subregulation (2) (c), the person's name is verified only if the person shows the dealer—
 - (a) at least 1 photo identification document for the person; or
 - (b) at least 3 non-photo identification documents that each show the person's name and the name is the same on each document.

9 Making records about goods sold or disposed of—Acts 6 (1)

- (1) This regulation applies if—
 - (a) a second hand-dealer—
 - (i) sells second-hand goods to a person; or
 - (ii) disposes of second-hand goods in another way to a person; or
 - (iii) disposes of second-hand goods other than to a person; and

- (b) the value of the second-hand goods is more than $50.
- (2) The dealer must make a record of the following:
 - (a) the date and time when the dealer sold or disposed of the goods;
 - (b) the person's full name and home address or, if the goods were disposed of other than to a person, details of how the goods were disposed of;
 - (c) the stock number given to the goods by the dealer.

10 Making records—certain goods bought by second-hand dealers—Act, s 6 (1)

- (1) This regulation applies if—
 - (a) a second-hand dealer buys goods of a kind mentioned in regulation 5 (2) (a) or (b); and
 - (b) the dealer buys the goods for the purpose of selling, or disposing of, them to someone else.
- (2) The dealer must make a record of the following:
 - (a) the date and time when, and place where, the dealer bought the goods;
 - (b) a description of the goods, including colour, any brand name, serial number or other identifiable number and any hallmark, inscription or engraving on the goods;
 - (c) the amount paid for the goods;
 - (d) the stock number given to the goods by the dealer.
- (3) If the goods are sold or disposed of to someone else, the dealer must make a record of the following if the value of the goods is more than $50:
 - (a) the date and time that the dealer sold or disposed of the goods;
 - (b) the other person's full name and home address;

- (c) the stock number given to the goods by the dealer.

11 Keeping records—Act, s 6 (2)

- (1) A licensed second-hand dealer must keep records mentioned in regulation 8, 9 or 10 in such a way that transactions may be identified on both the basis of the date of the transaction and the kind of goods.
- (2) The chief police officer may, in writing, issue directions to licensed second-hand dealers about the keeping of records.
- (3) A direction is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (4) If a direction is issued, the chief police officer must also publish a notice of the issuing of the direction in a daily newspaper published and circulating in the ACT.
- (5) Subregulations (3) and (4) do not apply if the direction is addressed only to a licensed second-hand dealer named in the direction.

Note A direction addressed to a licensed second-hand dealer named in the direction must be given to the dealer in accordance with the Legislation Act 2001, pt 18.5 (Service of documents).

12 Giving records to the police—Act, s 6 (3)

- (1) The chief police officer may, in writing, issue directions to licensed second-hand dealers about the records that must be given and the giving of those records to the police.
- (2) A direction is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (3) If a direction is issued, the chief police officer must also publish a notice of the issuing of the direction in a daily newspaper published and circulating in the ACT.

- (4) Subregulations (2) and (3) do not apply if the direction is addressed only to a licensed second-hand dealer named in the direction.

Note A direction addressed to a licensed second-hand dealer named in the direction must be given to the dealer in accordance with the Legislation Act 2001, pt 18.5 (Service of documents).

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.
