Executive Documents Release Act 2001 (repealed)

A2001-53

Republication No 5

Effective: 26 November 2010

Republication date: 26 November 2010

As repealed by A2010-48 s 29

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Executive Documents Release Act 2001 (repealed) (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)). It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 26 November 2010.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $110 for an individual and $550 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Executive Documents Release Act 2001 (repealed)

An Act to require the publication of certain executive documents

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Executive Documents Release Act 2001.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition ‘release restraint determination—see section 8 (2).’ means that the term ‘release restraint determination’ is defined in that subsection.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory, and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Application to previous executive documents

This Act applies to an executive document even if its submission day was before this Act commenced.

6 List of released executive documents must be published

- (1) The chief executive must arrange for a list of all accessible executive documents to be available to the public, without charge, in printed and in electronic form.

Example

To make the list available to the public in electronic form, the chief executive might make an electronic copy of the list available on a website.

Note 1 An executive document becomes an accessible executive document on its earliest release day (see dict, defs of accessible executive document and earliest release day).

Note 2 An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

- (2) The chief executive must also arrange for any release restraint determination to be listed in relation to the relevant executive document while the determination is in force.
- (3) The entry on the list for any release restraint determination must include a notice in accordance with a reviewable decision notice.

7 Availability of released documents

- (1) On request by a person, the chief executive must, without charge, give the person a copy of an accessible executive document as soon as practicable after receiving the request, unless—
 - (a) the chief executive has decided, or decides, to make a release restraint determination about the document (see section 8 (Release delayed or denied)); and
 - (b) the release restraint determination is in force.

- (2) If a release restraint determination about the document is in force, the chief executive must, without charge—
 - (a) for any part of the document to which the determination does not apply—give the person a copy of the part as soon as practicable after receiving the request; and
 - (b) for any part of the document to which the determination applies—
 - (i) if the request is made before the later release day for the part—refuse the request; or
 - (ii) if the request is made on or after the later release day for the part—give the person a copy of the part as soon as practicable after receiving the request.
- (3) However, the chief executive must refuse a request for a copy of a part of a document if—
 - (a) a release restraint determination is in force determining the part to contain protected private information; and
 - (b) the determination provides that the part is not to be released at all.
- (4) Despite subsections (2) (b) (i) and (3), the chief executive must give a person a copy of a part of the document as soon as practicable after receiving the request if—
 - (a) a release restraint determination is in force determining the part to contain protected private information; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the protected private information relates to that person, and that person only; or

- (ii) if the person to which the information relates is dead—the person requesting the copy is the dead person’s legal personal representative.

Example

If the protected private information relates to a number of people, and is made jointly by all those people, or by a person with the authority of all those people, subsection (4) (b) would apply to allow the request to be granted.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

- (5) If the chief executive has made a release restraint determination about the document that is in force, the chief executive must (whether or not the chief executive gives the person a copy of any part of the document), as soon as practicable after receiving the request, give the person—
 - (a) a copy of the determination; and
 - (b) if the determination was made after the request was received—a copy of the notice about the determination mentioned in section 6 (3).

8 Release delayed or denied

- (1) Before giving a copy of an accessible executive document to a person under section 7, the chief executive must assess whether it contains information that would, at the time of the assessment, make it an exempt document under the Freedom of Information Act 1989, part 4 (Exempt documents), other than section 35 (Executive documents).
- (2) The chief executive may (by a release restraint determination) determine—
 - (a) that any part of the document containing the information is only to be released on or after the later release day; or

- (b) for any information (protected private information) that would, at the time of the assessment, make it an exempt document under the Freedom of Information Act 1989, section 41 (Documents affecting personal privacy)—
 - (i) that the part containing the information is only to be released on or after the later release day; or
 - (ii) that the part containing the information is not to be released at all.
- (3) The determination must state the reasons for making the determination.
- (4) Unless the determination states that the relevant part of the document is not to be released at all (see subsection (2) (b) (ii)), it—
 - (a) may determine a day for subsection (7) (a), by stating a particular day or providing a way of working out the day; and
 - (b) must explain how the later release day for the document is worked out under subsection (7).
- (5) A copy of the determination must be kept with the document.
- (6) The determination commences on the day it is made.
- (7) The later release day for a part of the document is the earliest of the following:
 - (a) the determined day (if any) under subsection (4) (a);
 - (b) the day 5 years after the document's earliest release day;
 - (c) the next 1 July after the end of 20 years after the document's submission day;

- (d) if the determination ceases to be in force—the day it ceases to be in force.

Note The chief executive may, by instrument, change or revoke a release restraint determination at any time after its making. The power to change or revoke the determination is exercisable in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as the power to make the determination. (See Legislation Act, s 46.)

9 Freedom of Information Act access not prevented

The Act must not be interpreted as restricting any right of access to information under the Freedom of Information Act 1989.

10 Review by ACAT

- (1) A person whose interest are affected by a release restraint determination may apply to the ACAT for review of the determination.

Note If a form is approved under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008 for the application, the form must be used.

- (2) The chief executive must give notice of a release restraint determination to each person whose interests are affected by the determination.

- (3) The notice must be in accordance with a reviewable decision notice.

Note The requirements for reviewable decision notices are prescribed under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008.

11 No liability for complying with Act

The Territory is not liable to any person for anything done honestly to comply with this Act.

12 Regulation-making power

The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note A regulation must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

Dictionary

(see s 3)

Note 1 The Legislation Act contains definitions and other provisions relevant to this Act.

Note 2 For example, the Legislation Act, dict, pt 1, defines the following terms:

- ACAT
- chief executive
- document
- Executive
- reviewable decision notice
- Speaker
- the Territory.

accessible executive document means an executive document (or part of an executive document) on or after its earliest release day.

Assembly means the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly nominated by the Speaker for this Act.

earliest release day, for an executive document, means the later of the following days:

- (a) the next 1 July after the end of 10 years after the document's submission day;
- (b) 1 July 2001.

Example

If an executive document's submission day was 1 May 1997, its earliest release day is 1 July 2007.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

Executive includes a committee of the Executive.

executive document means—

- (a) an official record of a meeting of the Executive; or
- (b) a document that was—
 - (i) formally submitted by a Minister to a meeting of the Executive for its consideration in relation to a matter on the official record; and
 - (ii) created for that purpose; or
- (c) part of a document mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

later release day—see section 8 (7) (Release delayed or denied).

protected private information—see section 8 (2) (b).

release restraint determination—see section 8 (2).

submission day, of an executive document, means the day of the meeting of the Executive to which the document relates.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.
