the action shall be deemed to be taken, for the purposes of this Ordinance, by the Department responsible for dealing with the matter in connection with which the action is taken.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), where a person is authorised to exercise a power or perform a function because the person holds an appointment made by, or because of authority given by, the Executive, a Minister, the Head of Administration or an Associate Head of Administration otherwise than under an enactment, the regulations may provide that action taken by the person in the exercise of that power or the performance of that function shall not be deemed to be taken, for the purposes of this Ordinance, by the Department responsible for dealing with the matter in connection with which the action is taken.

(6) For the purposes of this Ordinance, action that is taken by an officer of a Department shall be deemed to be taken by the Department—

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), where the regulations provide that the person holding, or performing the duties of, an office established by an enactment is not a prescribed authority for the purposes of this Ordinance, the regulations may also provide that action taken by an officer of a Department, being action in the furtherance of the duties of that office, shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed not to be action taken by that Department.

(8) For the purposes of this Ordinance, action that is taken by an officer of a prescribed authority shall be deemed to be taken by the authority—

PART II—ESTABLISHMENT, FUNCTIONS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE OMBUDSMAN

Division 1—Establishment and Functions

Establishment of office of Ombudsman

4. (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, there shall be an Australian Capital Territory Ombudsman.

(2) The functions of the Ombudsman are to investigate complaints made under this Ordinance and to perform such other functions as are conferred by this Ordinance.

Functions of Ombudsman

5. (1) Subject to this Ordinance, the Ombudsman—

(a) shall investigate action that relates to a matter of administration, being action—

- (i) taken after the commencement of this Ordinance by an agency and in respect of which a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman;
- (ii) in respect of which a complaint is transferred to the Ombudsman under section 28 of the A.C.T. Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 of the Commonwealth; or
- (iii) taken before the commencement of this Ordinance and in respect of which a complaint is made to the Ombudsman after that commencement in a case where, if that complaint had been made to the Commonwealth Ombudsman before that commencement, that complaint would have been transferred to the Ombudsman under section 28 of the A.C.T. Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 of the Commonwealth; and

(b) may, of his or her own motion, investigate action of that kind.

(2) The Ombudsman is not authorised to investigate—

- (a) action taken by a Minister;
- (b) action taken by a judge of a court;
- (c) action taken by a magistrate or coroner for the Territory;

- (d) action taken by any body or person with respect to persons employed in the Public Service or the service of a prescribed authority (including persons who are members of the transitional staff within the meaning of the A.C.T. Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 of the Commonwealth), being action taken in relation to the employment of those persons, including action taken with respect to the promotion, termination of appointment or discipline of, or the payment of remuneration to, those persons; or
- (e) action taken by an agency with respect to the appointment of a person to an office established by or under an enactment, not being an office in the Public Service or an office in the service of a prescribed authority.

(3) The reference in paragraph (2) (a) to action taken by a Minister does not include a reference to action taken by a delegate of a Minister.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), action shall be deemed to have been taken by a delegate of a Minister notwithstanding that the action is taken under a power that is deemed by a provision of an enactment, when exercised by the delegate, to have been exercised by the Minister.

(5) For the purposes of the application of this Ordinance in relation to the Ombudsman, action taken by an agency shall not be regarded as having been taken by a Minister only because the action was taken by the agency in relation to action taken or to be taken by a Minister personally.

Discretion not to investigate certain complaints

6. (1) Where a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency, the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action or, if investigation has commenced, decide not to investigate the action further—

- (a) if the Ombudsman is satisfied that the complainant became aware of the action more than 12 months before the complaint was made to the Ombudsman; or
- (b) if, in the opinion of the Ombudsman—
  - (i) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or was not made in good faith;
  - (ii) the complainant does not have a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the complaint; or

- (iii) an investigation, or further investigation, of the action is not warranted having regard to all the circumstances.

(2) Where a person who makes a complaint to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency has not complained to the agency with respect to that action, the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action until the complainant so complains to the agency.

(3) Where a person who makes a complaint to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency has complained to the agency with respect to that action, the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action unless the complainant informs the Ombudsman that no redress has been granted or that redress has been granted but the redress is not, in the opinion of the complainant, adequate.

(4) Where—

- (a) a person who has made a complaint to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency and who has complained to the agency with respect to that action informs the Ombudsman as provided by subsection (3) that no redress, or no adequate redress, has been granted by the agency; and
- (b) the Ombudsman is of the opinion—
  - (i) if no redress has been granted—that, since the complainant complained to the agency, a reasonable period has elapsed in which redress could have been granted; or
  - (ii) if redress has been granted—that the redress was not reasonably adequate;

the Ombudsman shall, subject to this section, investigate the action.

(5) Where a complainant has caused or causes action to which his or her complaint relates to be reviewed by a court, or by a tribunal constituted by or under an enactment, the Ombudsman shall not investigate, or continue to investigate, the action unless the Ombudsman is of the opinion that there are special reasons justifying the investigation or the continued investigation.

(6) Where the Ombudsman is of the opinion that a complainant has or had a right to cause the action to which the complaint relates to be reviewed by a court, or by a tribunal constituted by or under an enactment, but has not exercised that right, the Ombudsman may decide not to investigate the action or not to investigate the action further, if he or she is of the opinion that, in all the circumstances, it would be reasonable for the complainant to exercise, or would have been reasonable for the complainant to have exercised, that right.

(7) Where, before the Ombudsman commences, or after the Ombudsman has commenced, to investigate action taken by an agency, being action that is the subject matter of a complaint, the Ombudsman forms the opinion that adequate provision is made under an administrative practice for the review of action of that kind, the Ombudsman may decide not to investigate the action or not to investigate the action further—

- (a) if the action has been, is being or is to be reviewed under that practice at the request of the complainant; or
- (b) if the Ombudsman is satisfied that the complainant is entitled to cause the action to be reviewed under that practice and it would be reasonable for the complainant to cause it to be so reviewed.

(8) Where a complaint is made to the Ombudsman by a complainant at the request of another person or of a body of persons, this section applies as if references to the complainant were references to the person or the body of persons at whose request the complaint is made.

Complaints

7. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a complaint under this Ordinance may be made to the Ombudsman orally or in writing.

(2) Where a complaint is made orally to the Ombudsman, the Ombudsman may put the complaint in writing or at any time require the complainant to put the complaint in writing and, where the Ombudsman makes such a requirement of a complainant, the Ombudsman may decline to investigate the complaint, or to investigate the complaint further, until the complainant complies with the requirement.

(3) A person who is detained in custody is entitled—

- (a) upon making a request to the person in whose custody he or she is detained or to any other person performing duties in connection with the detention (in this section called the “custodian”)—
  - (i) to be provided with facilities for preparing a complaint in writing under this Ordinance, for giving in writing to the Ombudsman, after the complaint has been made, any other relevant information and for enclosing the complaint or the other information (if any) in a sealed envelope; and

- (ii) to have sent to the Ombudsman, without undue delay, a sealed envelope addressed to the Ombudsman and delivered by the person in custody to the custodian; and
  - (b) to have delivered to him or her, without undue delay, any sealed envelope addressed to him or her and sent by the Ombudsman, that comes into the possession or under the control of the custodian.
- (4) Where—
- (a) a sealed envelope addressed to the Ombudsman is delivered by a person detained in custody to the custodian for sending to the Ombudsman; or
  - (b) a sealed envelope addressed to a person so detained and sent by the Ombudsman comes into the possession or under the control of the custodian;

the custodian is not entitled to open the envelope or to inspect any document enclosed in the envelope.

(5) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4), the Ombudsman may make arrangements with the appropriate authority of the Commonwealth or of a State or a Territory for the identification and delivery of sealed envelopes sent by the Ombudsman to persons detained in custody.

Preliminary inquiries

8. (1) Where a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency, or it appears to the Ombudsman that the Ombudsman may under paragraph 5 (1) (b) investigate action so taken, the Ombudsman may, for the purpose of—

- (a) determining whether or not the Ombudsman is authorised to investigate the action; or
- (b) if the Ombudsman is authorised to investigate the action—determining whether or not the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action;

make inquiries of the principal officer of the agency or, if an arrangement with the principal officer of the agency is in force under subsection (2), of such officers as are referred to in the arrangement.

(2) The Ombudsman may from time to time make an arrangement with the principal officer of an agency with respect to the officers of whom all inquiries, or particular inquiries, are to be made by the Ombudsman under subsection (1) with respect to action taken by the agency.

Investigations

9. (1) The Ombudsman shall, before commencing an investigation under this Ordinance of action taken by an agency, inform the principal officer of the agency that the action is to be investigated.

(2) The Ombudsman may from time to time make an arrangement with the principal officer of an agency with respect to the manner in which, and the period within which, the Ombudsman is to inform the principal officer that he or she proposes to investigate action taken by the agency, being action to which the arrangement relates.

(3) An investigation under this Ordinance shall be conducted in private and, subject to this Ordinance, in such manner as the Ombudsman thinks fit.

(4) Subject to this Ordinance, the Ombudsman may, for the purposes of this Ordinance, obtain information from such persons, and make such inquiries, as he or she thinks fit.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), it is not necessary for the complainant or any other person to be afforded an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or any other person in connection with an investigation by the Ombudsman under this Ordinance.

(6) The Ombudsman shall not make a report in respect of an investigation under this Ordinance in which he or she sets out opinions that are, either expressly or impliedly, critical of an agency or person unless, before completing the investigation, the Ombudsman has—

- (a) if the opinions relate to an agency—given the principal officer of the agency and the officer principally concerned in the action to which the investigation relates opportunities to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person, and to make such submissions, either orally or in writing, in relation to that action as they think fit; and
- (b) if the opinions relate to a person—given that person an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person, and to make such submissions, either orally or in writing, in relation to the action to which the investigation relates as the person thinks fit.

(7) Where the Ombudsman gives the principal officer of an agency an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person under subsection (6), the principal officer may appear in person or a person authorised by the principal officer may appear on behalf of the principal officer.

(8) Where the Ombudsman gives a person other than the principal officer of an agency an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person under subsection (6), the person may, with the approval of the Ombudsman or of the authorised person, as the case may be, be represented by another person.

(9) Where, in relation to an investigation under this Ordinance, the Ombudsman proposes to give a person an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person and to make submissions under subsection (6), or proposes to make a requirement of a person under section 11—

- (a) if a complaint was made orally with respect to the action and the complaint has not been put in writing—the complaint shall be put in writing; and
- (b) the Ombudsman shall, if he or she has not previously informed the responsible Minister that the action is being investigated, inform that Minister accordingly.

(10) The Ombudsman may, either before or after the completion of an investigation under this Ordinance, discuss any matter that is relevant to the investigation with a Minister concerned with the matter.

(11) On the request of the responsible Minister, the Ombudsman shall consult that Minister before forming a final opinion on any of the matters referred to in subsection 18 (1) or (2) that are relevant to the action under investigation.

(12) Where the Ombudsman becomes of the opinion, either before or after completing an investigation under this Ordinance, that there is evidence that a person, being an officer of an agency, has been guilty of a breach of duty or of misconduct and that the evidence is, in all the circumstances, of sufficient force to justify doing so, the Ombudsman shall bring the evidence to the notice of—

- (a) in the case of a Department—
  - (i) if the person is the principal officer of the Department and is also the Head of Administration—the responsible Minister of the Department;

- (ii) if the person is the principal officer of the Department and is also an Associate Head of Administration—the Head of Administration; or
  - (iii) if the person is a member of the Department but is not the principal officer of the Department—the principal officer of the Department; or
- (b) in the case of a prescribed authority—
- (i) if the person is the principal officer of the authority—the responsible Minister of the authority; or
  - (ii) if the person is not the principal officer of the authority—the principal officer of the authority.

Arrangements with another Ombudsman

10. (1) The Ombudsman may make an arrangement in writing with the Commonwealth Ombudsman, the Ombudsman of a State, or 2 or more of them, in relation to the investigation by any 1 or more of them of action that relates to a matter of administration referred to in any of the following paragraphs:

- (a) action taken by an agency and action taken by a Department of State of the Commonwealth, a Department of a State or an authority of the Commonwealth or of a State;
- (b) action taken by an authority or other agency established or administered jointly by the Territory and the Commonwealth, the Territory and 1 or more States or the Territory, the Commonwealth and 1 or more States;
- (c) action taken by an authority or other agency referred to in paragraph (b) and action taken by—
  - (i) an agency; or
  - (ii) a Department of State of the Commonwealth, a Department of a State or an authority of the Commonwealth or of a State.

(2) A reference in subsection (1) to action taken by an agency or other authority includes a reference to action taken by such an agency or authority on behalf of another body.

(3) The Ombudsman may arrange in writing with another Ombudsman with whom such an arrangement is in force for the variation or revocation of the arrangement.

(4) The regulations may make provision in relation to the participation by the Ombudsman in the carrying out of an investigation under an arrangement under this section.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the powers and duties of the Ombudsman under any other provision of this Ordinance.

(6) Subsection (1) does not empower the Ombudsman—

- (a) to exercise any of the powers of the Commonwealth Ombudsman or the Ombudsman of a State except in accordance with subsection 32 (3); or
- (b) to make an arrangement for the exercise by the Commonwealth Ombudsman or the Ombudsman of a State of a power of the Ombudsman except in accordance with an instrument of delegation referred to in subsection 32 (1).

Power to obtain information and documents

11. (1) Where the Ombudsman has reason to believe that a person is capable of providing information or producing documents or other records relevant to an investigation under this Ordinance, the Ombudsman may, by notice in writing served on the person, require the person, at such place, and within such period or on such day and at such time, as are specified in the notice—

- (a) to provide to the Ombudsman, by writing signed by that person or, in the case of a body corporate, by an officer of the body corporate, any such information;
- (b) to produce to the Ombudsman such documents or other records as are specified in the notice; or
- (c) to provide to the Ombudsman any such information and to produce to the Ombudsman such documents or other records as are specified in the notice.

(2) Where the Ombudsman has reason to believe that an officer of an agency is capable of providing information or producing documents or other records relevant to an investigation under this Ordinance or both providing information and producing documents or other records of that kind, but the Ombudsman does not know the identity of the officer, the Ombudsman may, by notice in writing served on the principal officer of the agency, require the principal officer or a person nominated by the principal officer, at such place, and within such period or on such day and at such time, as are specified in the notice—

- (a) to attend before a person specified in the notice to answer questions relevant to the investigation;
- (b) to produce to a person specified in the notice such documents or other records as are so specified; or
- (c) to attend before a person so specified to answer questions of that kind and to produce to a person so specified such documents or other records as are so specified.

(3) Where documents or other records are produced to the Ombudsman in accordance with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2) or an order under subsection 14 (2), the Ombudsman—

- (a) may take possession of, and may make copies of, or take extracts from, the documents or other records;
- (b) may retain possession of the documents or other records for such period as is necessary for the purposes of the investigation to which the documents or other records relate; and
- (c) during that period shall permit a person who would be entitled to inspect any 1 or more of the documents or other records if they were not in the possession of the Ombudsman to inspect at all reasonable times such of the documents or other records as that person would be so entitled to inspect.

(4) Where the Ombudsman has reason to believe that a person is able to give information relevant to an investigation under this Ordinance, the Ombudsman may, by notice in writing served on the person, require the person to attend before a person specified in the notice, on such day and at such time and place as are specified in the notice, to answer questions relevant to the investigation.

(5) Where the Minister certifies in writing that the disclosure to the Ombudsman of information concerning a specified matter (including the providing of information in answer to a question) or the disclosure to the Ombudsman of the contents of any documents or records would be contrary to the public interest—

- (a) because it would involve the disclosure of communications between a Minister and a Commonwealth Minister or a Minister of a State or of a Territory, being a disclosure that would prejudice relations between the Territory and the Commonwealth, between the Territory and a State or between the Territory and another Territory, as the case may be; or

- (b) because it would involve the disclosure of deliberations or decisions of the Executive or of a Committee of the Executive;

the Ombudsman is not entitled to require a person to provide any information concerning the matter, to answer questions concerning the matter or to produce those documents or records to the Ombudsman.

(6) Where the Commonwealth Attorney-General certifies in writing that the disclosure to the Ombudsman of information concerning a specified matter (including the providing of information in answer to a question) or the disclosure to the Ombudsman of the contents of any documents or records would be contrary to the public interest—

- (a) because it would prejudice the security, defence or international relations of the Commonwealth;
- (b) because it would involve the disclosure of communications between a Commonwealth Minister and a Minister of a State or of a Territory, being a disclosure that would prejudice relations between the Commonwealth Government and the Government of a State or of a Territory, as the case may be; or
- (c) because it would involve the disclosure of deliberations or decisions of the Commonwealth Cabinet or of a Committee of the Cabinet;

the Ombudsman is not entitled to require a person to provide any information concerning the matter, to answer questions concerning the matter or to produce those documents or records to the Ombudsman.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment, a person is not excused from providing any information, producing a document or other record or answering a question when required to do so under this Ordinance on the ground that the providing of the information, the production of the document or record or the answer to the question—

- (a) would contravene the provisions of any other enactment, would be contrary to the public interest or might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty; or
- (b) would disclose legal advice provided to a Minister or an agency;

but the information, the production of the document or record or the answer to the question is not admissible in evidence against the person in proceedings other than—

- (c) an application under subsection 14 (2); or
- (d) proceedings for an offence against section 35.

(8) A person is not liable to any penalty under the provisions of any other enactment because of the person having furnished information, produced a document or other record or answered a question when required to do so under this Ordinance.

(9) The reference in subsection (1) to an officer, in relation to a body corporate, being a body corporate that is not a prescribed authority, includes a reference to a director, secretary, executive officer or employee of the body corporate.

Unreasonable delay in exercising power

12. (1) Where—

- (a) under an enactment, a person has a power to do an act or thing in the exercise of a discretion or otherwise;
- (b) no enactment prescribes a period within which the person is required to do or refuse to do the act or thing;
- (c) under an enactment, an application may be made to a prescribed tribunal for the review of decisions made in the exercise of that power; and
- (d) a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman concerning a failure to do the act or thing in the exercise of that power;

the Ombudsman may, after investigating the complaint, if he or she is of the opinion that there has been unreasonable delay in deciding whether to do the act or thing, give to the complainant a certificate certifying that, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, there has been unreasonable delay in deciding whether to do the act or thing.
