Production of subpoena or copy of it and documents or things by delivery or post

- 5 If this subpoena requires you to produce this subpoena or a copy of it and a document or thing, instead of attending to produce the subpoena or a copy of it and the document or thing, you may comply with the subpoena by delivering or sending the subpoena or a copy of it and the document or thing to the Registrar (or, for an arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Act 2017, the arbitral tribunal) at the address stated for the purpose in the subpoena so that they are received not less than 2 days before the date stated in the subpoena for attendance and production or, if you are given notice under rule 6603A, before the later date stated in the notice.

- 8 If the material you produce to the Court is or includes any original document, the Court will return all of the material to you. You must complete the declaration which is attached to this subpoena and specify your address for return of this material. If you have elected to produce copies of any subpoenaed documents and declare this when completing your declaration, those copies will be destroyed, without further notice, 4 months after the conclusion of the proceeding or, if the documents become exhibits in the proceeding, when they are no longer required in connection with the proceeding, including on any appeal.

Production of a number of documents or things

Production of copy instead of original

 - (c) in any other electronic form that the issuing party has indicated will be acceptable.

 - (b) for an order in relation to your claim for privilege, public interest immunity or confidentiality in relation to any document or thing the subject of the subpoena.

Loss or expense of compliance

- 13 If you are not a party to the proceeding or arbitration, you may apply to the Court for an order that the issuing party pay (in addition to any conduct money and any witness expenses) the amount of any reasonable loss or expense, including legal costs, incurred in complying with this subpoena.

Contempt of court

- 14 Failure to comply with a subpoena without lawful excuse is a contempt of court and may be dealt with accordingly.
