Notice to addressee

The addressee is the person to whom the subpoena is addressed, and who will be the recipient of the subpoena.

You may produce copies of any subpoenaed documents, unless the subpoena specifically requires you to produce originals. A copy of the document may be—

- (a) a photocopy; or
- (b) in PDF format on a CD-ROM; or
- (c) in any other electronic form that the issuing party (the party that issued the subpoena) has indicated to you will be acceptable.

You must complete the declaration below, attach it to the subpoena or a copy of the subpoena and return them with the documents or things you provide to the Court under the subpoena.

If you declare that the material you produce is copies of documents, the Registrar may, without further notice to you, destroy the copies at the end of 4 months after the end of the proceeding or, if the documents become exhibits in the proceeding, when they are no longer required in relation to the proceeding, including on any appeal.

If the material you produce to the Court is or includes any original document, the Court will return all of the material to you at the address stated by you in the declaration below.
