Domestic Violence and Protection Orders Amendment Bill 2004

A Bill for

An Act to amend the Protection Orders Act 2001, and for other purposes

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

2003 238B

1	1	Name of Act
2		This Act is the Domestic Violence and Protection Orders Amendment Act 2004.
4	2	Commencement
5		This Act commences on the day after its notification day.
6 7		Note The naming and commencement provisions automatically commence on the notification day (see Legislation Act, s 75 (1)).
8	3	Legislation amended
9		This Act amends the Protection Orders Act 2001.
10		Note This Act also amends other legislation (see sch 1).
11	4	Section 1
12		substitute
13	1	Name of Act
14		This Act is the Domestic Violence and Protection Orders Act 2001 .
15	5	New section 4A
16		in part 1, insert
17	4A	Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc
18		Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.
19		Note 1 Criminal Code
20 21		The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

1 2 3 4		The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct , intention , recklessness and strict liability ).
5		Note 2 Penalty units
6 7		The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.
8 9	6	Objects Section 5 (b)
10		substitute
11 12		(b) to facilitate the safety and protection of people who fear or experience violence by—
13 14		(i) providing a legally enforceable mechanism to prevent violent conduct; and
15 16		(ii) allowing for the resolution of conflict without the need to resort to arbitration.
17 18	7	Principles for making protection orders Section 6 (1)
19		substitute
20 21	(1)	In deciding an application for a protection order, the paramount consideration is—
22 23 24		(a) for a domestic violence order—the need to ensure that the aggrieved person, and any child at risk of exposure to domestic violence, is protected from domestic violence; and
25 26		(b) for a personal violence order—the need to ensure that the aggrieved person is protected from personal violence; and

1 2 3			(c) for a workplace order—the need to ensure that employees and other people at the workplace are protected from personal violence in the workplace.
4	8		Section 9
5			substitute
6	9		What is domestic violence?
7		(1)	For this Act, a person's conduct is domestic violence if it—
8			(a) causes physical or personal injury to a relevant person; or
9			(b) causes damage to the property of a relevant person; or
10 11			(c) is directed at a relevant person and is a domestic violence offence; or
12 13 14			(d) is a threat, made to a relevant person, to do anything in relation to the relevant person or another relevant person that, if done, would fall under paragraph (a), (b) or (c); or
15			(e) is harassing or offensive to a relevant person; or
16 17			(f) is directed at a pet of a relevant person and is an animal violence offence; or
18 19 20			(g) is a threat, made to a relevant person, to do anything to a pet of the person or another relevant person that, if done, would be an animal violence offence.
21			Note Relevant person—see dict.
22		(2)	In this Act:
23 24			animal violence offence means an offence against any of the following provisions of the Animal Welfare Act 1992:
25			(a) section 7 (Cruelty);
26			(b) section 8 (Pain);

1	(c)	section 12 (Administering poison);
2	(d)	section 12A (Laying poison);
3	(e)	section 13 (which is about administering an electric shock to an animal).
5	dom	estic violence offence means an offence against—
6	(a)	section 34 (which is about contravening protection orders); or
7 8	(b)	a provision of the Crimes Act 1900 mentioned in schedule 1 (which deals with domestic violence crimes); or
9	(c)	any of the following provisions of the Criminal Code:
10		(i) section 311 (Burglary);
11 12		(ii) section 403, 404, 405, 406, 407 or 408 (which deal with property offences); or
13 14	(d)	any of the following provisions of the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999:
15		(i) section 6 (1) (which is about negligent driving);
16 17		(ii) section 7 (1) (which is about furious, reckless or dangerous driving);
18		(iii) section 8 (1) or (2) (which is about menacing driving); or
19	(e)	any of the following provisions of the Firearms Act 1996:
20		(i) section 53 (Unregistered firearms);
21 22		(ii) section 80 or section 81 (which are about discharge of firearms or possession endangering life).
23 24	Note	A reference to an offence against a Territory law includes a reference to a related ancillary offence, eg attempt (see Legislation Act, s 189).

1	(3	3) In this section:
2		offence includes conduct, wherever engaged in, that would be an offence if it were engaged in within the ACT.
4		personal injury includes nervous shock.
5	9	New section 10A
6		in part 2, insert
7	10A	Who is a relative ?
8		For this Act, a relative of a person (the original person )—
9		(a) means the original person's—
10 11		(i) father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law or mother-in-law; or
12 13		(ii) son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson, stepdaughter, son-in-law or daughter-in-law; or
14 15		(iii) brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, stepbrother, stepsister, brother-in-law or sister-in-law; or
16		(iv) uncle, aunt, uncle-in-law or aunt-in-law; or
17		(v) nephew, niece or cousin; and
18 19 20 21		(b) if the original person has or had a domestic partner (other than a spouse)—includes someone who would have been a relative of a kind mentioned in paragraph (a) if the original person had been legally married to the domestic partner; and
22		Note For the meaning of domestic partner , see Legislation Act, s 169.
23		(c) includes—
24 25		(i) someone who has been a relative of a kind mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of the original person; and person's Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community.  2 a person regarded and treated by the original person as a relative, for example, as an uncle or aunt  Note  An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).  10 Section 12  Substitute  12 Applications by people with legal disability  (1) An aggrieved person with a legal disability may only apply for a protection order by a next friend.  Note 1 The Macquarie Dictionary (1997) defines next friend as a person bringing action in a court of law on behalf of a minor or person of unsound mind.  Note 2 The regulations may prescribe how a next friend may be appointed (see s 106 (3) (b) (i)).  (2) However, if the aggrieved person is a child, the aggrieved person may—

16 17	30A		Application by respondent for leave to apply for amendment or revocation
18 19 20		(1)	An application for amendment or revocation of a protection order (the original order ) must not be made by the respondent to the original order without the leave of the Magistrates Court.
21 22 23		(2)	Before hearing the application for leave, the Magistrates Court must fix a time to hear the application, and give the respondent written notice of the time.
24 25		(3)	If the respondent does not attend at the time fixed, the Magistrates Court must—

1 2 3 4		(a) if satisfied that the respondent has not been given reasonable notice of the time—fix another time to hear the application, adjourn the hearing to the other time and give the respondent written notice of the time; or
5		(b) dismiss the application.
6 7 8 9 10	(4)	If the respondent attends at the time fixed under subsection (2) or (3) (a), the Magistrates Court may give the respondent leave to apply to amend or revoke the original order only if satisfied, on the basis of evidence provided by the respondent, that there may have been a substantial change in the circumstances surrounding the making of the original order.
12 13 14 15	(5)	To remove any doubt, a decision under subsection (4) that there may have been a substantial change does not affect the hearing and deciding of the application for amendment or revocation of the original order.
16 17 18	(6)	An aggrieved person for the original order is not entitled to attend or take part in a hearing under this section without the leave of the Magistrates Court.
19	(7)	In this section:
20		aggrieved person includes a representative of the aggrieved person.
21		respondent includes a representative of the respondent.
22 23	16	Amendment or revocation generally Section 31 (1)
24		substitute
25 26	(1)	A protection order may be amended if the Magistrates Court is satisfied that—
27 28		(a) the order as amended could be made on application for a protection order; and

1 2 3			(b) if the amendment would reduce the protection of a child who is 15 years old or younger—the child is no longer in need of the greater protection provided by the unamended protection order.
4 5	17		This Act and Children and Young People Act Section 32 (1) (b)
6			substitute
7 8 9			(b) at least 1 of the criteria mentioned in that Act, section 205A (1) (b) (When Childrens Court may make final protection order) is satisfied; and

12			substitute
13 14		(1)	If the Magistrates Court makes a protection order (other than an emergency order), the registrar must—
15 16 17 18			(a) if the order is an interim protection order—serve 2 copies of the order (1 marked as the endorsement copy) on the respondent no later than 7 days before the return date for the application for the final protection order; and
19 20			(b) if the order is not an interim protection order—serve a copy of the order on the respondent; and
21			(c) give a copy of the order to—
22			(i) each other party to the proceeding; and
23			(ii) the chief police officer; and

1	19		Section 34 (2)
3			substitute
4 5		(2)	The person commits an offence if the person engages in conduct that contravenes a condition of the protection order.
6 7			Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 5 years or both.
8 9 10			Note In deciding the sentence to be imposed on a person under this section, the Magistrates Court must consider the matters under the Crimes Act 1900 , s 342.
11 12	20		Extension of final orders Section 37 (3)
13			substitute
14 15 16 17		(3)	If the original order is a domestic violence order, the Magistrates Court must, on application, amend the original order by extending it for a stated period unless satisfied that a protection order is no longer necessary to protect the aggrieved person from domestic violence by the respondent.
19	21		Section 40
20			substitute
21 22	40		What are grounds for making final order (other than workplace order)?
23 24 25		(1)	The Magistrates Court may make a final order (other than a workplace order) on application if satisfied that the respondent has—
26			(a) engaged in domestic violence; or

1 2		(b) engaged in personal violence towards the aggrieved person and may engage in personal violence towards the aggrieved person

51A		What if respondent objects to interim order made when not present?
	(1)	This section applies if the Magistrates Court makes an interim order in the absence of a respondent and any representative of the respondent.
	(2)	The respondent may—
		(a) fill out the endorsement copy of the interim order in accordance with the instructions on the copy; and
		(b) return it to the Magistrates Court at least 7 days before the return date for the application for the final order to which the interim order relates.
	(3)	The interim order becomes a final order against the respondent—
		(a) if—
		(i) the Magistrates Court receives the endorsement copy from the respondent at least 7 days before the return date for the application for the final order; and
		(ii) the respondent indicated on the endorsement copy that the respondent does not object to the interim order becoming a final order; or
		(b) if the respondent does not return the endorsement copy to the Magistrates Court at least 7 days before the return date for the application for the final order.
	(4)	A final order under subsection (3) comes into force—
		(a) if the respondent returned the endorsement copy and does not object to the interim order becoming final—on the day the Magistrates Court receives the endorsement copy; or

1		(b) on the return date for the application for the final order.
2	(5)	The Magistrates Court may decide the application for the final order if—
4 5 6		(a) the respondent returns the endorsement copy of the interim order at least 7 days before the return date for the application for the final order; and
7 8		(b) the endorsement copy indicates that the respondent objects to the interim order becoming a final order.
