5 New division 10.9

insert

Division 10.9 Fortification of premises252M Definitions—div 10.9

In this division:

compliance period means the period under section 252Q for compliance with a fortification removal order.

fortification, of premises, means a structure, device or other thing, or a combination of structures, devices or other things, that form part of, or are attached to, the premises if the thing or combination of things—

- (a) exceeds what is reasonably necessary to provide security for the ordinary lawful use of the premises; and
- (b) either—
- (i) prevents uninvited entry to the premises or part of the premises; or
- (ii) would be considered by a reasonable person to be intended or designed to prevent uninvited entry to the premises or part of the premises.

Examples—devices

- closed-circuit television equipment
- electronic surveillance device
- motion sensor
- night-vision camera

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

fortification inspection order—see section 252U.

1 fortification offence—

2 (a) means an offence punishable by imprisonment for 5 years or 3 longer; and

4 (b) includes an offence in another jurisdiction that would be 5 punishable by imprisonment for 5 years or longer if committed
6 in the ACT.

7 fortification removal order—see section 252N.

8 occupier, of premises, includes—

9 (a) a person believed on reasonable grounds to be an occupier of 10 the premises; and

11 (b) a person apparently in charge of the premises.

12 252N Fortification removal order—application for order or
13 variation

14 (1) The chief police officer may apply to the Magistrates Court for an 15 order directing an occupier of premises to remove a fortification of 16 the premises (a fortification removal order).

17 (2) If a fortification removal order is already in effect for premises—

18 (a) the chief police officer may make an application to vary the 19 fortification removal order to direct the occupier of the 20 premises to—

21 (i) remove a fortification of the premises in a different way
22 or within a different compliance period; or

23 (ii) remove a different fortification of the premises; and

24 (b) the occupier of the premises may make an application to vary 25 the fortification removal order to—

26 (i) describe the fortification in a different way; or

- 1 (ii) direct the occupier of the premises to remove a 2 fortification of the premises in a different way.
- 3 (3) An application must—
- 4 (a) be in writing; and
- 5 (b) be supported by evidence by affidavit dealing with the matters 6 mentioned in—
- 7 (i) for a fortification removal order—section 252O (1); or
- 8 (ii) for variation of a fortification removal order—
9 section 252O (2).

10 252O Fortification removal order

- 11 (1) On application under section 252N (1), the Magistrates Court may 12 make a fortification removal order in relation to premises if satisfied 13 that—
- 14 (a) the premises are fortified; and
- 15 (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe the premises are, have 16 been or will be used in relation to a fortification offence; and
- 17 (c) it is necessary for the chief police officer to have uninvited 18 access to the premises in relation to the offence.
- 19 (2) On application under section 252N (2), the Magistrates Court may 20 vary a fortification removal order if satisfied that the variation 21 sought is necessary or otherwise appropriate.
- 22 (3) A fortification removal order, including an order as varied, must—
- 23 (a) identify the premises; and
- 24 (b) describe the fortification; and

- 1 (c) set out whether the fortification is to be removed by 1 or both 2 of the following:
- 3 (i) removing a structure or device that forms all or part of 4 the fortification;
- 5 (ii) modifying a structure or device that forms all or part of 6 the fortification; and
- 7 (d) state the compliance period for removal of the fortification; 8 and
- 9 (e) state that the fortification must not be replaced or restored; and
- 10 (f) set out the powers of the police to—
- 11 (i) inspect a fortification under section 252R; and 12 (ii) remove a fortification under section 252S.

13 252P Fortification removal order—length

- 14 (1) A fortification removal order in relation to premises takes effect 15 on—
- 16 (a) if the occupier of the premises is before the Magistrates Court
17 when the order is made—the day the order is made; or
- 18 (b) if the occupier of the premises is not before the Magistrates
19 Court when the order is made—the day the order is served on 20 the occupier.
- 21 (2) A fortification removal order remains in force for 12 months.
- 22 (3) However, if the chief police officer gives the Magistrates Court
23 written notice that the fortification removal order is no longer
24 required, the fortification removal order ceases to have effect.

1 252Q Fortification removal order—compliance period

2 An occupier must comply with a fortification removal order—

- 3 (a) within 3 months after the day the order takes effect; or 4 (b) if the order states another day—by the stated day.

5 252R Fortification removal order—inspection

6 (1) This section applies if—

7 (a) the compliance period for a fortification removal order has
8 ended; and

9 (b) the fortification removal order is still in force; and

10 (c) the chief police officer believes on reasonable grounds—

11 (i) the fortification has not been removed in accordance with 12 the order; or

13 (ii) a fortification that has been removed in accordance with 14 the order has been restored or replaced.

15 (2) A police officer may, at any time and without a warrant, enter the 16 premises to inspect the premises for compliance with the 17 fortification removal order.

18 252S Fortification removal order—removal by police

19 (1) This section applies if—

20 (a) the compliance period for a fortification removal order has 21 ended; and

22 (b) the fortification removal order is still in force; and

23 (c) the chief police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the 24 fortification has not been removed in accordance with the 25 fortification removal order.

1 (2) A police officer may, at any time and without a warrant, enter the
2 premises for the purpose of—

3 (a) removing the fortification in accordance with the fortification
4 removal order; or

5 (b) doing something reasonably necessary to remove the 6 fortification in accordance with the fortification removal order.

7 Examples—par (b)

8 1 bringing equipment that will be used for carrying out fortification
9 removal to the premises

10 2 escorting a person who has been engaged to assist with fortification
11 removal to the premises

12 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend,
13 but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it
14 appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

15 (3) The Territory may recover from the person required to remove the 16 fortification under the fortification removal order any costs
17 reasonably incurred by the Territory for removing the fortification.

18 Note An amount owing under a law may be recovered as a debt in a court of 19 competent jurisdiction or the ACAT (see Legislation Act, s 177).

20 252T Fortification inspection order—application for order or
21 variation

22 (1) This section applies if a fortification removal order in relation to 23 premises has ended within the previous 3 years.

24 (2) The chief police officer may apply to the Magistrates Court for an
25 order to inspect the premises (a fortification inspection order).

26 (3) If a fortification inspection order is already in effect for premises, 27 the chief police officer or the occupier of the premises may make an 28 application to vary the length of the order.

29 (4) An application must be—

30 (a) in writing; and

- 1 (b) supported by evidence by affidavit dealing with the matters
2 mentioned in section 252U.

3 252U Fortification inspection order

- 4 (1) On application, the Magistrates Court may make a fortification
5 inspection order if satisfied that—
6 (a) a fortification removal order was in effect for the premises
7 within the previous 3 years; and 8 (b) the chief police officer has reasonable grounds to believe the 9 premises are fortified.
10 (2) A fortification inspection order must—
11 (a) identify the premises; and
12 (b) set out the powers of the police to inspect a fortification under 13 section 252W.

14 252V Fortification inspection order—length

- 15 (1) A fortification inspection order in relation to premises takes effect 16 on—
17 (a) if the occupier of the premises is before the Magistrates Court
18 when the order is made—the day the order is made; or
19 (b) if the occupier of the premises is not before the Magistrates
20 Court when the order is made—the day the order is served on
21 the occupier.
22 (2) A fortification inspection order remains in force until the earlier of 23 the following:
24 (a) the day stated in the order;
25 (b) the day 3 years after the day the fortification removal order in 26 relation to the premises ended.

- 1 (3) However, if the chief police officer gives the Magistrates Court
2 written notice that the fortification inspection order is no longer
3 required the fortification inspection order ceases to have effect.

4 252W Fortification inspection order—inspection

- 5 (1) If a fortification inspection order in relation to premises is in force, a 6 police officer may, at any time and without a warrant, enter the 7 premises to inspect the premises to assess whether the premises are 8 fortified.

9 Note If a law gives a function to an entity (including a person), the function
10 may be exercised from time to time (see Legislation Act, s 196 and dict, 11 pt 1, def entity).

- 12 (2) However, the police officer must not enter the premises unless the 13 chief police officer has reasonable grounds to believe the premises
14 are fortified.

15 252X Exercising powers—announce entry and explain purpose

- 16 (1) Before anyone enters premises under an order under this division, a 17 police officer must—

18 (a) announce that the police officer is authorised to enter the 19 premises; and

20 (b) give anyone at the premises the opportunity to allow entry to 21 the premises; and

22 (c) if the occupier of the premises, or someone else who 23 apparently represents the occupier, is present at the premises—
24 identify themselves to the person.

- 25 (2) If the occupier of the premises, or someone who apparently 26 represents the occupier, is present at the premises while a police 27 officer is on the premises under an order, the police officer must—

28 (a) tell the person the purpose of the entry; and 29 (b) make available to the person a copy of the order.

1 252Y Exercising powers—occupier entitled to be present
2 during inspection

- 3 (1) If the occupier of premises, or someone else who apparently 4 represents the occupier, is present at the premises while an 5 inspection is conducted, the person is entitled to observe the 6 inspection being conducted.
- 7 (2) However, the person is not entitled to observe the inspection if—8 (a) to do so would impede the inspection; or 9 (b) the person is under arrest, and allowing the person to observe 10 the inspection being conducted would interfere with the 11 objectives of the inspection.

12 252Z Exercising powers—use reasonable force

13 If a police officer believes that a person who is present at the 14 premises is hindering or obstructing the officer from entering the 15 premises or removing the fortification, the officer may—

- 16 (a) give a reasonable direction that the person must leave the 17 premises; and
18 (b) if the person refuses to leave the premises in accordance with 19 the direction—use reasonable force to remove the person from 20 the premises; and
21 (c) do anything that is reasonably necessary to enter the premises
22 and remove the fortification.

23 Note It is an offence to obstruct a territory public official, including a police
24 officer or a contractor performing work for the Territory (see Criminal 25 Code, s 361).

26 252ZA Premises must not be fortified

27 A person commits an offence if—

- 28 (a) the person fortifies premises; and

- 1 (b) the person—
2 (i) knows the premises are, have been or will be used in
3 relation to a fortification offence; or
4 (ii) is reckless about whether the premises are, have been or
5 will be used in relation to a fortification offence; and 6 (c) the person intends that the fortification will prevent the 7 uninvited entry to the premises or part of the premises.

8 Examples—par (b)

- 9 1 a fortification offence has been carried out on the premises
10 2 evidence of a fortification offence is being concealed on the premises
11 3 proceeds of a fortification offence are likely to be kept on the premises

12 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend,
13 but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it
14 appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

15 Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units, imprisonment for 2 years or 16 both.

17 252ZB Fortification must not be replaced or restored

18 A person commits an offence if—

- 19 (a) the person fortifies premises; and
20 (b) the premises have previously been the subject of a fortification 21 removal order; and
22 (c) the person—
23 (i) knows the premises have previously been the subject of a 24 fortification removal order; or
25 (ii) is reckless about whether the premises have previously 26 been the subject of a fortification removal order; and

- 1 (d) the person—
2 (i) knows the premises are, have been or will be used in
3 relation to a fortification offence; or
4 (ii) is reckless about whether the premises are, have been or
5 will be used in relation to a fortification offence; and 6 (e) the person intends that the fortification will prevent the 7 uninvited entry to the premises or part of the premises.
8 Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units, imprisonment for 2 years or
9 both.

10 252ZC Protection from liability

- 11 (1) A protected person is not civilly liable for conduct engaged in 12 honestly and without recklessness—
13 (a) in the exercise of a function under this division; or 14 (b) in the reasonable belief that the conduct was in the exercise of 15 a function under this division.
16 (2) Any civil liability that would, apart from this section, attach to the 17 protected person attaches instead to the Territory.
18 (3) In this section:
19 conduct means an act or omission to do an act.
20 protected person means—
21 (a) a police officer or other official exercising a function under this 22 division; or
23 (b) a person accompanying a police officer exercising a function
24 under this division.

1 252ZD Chief police officer delegations

2 The chief police officer may delegate any of the chief police
3 officer’s functions under this division to a police officer at or above
4 the level of superintendent.

5 Note For the making of delegations and the exercise of delegated functions,
6 see the Legislation Act, pt 19.4.
