Cemeteries Act 1933 No 29

Republication No 5

Republication date: 13 June 2002

Last amendment made by Act 2001 No 44

Amendments incorporated to 12 September 2001

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Cemeteries Act 1933 as in force on 13 June 2002. It includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 12 September 2001 and any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes).

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

- (7) A body corporate constituted under this section shall manage a public cemetery or private burial ground in accordance with—
 - (a) the management objectives for a cemetery or burial ground specified in the Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991, schedule 1; and
 - (b) any plan of management under that Act that applies to the cemetery or burial ground, as varied and in effect from time to time.
- (8) If a trustee ceases to hold office, the Minister may appoint a new trustee in his or her place.

- (9) If any part of a public cemetery is set apart for the burial of the dead of a religious denomination, that denomination may nominate a person for appointment as a trustee referred to in subsection (1) (a).
- (10) If any part of a public cemetery is set apart for the burial of the dead of a group of religious denominations, the group may nominate 1 member of each denomination in the group for appointment as a trustee referred to in subsection (1) (a).
- (11) If any part of a public cemetery is set apart under section 5 (1) (c), the body known as the Australian Capital Territory Branch of the Returned Sailors, Soldiers and Airmen's Imperial League of Australia may nominate a person for appointment as a trustee referred to in subsection (1) (a).
- (12) A trustee referred to in subsection (1) (a) shall, for this Act, be taken to be a trustee of each public cemetery.

6A Leave of absence

At a meeting of the trustees of a cemetery, a majority of the trustees present may grant leave of absence to a trustee of that cemetery for the period and on the terms and conditions they determine.

6B Dismissal of trustee

The Minister may terminate the appointment of a trustee for inability, inefficiency or misbehaviour.

6C Resignation of trustee

A trustee may resign his or her office by signed writing addressed to the Minister.

6D Vacation of office

- (1) If a trustee—
 - (a) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors or compounds with his or her creditors; or

- (b) is absent, except on leave granted under section 6A, from 3 consecutive meetings of the trustees; or
- (c) fails to comply with his or her obligations under subsection (2) or (3);

the Minister shall, in writing, declare that the office of the trustee is vacant, and, on the notification of the declaration under the Legislation Act 2001, the office shall be deemed to be vacant.

- (2) A trustee of a cemetery who is directly or indirectly interested in a contract made or proposed to be made by the trustees of that cemetery, otherwise than as a member, and in common with the other members, of an incorporated company consisting of not less than 25 persons, shall, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his or her knowledge, disclose the nature of his or her interest at a meeting of the trustees.
- (3) A disclosure under subsection (2) shall be recorded in the minutes of the trustees, and the trustee—
 - (a) shall not take part after the disclosure in any deliberation or decision of the trustees in relation to that contract; and
 - (b) shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the trustees for any such deliberation or decision.

7 Establishment of crematory

The trustees of any public cemetery may, subject to the approval of the Minister, erect and maintain in the cemetery a crematory for the burning of the dead.

8 Inspection of cemeteries by authorised persons

- (1) A person authorised in writing by the trustees of a cemetery may, at any time, enter the cemetery and inspect the land and any buildings, fittings, works and apparatus on it.

- (2) Any person who obstructs or intimidates any person so authorised in the exercise of his or her duty under this Act commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

9 Trustees not to interfere with burial ceremonies etc

The trustees of any public cemetery shall not interfere, directly or indirectly, with the performance of any religious ceremony in the burial of the dead according to the usage of the religious denomination to which the deceased belonged.

10 Right of head of religious denomination to prohibit holding of services etc

- (1) The recognised head of any religious denomination may, by written notice to the trustees, prohibit the performance or holding of any religious or other service within that part of any public cemetery specifically set apart for his or her denomination.
- (2) On receipt of the notice, the trustees shall prevent the performance or holding within that part of the religious or other service objected to.

11 Burial allotments

The trustees of any public cemetery may set apart and grant, subject to the conditions that are prescribed, the exclusive right of burial in any grave, vault or place of burial in any specified allotment in the cemetery to any person.

Note A fee may be determined under s 22A (Determination of fees) for this section.

12 Rights of head of religious denomination in relation to part of cemetery set apart for that denomination

The recognised head of any religious denomination may object to the grant of any exclusive right in relation to, or to the burial of any dead body in, any allotment in the part of any public cemetery set apart for his or her denomination and the trustees, on receiving notice of the objection and on good cause being shown, shall refuse to grant the exclusive right or prohibit the burial in that part.

13 Ministers to have full access to cemeteries

Any minister of any religious denomination for which any part of a public cemetery has been specifically set apart shall have full access and admission to the part and also to the general part as he or she considers appropriate, and may freely exercise his or her spiritual functions in connection with the burial of the dead without any hindrance or disturbance by the trustees or any person.

14 Monumental designs or inscriptions may be objected to

The recognised head of any religious denomination may object to the placing of any monumental design or inscription within the part of the public cemetery specifically set apart for his or her denomination and the trustees shall, on receiving notice of the objection, prevent the placing of the design or inscription objected to.

15 Times for burying the dead

Any person who buries any dead body after sunset or before sunrise on any day throughout the year commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

16 Exhumation of bodies

A person shall not exhume a body, or the remains of a body, buried in a cemetery—

- (a) except under a warrant issued under the Coroners Act 1997; or
- (b) without the written permission of the chief health officer under the Public Health Act 1997.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

17 Burials not to take place elsewhere than in cemetery

Any person who, except with the written consent of the Minister, buries a dead body, other than the ashes of a dead body, elsewhere than in a cemetery commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

18 Closing of cemeteries

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, order that, after a time specified in the order not being less than 3 months, burials in any cemetery shall be wholly discontinued or discontinued subject to the exceptions and qualifications the Minister considers appropriate.
- (2) An order is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

19 Staff

- (1) The trustees may make arrangements with the chief executive for the use of the services of public servants in the administrative unit under the chief executive's control.
- (2) The Public Sector Management Act 1994 applies in relation to the management by the trustees of public servants who are the subject of an arrangement under subsection (1).

20 Revenue of trustees

The revenue of the trustees of a cemetery shall consist of—

- (a) the amounts paid to the trustees by the Minister out of money appropriated by the Legislative Assembly for the purposes of the cemetery; and
- (b) the amounts received by the trustees under this Act.

21A Application of money by trustees

The money of the trustees of a cemetery shall be applied only in payment or discharge of the expenses, charges and obligations incurred or undertaken by the trustees in the exercise of their functions under this Act, including expenses, charges and obligations incurred or undertaken in laying out and ornamenting the cemetery in the way that is most convenient and suitable for the burial of the dead and in preserving, maintaining and keeping the cemetery in a clean and orderly condition.

21B Estimates of expenditure

The trustees of a cemetery shall, not later than 31 March in each year, submit to the Minister a statement of any new works, repairs and alterations proposed to be carried out during the financial year beginning on the following 1 July, together with an estimate of the expense that would be incurred in carrying out the works, repairs and alterations.

Note If a form is approved under s 22B (Approved forms) for a statement, the form must be used.

21F Delegation

- (1) The trustees of a cemetery may, either generally or in relation to a matter or class of matters, by writing under the seal of the trustees, delegate all or any of their powers under this Act (except this power of delegation).
- (2) A power so delegated may be exercised by the delegate in accordance with the instrument of delegation.
- (3) A delegation under this section is revocable at will and does not prevent the exercise of a power by the trustees.

22 Place of burial of Dr Duffield

- (1) The Governor-General may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, set apart for or dedicate to the purpose of a private burial ground that piece of land containing not more than 22.77m² containing the place of burial of the late Dr Walter Geoffrey Duffield.
- (2) The Minister may appoint 2 trustees for this section.

- (3) The first 2 trustees shall be Mrs Doris Tennant Duffield, widow of the late Dr Walter Geoffrey Duffield or a person nominated by her and a representative of the lands administration of the Territory.
- (4) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of trustee held by Mrs Doris Tennant Duffield or the person nominated by her, the Minister may appoint the person nominated by Mrs Doris Tennant Duffield or her heirs, executors and assigns or, in default of nomination, the person the Minister considers appropriate.
- (5) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of trustee held by a representative of the lands administration of the Territory, the Minister shall appoint the person the Minister considers appropriate.
- (6) The trustees shall not permit any person other than the widow of Walter Geoffrey Duffield to be buried in the land set part or dedicated under subsection (1) unless the written consent of the Minister has first been obtained.
- (7) This section shall be deemed to have commenced on 1 August 1929.

22A Determination of fees

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, determine fees for this Act.

Note The Legislation Act 2001 contains provisions about the making of determinations and regulations relating to fees (see pt 6.3).

- (2) A determination is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

22B Approved forms

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, approve forms for this Act.
- (2) If the Minister approves a form for a particular purpose, the approved form must be used for that purpose.

Note For other provisions about forms, see Legislation Act 2001, s 255.

- (3) An approved form is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

23 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note Regulations must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (2) The regulations may make provision in relation to—
- (a) the management, control and protection of public cemeteries and private burial grounds; and
 - (b) the powers and duties of trustees of cemeteries; and
 - (c) the licensing and control of funeral undertakers and of the vehicles supplied by funeral undertakers for the use of mourners at funerals; and
 - (d) the receipt and control of money contributed or donated by any person for the maintenance in perpetuity or otherwise of any grave or vault or part of a cemetery; and
 - (e) the maintenance of order and good conduct in cemeteries.
- (3) The regulations may also prescribe offences for contraventions of the regulations and prescribe maximum penalties of not more than 10 penalty units for offences against the regulations.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.

3 Legislation history

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Cemeteries Ordinance 1933 No 29 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
