About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Supreme Court Act 1933 effective 31 March 1999 to 31 August 1999.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

28. Counterclaims and third parties

(1) In proceedings in the court, the defendant is entitled to relief (whether at law or in equity)—

- (a) against the plaintiff, where the relief claimed would have been granted to the defendant if he or she had taken out a separate suit against the plaintiff; or
- (b) against a person other than the plaintiff, where—
 - (i) the relief claimed relates to the subject matter of the proceedings;
 - (ii) that person is duly served with written notice of the claim; and

(2) In proceedings in the court for any relief or remedy of a kind referred to in subsection (1), the court may, if it thinks fit, instead of directing the issue of the relevant writ, grant the relief or remedy sought by making an order to the like effect.

35. Rules of practice and procedure—judicial discretion

In proceedings, where no provision about a matter of practice or procedure of the court is made under this or any other law of the Territory, the court may give such directions as to practice and procedure as it thinks fit.

(7) Conditions imposed under subsection (6) in relation to proceedings may include conditions—

- (a) relating to security for costs in the proceedings; and
- (b) specifying matters relating to the issue of process in the proceedings.

(8) Unless expressed to remain in force until the expiration of a date specified in the declaration, a declaration remains in force until revoked by the court.

- (9) The court may vary a declaration.
- (10) Subject to any order of the court, the making, variation and revocation of a declaration shall be notified by the registrar in the Gazette.
- (11) Where proceedings are instituted by a person in contravention of this section the proceedings shall be taken to have been permanently stayed.
- (12) Where practicable, any documents filed or lodged with a court or tribunal by a person in proceedings referred to in subsection (11) shall be returned to the person by the registrar or similar officer of a court or tribunal.
- (13) Notwithstanding subsection (5), a person declared to be a vexatious litigant may, without the leave of the court, apply to the court for the revocation or variation of the declaration or of any conditions to which the declaration is subject.

PART 7—TRIAL ON INDICTMENT

68. Prosecution of indictable offences

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an indictable offence triable before the court shall be prosecuted by information in the name of the Attorney-General or of such other person as the Attorney-General, by instrument in writing, appoints for the purposes of this subsection.
- (2) The Attorney-General may file an information under subsection (1) without examination or commitment for trial of the accused person.
- (3) Upon an information being filed without examination or commitment for trial, the court may—
- (a) cause a summons to be issued to the accused person to appear at the time and place specified in the summons and there to answer the charge specified in the information; or
 - (b) issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused person and hold him or her in custody or admit him or her to bail.
- (4) Where a person has been committed for trial upon a charge for an indictable offence triable before the court, the information against the person may include, either in substitution for, or in addition to, a count charging the offence for which the person was committed, a count founded on a fact or evidence disclosed in the course of the committal proceedings.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not authorise the inclusion of more than 1 count in the same information unless those counts are such as may lawfully be joined in a single information.

(6) Where a person is under commitment upon a charge of an indictable offence triable before the court, the Attorney-General, or such other person as the Attorney-General, by instrument, appoints for the purposes of this subsection, may decline to proceed further in the prosecution and, if the accused person is in custody, may, by warrant, direct the discharge of the accused person from custody, and the accused person shall be discharged accordingly.

68A. Trial by jury in criminal proceedings

Criminal proceedings shall be tried by a jury, except as otherwise provided by this Part.

68B. Trial by judge alone in criminal proceedings

(1) An accused person in criminal proceedings shall be tried by a judge alone if—

- (a) the accused person elects in writing to undergo such a trial;
- (b) the accused person produces a certificate signed by a legal practitioner stating that—
 - (i) he or she has advised the accused in relation to the election; and
 - (ii) the accused person has made the election freely;
- (c) the election is made before the court first allocates a date for the person's trial; and
- (d) where there is more than 1 accused person in the proceedings—
 - (i) each other accused person also elects to be tried by the judge alone; and
 - (ii) each accused person's election is made in respect of all offences with which he or she is charged.

(2) An accused person who elects to be tried by a judge alone may, at any time before he or she is arraigned, elect to be tried by a jury.

(3) If an accused person makes and then withdraws an election, he or she shall not make another election.

68C. Verdict of judge in criminal proceedings

(1) A judge who tries criminal proceedings without a jury may make any finding that could have been made by a jury as to the guilt of the accused person and any such finding has, for all purposes, the same effect as a verdict of a jury.

(2) The judgment in criminal proceedings tried by a judge alone shall include the principles of law applied by the judge and the findings of fact on which the judge relied.

(3) In criminal proceedings tried by a judge alone, if a law of the Territory would otherwise require a warning to be given to a jury in such proceedings, the judge shall take the warning into account in considering his or her verdict.

PART 8—SUMMARY OFFENCES RELATED TO INDICTABLE OFFENCES

68D. Related summary offences

(1) The court may, at the conclusion of the trial of an accused person for an indictable offence, deal with any related summary offence with which the accused person has been charged, if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice.

(2) The court shall only deal with a related summary offence with the consent of the accused person.

(3) The court may deal with a related summary offence—

- (a) on its own motion;
- (b) on the application of the accused person; or
- (c) on the application of the prosecutor.

(4) The court may deal with a related summary offence with which an accused person has been charged even though it is not doing so in relation to a related summary offence with which another accused person in the same proceedings is charged.

68E. Procedure

(1) The court shall deal with a related summary offence under this Part—

- (a) without a jury; and
- (b) on the basis only—
 - (i) of evidence given during the trial of the accused person for any indictable offence in the same proceedings; and
 - (ii) of any additional evidence given under this section.

(2) The prosecutor or the accused person may, with the leave of the court, call additional evidence in relation to the related summary offence.

(3) In sentencing or otherwise dealing with a person for a related summary offence, the court has the same functions as the Magistrates Court.

68F. Remission of related offences to Magistrates Court

The court may, at any time, remit a related summary offence being dealt with under this Part to the Magistrates Court.

PART 9—MISCELLANEOUS

69. Interest up to judgment

(1) In any proceedings for the recovery of any money (including any debt or damages or the value of any goods) the court shall, upon application, unless good cause is shown to the contrary—

- (a) order that there be included in the sum for which judgment is given interest at such rate as the court thinks fit on the whole or any part of the money for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date as of which the judgment is entered; or
- (b) without proceeding to calculate interest in accordance with paragraph (a), order that there be included in the sum for which judgment is given a lump sum in lieu of any such interest.

(2) Subsection (1) does not—

- (a) authorise the giving of interest upon interest or of a sum in lieu of such interest;
- (b) apply in relation to any debt upon which interest is payable as of right whether by virtue of an agreement or otherwise; or
- (c) affect the damages recoverable for the dishonour of a bill of exchange.

(3) Where the sum for which judgment is given (in this subsection referred to as the “relevant sum”) includes, or where the court determines that the relevant sum includes, any amount for—

- (a) compensation in respect of liabilities incurred which do not carry interest as against the person claiming interest or claiming a sum in lieu of interest;
- (b) compensation for loss or damage to be incurred or suffered after the date on which judgment is given; or
- (c) exemplary or punitive damages;

interest, or a sum in lieu of interest, shall not be given under subsection (1) in respect of any such amount or in respect of so much of the relevant sum as in the opinion of the court represents any cash amount.

70. Interest on judgments

A judgment debt under a judgment of the court carries interest at such rate as is fixed by the rules of court from the date as of which the judgment is entered.

71. Security of the peace and for good behaviour

The court may hold persons to security of the peace and for good behaviour in matters arising under the laws of the Territory.

73. Duty of receiver and manager

When, in any cause pending in the court, a receiver or manager appointed by the court is in possession of any property, the receiver or manager shall manage and deal with the property according to the requirements of the laws of the State or Territory in which the property is situated, in the same manner in which the owner or possessor would be bound to do if in possession.

74. Liability and protection of receivers and managers

A receiver or manager of any property appointed by the court may, without the previous leave of the court, be sued in respect of any act or transaction in carrying on the business connected with the property.

75. Regulations

The Executive may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing matters—

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Act.

NOTES

1. The Supreme Court Act 1933 in this reprint is Act No. 34, 1933 of the Commonwealth (as amended).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (No. 106, 1988) of the Commonwealth subsection 34 (2) and Schedule 2 allowed for the conversion of certain Commonwealth laws (including the Supreme Court Act 1933) to Territory enactments.

The Australian Capital Territory Supreme Court Act 1933 of the Commonwealth was, in preparation for its conversion, amended by the Supreme Court (Transfer) Act 1992 (No. 49, 1992) of the Commonwealth with effect from 1 July 1992 and, as so amended became a Territory enactment on that date. A table showing new section numbers after renumbering by the Supreme Court (Transfer) Act 1992 is located after the notes.

For the amendment history of the Australian Capital Territory Supreme Court Act of the Commonwealth see Commonwealth Acts Tables and Commonwealth Acts of the Parliament Volumes printed annually. A table showing the amendment history as provided by the Commonwealth as at 1 July 1992 is located at the back of this reprint for the reader's convenience.

The Supreme Court Act 1933 was also amended by the Self-Government (Transitional Provisions) Regulations as amended. The amendment is incorporated in this reprint.

2. The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 (No. 51, 1996) authorises the Parliamentary Counsel in preparing a law for republication, to make certain editorial and other formal amendments in accordance with current legislative drafting practice. The amendments do not change the law. Amendments made under the Act do not appear in the Table of Amendments but details may be obtained on request from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.
