About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Supreme Court Act 1933 effective 10 May 2000 to 31 May 2000.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

14 Full Court decisions—equal division of opinion

If the Full Court is divided in opinion as to the decision to be given on any question, the question shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority, but if the judges are equally divided in opinion—

- (a) in a case where a judgment of the master is called in question—the judgment shall be affirmed; and
- (b) in any other case—the opinion of the senior judge sitting prevails.

15 Exercise by court of powers of master

(1) Where the jurisdiction of the court is to be, or is being, exercised in a particular case by the master—

- (2) Where, under subsection (1), proceedings are referred or removed to the court constituted by a single judge, the court may—
- (a) give such directions as it considers appropriate as to the procedure to be followed in the further conduct of the proceedings, including, in a case where evidence was recorded before the referral or removal, directions as to the use (if any) to be made of the evidence; and

- (a) all original and appellate jurisdiction that is necessary to administer justice in the Territory;
- (b) jurisdiction conferred by a Commonwealth Act or a law of the Territory.

(2) Unless it is required to do so by or under a Commonwealth Act or a law of the Territory, the court is not bound to exercise its powers where it has concurrent jurisdiction with another court or tribunal.

21 Distinction between court and chambers

(1) The distinction between court and chambers is abolished.

(2) The business of the court, whether conducted in a courtroom or otherwise, shall be taken to be conducted in court.

22 Trial by jury in civil proceedings

(1) In every suit in the court, unless the court otherwise orders, the trial shall be by the court without a jury.

(2) The court may, if it appears just, order specially that any action or any issue of fact in any suit shall be tried before the court with a jury.

23 Costs

(1) The court shall have jurisdiction to award costs in all matters brought before the court, including matters dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

(2) Subject to any other law of the Territory (including rules of court), the court may determine—

- (a) the amount of costs of and incidental to proceedings in the court, including the administration of an estate or trust; and
- (b) by whom and to what extent such costs are to be paid.

(3) Nothing in this section shall alter the practice which would otherwise be followed in any criminal cause or matter or in proceedings on the Crown side of the court.

24 Service of writs out of the jurisdiction of the court

Writs of summons issued out of the court and notices of such writs may be served out of the jurisdiction of the court in the manner and to the extent provided by the rules of court.

25 Law and equity to be concurrently administered

Subject to the express provisions of any other Act, in every civil cause or matter commenced in the court law and equity shall be administered according to sections 26 to 32 (inclusive).

26 Equities of plaintiff

In proceedings in the court, the plaintiff is entitled to equitable relief where, in pre-Judicature Act proceedings of the same type, the plaintiff would have been entitled to such relief.

27 Equities of defendant

In proceedings in the court, the defendant is entitled to rely on an equitable defence, or is entitled to equitable relief of any sort, against any claim (whether at law or in equity) where, in pre-Judicature Act proceedings of the same type, the defendant would have been entitled to rely on such a defence, or would have been entitled to such relief, as the case may be.

28 Counterclaims and third parties

(1) In proceedings in the court, the defendant is entitled to relief (whether at law or in equity)—

- (a) against the plaintiff, where the relief claimed would have been granted to the defendant if he or she had taken out a separate suit against the plaintiff; or
- (b) against a person other than the plaintiff, where—

Supreme Court Act 1933

- (i) the relief claimed relates to the subject matter of the proceedings;
- (ii) that person is duly served with written notice of the claim; and
- (iii) the claim would have been granted to the defendant if he or she had taken out a separate suit against that person.

(2) Where a person is duly served with a notice referred to in subparagraph (1) (b) (ii), he or she is to be taken to be a party to the relevant proceedings with the same rights as if the defendant had instituted a separate suit against the person.

29 Incidental equities

In proceedings in the court, the parties are entitled to such incidental equitable rights, and subject to such incidental equitable duties, as they would have been entitled or subject to in pre-Judicature Act proceedings of the same type.

30 Defence or stay of proceedings instead of prohibition or injunction

(1) No proceedings at any time pending in the court shall be restrained by prohibition or injunction.

(2) A defence is available in proceedings where, in pre-Judicature Act proceedings of the same type, an injunction would previously have been available.

(3) Nothing in this Act prevents the court from directing a stay in any proceedings pending before it.

(4) Upon the motion of any entitled person, the court may grant a stay in any proceedings pending before it.

(5) The court may grant a stay of proceedings under subsection (4)—

- (a) generally or in relation to part only of the proceedings; and
- (b) subject to such other conditions as the court thinks just.

(6) In this section—

“entitled person”, in relation to proceedings referred to in subsection (4), means a person (whether or not he or she is a party to the proceedings) who would have been entitled, in connection with pre-Judicature Act proceedings of the same type—

Supreme Court Act 1933

- (a) to apply to a court to restrain the prosecution of the proceedings; or
- (b) to enforce, by attachment or otherwise, any judgment, decree, rule or order in contravention of which all or a part of the proceedings have or has been taken.

31 Common law and statute

The court shall give effect to all claims for relief arising under the common law or the statute law of the Territory, subject to any equitable rules applicable under this Act.

32 Final determination of matters

- (1) In the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Act in relation to proceedings in the court, the court shall, so far as practicable, ensure that—
 - (a) all the matters in issue between the parties to the proceedings are finally determined; and
 - (b) all multiplicity of legal proceedings concerning those matters is avoided.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the court may grant legal or equitable relief absolutely or conditionally.

33 Law and equity

Subject to this Act, in any matter arising in the court, where there is a conflict between the rules of equity and the rules of law with reference to that matter, the rules of equity prevail.

34 Injunctions

At any stage of proceedings, the court may grant an injunction (interlocutory or otherwise) on such terms as the court thinks fit if it appears to the court to be just to do so.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the court may grant an injunction to restrain any threatened or apprehended waste, trespass, breach of contract or other injury.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies in relation to a threatened waste or trespass to land whether or not—
 - (a) the person against whom the injunction is sought claims any title to the land;
 - (b) that person is in possession of the land; or

- (c) the estates claimed by both or either of the parties are legal or equitable.

34A Receivers

At any stage of proceedings, the court may, by interlocutory order on such terms as the court thinks fit, appoint a receiver if it appears to the court to be just to do so.

34B Prerogative remedies

- (1) The court has power to grant any relief or remedy by way of a writ of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition, certiorari or a writ of any other kind.
- (2) In proceedings in the court for any relief or remedy of a kind referred to in subsection (1), the court may, if it thinks fit, instead of directing the issue of the relevant writ, grant the relief or remedy sought by making an order to the like effect.

35 Rules of practice and procedure—judicial discretion

In proceedings, where no provision about a matter of practice or procedure of the court is made under this or any other law of the Territory, the court may give such directions as to practice and procedure as it thinks fit.

PART 7—TRIAL ON INDICTMENT

68 Prosecution of indictable offences

(1) Subject to subsection (2), an indictable offence triable before the court shall be prosecuted by information in the name of the Attorney-General or of such other person as the Attorney-General, by instrument in writing, appoints for the purposes of this subsection.

(2) The Attorney-General may file an information under subsection (1) without examination or commitment for trial of the accused person.

(3) Upon an information being filed without examination or commitment for trial, the court may—

- (a) cause a summons to be issued to the accused person to appear at the time and place specified in the summons and there to answer the charge specified in the information; or
- (b) issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused person and hold him or her in custody or admit him or her to bail.

(4) Where a person has been committed for trial upon a charge for an indictable offence triable before the court, the information against the person may include, either in substitution for, or in addition to, a count charging the offence for which the person was committed, a count founded on a fact or evidence disclosed in the course of the committal proceedings.

(5) Subsection (4) does not authorise the inclusion of more than 1 count in the same information unless those counts are such as may lawfully be joined in a single information.

(6) Where a person is under commitment upon a charge of an indictable offence triable before the court, the Attorney-General, or such other person as the Attorney-General, by instrument, appoints for the purposes of this subsection, may decline to proceed further in the prosecution and, if the accused person is in custody, may, by warrant, direct the discharge of the accused person from custody, and the accused person shall be discharged accordingly.

68A Trial by jury in criminal proceedings

Criminal proceedings shall be tried by a jury, except as otherwise provided by this Part.

 - (ii) the accused person has made the election freely;
 - (c) the election is made before the court first allocates a date for the person's trial; and
 - (d) where there is more than 1 accused person in the proceedings—
 - (i) each other accused person also elects to be tried by the judge alone; and
 - (ii) each accused person's election is made in respect of all offences with which he or she is charged.
- (2) An accused person who elects to be tried by a judge alone may, at any time before he or she is arraigned, elect to be tried by a jury.
- (3) If an accused person makes and then withdraws an election, he or she shall not make another election.

68C Verdict of judge in criminal proceedings

- (1) A judge who tries criminal proceedings without a jury may make any finding that could have been made by a jury as to the guilt of the accused person and any such finding has, for all purposes, the same effect as a verdict of a jury.
- (2) The judgment in criminal proceedings tried by a judge alone shall include the principles of law applied by the judge and the findings of fact on which the judge relied.
- (3) In criminal proceedings tried by a judge alone, if a law of the Territory would otherwise require a warning to be given to a jury in such proceedings, the judge shall take the warning into account in considering his or her verdict.

PART 8—SUMMARY OFFENCES RELATED TO INDICTABLE OFFENCES

68D Related summary offences

- (1) The court may, at the conclusion of the trial of an accused person for an indictable offence, deal with any related summary offence with which the accused person has been charged, if the court considers that it is in the interests of justice.

68E Procedure

- (1) The court shall deal with a related summary offence under this Part—
 - (a) without a jury; and
 - (b) on the basis only—

- (2) The prosecutor or the accused person may, with the leave of the court, call additional evidence in relation to the related summary offence.
- (3) In sentencing or otherwise dealing with a person for a related summary offence, the court has the same functions as the Magistrates Court.

(1) In any proceedings for the recovery of any money (including any debt or damages or the value of any goods) the court shall, upon application, unless good cause is shown to the contrary—

- (a) order that there be included in the sum for which judgment is given interest at such rate as the court thinks fit on the whole or any part of the money for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date as of which the judgment is entered; or
- (b) without proceeding to calculate interest in accordance with paragraph (a), order that there be included in the sum for which judgment is given a lump sum in lieu of any such interest.

(2) Subsection (1) does not—

- (a) authorise the giving of interest upon interest or of a sum in lieu of such interest;
- (b) apply in relation to any debt upon which interest is payable as of right whether by virtue of an agreement or otherwise; or
- (c) affect the damages recoverable for the dishonour of a bill of exchange.

(3) Where the sum for which judgment is given (in this subsection referred to as the “relevant sum”) includes, or where the court determines that the relevant sum includes, any amount for—

- (a) compensation in respect of liabilities incurred which do not carry interest as against the person claiming interest or claiming a sum in lieu of interest;
- (b) compensation for loss or damage to be incurred or suffered after the date on which judgment is given; or
- (c) exemplary or punitive damages;

interest, or a sum in lieu of interest, shall not be given under subsection (1) in respect of any such amount or in respect of so much of the relevant sum as in the opinion of the court represents any cash amount.

70 Interest on judgments

A judgment debt under a judgment of the court carries interest at such rate as is fixed by the rules of court from the date as of which the judgment is entered.

70A Failure to attend Supreme Court as required

(1) Where a person duly bound by recognisance or served with a subpoena to attend as a witness in a proceeding before the Supreme Court fails to attend, or remain in attendance, before the Supreme Court as required by the recognisance or the subpoena, the court may issue its warrant directing that the person be arrested and brought before the court to give evidence in the proceeding.

(2) Where a person duly bound by a recognisance or served with a subpoena to attend as a witness in a proceeding before the Supreme Court appears or is brought before the Supreme Court, after having failed to attend or remain in attendance before the Supreme Court as required by the recognisance or the subpoena, the court may, if satisfied that the failure to attend was without just cause or reasonable excuse—

- (a) impose on the person a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units; or
- (b) commit the person to prison for a term not exceeding 6 months; or
- (c) both impose the fine under paragraph (a) and commit the person to prison under paragraph (b).

71 Security of the peace and for good behaviour

When, in any cause pending in the court, a receiver or manager appointed by the court is in possession of any property, the receiver or manager shall manage and deal with the property according to the requirements of the laws of the State or Territory in which the property is situated, in the same manner in which the owner or possessor would be bound to do if in possession.

74 Liability and protection of receivers and managers

A receiver or manager of any property appointed by the court may, without the previous leave of the court, be sued in respect of any act or transaction in carrying on the business connected with the property.

74A Certified copies of transcript of Supreme Court proceedings

(1) Where a record is made of evidence given in a proceeding before the Supreme Court, the registrar has custody of the record.

(2) The registrar shall give such directions as are necessary to ensure that, as and when required, a transcript of the record of evidence given in a proceeding in the Supreme Court is prepared, and, for the purpose of enabling the transcript to be prepared, the record shall be produced out of the custody of the registrar.

(3) The person who—

- (a) prepares a transcript under subsection (2); or
- (b) if such a transcript is prepared under supervision—supervises the transcription; shall certify on the transcript that it is a true transcript of the record of the proceedings produced out of the custody of the registrar.

- (b) the sound-recording is produced out of the custody of the registrar; and
- (c) the sound-recording contains a record of the comments that purport—
 - (i) to have been made at the same time as the sound-recording produced out of the custody of the registrar was made; and
 - (ii) to have been made for the purpose of identifying the proceeding or the voices recorded by the sound-recording or any other matter or thing so recorded; the sound-recording is evidence of the identity of the proceedings, of the voices or of the other matter or thing, as the case may be.

(5) Upon application, the registrar shall, subject to subsection (5A)—

- (a) give the applicant a copy of the whole or any requested part of a transcript prepared under subsection (2); and
- (b) certify on the copy that it is a true copy of the transcript or part, as the case may be.

(5A) The registrar shall not furnish a copy of a transcript or part of a transcript to an applicant unless—

 - (b) the document bears a certificate that purports to be a certificate given in accordance with subsection (5);

any statement in the document is admissible in evidence in another proceeding to the same extent that the statement would, if given orally, be admissible in that other proceeding if the person—

- (c) is dead; or
- (d) is outside Australia and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his or her attendance; or
- (e) if unfit by reason of old age or bodily or mental condition to appear as a witness; or

NOTES

1. The Supreme Court Act 1933 in this reprint is Act No. 34, 1933 of the Commonwealth (as amended).
 The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (No. 106, 1988) of the Commonwealth subsection 34 (2) and Schedule 2 allowed for the conversion of certain Commonwealth laws (including the Supreme Court Act 1933) to Territory enactments.
 The Australian Capital Territory Supreme Court Act 1933 of the Commonwealth was, in preparation for its conversion, amended by the Supreme Court (Transfer) Act 1992 (No. 49, 1992) of the Commonwealth with effect from 1 July 1992 and, as so amended became a Territory enactment on that date. A table showing new section numbers after renumbering by the Supreme Court (Transfer) Act 1992 is located after the notes.
 For the amendment history of the Australian Capital Territory Supreme Court Act of the Commonwealth see Commonwealth Acts Tables and Commonwealth Acts of the Parliament Volumes printed annually. A table showing the amendment history as provided by the Commonwealth as at 1 July 1992 is located at the back of this reprint for the reader's convenience.
 The Supreme Court Act 1933 was also amended by the Self-Government (Transitional Provisions) Regulations as amended. The amendment is incorporated in this reprint.
2. The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 (No. 51, 1996) authorises the Parliamentary Counsel in preparing a law for republication, to make certain editorial and other formal amendments in accordance with current legislative drafting practice. The amendments do not change the law. Amendments made under the Act do not appear in the Table of Amendments but details may be obtained on request from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.
