Trustee Companies Act 1947

A1947-15

Republication No 11

Effective: 14 August 2011 – 11 April 2012

Republication date: 14 August 2011

Last amendment made by A2010-13
(republication for expiry of transitional provision (s 37))

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Trustee Companies Act 1947 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 14 August 2011. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 14 August 2011.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $110 for an individual and $550 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

R11
14/08/11

Trustee Companies Act 1947
Effective: 14/08/11-11/04/12

page 1

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Trustee Companies Act 1947.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition 'books—see the Corporations Act, section 9.' means that the term 'books' is defined in that section and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Company may act as executor and obtain probate

If a trustee company is named expressly or by implication as executor in the last will and testament or in the codicil to the last will and testament of any testator, that company may act as executor, and may apply for and obtain probate of the will of the testator and perform and discharge all the acts and duties of an executor.

5 Authorisation given to trustee company to act by person entitled to probate

- (1) If a person is named expressly or by implication as executor of the will of a deceased person and is entitled to apply for and obtain probate of the will without reserving leave to any other person to apply for probate, that firstmentioned person may—
  - (a) join with a trustee company in an application for a grant of probate of the will to that person and the trustee company jointly; or
  - (b) instead of applying personally, authorise a trustee company to apply for a grant of letters of administration with the will annexed.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Supreme Court may grant letters of administration with the will annexed in accordance with the application unless the testator by his or her will has expressed the desire that—
  - (a) the office of executor should not be delegated; or
  - (b) a trustee company or that particular trustee company should not act in the trusts of the will.

6 Authorisation given to trustee company to act by 1 of several executors

- (1) If a person is named expressly or by implication as executor of the will of a deceased person and is entitled to apply for and obtain probate of the will jointly with any other person, that firstmentioned person may—
  - (a) join with a trustee company and any other person entitled to apply for probate in an application for a grant of probate of the will to that person, the trustee company and any other such person jointly; or

- (b) instead of applying personally, authorise a trustee company to apply for a grant of probate of the will, either—
  - (i) alone, with leave reserved for any person to come in and prove; or
  - (ii) jointly with any other person entitled to apply for probate; in the same way as if the trustee company had been originally named as an executor of the will in addition to or in the place of that firstmentioned person.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Supreme Court may grant probate of the will in accordance with the application unless the testator by his or her will has expressed the desire that—
  - (a) the office of executor should not be delegated; or
  - (b) a trustee company or that particular trustee company should not act in the trusts of the will.

7 Authorisation given to trustee company to act by person entitled to administration with will annexed

- (1) If a person is entitled to apply for and obtain a grant of letters of administration with the will annexed of the estate of a deceased person, the person may—
  - (a) join with a trustee company in an application for a grant of letters of administration with the will annexed to the person and the trustee company jointly; or
  - (b) instead of applying personally, authorise a trustee company to apply for a grant of letters of administration with the will annexed.

- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Supreme Court may grant letters of administration with the will annexed in accordance with the application unless the testator by his or her will has expressed the desire that the office of administrator should not be held by a trustee company or that particular trustee company.

8 Authorisation given to trustee company to act by person entitled to administration on intestacy

- (1) If a person is entitled to obtain administration of the estate of a person who died intestate, the person may—
- (a) join with a trustee company in an application for a grant of letters of administration of the estate to the person and the trustee company jointly; or
  - (b) instead of applying personally, authorise a trustee company to apply for a grant of letters of administration of the estate.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Supreme Court may grant letters of administration of the estate in accordance with the application.

8A Capacity of trustee company to act

If—

- (a) administration of an estate with or without the will annexed; or
- (b) probate of a will;

is granted to a trustee company, either alone or jointly with another person, the trustee company may perform and discharge all the acts and duties of administrator, administrator with the will annexed or executor, as the case may be.

9 Court to act on affidavit of managing director or manager in applications for probate or administration

If a trustee company is empowered under this Act to apply for probate or for letters of administration, the Supreme Court may receive and act on an affidavit made by the managing director or manager of the company in place of any affidavit required to be made by persons making application for probate or for letters of administration.

10 Assets of company to be liable for proper administration of estates

- (1) This section applies if probate or letters of administration are granted to a trustee company in relation to an estate.
- (2) The paid and unpaid capital and all other assets of the trustee company are liable for the proper administration of the estate.

11 Company may be appointed trustee, receiver or guardian of estate

- (1) If any court or person has power to appoint any person as—
  - (a) trustee; or
  - (b) receiver; or
  - (c) guardian of the estate of a child;a trustee company may be so appointed.
- (2) Subject to this section, a trustee company may be appointed, or may continue to act, as sole trustee in all cases notwithstanding that it is provided by the terms of the instrument (if any) creating the trust or of any power or otherwise that there shall be more than 1 trustee to perform the trust.

- (3) If a trustee company and 1 or more individuals are co-trustees, any 1 or more of those individuals may retire, and the company shall, for the purposes of any law relating to the retirement of trustees and the vesting of the trust property, be deemed to be equivalent to 2 trustees.
- (4) A trustee company shall not be appointed in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power forbids the appointment of a trustee company or of that particular trustee company.
- (5) A trustee company shall not be appointed or be entitled to act as sole trustee in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power expressly provides that there shall be another trustee in addition to a trustee company or that a trustee company or that particular trustee company shall not be appointed or act as sole trustee.
- (6) If a trustee company is appointed or acts in any of the offices mentioned in subsection (1), all the capital of the company, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company and the directors, manager, and assistant manager and their respective estates shall be liable for the proper discharge of the duties of that office.
- (7) No bond, recognisance, or other security for the proper discharge of such duties shall be required to be given by or on behalf of a trustee company.

12 Company may act under power of attorney by managing director, manager or 2 directors

- (1) A trustee company may act under any power of attorney by which the trustee company is appointed attorney by any person, and all the powers given to the trustee company by any such power of attorney may be exercised and carried into execution by the managing director or manager or 2 of the directors of the trustee company, but in all cases the capital both paid and unpaid and all other assets of the trustee company shall be liable for the due execution of the powers so given to the trustee company.

- (2) This section shall not authorise any person to give any power to a trustee company that cannot be legally given to a private individual.

13 Company may be appointed to act as temporary executor or administrator

An executor or administrator or trustee may appoint a trustee company to act as executor or administrator or trustee in his or her place, and a trustee company if appointed by deed filed in accordance with any law providing for the filing of powers of attorney may act within the scope of the authority given to it as effectually as the executor or administrator or trustee could have acted and may exercise all discretionary and other powers delegated by the principal as fully as the principal could have exercised them, and after the filing of the deed and before the registration of the death of the principal or of the revocation of the authority given by the principal every act of the trustee company within the scope of the authority given shall, in favour of any person who deals with the trustee company, bona fide, and without notice of the death of the principal or of his or her revocation of the authority, be valid and effectual notwithstanding the revocation by, or death of, the principal.

14 Executor or administrator may appoint company to discharge duties

- (1) An executor or administrator acting under any probate or letters of administration, whether granted before or after the date when this Act comes into operation, or a trustee, receiver or guardian of a child may, with the consent of the Supreme Court, appoint a trustee company to exercise and discharge all the acts and duties of that executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian.

- (2) The trustee company may, on being so appointed, exercise and discharge all the acts and duties of the executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian.
- (3) In every such case, all the capital both paid and unpaid and all other assets of the trustee company shall be liable for the proper discharge, from the date of the appointment, of the acts and duties of the executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian, and the executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian shall be released from liability in relation to all acts done by, or omitted to be done by, the trustee company acting under an appointment under this section.

15 Application for consent under s 14

- (1) Notice of an intended application for consent under section 14, and of the date when it is intended to be made, must be advertised once in a daily newspaper at least 7 days before the day the application is made.
- (2) The Supreme Court may require any person entitled to the immediate receipt of any of the income or corpus of the estate in relation to which the application is made to be served with notice of the application.
- (3) The costs of the application shall be in the discretion of the Supreme Court and may be ordered to be paid out of the estate.
- (4) The Supreme Court shall not give consent in the case of any will in which the testator has expressed his or her wish that the trusts of the will should not be delegated or that a trustee company or the particular trustee company in relation to which the application is made should not act in the trusts of the will.

16 Managing director or manager may attend on behalf of company

If the personal attendance of an executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian is required, a trustee company may attend in the person of its managing director or manager and the personal duties of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian may be discharged on behalf of the company by the managing director or manager.

17 Manager and directors personally responsible to court

- (1) If a trustee company obtains probate or letters of administration or is appointed and acts as trustee, receiver or guardian, the manager and directors shall be individually and collectively in their own proper persons responsible to the Supreme Court, and shall in their own proper persons be liable, by process of attachment, commitment for contempt or by other process, to all courts having jurisdiction in that behalf for the proper discharge of their duties and for obedience to the rules, orders and decrees of those courts in the same way and to the same extent as if the manager and directors had personally obtained probate or letters of administration and had acted as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1), the capital, both paid and unpaid, and all the assets of the company shall remain liable for any pecuniary loss that is occasioned or that happens through the imperfect or improper discharge, or through the neglect of the trustee company concerned, or of any of its officers, of any act or duty in relation to any office, appointment or engagement held or entered on by the company.

19 Trustee company to be subject to same duties as individual

- (1) A trustee company shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, in every case in which it is appointed or acts as an executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian, in addition to the liabilities and restrictions imposed by this Act be subject to the same respective rights, duties and obligations to which an individual acting as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian would be subject.

- (2) If any individual acting in any such capacity would be liable in his or her own proper person to attachment, commitment or other process, the managers and directors of a trustee company shall, if the company is acting in any of those capacities, be liable each for his or her own individual act and not further or otherwise in his or her own proper person to attachment, commitment or other process.

19A Company may hold property as joint tenant

- (1) A trustee company is capable of acquiring and holding property as a joint tenant with an individual in the same way as an individual may acquire and hold property as a joint tenant.
- (2) If a trustee company that is a joint tenant of property is dissolved, the property devolves on the other joint tenant.

20 Company may be removed from office by court and provisions for relief against company or directors

- (1) If a trustee company is appointed or acts as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, guardian or attorney, it shall, in addition to the liabilities and restrictions imposed by this Act, be subject in all respects to the same control and liable to removal as a private individual who acts as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, guardian or attorney.
- (2) Any person claiming relief against a trustee company for any act done or assumed to be done, or in relation to any act omitted to be done, by the company, its directors or officers, under any of the powers given by this Act, may proceed in the Supreme Court against the trustee company or against any of its directors or officers.

- (3) In any such proceedings, the Supreme Court may make any order that it considers appropriate.

23 Voluntary winding-up of company or disposal of shares may be restrained by Supreme Court

- (1) So long as an estate in relation to which a trustee company is executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or guardian remains in whole or in part unadministered, the company shall not, except with the approval of the Supreme Court, be voluntarily wound up.
- (2) Any person interested in the estate or who has a claim in relation to the estate may apply to the Supreme Court to restrain a director or shareholder from disposing of any share that the person holds in the company or to restrain the winding-up voluntarily of the company, and the court may on any such application make any order that the court considers appropriate.

32 Act not to preclude other companies from applying for similar powers to those given by this Act

Nothing in this Act shall entitle a trustee company to oppose the granting of any powers similar to those given to certain companies by this Act to any other company or to corporations generally, or to claim or to seek compensation in consequence of the powers being given to any other company or to corporations generally.

33 Testators may appoint own lawyers

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) a trustee company is the executor or administrator (or an executor or administrator) of the estate of a deceased person (the testator); and
  - (b) the testator has directed by will that a particular lawyer conduct the legal business of the testator's estate.

- (2) The lawyer is entitled to conduct that legal business as directed by the testator.
- (3) However—
  - (a) the trustee company is not liable for any misconduct of the lawyer; and
  - (b) the lawyer may be removed by order of the Supreme Court on the application of the trustee company or of anyone interested in the estate.
- (4) If a lawyer is removed under subsection (3) (b), the Supreme Court may appoint a lawyer nominated by the trustee company.
- (5) In this section:
will includes codicil or other testamentary writing.
misconduct includes negligence, misfeasance and nonfeasance.

34B Compulsory transfer determinations

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) cancels the licence of a trustee company (the transferring company) and makes a determination under the Corporations Act, section 601WBA that there is to be a transfer of estate assets and liabilities from the transferring company to another licensed trustee company (the receiving company); and
  - (b) ASIC issues a certificate of transfer under that Act, section 601WBG for the transfer; and
  - (c) either the transferring company or the receiving company (or both) is registered in the ACT.

Note A reference to a law (including a Cwlth Act) includes a reference to the Act as originally made and as amended (see Legislation Act, s 102).

- (2) When the certificate of transfer comes into force, the receiving company is taken to be the successor in law in relation to estate assets and liabilities of the transferring company, to the extent of the transfer.

Note The Corporations Act, s 601WBG requires the certificate of transfer to state when it is to come into force.

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)—
- (a) if the transfer is a total transfer—all of the assets and liabilities of the transferring company become assets and liabilities of the receiving company (without the need for any further conveyance, transfer, assignment or assurance); and
  - (b) if the transfer is a partial transfer—the assets and liabilities listed as referred to in the Corporations Act, section 601WBG (2) (c) of the transferring company become assets and liabilities of the receiving company (without the need for any further conveyance, transfer, assignment or assurance); and
  - (c) to the extent of the transfer—the duties, obligations, immunities, rights and privileges applying to the transferring company apply to the receiving company; and
  - (d) if the certificate includes provisions of the kind referred to in the Corporations Act, section 601WBG (3) specifying—
    - (i) that particular things are to happen or are taken to be the case—those things are taken to happen, or to be the case, in accordance with those provisions; and
    - (ii) a mechanism for determining things that are to happen or are taken to be the case—things determined in accordance with the mechanism are taken to happen, or to be the case, as determined in accordance with that mechanism.

- (4) The operation of this section is not to be regarded as—
- (a) a breach of contract or confidence or otherwise as a civil wrong; or
  - (b) a breach of any instrument (including, without limitation, any provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the assignment or transfer of assets or liabilities); or
  - (c) an event of default under any contract or other instrument; or
  - (d) giving rise to any remedy by a party to a contract or other instrument, or as causing or permitting the termination of, or exercise of rights under, any contract or other instrument.

35 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note Regulations must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (2) The regulations may prescribe offences for contraventions of the regulations and prescribe maximum penalties of not more than 10 penalty units for offences against the regulations.

Dictionary

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Trustee Companies Ordinance 1947 No 15 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
