Sexually Transmitted Diseases Act 1956 No 9

Republication No 4

Republication date: 18 July 2002

Last amendment made by Act 2001 No 44

Amendments incorporated to 12 September 2001

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Sexually Transmitted Diseases Act 1956 as in force on 18 July 2002. It includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 12 September 2001 and any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes).

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Sexually Transmitted Diseases Act 1956

An Act to provide for and regulate the examination and treatment of persons suffering or suspected to be suffering from sexually transmitted diseases

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Sexually Transmitted Diseases Act 1956.

4 Definitions for Act

In this Act:

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155).

chief health officer means the chief health officer under the Public Health Act 1997.

court means the Magistrates Court.

medical practitioner means a medical practitioner registered under the Medical Practitioners Registration Act 1930-1956.

sexually transmitted disease means gonorrhoea, syphilis, chancroid, donovanosis (granuloma inguinale) and lymphogranuloma venereum.

5 Persons suffering from sexually transmitted disease to consult doctor

- (1) A person who has reason to believe that he or she is, or may be, suffering from sexually transmitted disease shall forthwith consult a doctor.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) If a person is informed by a doctor who is professionally attending him or her that that person is, or may be, suffering from sexually transmitted disease, that person shall submit himself or herself to such a course of treatment as the doctor directs and shall continue that course of treatment until he or she is cured of, or is free from, the disease.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

6 Notices by doctor in relation to sufferers from sexually transmitted disease

- (1) A doctor who has reason to believe that a person professionally attended by him or her is, or may be, suffering from sexually transmitted disease shall forthwith give to the chief health officer written notice stating the details of the case but without notifying the identity of the person suffering from the disease.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) If a person fails to submit himself or herself to a course of treatment as directed by a doctor under section 5 (2), the doctor shall forthwith give to the chief health officer written notice stating the details of the case together with any particulars within the knowledge of the doctor that may establish the identity and address of that person.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

6A Notification by pathologist

- (1) If—
- (a) a pathologist tests a specimen for the purpose of ascertaining whether a person is or may be suffering from sexually transmitted disease; and

- (b) the test is positive;

the pathologist shall, as soon as practicable, notify in writing the chief health officer of the fact and of the name and address of the doctor from whom the specimen was received.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) A notification under this section shall not give the name of the person from whom the specimen was taken.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (3) If the test is made by a pathologist in the course of his or her employment, the person by whom he or she is employed or, for a pathologist employed in a laboratory at a hospital, the person in charge of the laboratory, shall notify the chief health officer in accordance with this section.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (4) In this section, a reference to a pathologist includes a reference to a laboratory assistant or technical officer employed in a laboratory.

7 Notice requiring persons to submit to examination

- (1) If the chief health officer—
- (a) receives a notice from a doctor under section 6 (2); or
 - (b) has other reason to believe that a person is, or may be, suffering from sexually transmitted disease;

the chief health officer may, by written notice, require that person to submit himself or herself to medical examination at the time and place specified in the notice, and that person shall submit himself or herself to examination accordingly.

- (2) If a notice under this section is given to a person under 16 years old, the chief health officer may give a copy of the notice to any parent, guardian or other person having, or ordinarily having, the charge of that firstmentioned person.
- (3) A parent, guardian or other person to whom a copy of a notice is given under this section shall do all things within his or her power to ensure that the person in, or ordinarily in, his or her charge complies with the notice.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

8 Apprehension of person failing to attend for examination

- (1) If a person has been required under a notice under section 7 to attend for a medical examination and that person fails to submit himself or herself to that examination at the time and place specified in the notice, the Magistrates Court may, on the application of the chief health officer, issue a warrant for the apprehension of that person.

- (2) A warrant issued under this section authorises a police officer named in the warrant with the assistance that the police officer considers necessary, to apprehend the person named in the warrant.
- (3) If the person named in a warrant issued under this section is a woman, the warrant shall, if practicable, be directed to a police officer who is a woman.
- (4) The police officer who apprehends a person under a warrant issued under this section shall forthwith notify the chief health officer accordingly.
- (5) The chief health officer shall, on the receipt of notification by a police officer of the apprehension of a person under this section—
 - (a) fix a time and place for the examination of the person by a doctor appointed by the chief health officer; and
 - (b) advise that police officer accordingly.
- (6) A person apprehended under this section may be detained in a hospital or another place approved by the chief health officer until the time for examination fixed under subsection (5).
- (7) The police officer who has been advised of the time and place of examination of a person fixed under subsection (5) shall bring that person to the place, and at the time, so fixed.
- (8) If a person apprehended under this section refuses to submit to the examination as and when required by the doctor under subsection (5), the doctor may, with the assistance that the doctor considers necessary, forcibly examine that person.

9 Magistrate may order persons suffering from sexually transmitted disease to be removed to hospital etc

- (1) If, on application by the chief health officer for an order under this subsection, the Magistrates Court is satisfied that a person is suffering from sexually transmitted disease and that—
 - (a) it is in that person's interest that he or she should be properly attended and treated; and

- (b) the person's circumstances are such that proper precautions to prevent the spread of sexually transmitted disease cannot be taken, or that those precautions are not being taken; and
- (c) substantial risk of infection is or will be thereby caused to others;

the court may order that person to be removed to a hospital or some other suitable place where he or she can be properly attended and treated and to be detained there for the period the court considers appropriate, or, if that person is an in-patient in a hospital and proposes, contrary to the advice of the chief health officer or of a medical officer of the hospital or of a doctor, to leave the hospital, order him or her to be detained in the hospital or in some other suitable place for the period the court considers appropriate.

- (2) At any time while a person is detained under an order for the time being in force under subsection (1), the Magistrates Court may, on application by the chief health officer for an order under this subsection, and on being satisfied that the conditions that led to that person's detention being ordered will again exist if he or she is not detained for a further period after the end of the existing period of detention, order the detention of that person in the same place or in some other suitable place for the further period the court considers appropriate.
- (3) If an application for an order is made under this section, the chief health officer shall give to the person in relation to whom the application is made, and, for a person who is under 16 years old, to a parent, guardian other person having, or ordinarily having, the charge of the firstmentioned person, not less than 3 days written notice of the time when, and place where, the application will be heard.
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) and to section 15, an order under this section is final and binding on all parties.
- (5) An order under this section may be addressed to the chief health officer or any other person as the Magistrates Court considers appropriate, and the person to whom the order is addressed may do all acts necessary for giving effect to the order.

- (6) The medical officer or other person in charge of a hospital or other place to which a person is ordered under this section to be removed shall, on the presentation of the order, receive the person to whom the order relates and arrange for his or her medical treatment, and shall do any other acts necessary for giving effect to the order.

10 Order for removal to another place of detention

- (1) At any time while a person is detained in a hospital or other place under an order under section 9, the Magistrates Court may, if it considers appropriate, on the application of the chief health officer or of the medical officer or other person in charge of the hospital or place, order that person to be removed to another hospital or suitable place and to be detained there while the firstmentioned order continues in force.
- (2) The provisions of section 9 (3), (4), (5) and (6) apply, so far as applicable and with all necessary modifications, in relation to an application and order made under this section.

11 Revocation of order

- (1) At any time during the currency of an order under section 9 or 10, a person may, on behalf of the person to whom the order relates, apply to the Magistrates Court for the revocation of the order, and the court may, if it is satisfied that the lastmentioned person is cured of, or is free from, sexually transmitted disease, has ceased to be liable to convey infection or will present himself or herself for treatment by a medical practitioner, revoke the order.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the person making the application shall give to the chief health officer not less than 3 days written notice of the time when, and place where, the application will be heard.

12 Persons ordered into hospital not to leave without consent

A person who is removed to, or detained in, a hospital or other place under an order under this Act shall not, while the order continues in force, except with the consent of the chief health officer or of the medical officer or other person in charge of the hospital or place, leave or attempt to leave the hospital or place.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

13 Medical examination ordered by Magistrates Court

If an application for an order or revocation of an order is made under this Act, the Magistrates Court may, if it considers appropriate, require the person to whom the application relates to be examined by a doctor appointed by it for the purpose.

15 Appeal against orders of detention

- (1) The chief health officer or any person aggrieved by an order of decision of the Magistrates Court under section 9 or 10 may, within 7 days after the making of the order or decision, or within any further time that the judge in his or her discretion allows, appeal to a judge of the Supreme Court against the order or decision.
- (2) On the hearing of the appeal, the judge may confirm, modify or reverse the order or decision of the court and the judge's decision shall be final and binding on all parties.
- (3) The judge shall make no order about costs in relation to an appeal under this section except if the appeal is by or on behalf of a person aggrieved and is successful.

16 Carrying into effect of warrants and orders

A warrant or order issued under this Act has effect according to its tenor and police officers and governing authorities and officers of a hospital or place where a person is detained under this Act shall do all acts necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of warrants and orders issued under this Act.

17 No action against Territory etc

No action lies against the Territory, the chief health officer, a police officer, a doctor or other person acting in accordance with this Act in relation to an apprehension, examination or detention under this Act, but, if the Executive is satisfied that an apprehension, examination or detention was made or done without reasonable cause, the Executive may award reasonable compensation in relation to it.

18 Signature of chief health officer to be judicially noted

All courts of the Territory shall take judicial notice of the signature of the person who holds or has held the office of the chief health officer or who is or was, for the time being, performing the duties of that office.

19 Members of the Defence Force infected

- (1) The provisions of this Act in relation to the requirement to submit to an examination, the apprehension and the detention of a person do not apply to a member of the Defence Force of the Commonwealth.
- (2) If the chief health officer has reason to believe that a member of the Defence Force of the Commonwealth is or may be suffering from sexually transmitted disease, the chief health officer shall forthwith give to the senior administrative medical officer of the service or force to which the member is attached written notice setting out the details of the case together with any particulars within the knowledge of the chief health officer that may establish the identity and address of the member.

20 Offences

A person shall not—

- (a) wilfully disobey an order, direction or requirement under this Act;
- (b) obstruct, delay or interfere with the prompt execution of, or compliance with, any such order, direction or requirement.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) for paragraph (a)—50 penalty units; and
- (b) for paragraph (b)—50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

21 Approved forms

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, approve forms for this Act.
- (2) If the Minister approves a form for a particular purpose, the approved form must be used for that purpose.

Note For other provisions about forms, see Legislation Act 2001, s 255.

- (3) An approved form is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

22 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note Regulations must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (2) The regulations may prescribe offences for contraventions of the regulations and prescribe maximum penalties of not more than 10 penalty units for offences against the regulations.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.

3 Legislation history

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Venereal Diseases Ordinance 1956 No 9 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

It was renamed as the Sexually Transmitted Diseases Act 1956 by the Statute Law Revision (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1992 (see sch 1).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
