Auctioneers Act 1959      No 2 (repealed)

Republication No 8

Effective: 2 November 2003

Republication date: 3 November 2003

As repealed by A2003-20 s 205

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Auctioneers Act 1959 (repealed) (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)). It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 2 November 2003.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Auctioneers Act 1959 (repealed)

An Act relating to auctioneers

---

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Auctioneers Act 1959.

3 Interpretation for Act

(1) In this Act:

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155).

auctioneer means a person who sells by auction or offers for sale by auction.

charge means a charge that has not been dealt with by a court, but does not include a charge that has been withdrawn or otherwise not been proceeded with.

convicted includes being discharged under the Crimes Act 1900, section 402 or an equivalent provision of a law of the Commonwealth, a State, another Territory or another country, but does not include a reference to a conviction that has been set aside on appeal or review.

court means the Magistrates Court.

licence means a licence issued under this Act.

registrar means the registrar of the court, and includes the deputy registrar of the court.

(2) For this Act, a sale by auction is a public sale of property whereby—

- (a) the highest, the lowest or the only bidder is the purchaser; or
- (b) the first person who claims property submitted for sale at a previously nominated price is the purchaser; or
- (c) there is a competition for the purchase of property in any way commonly known and understood to be by way of auction.

4 Auctioneers to be licensed

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person shall not carry on the business of an auctioneer unless the person is the holder of a licence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

- (2) For subsection (1)—

- (a) the sale by auction of any property taken in execution by an officer of a court; or
- (b) the sale by auction by a person authorised by the Minister of any property belonging to the Territory or to an intestate estate; or
- (d) the sale by auction by a poundkeeper under the Pounds Act 1928 of any cattle, as defined by that Act, impounded in a public pound;

shall not be deemed to be the carrying on of the business of an auctioneer.

5 Applications for licences

- (1) A person who is 18 years old or older may apply to the Magistrates Court for a licence by giving an application to the registrar.

Note If a form is approved under s 18 (Approved forms) for an application, the form must be used.

- (2) An application must be accompanied by—

- (a) a copy of the application; and
- (b) references about the applicant's character and suitability for holding a licence given by 3 qualified people.

- (3) In this section:

elector—see the Electoral Act 1992.

qualified person means—

- (a) an elector who is a person referred to in the Statutory Declarations Regulations (Cwlth), schedule; or
- (b) another person approved by the court.

6 New licences

- (1) Where an application for a licence is lodged with the registrar (not being an application to which section 7 applies) the registrar shall forthwith—
  - (a) appoint a date for the hearing of the application by the court, being a date not earlier than 21 days after the date on which the application is lodged with the registrar; and
  - (b) endorse on the copy of the application a notice stating the date so fixed and return the copy to the applicant.
- (2) The applicant shall—
  - (a) within 24 hours after lodging the application with the registrar lodge with the commissioner of police the copy of the application on which the registrar has made the endorsement referred to in subsection (1) (b); and
  - (b) not later than 14 days before the date appointed for the hearing of the application, cause to be published in a newspaper circulating in the ACT notice of his or her application.

Note If a form is approved under s 18 (Approved forms) for the application, the form must be used.

7 Renewal of licences

- (1) Where—
  - (a) a person is the holder of a licence; and
  - (b) an application for a further licence to come into force on the expiration of that firstmentioned licence, together with a copy of the application is lodged with the registrar by that person before the month of June in the year in which that firstmentioned licence will expire;

Note If a form is approved under s 18 (Approved forms) for the application, the form must be used.

the registrar shall forthwith—

- (c) appoint a date for the hearing of the application by the court, being a date not earlier than 14 June, and not later than 30 June, of that year; and
  - (d) endorse on the copy of the application a notice stating the date so fixed and return the copy to the applicant.
- (2) The applicant shall within 24 hours after lodging the application with the registrar lodge with the commissioner of police the copy of the application on which the registrar has made the endorsement referred to in subsection (1) (d).
- (3) The registrar shall, on or before 7 June in each year, cause to be published in a newspaper circulating in the ACT a notice—
- (a) stating the names and addresses of the persons who have made applications for licences under this section; and
  - (b) stating the date or respective dates appointed for the hearing of the applications.

8 Certificates of convictions

- (1) The commissioner shall, not later than 5 days before the date appointed for the hearing of an application for a licence, furnish to the registrar for the use of the court a certificate stating whether, according to the records held by the commissioner, it appears that the applicant has been charged with, or convicted of, any offence against a law of the Territory, the Commonwealth, a State, another Territory or another country.
- (2) The applicant is entitled to inspect a certificate under subsection (1).

9 Objections to granting of licences

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the commissioner of police or any person who resides in the Territory may, upon the hearing of an application for a licence, object to the granting of the licence upon the ground that the applicant is not a fit and proper person to be the holder of a licence.
- (2) A person, including the commissioner of police, is not entitled to object to the granting of a licence unless, not later than 7 days before the date appointed for the hearing of the application for the licence, the person—
  - (a) files with the registrar a notice of objection setting out particulars of the ground of his or her objection; and
  - (b) serves a copy of the notice on the applicant.
- (3) Where the court is satisfied that an objection is frivolous or vexatious, the court may order the objector to pay to the applicant an amount equal to the whole or any part of the amount by which the costs of the applicant were increased by reason of the objection.
- (4) Where, as a result of an objection other than an objection by the commissioner of police, an application for a licence is refused, the court may order the applicant to pay the whole or any part of the costs of the objector.

10 Granting of licences

- (1) Subject to section 11, where, upon the hearing of an application for a licence, the applicant satisfies the court that he or she is a fit and proper person to be the holder of a licence, the court may direct the registrar to issue a licence to the applicant and the registrar shall issue a licence to the applicant.

Note If a form is approved under s 18 (Approved forms) for a licence, the form must be used.

- (2) For the purpose of determining whether an applicant for a licence is a fit and proper person to hold the licence, the court may have regard to whether he or she—
- (a) has been convicted of, or is subject to, a charge in relation to an offence—
    - (i) that involves fraud or dishonesty; or
    - (ii) against this Act or a corresponding law; or
  - (b) has been refused a licence under this Act or a corresponding law.
- (3) The court may, on the hearing of an application for a licence, request the commissioner of police to make such further enquiries as the court thinks fit and may adjourn the hearing to enable the commissioner to make the enquiries and furnish the report.
- (4) Where the granting of a licence in pursuance of an application to which section 7 of applies is not objected to, the application may be determined in chambers.
- (5) In this section:
- corresponding law* means a law of a State, another Territory or another country that deals with the licensing or conduct of auctioneers.

11 Licence not to be granted in certain circumstances

A licence shall not be granted to a person who is licensed to carry on the business of a pawnbroker under a law of the Territory or of any State.

12 Duration of licences

- (1) Subject to this section and to section 13, a licence comes into force on the day on which it is issued and continues in force until 30 June next following that firstmentioned day.

- (2) Subject to section 13, a licence granted pursuant to an application to which section 7 applies comes into force on 1 July next following the day on which the application was lodged with the registrar and continues in force until 30 June next following that firstmentioned day.

13 Cancellation and suspension of licences

- (1) The court may, on the application of the commissioner of police, cancel a licence if the court is satisfied—
- (a) that the holder of the licence is not qualified to be the grantee of a licence by virtue of section 11; or
  - (b) that he or she is not a fit and proper person to be the holder of a licence.
- (2) Where the commissioner of police has applied to the court for the cancellation of a licence, the court may, pending the determination of the application, suspend the licence.
- (3) Where the holder of a licence is convicted of an offence against this Act, the court may cancel the licence or suspend the licence for such period as the court thinks fit.

Note A reference to an Act includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the Act, including regulations (see Legislation Act 2001, s 104).

- (4) Where a licence expires, is cancelled or is suspended, the holder of the licence shall forthwith deliver the licence to the registrar.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

14 Misrepresentation as to quality etc of property

An auctioneer shall not knowingly misrepresent, or cause or permit to be misrepresented, the composition, structure, character, quality, origin or manufacture of any property offered by the auctioneer for sale by auction.

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units.

15 Record to be kept by auctioneers

- (1) An auctioneer shall forthwith record, in a book to be kept by him or her for the purpose, full particulars of any property sold by the auctioneer at auction and shall preserve the record so made in respect of any sale for a period of at least 12 months after the date of the sale.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) An auctioneer shall, when at any reasonable time so requested by a member of the police force, produce to the member the book kept by the auctioneer for subsection (1).

Maximum penalty (subsection (2)): 5 penalty units.

17 Amendment of notices etc and extensions of time

On the hearing of an application under this Act, the court may, for the application, and on terms as to costs or otherwise as it deems fit—

- (a) permit the amendment of a notice, document or instrument; and

- (b) if satisfied that injustice to any person will not be occasioned by so doing, disregard a defect in a notice, document or instrument; and
- (c) enlarge or abridge the time fixed by this Act for doing any act or thing, whether the application for the enlargement or abridgement is made before or after the expiration of the time so fixed.

18 Approved forms

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, approve forms for this Act.
- (2) If the Minister approves a form for a particular purpose, the approved form must be used for that purpose.
- (3) An approved form is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

19 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note Regulations must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (2) The regulations may prescribe offences for contraventions of the regulations and prescribe maximum penalties of not more than 10 penalty units for offences against the regulations.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.

3 Legislation history

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Auctioneers Ordinance 1959 No 2 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
