REPEALED ACTS AND ORDINANCES

Australian Capital Territory

LOTTERIES ACT 1964

An Act relating to Lotteries

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Lotteries Act 1964.¹

Commencement

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of September, One thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.

Repeal and transitional

3. (1) The Ordinances specified in Part I of the Schedule to this Act are repealed.

- (2) The Imperial Acts specified in Part II of the Schedule to this Act cease to apply to the Territory.

- (3) Notwithstanding the last two preceding subsections, the Ordinances and Imperial Acts referred to in those subsections continue to apply to and in relation to a lottery that is being conducted at the commencement of this Act, and this Act does not apply to or in relation to such a lottery.

Interpretation

4. (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“approved lottery” means a lottery approval for the conducting of which has been granted under section seven of this Act;

“association” means an organization, club, society or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, but does not include a body established or carried on solely or principally for the purpose of conducting a lottery or of gaming or wagering;

“unlawful game” has the same meaning as in the Unlawful Games Act 1984.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a lottery shall be deemed to be being conducted from the time when the first subscription to the lottery is paid until the time when all the prizes in the lottery have been distributed.

Application

4A. This Act does not apply in relation to a pool betting scheme or a pool betting competition within the meaning of the Pool Betting Act 1964.

Lotteries

5. (1) For the purposes of this Act, a lottery is a scheme or arrangement, whether real or pretended, by which prizes (whether of money or of any other property, benefit, matter or thing) are or are to be, or are represented or understood as capable of being, drawn, thrown or competed for or gained in any other way by lot, dice or any other mode of chance or by reference to any event or contingency depending upon chance, whether the scheme or arrangement is, either in whole or in part, established or conducted or intended or proposed to be established or conducted in the Territory or elsewhere.

(2) A scheme or arrangement that involves the distribution of property that is capable of being fairly apportioned among the owners of the property and is proposed, as far as practicable, to be apportioned equally among those owners is not a lottery for the purposes of this Act.

Exempt lotteries

6. (1) For the purposes of this Act, an exempt lottery is—

- (b) a lottery that is conducted in the course of carrying on a trade or business and in which the prizes consist of the granting of rebates, discounts or other allowances in respect of amounts payable, or the granting of refunds of amounts paid, for goods sold or services performed in the course of carrying on that trade or business;
- (c) a lottery in respect of which—
 - (i) the total value of the prizes does not exceed forty dollars; and

- (ii) the proceeds of the subscriptions, after payment of any expenses incurred in printing tickets and purchasing prizes, are used wholly and exclusively for charitable purposes; or

(d) a private lottery,

not being a lottery the prizes of which are, or are capable of being, drawn, thrown or competed for or gained in any other way by or by reference to the playing of an unlawful game.

(2) For the purposes of the last preceding subsection, a private lottery is a lottery—

- (a) in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who—
 - (i) are members of the same association or work or reside in the same premises; and
 - (ii) subscribe to the lottery, whether by the purchase of tickets or otherwise;
- (b) that is conducted—
 - (i) in the case of a lottery in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who are members of the same association—by a person who is a member of the association and is authorized by the governing body of the association to conduct the lottery; or
 - (ii) in the case of a lottery in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who work or reside in the same premises—by a person who works or resides in those premises;
- (c) in which the same amount is payable for each chance to win a prize and, in the case of a lottery to which subscriptions are made by the purchase of tickets, the amount so payable is specified on each ticket;
- (d) in which each subscriber contributes the full amount payable for each of his chances and does not receive a refund of the whole or any part of his contributions;
- (e) that is not advertised except—
 - (i) in the case of a lottery in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who are members of the same association—by the exhibition of a notice at premises of the association; or

- (ii) in the case of a lottery in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who work or reside in the same premises—by the exhibition of a notice at those premises;
- (f) in which tickets are not sent to subscribers through the post; and
- (g) in which the proceeds of subscriptions to the lottery, after payment of any expenses incurred in printing tickets for the lottery, are used wholly and exclusively—
 - (i) in the case of a lottery in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who work or reside in the same premises—for the provision of prizes; or
 - (ii) in the case of a lottery in which chances to win prizes are restricted to persons who are members of the same association—for the provision of prizes and for the purposes of the association.
