(8) The Sheriff shall from time to time revise the jury list—

- (a) by striking off the list the name of each person who, to the knowledge of the Sheriff, is dead, is not qualified to serve as a juror or is exempt from serving as a juror; and

- (a) a person whose name has been so chosen is dead, is exempt from serving as a juror or has become a disqualified person;
- (b) a person whose name has been so chosen is a person referred to in the next succeeding section; or
- (c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is unlikely that a person whose name has been so chosen will be served with the jury summons,

(3) The Sheriff shall prepare, and furnish the Commissioner with a copy of, a list of the names chosen under subsection (1) or (2), as the case requires.

(4) The Commissioner or a person authorized by him for the purpose may make such inquiries as he thinks fit in an endeavour to ascertain whether any person whose name is included on the list referred to in subsection (3) is a disqualified person and the Commissioner or the first-mentioned person, as the case requires, shall report in writing the result of any such inquiries to the Sheriff.

(7) Where the Sheriff calls upon a person to show cause under subsection (6), he shall, in the relevant notice, include a statement to the effect that if the person is aggrieved by a decision of the Sheriff to strike his name off the jury list, he may apply for a review of the decision under section 20.

(8) The Sheriff shall cause to be served upon each person whose name was chosen under subsection (1) or (2), as the case requires, and whose name was not, in pursuance of subsection (6), removed from the list referred to in subsection (3) a summons in accordance with Form 2 in the Second Schedule together with a notice that contains—

- (a) a statement of the grounds on which, under section 10, persons are not qualified to serve as jurors; and

PART VI—STRIKING AND IMPANELLING JURYStriking a jury at a criminal trial

31. (1) At the commencement of a criminal trial, the proper officer shall draw the jury cards out of a ballot-box one at a time and call aloud the name and occupation shown on each card so drawn until twelve persons have entered the jury-box.

(3) The names of the persons so appointed shall be deemed to have been returned on the jury precept and to have been included in the jury panel and the Sheriff shall deliver to the proper officer a jury card showing the name and occupation of each of those persons.

(3) Where there are several plaintiffs not all of whom are represented by the same counsel or there are several defendants not all of whom are represented by the same counsel, the last preceding subsection applies as if the words “so many persons as the Judge directs” were substituted for the words “twelve of the persons”.

42. (1) Where a fine has been imposed on a juror, the Registrar shall give notice in writing to the juror of the fact that the fine has been imposed.

(2) A notice in writing under the last preceding subsection may be served in the manner in which a jury summons may be served.

(3) Within twenty-one days after the notice is served, the juror may apply to the Judge in writing, supported by an affidavit or statutory declaration, for the remission or mitigation of the fine on one of the following grounds, namely:

- (a) that the juror was, by reason of illness or other sufficient cause, unable to attend or to continue to attend to serve as a juror; or

(4) The Judge may confirm, remit or mitigate the fine and the Registrar shall give notice in writing to the juror of the decision of the Judge.

(5) A notice in writing under the last preceding subsection may be served in the manner in which a jury summons may be served.

(6) Where application is not made under subsection (3) of this section or application is so made but the Judge confirms or mitigates the fine, and the fine or the fine as mitigated remains unpaid for a period of twenty-one days after the notice referred to in the last preceding subsection is served, the Registrar may deliver to the Sheriff a writ of execution in accordance with Form 3 in the Second Schedule.

- (b) in the case of a body corporate—$15,000.

(2) If all the elements of the offence other than the reason for the employer’s action are proved, the onus of proving that the dismissal, injury or alteration was not because the employee was summoned to serve as a juror is on the employer.

(3) Where an employer is convicted under subsection (1), the court may make either or both of the following orders:

- (a) an order that the employer pay to the employee a specified sum by way of reimbursement for the salary or wages lost by the employee;
- (b) an order that the employee be reinstated in his or her former position or in a similar position.

- (a) a person incurs expense during his service as a juror, being expense which he would not have incurred but for that service; and
- (b) that expense was incurred in circumstances arising after the person was sworn as a juror, being circumstances that would have constituted a sufficient cause for the person to be excused attendance on the Court under this Act if they had arisen before he was so sworn, the person may apply to the Sheriff for payment to the person of an amount equal to the amount of that expense.

(2) Where an application is made to the Sheriff under subsection (1), the Sheriff shall consider the application and may grant payment to the applicant of the whole of the amount of the expense incurred by the applicant or such lesser amount as the Sheriff considers reasonable.
