Part 4 Contributions to fund

Division 4.1 Surcharge on compulsory insurance policies

22 Employers to pay surcharge

- (1) An employer who obtains a compulsory insurance policy from an approved insurer must pay to the insurer the prescribed surcharge for the policy.
- (2) For this section, the prescribed surcharge for a compulsory insurance policy is an amount equal to 10% (or, if a lesser percentage is determined in writing by the Minister, the lesser percentage) of the billed underwritten premium (the premium), not including GST, for the policy.
- (3) The prescribed surcharge applies to a premium or premium instalment at the rate in force—
 - (a) if the premium or instalment is paid early or on time—at payment; or
 - (b) if the premium or instalment is paid late—when the premium or instalment was payable.
- (4) A determination is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.
- (5) An employer mentioned in subsection (1) must pay the prescribed surcharge when the employer pays the premium for the compulsory insurance policy.

- (6) If the employer pays the premium in instalments, the employer must pay the surcharge in corresponding instalments.

Examples

- 1 An employer's annual premium is $600. If the prescribed surcharge is 10%, the surcharge of $60 must be paid when the premium is paid, making a total payment of $660.
- 2 An employer's annual premium is billed in monthly instalments of $125. If the surcharge is 10%, the surcharge of $12.50 must be paid with each monthly instalment, making a total monthly payment of $137.50.
- 3 An employer is billed an additional premium of $100 because of an adjustment of premium. If the prescribed surcharge is 10%, the surcharge of $10 must be paid with the additional premium, making a total payment of $110.
- 4 An employer pays an annual premium of $1 000 on 1 July 2002. On 1 January 2003 a prescribed surcharge of 10% is introduced. The surcharge does not apply to the employer's already billed premium, but will apply at the prevailing rate when the next premium is paid on 1 July 2003.
- 5 An employer pays an annual premium of $1 000 plus the 10% surcharge on 1 July 2002. On 1 January 2003 the surcharge is reduced to 5%. The decrease does not affect the surcharge already paid, but any adjustment of the premium billed after the reduction will incur the surcharge at the reduced rate.
- 6 An employer's premium for 2002-2003 is billed in monthly instalments of $100, plus the 10% surcharge of $10 (a total monthly payment of $110), on the 10th of each month. On 1 January 2003, the surcharge is reduced to 5%. On 10 January 2003 the employer will have to pay the premium of $100 plus a surcharge of $5, making a total monthly payment of $105.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 126 and s 132).

23 Exempt employers to pay surcharge

- (1) An employer granted an exemption under the Compensation Act, section 152 (Self-insurers) must pay to the manager an amount assessed by the manager on the advice of the committee.
- (2) The amount assessed by the manager under subsection (1) is the amount of the surcharge that would have been payable by the employer under this Act in relation to a compulsory insurance policy if no exemption had been granted to the employer under the Compensation Act, section 152.

- (3) Payment under subsection (1) for a financial year must be made within 30 days after the end of the financial year, unless otherwise allowed by the manager.
- (4) The manager may allow payments mentioned in subsection (3) to be made in instalments.

24 Payments of amounts by approved insurer

- (1) An approved insurer shall, within 14 days after the end of each month—
 - (a) pay to the manager all amounts received by the insurer in pursuance of section 22 during that month; and
 - (b) forward to the manager a statement in writing setting out the amounts received by the insurer by way of premium in respect of compulsory insurance policies during that month and such other particulars(if any) as are prescribed.
- (2) A statement under subsection (1) (b) shall be certified by a statutory declaration made by the appropriate officer of the approved insurer.
- (3) The manager, or a person appointed in writing by the manager, may, at any reasonable hour of the day, enter the premises of an approved insurer and inspect any books or documents of the insurer relating to—
 - (a) any amounts received by the insurer in pursuance of section 22 or by way of premium in respect of compulsory insurance policies; or
 - (b) any statement forwarded to the manager by the insurer under this section.
- (4) The manager, or a person appointed by the manager under this section, is not authorised to remain on any premises or inspect any books or documents if, on being requested by the person in charge of the premises to produce evidence in writing of his or her appointment as manager or his or her appointment under this section, as the case may be, the manager fails to do so.

- (5) A person shall not obstruct, threaten or intimidate the manager, or a person appointed by the manager under this section, in the exercise of his or her powers or functions under this section.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

25 Refunds

- (1) Where an employer is entitled to receive from an approved insurer a refund of any amount paid by way of premium in respect of a compulsory insurance policy, the insurer shall, in addition to any amount paid to the employer by way of refund of premium, pay to the employer by way of refund of the surcharge paid by the employer under section 22 an amount that represents a proportionate part of that surcharge.
- (2) Where an approved insurer pays an amount to an employer by way of refund under subsection (1), the manager shall, on application by the insurer, pay to the insurer out of the fund an amount equal to the amount so paid by the insurer.
- (3) Where the manager finds that there has been an overpayment into the fund of any amount payable under this Act, the manager shall cause to be paid out of the fund to the person who made the overpayment a refund of the amount by which the amount payable was so overpaid.

Division 4.2 Contributions by Territory

25A Territory contributions to fund

- (1) The Territory may contribute to the fund.
- (2) However, the Territory is not obliged to contribute to the fund and is not liable to pay, or contribute to the payment of, any claim against the fund or any costs, expenses, fees or other amounts payable by the fund.

25B Repayment of Territory contributions to fund

- (1) If the Territory has made a contribution to the fund that has not been repaid to the Territory in full and the Treasurer is satisfied the fund contains an amount (the surplus amount) that is not needed to meet reasonably foreseeable claims against the fund, the Treasurer may in writing direct the manager to repay to the Territory so much of the Territory contribution as is not more than the surplus amount.
- (2) On receiving a direction under subsection (1), the manager must pay to the Territory the amount stated in the direction.

3 Legislation history

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Workmen's Compensation Supplementation Fund Ordinance 1980 No 28 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

It was later renamed as the Workers' Compensation Supplementation Fund Act 1980, by the Workers' Compensation (Consequential Amendments) Act 1991 No 106 (see sch) and then as the Workers Compensation Supplementation Fund Act 1980, by the Workers Compensation (Acts of Terrorism) Amendment Act 2002 No 22 (see sch).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
