About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Common Boundaries Act 1981 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 10 January 2005. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 10 January 2005.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

- (3) If, on an application under section 4, a party to the application has requested the Small Claims Court to determine that a basic fence should be erected between the parcels of land to which the application relates, the court shall not determine that that party should contribute towards the cost of erecting a fence between those parcels an amount exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ of the cost of erecting a basic fence between those parcels.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the Small Claims Court is satisfied—
 - (a) that it is not practicable for a basic fence to be erected between the parcels of land in question; or

 - (a) a fence erected between adjoining parcels of land has been damaged or destroyed; and
 - (b) it is necessary, to protect persons residing in premises situated on one of the parcels or to prevent the escape of animals, that the fence be repaired or replaced, as the case may be, without delay; the occupier of either of the parcels may, without giving notice to the occupier of the other parcel, repair or replace the fence.

- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if under subsection (4), an occupier of a parcel of land has repaired or replaced a fence, that occupier may make application to the Small Claims Court for a determination under section 7 (5).

- (6) An occupier of a parcel of land is not entitled to make an application under subsection (5) until the end of 14 days after the date when he or she requests the occupier of the adjoining parcel of land to contribute to the cost of the repair or replacement effected by the firstmentioned occupier.
- (7) The parties to an application under this section shall be the applicant and the occupier to whom notice has been given under subsection (3) or to whom, apart from subsection (4), the applicant would have been required to give notice under subsection (3).
- (8) On receiving an application under subsection (1) or (5), the registrar must—

- (4) For the purpose of determining the amount that should be contributed by a party referred to in subsection (3) (d) towards the cost of repairing or replacing a fence, the Small Claims Court shall adopt the principle that the cost should be borne by the parties in equal proportions unless there are circumstances that render it just that one party bear a greater proportion of the cost than the other party.

- (5) In an inquiry on an application under section 6 (5), the Small Claims Court shall determine whether it is reasonable that the party to the application other than the applicant be required to contribute to the cost of the repair or replacement effected by the applicant.
- (6) If, on an application under section 6 (5), the Small Claims Court determines that it is reasonable that a person be required to contribute to the cost of the repair or replacement of a fence, the court shall also determine—
 - (a) the amount that should be contributed; and
 - (b) how, and the time within which, that amount should be paid to the applicant.
- (7) For the purpose of determining, on an application under section 6 (5), the amount that should be contributed by a party to the application to the cost of repairing or replacing a fence, the Small Claims Court shall adopt the principle that the cost of repairing or replacing the fence, as the case may be, should be borne by the parties to the application in equal proportions unless there are circumstances that render it just that one party bear a greater proportion of the cost than the other party.

11 Contribution by occupier of previously unleased land

- (1) If—
- (a) the occupier of a parcel of land has begun erecting a fence between that parcel and adjoining land that is not a parcel of land for this division; and
 - (b) within 6 months after the date when the erection of the fence began, the adjoining land becomes a parcel of land for this division;

the person who occupies the firstmentioned parcel of land at the time the adjoining land becomes a parcel of land for this division may apply to the Small Claims Court for a determination under section 12.

Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004 for this provision, the form must be used.

- (2) If—
- (a) the occupier of a parcel of land has begun erecting a fence between that parcel and adjoining land that is not a parcel of land for this division; and

- (1) The Small Claims Court may hold an inquiry on an application under section 11 under a direction of the registrar under that section or the rules.
- (2) In an inquiry on an application under section 11, the Small Claims Court shall determine whether it is reasonable that the party to the application other than the applicant be required to contribute to the cost of the erection of the fence by the applicant.
- (3) If, on an application under section 11, the Small Claims Court determines that it is reasonable that a person be required to contribute to the cost of the erection of a fence, the court shall also determine—
- (a) the amount that should be contributed; and
 - (b) how, and the time within which, that amount should be paid to the applicant.
- (4) For the purposes of determining the amount that should be contributed under subsection (3) (a), the Small Claims Court shall adopt the principle that—
- (a) for an application under section 11 (1)—the amount should be an amount equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the cost of erecting the fence referred to in section 11 (1) (a) or an amount equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount that would have represented the cost of erecting that fence if that fence had been a basic fence, whichever is the less; and

- (b) for an application under section 11 (2)—the amount should be a reasonable amount but, in any event, the amount should not exceed $\frac{1}{2}$ of the cost of erecting the fence or $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount that would have represented the cost of erecting the fence if the fence had been a basic fence, whichever is the less.

18 Service of documents

- (1) A document that is required by this division to be served on the occupier of a parcel of land may be served—
 - (a) if the occupier is the Territory—by sending the notice by post to the chief executive; and
 - (b) if the occupier is the Commonwealth—by sending the notice by post to the secretary to the Commonwealth department for the time being responsible for the administration of national land; and
 - (c) in any other case—by sending the document by post addressed to the occupier at his or her address last known to the person sending the document or at the parcel of land.
- (2) If 2 or more persons are the occupiers of a parcel of land, a document that has been served on one of those persons shall be deemed to have been served on both or all of those persons, as the case may be.

- (3) This section does not limit the operation of any other Territory law (including the rules) that authorises or requires service of a document otherwise than as provided under this section.

19 Apportionment of liability of joint lessees

- (1) In this section:

order means—

- (a) a determination made under section 5, 7 or 12; or
 - (b) an order (however described) under the rules in relation to the enforcement of a determination mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (2) If 2 or more persons occupy a parcel of land as joint tenants, tenants in common or joint lessees and an order requires those persons to make a payment—
- (a) those persons are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the amount payable under the order; and
 - (b) as between themselves, the liability to pay the amount shall, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, be borne in equal proportions; and
 - (c) one of those persons who pays more than his or her proportionate amount may recover the excess as a debt due by the other person or persons.

21 Div 2.3 not affected

This division does not affect the operation of division 2.3 (Damage by fire to fences).

22 Directions regarding entry by people on land

- (1) If the Small Claims Court makes a determination under this division in relation to the erection, repair or replacement of a fence, the court may, by its determination, give the directions that it considers necessary in relation to the entry of persons on land in connection with the erection, repair or replacement of the fence.

- (2) The Small Claims Court shall not give directions under this section in relation to the entry of persons on land other than land—
- (a) occupied by a party to the application; or
 - (b) occupied by a sublessee, tenant, licensee or other person in possession from a party to the application;
- on which the directions were given.
- (3) If a person has been given a direction under this section, he or she may, at all reasonable times, enter on land in accordance with that direction for the purpose of undertaking the work that may be necessary for the erection, repair or replacement of a fence specified in that direction.

Division 2.2 Fences required by authority

23 Boundary between leased and unleased land

If there is a common boundary between a parcel of leased Territory land and an area of unleased Territory land, the planning and land authority may, by written notice to the lessee of the parcel of leased land, require the lessee to erect a fence on that boundary or any part of it.

24 Boundary between 2 parcels of leased land

If there is a common boundary between 2 parcels of leased Territory land included in different leases, the planning and land authority may, by written notice to each lessee, require them jointly to erect a fence on that boundary or any part of it.

25 Notice under div 2.2

A notice under section 23 or 24 shall specify the fence to be erected and the part of the boundary where it is to be erected.

26 Noncompliance with notice under div 2.2

If a fence in compliance with a notice is not erected within 1 month after the date of the notice—

- (a) the planning and land authority may, at the cost of the lessee, cause the fence to be erected; and
- (b) the lessee shall pay to the authority, on demand, the amount fixed by the authority as the cost of erecting the fence or as the proportion payable by the lessee of that cost.

Division 2.3 Damage by fire to fences

26A Damage by fire to dividing fence

- (1) If the occupier of any land clears it of flammable materials for the space of 6m from any fence dividing that land from the land of any other owner or occupier, and the other owner or occupier neglects or omits so to clear his or her land and any damage from fire happens to the dividing fence through that neglect or omission, the owner or occupier so neglecting or omitting to clear shall at his or her own costs and charges cause the fence to be repaired and re-erected within 1 month after it has been so damaged, or within the extended time that may be allowed by the Small Claims Court.
- (2) Reasonable notice of the application shall be given to the occupier who has cleared his or her land.
- (3) If the owner or occupier so neglecting or omitting to clear refuses or omits to repair or re-erect the fence as prescribed in subsection (1), the owner or occupier of the land contiguous to the fence who has cleared his or her land as prescribed may repair or re-erect the dividing fence.
- (4) All sums of money that are so expended or laid out under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be money paid to the use of the owner or occupier in default.

Part 3 Party walls

27 Meaning of party wall in pt 3

In this part:

party wall—

- (a) means a wall or structure designed for the common use of 2 or more buildings and erected, or to be erected, on a common boundary, or part of such a boundary, between 2 parcels of land, and extending laterally into each of those parcels of land; and
- (b) includes any wall that is completely or partly used to support 2 or more buildings, if the wall was erected in connection with a building for which there is a certificate of occupancy under the Building Act 2004.

28 Erection of party walls

If, in a building approval under the Building Act 2004 for a building to be erected on land that is leased Territory land, a party wall is shown or provided for on the common boundary, or part of that boundary, between 2 parcels of land that are leased Territory land—

- (a) the lessee of each parcel of land may, during the continuance of his or her lease—
 - (i) erect, maintain and use a party wall in the position shown on the building plan or design; and
 - (ii) use for the support of the building or buildings provided for in, or shown on, the building plan or design and erected on the parcel of land of which he or she is lessee any party wall so erected; and

- (b) the lessees of the 2 parcels of land may agree about the lessee by whom the party wall shall be erected and in what proportions the cost of erection shall be borne by them; and
- (c) if the lessee of 1 parcel of land has at his or her own expense erected a party wall—the lessee of the other parcel of land shall forthwith after beginning the erection of a building on the other parcel of land pay to the firstmentioned lessee a proportion of the cost of the erection of the party wall; and
- (d) in default of agreement between the lessees about the apportionment of the cost of erecting a party wall—the planning and land authority may, at the request of either lessee, determine the cost of erecting the party wall and the proportion of the cost to be borne by each lessee; and
- (e) if any period has elapsed between the date of the completion of a party wall by the lessee of 1 parcel of land and the date of the beginning of the erection of a building on the other parcel of land—a reasonable allowance shall be made for depreciation of the party wall in determining the proportion payable by the other lessee of the cost of erection of the party wall; and

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Dividing Fences Ordinance 1981 No 39 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day). It was later renamed by the Land (Planning and Environment) (Consequential Provisions) Act 1991 (see s 20).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
