Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 (repealed)

A1987-41

Republication No 6

Effective: 1 March 1999

Republication date: 12 February 2020

As repealed by A1999-5 sch 1

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 (repealed) effective 1 March 1999.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

 - (b) a person has made a statement for the purposes of subparagraph 61 (1) (d) (i) of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 in which the amount stated as the market value of the vehicle concerned is more or less than the amount that, in the Commissioner's opinion, was the market value of the vehicle at the time when the application for registration of the vehicle was made; the Commissioner may respectively assess the amount of tax, duty or the licence fee that, in his or her opinion, is payable, or assess for those purposes the market value of the vehicle concerned at that time.

- (2) An assessment shall not be made under subsection (1) in relation to the registration of a vehicle more than 3 years after the registration was effected unless the statement referred to in that paragraph was false or misleading in a material particular.

(2A) The Commissioner may, at any time after assessing an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax payable under section 30 or a licence fee, amend the assessment by making such alterations or additions to it as he or she thinks necessary if the Commissioner believes on reasonable grounds that—

- (a) there is evidence of tax avoidance due to fraud or evasion by the person liable to pay the amount assessed; or
- (b) a material fact has been omitted from information provided to the Commissioner by the person liable to pay the amount assessed.

(3) If, as a result of amending an assessment, the amount payable of tax, duty, penalty tax under section 30 or a licence fee is reduced, the amount by which it is reduced shall be taken, for the purposes of section 31, never to have been payable.

(4) As soon as practicable after amending an assessment pursuant to this section, the Commissioner shall give the person adjudged by the Commissioner to be liable to pay the tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fee to which the assessment relates, notice in writing of—

- (a) the amended assessment;
- (b) the amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or the licence fee payable under the amended assessment;
- (c) the amount by which the tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fee was overpaid or underpaid; and

- (d) the amount of penalty tax (if any) payable under section 31 by virtue of the amendment.

22A. Compromise assessments

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) the facts of a case are so complex or uncertain; or
 - (b) for any other reason;

it is difficult or impracticable for the Commissioner to make an accurate assessment of a person's liability for tax, duty or a licence fee under a tax law without undue delay or expense.

- (2) Where this section applies, the Commissioner may, by agreement in writing with the person, assess as the amount of the liability an amount specified in, or ascertained in accordance with, the agreement.
- (3) Notwithstanding section 89, Part XII does not apply in relation to the agreed assessment.
- (4) The Commissioner may accept payment of the amount to which the agreement relates in full discharge of the relevant liability and payment of that amount has effect accordingly unless it was procured by fraud or a wilful failure to disclose material facts.

23. Assessments in relation to deceased persons

The Commissioner has the same powers of assessment in relation to a trustee of a deceased person as he or she would have in relation to the person if the person were alive.

24. Validity of assessments

The validity of an assessment shall not be taken to be affected only because this Act has not been complied with.

25. Remissions of duty or tax

Tax, duty or a licence fee shall be remitted in the same circumstances as those in which it would be refunded under a tax law if it had been paid.

PART IV—PAYMENT OF TAXES, DUTIES, PENALTY TAX AND INTEREST

Division 1—Payment and related matters

26. Time for payment

- (1) Tax is due and payable—
- (a) in accordance with the relevant tax law;
 - (b) if that law makes no provision in relation to the time for payment—on the last day on which the return in respect of the tax is required to be lodged under that law; or
 - (c) within such further time as the Commissioner allows, whether by notice under subsection 12B (3) or otherwise.
- (2) Duty on an instrument is due and payable—
- (a) if the instrument is required by a tax law to be lodged with the Commissioner for assessment—
 - (i) on the date specified for the purpose in the notice of assessment;
 - (ii) if a date is not specified, or a notice is not served on the person by whom the duty is payable—within 30 days after the person is informed of the assessment; or
 - (iii) within such further time as the Commissioner allows; or
 - (b) in any other case—
 - (i) at the time when the instrument is required by a tax law to be duly stamped; or
 - (ii) within such further time as the Commissioner allows.
- (3) Tax in respect of the registration of a vehicle is due and payable at the time of registration.
- (4) Penalty tax is due and payable on the date specified for the purpose in the notice of assessment of the penalty tax, or within such further time as the Commissioner allows.
- (5) The Commissioner may permit the payment of tax, duty or penalty tax to be made by instalments in such amounts and at such times as the Commissioner determines, and each instalment of the tax, duty or penalty tax is due and payable at the time determined by the Commissioner in relation to the instalment.

(6) If an instalment of tax, duty or penalty tax is not paid on or before the time that payment is due, the whole of the outstanding amount of the tax, duty or penalty tax becomes due and payable at that time.

27. Treatment of related instruments or unrelated matters

(1) Where 2 or more instruments together but not separately relate to the same matter, for the purposes of a tax law the instruments shall be treated as a single instrument executed at the time when the later or last instrument respectively was executed.

(2) Where an instrument relates to several distinct matters in respect of which tax or duty is payable, for the purposes of a tax law, each matter shall be treated as if it were dealt with in a separate instrument.

28. Valuation of foreign currency

Where tax or duty in relation to an instrument is payable in respect of an amount expressed in the instrument otherwise than in Australian currency, the tax or duty shall be calculated in Australian currency at the rate of exchange current at the date of the instrument.

29. Adjustments for fractions of a cent

Where an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax, a licence fee or interest calculated in accordance with a tax law is not a multiple of 1 cent, the amount shall—

- (a) if the amount is a multiple of 0.5 cents—be increased by 0.5 cent; or
- (b) in any other case—be increased or decreased, as the case requires, to the nearest multiple of 1 cent.

Division 2—Penalty taxes

30. Failure to lodge documents etc.

(1) A person who fails—

- (a) to lodge a return, or to give any information, in relation to a matter or thing;
- (aa) to make an application for the renewal of a licence;
- (b) to lodge an instrument for assessment; or
- (c) to cause an instrument to be duly stamped;

as required by a tax law, is liable to pay, as a penalty, an additional amount equal to double the amount of tax, licence fee or duty payable in respect of the matter, thing, renewal or instrument, as the case requires.

(2) Where—

- (a) a person makes a statement to a tax officer that is false or misleading in a material particular, or omits from a statement made to a tax officer any matter or thing without which the statement is misleading in a material particular; and
- (b) the amount of duty, tax or the licence fee payable by the person exceeds the amount that would have been payable if it were assessed or determined on the basis that the statement was not false or misleading;

the person is liable to pay, as a penalty, an additional amount equal to double the amount of the excess.

(3) Where, but for this subsection, the amount of penalty tax payable under subsection (1) or (2) is less than $20, the amount payable shall be taken to be $20.

(4) The Commissioner shall assess the amount of penalty tax payable by a person under subsection (1) or (2) and shall, as soon as practicable after making the assessment, give the person written notice of the assessment.

(5) Nothing in this Act shall be taken to preclude notice of an assessment made in relation to a person under subsection (4) from being incorporated in notice of any other assessment made in relation to the person under a tax law.

(6) A reference in subsection (2) to a statement shall be read as a reference to a statement made orally, in writing, by means of a data processing device or in any other form.

(7) A reference in subsection (2) to a statement shall be read as including a statement—

- (a) made in an application, certificate, declaration, notification, objection, return or other document made or given pursuant to a tax law;
- (b) made in an instrument lodged for assessment pursuant to a tax law;
- (c) made in answer to a question asked of a person pursuant to a tax law;
- (d) made in any information given or purporting to be given pursuant to a tax law; or

- (e) made in a document given to a tax officer otherwise than pursuant to a tax law;

but shall not be read as including a reference to a statement made in a document produced pursuant to paragraph 18 (2) (c).

(8) Where—

- (a) a statement referred to in subsection (2) is made for a purpose in connection with the operation of a tax law; and
- (b) the statement is made—
 - (i) in an application, certificate, declaration, notification or other document made or given to a person other than a tax officer;
 - (ii) in answer to a question asked by a person other than a tax officer; or
 - (iii) in any information given to a person other than a tax officer;

that subsection applies in relation to the person who makes the statement as if the person to whom the statement is made were a tax officer.

31. Failure to pay tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fees

(1) If an amount by way of tax, duty, penalty tax payable under subsection 30 (1) or (2) or licence fee is not paid on or before the due date, the person liable to pay it is liable to pay an additional amount by way of interest.

(1A) The interest shall be an amount calculated—

- (a) on the amount, or any part of the amount, remaining unpaid;
- (b) at the rate determined from time to time under subsection 99 (1) for the purposes of this section; and
- (c) on a daily basis.

(2) Where judgment is entered by a court for the payment of an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax payable under subsection 30 (1) or (2) or a licence fee, or of an amount that includes an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax payable under subsection 30 (1) or (2) or a licence fee—

- (a) the tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fee shall not be taken, for the purposes of subsection (1), to have ceased to be due and payable only because the judgment was entered; and

- (b) if interest is payable on the judgment debt, the penalty tax that would, but for this paragraph, be payable under subsection (1) in relation to the tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fee shall, by force of this paragraph, be reduced—
 - (i) in the case of an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee—by the amount of the interest; or
 - (ii) in the case of an amount that includes an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee—by an amount that bears the same proportion to the amount of the interest as the tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fee bears to the amount of the judgment debt.

32. Remission of penalty tax

(1) The Commissioner may remit all or part of an amount of penalty tax payable by a person in relation to an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee if the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) where the Commissioner is of the opinion that the circumstances that resulted in the person's liability for the first-mentioned penalty tax were not caused directly or indirectly by an act or omission of the person—that the person has taken reasonable steps to mitigate, or to mitigate the effects of, those circumstances;
- (b) where the Commissioner is of the opinion that the circumstances that resulted in the person's liability for the first-mentioned penalty tax were caused directly or indirectly by an act or omission of the person—that—
 - (i) the person has taken reasonable steps to mitigate, or to mitigate the effects of, those circumstances; and
 - (ii) having regard to the nature of those circumstances, it would be fair and reasonable to remit part or all of the penalty tax; or
- (c) that, having regard to the nature of the circumstances that resulted in the person's liability for the first-mentioned penalty tax it would be fair and reasonable to remit all or part of the penalty tax.

(2) For the purposes of the application of subsection 26 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1967 to the power of remission conferred by subsection (1), subsection 30 (4) shall not be taken to preclude the exercise of the power before an assessment of the amount of penalty tax payable is made under section 30.

Division 3—Overpayments

33. Refunds of overpaid amounts

If, because of an assessment in relation to a return or an instrument, or an assessment pursuant to subsection 20 (1) in relation to the registration of a vehicle, a person has overpaid an amount of tax, duty or a licence fee, the overpaid amount shall be refunded to the person.

34. Interest on overpaid amounts

(1) Where, on considering an objection, the Commissioner, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court finds that part or all of an amount of tax, duty or a licence fee paid by a person has been overpaid, interest calculated in accordance with this Part is payable to the person by the Territory on the overpaid amount.

(2) Where the amount was paid in instalments, for the purposes of subsection 35 (1) each instalment shall be treated as a separate amount.

(3) If the amount was paid in instalments, and part only of the amount is found to have been overpaid, the overpaid amount shall be attributed to the instalments in reverse order to the order in which the instalments were paid.

35. Amount of interest payable

(1) The determined amount of interest is payable on an overpaid amount.

(2) Interest payable on an overpaid amount shall be calculated in respect of the period beginning on—

- (a) the day on which notice of the assessment in relation to the original amount of the tax, duty or licence fee was issued by the Commissioner; or
- (b) the day on which the original amount was paid;

whichever is later, and ending on the day on which the overpaid amount was refunded to the person who paid it, or applied against a liability of the person under a tax law, as the case may be.

36. Circumstances in which interest is not payable

Interest is not payable to a person on an overpaid amount of penalty tax payable under section 31 in respect of any periods in relation to which the overpaid amount has been passed on by the person to another person and has not been refunded to the other person by the first-mentioned person.

37. Payments of small amounts of interest or tax

(1) Where the amount of interest that would, but for this subsection, be payable on an overpaid amount is—

- (a) if an amount has been determined for the purposes of this subsection under subsection 99 (1)—less than the determined amount; or
- (b) in any other case—less than $5.00;

no interest is payable on the overpaid amount.

(2) Where—

- (a) an amount of interest payable to a person under this Division is applied by the Commissioner against a tax liability of the person; and
- (b) the amount (if any) remaining to be paid by the person to the Commissioner, or to be refunded to the person by the Commissioner, would, but for this section, be less than 50 cents;

then, by force of this subsection, the remaining amount ceases to be payable by the person or to the person, as the case requires.

Division 4—Underpayments

38. Interest on underpaid amounts

(1) Where, under an amendment of an assessment of an amount of tax, duty or a licence fee payable by a person, the amount payable is increased, interest calculated in accordance with this Division is payable by the person on the underpaid amount.

(2) Where—

- (a) but for this subsection, interest would be payable on an underpaid amount; and
- (b) a person is liable to pay penalty tax in respect of the matter to which the underpaid amount, or part of it, relates;

no interest is payable under subsection (1) on the underpaid amount.

(3) Where—

- (a) a person is liable, or would, but for subsection (7), be liable, to pay interest on an amount (in this subsection referred to as the “base amount”), being an amount that is part or all of an underpaid amount; and

- (b) as a result of the amendment by virtue of which the interest became payable, an amendment is made of an assessment of an amount of penalty tax payable by the person, under which the amount of penalty tax payable is increased;

interest calculated in accordance with this Division is payable by the person to the Commissioner on the amount ascertained in accordance with the formula $\frac{P \times B}{U}$, where—

- P is the amount by which the increased amount of penalty tax payable exceeds the amount payable under the assessment that was amended;
- B is the number of whole dollars in the base amount; and
- U is the number of whole dollars in the underpaid amount.

(4) The Commissioner shall serve on a person by whom interest is payable notice in writing specifying—

- (a) the period in respect of which the interest is payable;
- (b) the amount of interest payable; and
- (c) the date, being a date of not less than 30 days after the date of service of the notice, on which the amount becomes due and payable.

(5) Interest is due and payable on the date specified for the purpose in accordance with paragraph (4) (c).

(6) A notice referred to in subsection (4) may be incorporated in a notice of assessment.

(7) The Commissioner may remit all or part of an amount of interest payable by a person under this section in relation to an underpaid amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee if the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) where the Commissioner is of the opinion that the circumstances that contributed to the underpayment were not caused directly or indirectly by an act or omission of the person—that the person has taken reasonable steps to mitigate, or to mitigate the effects of, those circumstances;
- (b) where the Commissioner is of the opinion that the circumstances that contributed to the underpayment were caused directly or indirectly by an act or omission of the person—that—

- (i) the person has taken reasonable steps to mitigate, or to mitigate the effects of, those circumstances; and
 - (ii) having regard to the nature of those circumstances, it would be fair and reasonable to remit all or part of the interest; or
- (c) that, having regard to the nature of the circumstances that contributed to the underpayment, it would be fair and reasonable to remit all or part of the interest.

39. Amount of interest payable

(1) The determined amount of interest payable in respect of an underpaid amount.

(2) Interest payable under subsection 38 (1) shall be calculated in respect of the period beginning on the day on which the tax, duty or licence fee became due and payable under the assessment referred to in that subsection and ending on the day on which the current amendment of the assessment was made.

(3) Interest payable under subsection 38 (3) shall be calculated in respect of the period beginning on the day on which the penalty tax became due and payable under the assessment referred to in paragraph 38 (3) (b) or, if that assessment amended 1 or more earlier assessments, under the earliest of the assessments, and ending on the day on which the current amendment of the assessment is made.

(4) Where the Commissioner—

- (a) has granted an extension of time for the payment of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee; or
- (b) has permitted the payment of tax, duty or penalty tax by instalments;

the tax, duty, penalty tax or licence fee shall be taken, for the purposes of this section, to have become due and payable on the date determined for the purpose by the Commissioner, not being a date before the date on which the tax, duty or penalty tax was originally due and payable.

40. Payment of small amounts of interest

Where the amount of interest that would, but for this subsection, be payable on an underpaid amount is—

- (a) if an amount has been determined for the purposes of this section under subsection 99 (1)—less than the determined amount; or no interest is payable on the underpaid amount.
- (b) in any other case—less than $5.00;

PART V—RECOVERY OF TAXES AND DUTIES

41. Recovery as a debt due

Tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee, on becoming due and payable, is recoverable by the Commissioner on behalf of the Territory in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due.

42. Recovery from estate of deceased person

(1) The Commissioner has the same powers and remedies in relation to the trustee of a deceased person for the recovery of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee from the person's estate as the Commissioner would have in relation to the person if the person were alive.

(2) Penalty tax is payable by a trustee in respect of a deceased person's estate to the same extent as it would be payable by the person if the person were alive.

43. Payment by debtor of taxpayer

(1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing served on a debtor of a person in relation to an amount of a tax liability of the person, require the debtor to pay to the Commissioner an amount equal to the debt owed by the debtor to the person, or equal to the amount payable in respect of the liability, whichever is less.

(2) The Commissioner shall specify in the notice the time within which the amount payable by the debtor under subsection (1) is to be paid, not being a time before the debt becomes due.

(3) If the debt is payable in instalments, the Commissioner may specify in the notice an amount to be paid by the debtor to the person out of each instalment as it becomes due until the amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or the licence fee, or so much of it as is equal to the amount of the debt, as the case requires, has been paid.

(4) The Commissioner shall cause a copy of the notice to be served on the person.

(5) A payment made in accordance with a notice shall be taken to have been made with the authority of the person and of all other persons served with the notice or a copy of it.

- (6) Where—
- (a) money has been paid by a person to a building society in respect of the issue of shares in the capital of the society (not being shares listed for quotation on a stock exchange); and
 - (b) the money has not been repaid;
- the money shall, for the purposes of this section, be taken—
- (c) if the money is repayable on demand—to be a debt due to the person; or
 - (d) in any other case—to be money that will become a debt due to the person.
- (7) Where, but for this subsection, money is not due or repayable on demand to a person unless a condition is fulfilled, for the purposes of this section the money shall be taken to be respectively due or payable on demand notwithstanding that the condition has not been fulfilled.
- (8) A debtor who, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with a notice is guilty of an offence punishable, on conviction, by a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.
- (9) Where a debtor is convicted of an offence under subsection (8) in relation to the refusal or failure of the debtor to pay an amount to the Commissioner in accordance with a notice, the court may, in addition to imposing a penalty on the debtor, order the debtor to pay to the Commissioner an additional amount not exceeding the first-mentioned amount.

44. Money held for non-residents

(1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing served on an agent of a non-resident in relation to an amount of a tax liability of the non-resident, require the agent to pay to the Commissioner an amount equal to the amount payable in respect of the liability, or equal to any amount that the agent is required to retain under paragraph (2) (a), whichever is less.

(2) On receiving a notice, the agent is, by force of this section—

- (a) authorised and required to retain from time to time any money received by the agent on behalf of the non-resident, or so much of it as is equal to the amount payable in respect of the liability, whichever is less;
- (b) made personally liable for the amount payable in respect of the liability, after it becomes payable, to the extent of any amount that the agent is required to retain under paragraph (a); and
- (c) indemnified by the non-resident for all payments made on behalf of the non-resident under a tax law.

(3) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) a person who is liable to pay money to a non-resident shall be taken to be an agent of the non-resident; and
- (b) any money payable by a person referred to in paragraph (a) to the non-resident shall be taken to be money received by the person on behalf of the non-resident.

(4) In this section—

“agent”, in relation to a non-resident, means a person who has authority to receive, control or dispose of money belonging to the non-resident.

45. Refunds, interest or debts applied against liabilities

(1) If—

- (a) an overpaid amount is to be refunded under section 33 to a person who has a tax liability; or
- (b) an amount of interest is payable under section 34 to a person who has a tax liability;

the Commissioner may apply the amount, or so much of it as is equal to the amount payable in respect of the liability, whichever is less, against the liability.

- (2) Where, pursuant to a notice under subsection 43 (1), a debtor pays to the Commissioner an amount in relation to a person's tax liability, the Commissioner shall apply the amount against the liability.

(2) A public officer shall be appointed within 1 month after the commencement of this Act or after the company begins carrying on business in the Territory, whichever is later.

(3) The company shall appoint a public officer as often as is necessary to keep the office of public officer constantly filled.

(4) An appointment of a public officer shall not be taken to have been made unless written notice of the appointment, specifying the name and the address for the service of the appointee, has been given to the Commissioner.

83. Eligibility for appointment as public officer

(2) Anything done by the public officer that the public officer is required by a tax law to do in his or her capacity as representative of the company shall be deemed to have been done by the company.

(3) The absence of the public officer, or a vacancy in the office of the company's public officer, shall not be taken to excuse the company from a duty to comply with a tax law, or from liability to a penalty for contravening a tax law.

(4) A tax law shall be taken to apply in relation to a company as if the company were not required to appoint a public officer.

(5) A notice given to or requisition made on the public officer shall be taken to have been given to or made on the company.

86. Liability of directors or other officers

Notwithstanding anything in this Part, and without limiting, altering or transferring the liability of the public officer, every notice, process or proceeding which, under a tax law, may respectively be given to, served on or taken against the public officer or the company may, if the Commissioner thinks fit, be given to, served on or taken against a director, secretary or other officer of the company, and the director, secretary or officer then has the same liability in respect of the notice, process or proceeding as the public officer or the company would have if it had been given to, served on or taken against the public officer of the company.

88. Notice of liquidator's appointment

(2) An objection shall state fully and in detail the grounds on which it is made.

(3) The Commissioner shall consider an objection, and may either disallow it, or allow it wholly or partly.

(4) The Commissioner shall cause written notice of his or her decision to be served on the objector.

90. Late lodgment of objections

- (1) If the period within which a person may lodge an objection has ended, the person may nevertheless send an objection to the Commissioner with a written application to treat the objection as having been duly lodged.
- (2) An application shall state fully and in detail the circumstances concerning, and the reasons for, the person's failure to lodge the objection within that period.
- (3) The Commissioner shall consider each application and may grant or refuse it.
- (4) The Commissioner shall give the applicant written notice of his or her decision on an application.
- (5) If the Commissioner grants an application, the objection to which the application relates shall, for the purposes of this Part, be treated as having been duly lodged.

91. Review of decisions

Application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of a decision by the Commissioner—

- (a) under subsection 12B (3) refusing to vary the period in relation to which, or the time within which, a person is to lodge a return;
- (b) under subsection 12B (3) varying the period in relation to which, or the time within which, a person is to lodge a return other than in accordance with the application for variation;
- (c) under subsection 12B (5) revoking a notice;
- (d) under subsection 77 (2) that a person is not a member of a group;

- (a) a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal in relation to this Part; or
- (b) the decision of the Supreme Court or the Federal Court in an appeal to the Court in relation to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal's decision; is instituted within 30 days after the day on which the decision (or the later or latest of those decisions) is made, the decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal shall be taken, for the purposes of subsection (1), to have become final at the end of that period.

94. Effect of pending objection, review or appeal

The fact that a consideration of an objection, or a review or appeal in relation to a decision, is pending does not in the meantime interfere with or affect the assessment or decision to which the objection, review or appeal relates, and duty, tax, penalty tax or a licence fee may be recovered as if no consideration, review or appeal were pending.

95. Reduction of amounts payable

If, as a result of a decision in relation to this Part by the Commissioner, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court, an amount of tax, duty, penalty tax or a licence fee payable is reduced, the amount by which it is reduced shall be taken, for the purposes of section 31, never to have been payable.

95A. Burden of proof

Under this Part, the burden of establishing on the balance of probabilities that an assessment is excessive lies on any person objecting to the assessment.

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person may apply to the Commissioner for the refund of any part of a revenue amount to which that subsection applies that would have been recoverable as an overpayment if the purported tax, licence fee or duty had been valid.
- (2A) The Commissioner shall consider an application under subsection (2) and either refund the amount claimed in whole or in part or reject the application.
- (3) In this section—
- (a) a reference to a non-legislative change of the law shall be read as a reference to a change of the law or of legal principles, or a change in what is generally perceived to be the state of the law or of legal principles, but shall not be read as including a change made by legislation;
 - (b) a reference to the Territory shall be read as including a reference to an officer, a Minister or an authority of the Territory; and
