Associations Incorporation Act 1991

A1991-46

Republication No 40

Effective: 9 June 2025

Republication date: 9 June 2025

Last amendment made by A2025-13

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Associations Incorporation Act 1991 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 9 June 2025. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 9 June 2025.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $160 for an individual and $810 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Associations Incorporation Act 1991

An Act to provide for the incorporation of certain associations, and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Associations Incorporation Act 1991.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition 'constitution, for part 6 (Transfer of incorporation)—see section 81.' means that the term 'constitution' is defined in that section for part 6.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

3A Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to the following offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1):

- s 63B (Disqualification from office—disqualified under other legislation)
- s 65 (Disclosure of material personal interest)
- s 65A (Matter on which committee member has material personal interest)
- s 74 (Review or audit of accounts)
- s 79 (Registrar-general's power to require statements and reports).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

4 Pecuniary gain—interpretation

For this Act, an association is not taken to be formed or carried on with the object of obtaining pecuniary gain for its members, or to be obtaining pecuniary gain for its members, only because—

- (a) the association obtains a pecuniary gain, none of which is received by any of its members, or otherwise credited to its members; or
- (b) the association—
 - (i) is established with the object of protecting a trade, business, industry or calling in which its members are engaged or interested; and

- (ii) does not engage in, or in a branch or part of, the trade, business, industry or calling; or
- (c) the association provides facilities or services for its members; or
- (d) its members derive a pecuniary gain from the enjoyment of facilities or services provided by the association for social, recreational, educational or other like purposes; or
- (e) any of its members receives remuneration from the association for goods or services supplied by the member, or otherwise obtains a pecuniary gain from the association to which the member would be entitled if he or she were not a member of the association; or
- (f) its members compete for trophies or prizes in contests directly related to the objects of the association.

Part 2 Administration

9 Registers

- (1) The registrar-general must keep a register of any matter the registrar-general considers necessary for this Act.
- (2) The register may include any information the registrar-general considers appropriate.
- (3) The register may be kept in any form, including electronically, that the registrar-general decides.

11 Copies of documents

- (1) If a person requests, the registrar must give the person—
 - (a) a copy of, or an extract from, or a certified copy or certified extract from, any document lodged with the registrar-general under this Act or the repealed Act; and
 - (b) if the person is a member of the committee or the public officer of an association—a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation of the association.

Note 1 A fee may be determined under s 125 for this provision.

Note 2 A person cannot request or obtain a copy of another person's contact details that are contained in a lodged document if the other person has asked for their contact details to be kept confidential under s 13A.

- (2) In this section—
 - (a) a reference to a copy of, or an extract from, a document includes a reference to a print-out of the matters or some of the matters contained in the document and recorded in a computerised database comprising the matters contained in documents issued by or lodged with the registrar-general; and

- (b) a reference to a document includes a reference to—
 - (i) an application lodged with the registrar-general under this Act; and
 - (ii) if a reproduction or transparency of a document lodged with the registrar-general has been incorporated in a register—the reproduction or transparency; and
 - (iii) a display on the screen of a computer terminal of a matter or matters recorded in the computerised database referred to in paragraph (a);but does not include a reference to any document disposed of by the registrar-general under section 12.

12 Disposal of documents

The registrar-general may dispose of—

- (a) any document lodged with the registrar-general in relation to an incorporated association that, at least 7 years previously, was dissolved or ceased to be registered or the incorporation of which was cancelled; or
- (b) any document of which a reproduction or transparency has been incorporated in a register under section 9;

if, in the opinion of the registrar-general, it is no longer necessary or desirable to keep the document.

13 Defective documents

- (1) If the registrar-general is of the opinion that a document submitted for lodgment with the registrar-general—
 - (a) contains matter contrary to law; or
 - (b) contains matter that is, in a material particular, false or misleading in the form or context in which it appears; or

- (c) has not been duly completed because of an omission or misdescription; or
- (d) does not comply with this Act; or
- (e) contains an error, alteration or erasure;

the registrar-general may refuse to receive or register the document and may require—

- (f) that the document be appropriately amended or completed and resubmitted; or
- (g) that another document be lodged in place of the defective document; or
- (h) if the document has not been duly completed—that a supplementary document be lodged.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for a document, the form must be used.

- (2) The registrar-general may require a person who submits a document for lodgment with the registrar-general to give the registrar-general any other document or further information that the registrar-general thinks necessary in order to form an opinion whether the registrar-general may refuse to receive or register the document.

13A Contact details may be kept confidential

- (1) This section applies to a document that is or has been lodged with the registrar-general under this Act.
- (2) A person whose contact details are contained in the document may ask the registrar-general, in writing, to keep the person's contact details confidential.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for a request, the form must be used.

- (3) If a person makes a request under subsection (2), the registrar-general must ensure that any document the subject of the request is made available for a request under section 11 only in a way that does not show the person's contact details.
- (4) However, a person who is the public officer of an incorporated association must have at least 1 address available for service of documents.

Note A public officer's address may be a residential, business or PO box address.

- (5) In this section:
- contact details, for a person, include the person's address, email and telephone number.

Part 3 Incorporation generally

Division 3.1 Preliminary

14 Eligibility for incorporation

- (1) An association is eligible for incorporation if it—
 - (a) has at least 5 members; and
 - (b) is formed or carried on for a lawful object; and
 - (c) is not ineligible for incorporation under subsection (2).
- (2) An association is ineligible for incorporation under this subsection if it—
 - (a) is formed or carried on with the object of obtaining pecuniary gain for its members; or
 - (b) is obtaining pecuniary gain for its members; or
 - (c) has capital divided into shares or stock held by its members; or
 - (d) holds property in which its members have an alienable interest, whether directly or in the form of shares or stock in its capital or otherwise; or
 - (e) is capable of applying for registration as an organisation under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (Cwlth), chapter 2, part 2.

15 Ineligible associations—incorporation

- (1) The Minister may declare an association to be eligible for incorporation under this Act even though the association is formed or carried on with the object of obtaining pecuniary gain, or obtaining pecuniary gain, for the members of the association.

Note Power given under an Act to make a statutory instrument includes power to make different provision for different categories, eg different classes of people (see Legislation Act, s 48).

- (2) The Minister may make the incorporation of an association under a declaration subject to any conditions determined by the Minister.
- (3) A declaration is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

16 Matters preliminary to incorporation

An association or a group of 5 or more persons proposing to form and incorporate an association may, by resolution—

- (a) authorise a person who is at least 18 years of age and who resides in the ACT to apply for the incorporation of the association or proposed association; and
- (b) approve a statement of the objects of the association or proposed association for the purposes of the application; and
- (c) adopt rules of the association or proposed association, being—
 - (i) the model rules, as in force from time to time; or
 - (ii) rules other than the model rules, being rules that comply with section 32; and
- (d) appoint at least 3 members of the association or of the group proposing to form and incorporate an association to be the inaugural members of the committee of the incorporated association if the application is successful.

17 Powers of authorised person

- (1) An authorised person may—
 - (a) lodge an application with the registrar-general for the incorporation of an association or proposed association; and
 - (b) do anything necessary to secure the incorporation of the association or proposed association.

- (2) Subsection (1) (b) applies in relation to an authorised person despite any provision to the contrary in the rules adopted by the association or proposed association under section 16 (c).

Division 3.2 Incorporation

18 Applications for incorporation

- (1) An application for the incorporation of an association or proposed association—
- (a) must state—
- (i) the proposed name of the association or proposed association (being a name that complies with division 3.5); and
 - (ii) the name and address of the applicant; and
 - (iii) the name and address of the person who will be the inaugural public officer of the association; and
 - (iv) the name and address of each person who will be an inaugural member of the committee of the association or proposed association; and
 - (v) the address and hours of opening of the registered office (if any) of the association or proposed association in accordance with section 121 (1); and
 - (vi) the prescribed particulars (if any); and

Note A person may ask the registrar-general to keep their contact details confidential (see s 13A (2)). However, a public officer must have at least 1 address publicly available for service of documents (see s 13A (4)).

- (b) must be accompanied by—
- (i) a copy of a statement of the objects of the association or proposed association approved under section 16 (b); and
 - (ii) a notice (if any) given under section 37 (3) stating the name reserved for incorporation of the association or proposed association; and
 - (iii) a statement to the effect that the model rules as in force from time to time have been adopted as the rules of the association or proposed association under section 16 (c) (i), or a copy of the rules of the association or proposed association adopted under section 16 (c) (ii); and
 - (iv) a notice specifying particulars of any trust relating to the association or proposed association, with a copy of the deed or other instrument creating or embodying the trust; and
 - (v) a statement by the applicant in accordance with subsection (2); and
 - (vi) the prescribed documents (if any).

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for an application or notice, the form must be used.

- (2) A statement by the applicant for subsection (1) (b) (v) must certify that—
- (a) the applicant is authorised to apply for the incorporation of the association or proposed association under section 16 (a); and
 - (b) the particulars stated in the application are correct; and
 - (c) the copy of each document accompanying the application is a true copy of the document.

19 Certificate of incorporation

If—

- (a) an application for the incorporation of an association or proposed association is made under section 18; and
- (b) the registrar-general is satisfied that the association is, or would be, when formed, eligible for incorporation under this Act;

the registrar-general must incorporate the association or proposed association by issuing to it a certificate of incorporation.

20 Date of incorporation

An association is taken to have been incorporated on the date stated in the certificate of incorporation as the date of incorporation.

21 Constitution of incorporated associations

- (1) An incorporated association is, subject to this Act and the rules of the association, taken to be constituted, under the name stated in the certificate of incorporation issued for the association, by the persons who are its members from time to time.
- (2) For subsection (1), persons who were, immediately before the date on which an association was incorporated—
 - (a) for an association for which the certificate was issued under section 19—members of the association, or members of the group proposing to form the association; or
 - (b) for an association incorporated under section 27—the members of the associations that amalgamated under that section; are taken to have been members of the association at the time the association was incorporated.

22 Corporate identity

An incorporated association—

- (a) is a body corporate with perpetual succession; and
- (b) may have a common seal; and
- (c) has power to acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property; and
- (d) is capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name; and
- (e) is capable of performing all the functions of a body corporate.

23 Property

- (1) Any property that was, immediately before the date on which an association was incorporated, held, in trust or otherwise, on behalf of the association or proposed association by any person (including, for an association incorporated under section 27, property held by or on behalf of an amalgamating association within the meaning of division 3.3) is taken to have vested in the association on incorporation.
- (2) Property referred to in subsection (1) vests in an association subject to any mortgage, charge, encumbrance, lien, lease, covenant, contract or other liability affecting the property immediately before the date on which the association was incorporated, and subject to the provisions of any trust affecting the property immediately before that date.
- (3) After property that is taken to have vested in an association in accordance with subsection (1) has been delivered or transferred to the association, the trustee of that property immediately before it became so vested is not liable or accountable for the property and is not bound to see to the application, distribution or appropriation of that property.

24 Legal capacity of incorporated associations

An incorporated association has, both within and outside the ACT, the legal capacity of a natural person and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, has, both within and outside the ACT, power—

- (a) to grant a floating charge on property of the association; and
- (b) to arrange for the association to be registered or otherwise recognised as a corporate body in a place outside the ACT; and
- (c) to do any act that it is authorised to do by any other law.

25 Restriction of actions

- (1) The objects or rules of an incorporated association may contain an express restriction on, or an express prohibition of, the exercise by the association of any power given by this Act to the association.
- (2) If an incorporated association—
 - (a) purports to exercise a power contrary to an express restriction on, or an express prohibition of, the exercise of that power, being a restriction or prohibition contained in the objects or rules of the association; or
 - (b) does an act otherwise than in accordance with the objects of the association;the association contravenes this subsection.
- (3) An officer of an incorporated association must not, by act or omission, directly or indirectly, be knowingly concerned in or party to a contravention by the association of subsection (2).

- (4) If, by purporting to exercise a power as mentioned in subsection (2) (a), or by doing an act as mentioned in subsection (2) (b), an incorporated association contravenes subsection (2), the purported exercise of the power, or the act, is not taken to be invalid only because of the contravention.
- (5) An act by an officer of an incorporated association is not taken to be invalid only because the act is prohibited by subsection (2).
- (6) The fact that—
 - (a) by purporting to exercise a power as mentioned in subsection (2) (a), or by doing an act as mentioned in subsection (2) (b), an incorporated association contravened, or would contravene, subsection (2); or
 - (b) by doing a particular act, an officer of an incorporated association contravened, or would contravene, subsection (3);is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings except—
 - (c) a prosecution of a person for an offence against this Act; or
 - (d) proceedings against the association by a member of the association to restrain the association from doing any act; or
 - (e) proceedings by the association or by a member of the association against an officer or former officer of the association; or
 - (f) an application by the registrar-general or by a member of the association to wind up the association.

Division 3.3 Incorporation of amalgamating associations

26 Amalgamation of incorporated associations

- (1) Two or more incorporated associations proposing to amalgamate (in this division called the amalgamating associations) may lodge with the registrar-general a joint application for incorporation as a single association (in this division called the new association) if—
 - (a) the terms of the proposed amalgamation and a statement of the objects of the new association have each been approved by a special resolution passed by each amalgamating association; and
 - (b) the model rules as in force from time to time, or other rules that comply with section 32, have been adopted as the rules of the new association by a special resolution passed by each amalgamating association.
- (2) An application—
 - (a) must state—
 - (i) the proposed name of the new association (being a name that complies with division 3.5); and
 - (ii) the name and address of the person nominated by the amalgamating associations to be the inaugural public officer of the new association; and
 - (iii) the names and addresses of at least 3 persons nominated by the amalgamating associations to be the inaugural members of the committee of the new association; and
 - (iv) the address and hours of opening of the registered office (if any) of the new association in accordance with section 121 (1); and

- (v) the prescribed particulars (if any); and

Note A person may ask the registrar-general to keep their contact details confidential (see s 13A (2)). However, a public officer must have at least 1 address publicly available for service of documents (see s 13A (4)).

- (b) must be accompanied by—

- (i) a copy of the statement of the objects of the new association approved in accordance with section 26 (1) (a); and
- (ii) a statement to the effect that the model rules as in force from time to time have been adopted in accordance with section 26 (1) (b) as the rules of the new association, or a copy of other rules adopted in accordance with that section as the rules of the new association; and
- (iii) a notice stating particulars of any trust relating to the amalgamating associations or the new association, with a copy of the deed or other instrument creating the trust; and
- (iv) a statement to the effect that the resolutions referred to in subsection (1) (a) and (b) have been duly passed by the amalgamating associations; and
- (v) a statement by the applicants in accordance with subsection (3); and
- (vi) the prescribed documents (if any).

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for an application, notice or statement, the form must be used.

- (3) A statement for subsection (2) (b) (v) must be made jointly by the amalgamating associations to the effect that—
 - (a) the particulars stated in the application are correct; and
 - (b) the copy of each document accompanying the application is a true copy of the document.

27 Incorporation of amalgamating associations

If the registrar-general is satisfied—

- (a) that each amalgamating association making an application under section 26 (1) has complied with this Act; and
- (b) that the new association is, or would be when formed, eligible for incorporation under this Act;

the registrar-general must incorporate the new association by issuing to it a certificate of incorporation.

28 Effect of incorporation—amalgamated associations

- (1) On the incorporation of a new association under section 27—
 - (a) each of the amalgamating associations that was a party to the incorporation is taken to have been dissolved and to have had its incorporation cancelled; and
 - (b) the bodies corporate previously constituted by the amalgamating associations are taken to be subsumed in the body corporate constituted by the new association; and
 - (c) any property or proprietary or other right that was, immediately before the date when the new association was incorporated, vested in an amalgamating association are, subject to any trust affecting the property or right, taken to be vested in, and may be exercised or enforced by, the new association; and
 - (d) any liability, obligation or penalty that could have been enforced against or recovered from an amalgamating association immediately before that date is enforceable against or recoverable from the new association; and
 - (e) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy that could, immediately before that date, have been instituted, continued or enforced against an amalgamating association may be instituted, continued or enforced against the new association; and

- (f) this Act applies in relation to the new association as if it had been incorporated under section 19.
- (2) If, under subsection (1) (c), land or an interest in land (being land in the ACT) held by an existing association is taken to be property of a new association, the registrar-general must, on production of the certificate of incorporation of the new association, enter the new association as the registered proprietor of the land or interest in land on the land titles register.
- (3) A reference in a will or other instrument to an association that was a party to the incorporation of a new association under section 27 must, unless the will or other instrument otherwise provides, be construed as a reference to the new association.

Division 3.4 Objects and rules of incorporated associations

29 Objects

The objects of an incorporated association are the objects appearing in the statement of the association's objects lodged with the registrar-general under section 18 (1) (b) (i) or 26 (2) (b) (i), being those objects as altered from time to time in accordance with section 30.

30 Alteration of objects

- (1) An incorporated association may, by special resolution, alter its objects.
- (2) An incorporated association must, not later than 1 month after a special resolution to alter the objects of the association has been passed by the association, lodge with the registrar-general a notice setting out the particulars of the alteration.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for a notice, the form must be used.

- (3) A resolution to alter the objects of an incorporated association is of no effect until the notice has been lodged.

31 Rules

- (1) The rules of an incorporated association are—
- (a) if the association, or a group of persons proposing to form the association, has adopted the model rules under section 16 (c) (i), 26 (1) (b) or 33 (1) (a)—those rules as in force from time to time; or
 - (b) if the association, or group, has adopted rules other than the model rules under section 16 (c) (ii), 26 (1) (b) or 33 (1) (b)—those rules as altered from time to time in accordance with section 33.
- (2) If the model rules make provision in relation to any matter not provided for in the rules of an incorporated association, the rules of the association are taken to include the provision of the model rules in relation to that matter.

32 Rules other than model rules

For sections 16 (c) (ii), 26 (1) (b) and 33 (1) (b), rules other than the model rules are taken to comply with this section if they—

- (a) provide for the matters stated in schedule 1, column 2 as required by schedule 1, column 3; and
- (b) provide for any prescribed matters; and
- (c) are arranged numerically by subject matter.

33 Alteration of rules

- (1) Subject to this Act, an incorporated association may, by special resolution, alter its rules in whole or in part and may, in particular—
 - (a) adopt as its rules the model rules as in force from time to time instead of rules other than the model rules adopted under section 16 (c) (ii) or 26 (1) (b) or paragraph (b); or
 - (b) adopt as its rules other rules that comply with section 32 instead of the model rules adopted under section 16 (c) (i) or 26 (1) (b) or paragraph (a).
- (2) If an incorporated association has resolved to alter its rules, the association must, not later than 1 month after the resolution was passed, lodge with the registrar-general a notice setting out the particulars of the alteration, and including a declaration by at least 2 members of the committee of the association to the effect that a special resolution referred to in subsection (1) was duly passed by the association.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for a notice, the form must be used.

- (3) If a notice relating to the alteration of the rules of an association has been lodged under subsection (2), the registrar-general may give notice to the association that it is required to lodge a copy of its rules with the registrar-general.
- (4) If an incorporated association has been given notice by the registrar-general under subsection (3), the association must, not later than 1 month after the date of the notice, lodge with the registrar-general a printed copy, in consolidated form, of the association's rules as altered and in force at that date.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

- (5) A resolution to alter the rules of an incorporated association is of no effect until a notice has been lodged by the association under subsection (2).

34 Illegal objects or rules

An object or rule of an incorporated association that is inconsistent with this Act or with another law in force in the ACT is of no effect.

35 Copies of documents for members

- (1) On the request of a member of an incorporated association, the association must give the member—
- (a) a copy of a current statement of the objects of the association; or
 - (b) a copy of the rules of the association currently in force; or
 - (c) a copy of the deeds of any trust relevant to the association; or
 - (d) a summary of the minutes of a meeting of the committee.
- (2) An incorporated association may charge a fee not exceeding the fee determined under section 125 (Determination of fees) for this section for each copy of a document given to a member under subsection (1).

35A Committee may refuse access to documents

- (1) The committee of an incorporated association may refuse to give a member of the association access to the following documents if satisfied that allowing access to the document would be prejudicial to the interests of the association:
- (a) a document mentioned in section 35 (1);
 - (b) if the association's rules allow a member access to other documents held by the association—those documents.

- (2) The rules of an incorporated association may provide for the circumstances in which access to the documents is allowed or restricted, including requiring the member to state the purpose for requiring access to the document.

Division 3.5 Names of incorporated associations

36 Names

The name of an incorporated association must include, at the end of the name, the word 'Incorporated' or the abbreviation 'Inc.'.

37 Reservation of names

- (1) An authorised applicant may lodge with the registrar-general an application for the reservation of the name specified in the application as—
- (a) the name of a proposed association in relation to which an application for incorporation is to be lodged; or
 - (b) the name of an association that intends to apply for incorporation; or
 - (c) the name of a new association within the meaning of division 3.3; or
 - (d) the new name that an incorporated association has resolved to apply for approval to adopt under section 38 (1).

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for an application, the form must be used.

- (2) If—
- (a) the registrar-general is satisfied that an application is made in good faith; and

- (b) the name specified in the application is available for reservation; the registrar-general must reserve the name, for the period of 4 months beginning on the date when the application was lodged, for the association or proposed association to which the application relates.
- (3) As soon as practicable after making a decision in relation to an application for the reservation of a name, the registrar-general must, by notice in writing to the applicant, tell the applicant of that decision.
- (4) The reservation of a name for an association, proposed association or incorporated association does not of itself entitle the association or proposed association to be incorporated under the reserved name, or entitle the incorporated association to change its name to the reserved name.
- (5) For subsection (2) (b), a name is taken to be available for reservation for an association or proposed association unless it is—
- (a) a name that is, in the opinion of the registrar-general, undesirable; or
 - (b) a name or a name of a kind stated by the Minister in writing for this paragraph; or
 - (c) a business name registered under the Business Names Registration Act 2011 (Cwlth); or
 - (d) the name of an incorporated association; or
 - (e) reserved for another association or proposed association; or
 - (f) a name that so closely resembles a name referred to in paragraph (d) or (e) as to be likely to be mistaken for it.
- (6) An instrument under subsection (5) (b) is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

- (7) If the registrar-general refuses to reserve a name or a name of a kind referred to in subsection (5) (a), (b) or (f) for an association or proposed association, the authorised applicant may apply to the Minister for consent to the reservation of the name for the association or proposed association and, if the Minister gives that consent, the name is, for subsection (2) (b), taken to be available for reservation.

- (8) In this section:

authorised applicant, in relation to an association or proposed association, means—

- (a) an authorised person; or
- (b) for a new association within the meaning of division 3.3—a person authorised for subsection (1) by the amalgamating associations; or
- (c) for an incorporated association that has resolved to apply to the registrar-general for approval to adopt a new name—the public officer of the association.

38 Change of name

- (1) An incorporated association may, by special resolution, resolve to apply to the registrar-general for approval to adopt a new name.
- (2) An application must include a declaration by at least 2 members of the committee of the association to the effect that a special resolution referred to in subsection (1) was duly passed by the association.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for an application, the form must be used.

- (3) If the new name has been reserved for the association in accordance with section 37 and the registrar-general approves the adoption of the new name by the association, the registrar-general must issue to the association a certificate of incorporation under the new name.

39 Compulsory change of name

- (1) If it appears to the registrar-general that an association has been incorporated under a name or a name of a kind referred to in section 37 (5) without the consent of the Minister, the registrar-general may, by notice in writing to the association, direct the association to change its name.
- (2) A direction to an association under subsection (1) has effect as if it were a special resolution of the association passed under section 38 (1).

40 Effect of change of name

- (1) A change of name of an incorporated association under section 38 is not taken to—
- (a) create a new legal entity; or
 - (b) prejudice or affect the identity of the body corporate constituted by the association or its continuity as a body corporate; or
 - (c) affect the date of incorporation of the association; or
 - (d) affect the property, or the rights and obligations of the association; or
 - (e) render defective any legal proceedings by or against the association.
- (2) If the name of an incorporated association has been changed, any legal proceedings that could have been continued or instituted by or against the association in its former name may be continued or instituted by or against the association in its new name.

41 Name on association's documents etc

The name of an incorporated association must appear in legible characters—

- (a) on the common seal (if any) of the association; and
- (b) on every business letter, statement of account, invoice, official notice, publication, bill of exchange, promissory note, endorsement, cheque or other negotiable instrument, order, receipt and letter of credit issued or executed by or on behalf of the association.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

Division 3.6 Contracts

42 References to purported entry into contracts etc—div 3.6

- (1) For this division, a nonexistent incorporated association purports to enter into a contract if—
 - (a) a person executes a contract in the name of an incorporated association where no incorporated association of that name exists; or
 - (b) a person purports to enter into a contract as agent or trustee for a proposed incorporated association.
- (2) For this division, a person purports to execute a contract as agent or trustee of a nonexistent incorporated association if the person executes a contract or purports to enter into a contract mentioned in subsection (1) (a) or (b).

- (3) For this division, the incorporation of an association in relation to the purported entry into a contract by a nonexistent incorporated association means—
- (a) if a person has executed a contract in the name of an incorporated association where no incorporated association of that name exists—the incorporation of an association that, having regard to all the circumstances, is reasonably identifiable with the proposed incorporated association in the name of which the contract was executed; or
 - (b) if a person has purported to enter into a contract as an agent or trustee for a proposed incorporated association—the incorporation of an association that, having regard to all the circumstances, is reasonably identifiable with the proposed incorporated association.

43 Ratification of pre-incorporation contracts

- (1) If—
- (a) a nonexistent incorporated association purports to enter into a contract; and
 - (b) the association is incorporated within a reasonable time after the contract is purported to have been entered into;
- the incorporated association may, within a reasonable time after its incorporation, ratify the contract.
- (2) If an incorporated association ratifies a contract as provided for in subsection (1), the association is bound by, and is entitled to the benefit of, the contract as if the association had been incorporated before the contract was entered into and had been party to the contract.

- (3) For this division, a contract may be ratified by an incorporated association in the same manner as a contract may be entered into by an incorporated association under section 47, and section 47 has effect as if—
- (a) a reference in that section to entering into a contract included a reference to ratifying a contract; and
 - (b) the reference in section 56 to a contract executed, or purporting to have been executed, under the common seal (if any) of an incorporated association included a reference to a contract ratified, or purporting to have been ratified, under the common seal (if any) of an incorporated association.

44 Liability of party to contract

- (1) If—
- (a) a person purports to enter into a contract as agent or trustee for a proposed incorporated association; and
 - (b) the association is incorporated within a reasonable time after the person purported to enter into the contract but does not ratify the contract within a reasonable time after the association was incorporated;
- then, despite any rule of law or equity to the contrary, the person has no right of indemnity against the incorporated association in relation to the contract.
- (2) If a nonexistent incorporated association purports to enter into a contract and the association—
- (a) is not incorporated within a reasonable time after the contract is purported to be entered into; or

- (b) is incorporated within that time but does not ratify the contract within a reasonable time after being incorporated; the other party or each of the other parties to the contract may, subject to subsections (5) and (6), recover from the person or from any 1 or more of the persons who purported to execute the contract on behalf of the nonexistent incorporated association an amount of damages equivalent to the amount of damages for which the party could have obtained a judgment against the incorporated association if—

- (c) where the association has not been incorporated as referred to in paragraph (a)—the association had been incorporated and had ratified the contract under section 43 (1); or
- (d) where the association has been incorporated as referred to in paragraph (b)—the association had ratified the contract under section 43 (1); and the contract had been discharged because of a breach of the contract constituted by the refusal or failure of the incorporated association to perform any obligation under the contract.

- (3) If—

- (a) proceedings are brought to recover damages under subsection (2) in relation to a contract purported to have been entered into by a nonexistent incorporated association; and
- (b) the association has been incorporated;

the court may, if it thinks it just to do so, make either or both of the following orders:

- (c) an order directing the incorporated association to transfer or pay to any party to the contract who is named in the order any property, or an amount not exceeding the value of any benefit, received by the incorporated association as a result of the contract;

- (d) an order that the incorporated association pay the whole or a specified portion of any damages that, in those proceedings, the defendant has been or is found liable to pay.
- (4) If, in proceedings to recover damages under subsection (2) in relation to a contract purported to be entered into by a nonexistent incorporated association, the court makes an order under subsection (3) (c), the court may refuse to award any damages in the proceedings, or may award an amount of damages less than the amount the court would have awarded if the order had not been made.
- (5) If—
 - (a) a nonexistent incorporated association purports to enter into a contract; and
 - (b) the association is incorporated and ratifies the contract as provided for in section 43 (1); and
 - (c) the contract is discharged by a breach of the contract constituted by a refusal or failure of the incorporated association to perform all or any of its obligations under the contract; and
 - (d) the other party or any 1 or more of the other parties to the contract brings or bring proceedings against the incorporated association for damages for breach of the contract;

the court may, subject to subsection (7), if it thinks it just to do so, order the person or any 1 or more of the persons who purported to execute the contract on behalf of the incorporated association to pay to the person or persons by whom the proceedings are brought the whole or a specified portion of any damages that the incorporated association has been, or is, found liable to pay to the person or persons by whom the proceedings are brought.

- (6) If a person purports, whether alone or together with another person or persons, to execute a contract on behalf of a nonexistent incorporated association, the other party to the contract, or any of the other parties to the contract, may, by writing signed by the party or parties, consent to the firstmentioned person or persons being exempted from any liability in relation to the contract.
- (7) If a person has, in accordance with subsection (6), consented to the exemption of another person from liability in relation to a contract that the other person purported to execute on behalf of a nonexistent incorporated association—
 - (a) despite subsection (2), the firstmentioned person is not entitled to recover damages from that other person in relation to that contract; and
 - (b) the court shall not, in proceedings referred to in subsection (5), order that other person to pay to the firstmentioned person any damages or proportion of the damages that the incorporated association has been, or may be, found liable to pay to that firstmentioned person.

45 Substituted contract

If—

- (a) a nonexistent incorporated association purports to enter into a contract; and
- (b) the association is subsequently incorporated; and
- (c) the incorporated association and the other party or parties to the contract enter into a contract in substitution for the firstmentioned contract;

any liabilities to which the person who purported to execute the firstmentioned contract on behalf of the nonexistent incorporated association is subject, under this division, in relation to the firstmentioned contract (including liabilities under an order made by a court under this division) are taken to have been discharged.

46 Substituted rights and liabilities

Any rights or liabilities of a person under this division (including rights or liabilities under an order made by a court under this division) in relation to a contract are taken to be substituted for any rights that the person would have, or any liabilities to which the person would be subject, apart from this division.

47 Post-incorporation contracts

- (1) A person acting with the express or implied authority of an incorporated association may enter into, vary or discharge a contract in the name of or on behalf of the association as if the contract were entered into, varied or discharged by an individual.
- (2) The entering into, variation or discharge of a contract in accordance with subsection (1) binds the association and the other party or parties to the contract.

Division 3.7 Rights and liabilities of members and officers

48 Relationship between association and members

The rules of an incorporated association are taken to bind the association and its members from time to time as if the rules had been signed by each member and contained covenants on the part of each member to observe all the rules.

49 Court's jurisdiction

A member of an incorporated association who is deprived by a decision of the association of a right conferred on the member, as a member, by the rules of the association, may apply to the court for an order to vary or set aside the decision.

50 Rules of natural justice

If an incorporated association exercises any power that it has to adjudicate a dispute between its members, or between itself and a member or members, in relation to the rights given to the members by the rules of the association, any decision made by the association is not taken to be valid unless, in any proceedings in relation to the dispute, the rules of natural justice have been complied with.

51 Liability of officers and members

An officer or a member of an incorporated association is not, except as otherwise provided by this Act or the rules of the association, taken, only because of being a member or officer, to be liable to contribute to the payment of any debts or other liabilities incurred by the association, or to the costs, charges or expenses incurred in the course of winding up the association.

52 Property rights

Membership of an incorporated association is not, except as otherwise provided by this Act, taken to give the members of the association any right, title or interest, whether legal or equitable, in the property of the association.

53 Enforcement of rights

- (1) On the application of an incorporated association or a member of an incorporated association, the court may, by order—
 - (a) give directions for the performance and observance of the rules of the incorporated association by any person who is under an obligation to perform or observe those rules; and
 - (b) declare and enforce the rights or obligations of members of an incorporated association between themselves, or the rights or obligations between an incorporated association and a member of the incorporated association.
- (2) On hearing an application, the court may make an order whether or not the application relates to a right or interest in property, and whether or not the applicant has an interest in property of the association.

Division 3.8 Miscellaneous

54 Disposal of trust property

- (1) If a trust in relation to property held by an incorporated association has come wholly or partly to an end, the association may apply to the court for an order authorising the disposal of all or part of the property.
- (2) Application for an order must be made—
 - (a) if the value of the property does not exceed $50 000—to the Magistrates Court; or

- (b) in any other case—to the Supreme Court.
- (3) On hearing an application, the court may, if it thinks it just to do so, make an order—
 - (a) authorising the disposal of all or part of the property; and
 - (b) directing the way in which the proceeds from the disposal of the property or part are to be dealt with.
- (4) An application may be made, and the court may exercise its powers, even though the deed or other instrument creating or embodying the trust does not, or the rules of the association do not, contain any power to dispose of the property or prohibit the disposal of the property.

55 Authentication and execution of documents

- (1) A document or proceeding requiring authentication by an incorporated association may be authenticated by the signature of the public officer or the secretary (if any) of the association and need not be authenticated under the common seal (if any) of the association.
- (2) An incorporated association may execute a document without using a common seal if the document is signed by 2 committee members of the association.
- (3) An incorporated association may, by the signature of 2 committee members of the association, empower a person, either generally or in relation to a stated matter, as its agent or attorney, to execute deeds on its behalf.
- (4) A deed signed by the agent or attorney on behalf of the association binds the association.

- (5) The authority of an agent or attorney empowered to act on behalf of an incorporated association under subsection (2), as between the association and a person dealing with the agent or attorney, continues during the period (if any) stated in the instrument conferring the authority or, if no period is stated, until notice of the revocation or termination of the agent's or attorney's authority has been given to that person.
- (6) Nothing in this section is taken—
 - (a) to affect the operation of any law in force in the ACT that requires some consent or sanction to be obtained, or some procedure to be complied with, in relation to the entering into, variation or discharge of a contract; or
 - (b) to prevent an incorporated association from entering into, varying or discharging a contract under its common seal (if any).
- (7) In this section:
officer does not include a person mentioned in the dictionary, definition of officer, paragraph (c).

56 Validity of documents executed under common seal

A contract or other instrument executed, or purporting to have been executed, under the common seal (if any) of an incorporated association is not taken to be invalid only because a person attesting the fixing of the common seal was in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in the contract or other instrument or in the matter to which the contract or other instrument relates.

Part 4 Management

Division 4.1 Appointment of public officer and committee

57 Public officer

- (1) An incorporated association must have a public officer.
- (2) A person is not eligible to be the public officer of an incorporated association unless the person resides in the ACT and is at least 18 years of age.
- (3) The public officer of an incorporated association may, unless the rules of the association otherwise provide, hold any office of the association in addition to the office of public officer.
- (4) An act of the public officer of an incorporated association is not taken to be invalid only because—
 - (a) there is a defect in the public officer's appointment; or
 - (b) the public officer was not eligible to be the public officer under subsection (2); or
 - (c) the office of the public officer was, at the time of the act, taken to be vacant under section 64 (2).

58 Inaugural public officer

The inaugural public officer of an association incorporated under this Act is, unless the rules of the association otherwise provide, taken to be—

- (a) for an association incorporated under section 19—the person authorised under section 16 (a) to apply for the incorporation of the association; or

- (b) for an association incorporated under section 27—the person nominated as the inaugural public officer of the association under section 26 (2) (a) (ii).

59 Notice of public officer's appointment or change of address

- (1) A person who is appointed to be the public officer (other than the inaugural public officer) of an incorporated association must, not later than 1 month after being appointed, lodge with the registrar-general a notice of the appointment.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for a notice under this section, the form must be used.

- (2) If the public officer of an incorporated association changes the public officer's address, the public officer must, within 1 month after the change, lodge with the registrar-general a notice of the change.

Maximum penalty: 1 penalty unit.

Note A person may ask the registrar-general to keep their contact details confidential (see s 13A (2)). However, a public officer must have at least 1 address publicly available for service of documents (see s 13A (4)).

- (3) This section does not apply to an incorporated association that is an ACNC registered entity.

60 Committee

- (1) An incorporated association must have a committee of at least 3 members of the association.
- (2) The committee of an incorporated association has the management of the association.

61 Inaugural committee

The inaugural members of the committee of an association incorporated under this Act are, unless the rules of the association otherwise provide, taken to be—

- (a) for an association incorporated under section 19—the persons appointed under section 16 (d); or
- (b) for an association incorporated under section 27—the persons nominated for section 26 (2) (a) (iii).

62 Notice of changes in committee

(1) If—

- (a) a person becomes a member (other than an inaugural member) of the committee of an incorporated association; or
- (b) the office of a member of the committee of an incorporated association becomes vacant; or
- (c) a member of the committee of an incorporated association changes the member's address;

the association must, not later than 1 month after the occurrence of the event referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), lodge with the registrar-general notice of the occurrence.

Maximum penalty: 1 penalty unit.

- (2) If a member of the committee of an incorporated association changes the member's address the member must, within 1 month after the change occurred, notify the association of the change.

Maximum penalty: 1 penalty unit.

Note 1 If a form is approved under s 126 (Approved forms) for a notice, the form must be used.

Note 2 A person may ask the registrar-general to keep their contact details (including address) confidential (see s 13A (2)).

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to an incorporated association that is an ACNC registered entity.

63 Disqualification from office—convictions or bankruptcy

- (1) A person who has been convicted, whether in or outside the ACT, of—
- (a) an indictable offence in relation to the promotion, formation or management of a body corporate; or
 - (b) an offence involving fraud or dishonesty punishable by imprisonment for a period of 3 months or more;

must not, within the period of 5 years after the person was convicted or released from imprisonment for the offence, whichever is later, without leave of the Supreme Court, accept an appointment or act as the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

- (2) A person who is bankrupt or personally insolvent must not, without leave of the Supreme Court, accept an appointment or act as the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

- (3) A person referred to in subsection (1) may apply to the Supreme Court for leave to accept an appointment or to act as the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association.
- (4) A person referred to in subsection (2) may apply to the Supreme Court for leave to accept an appointment or to act as the public officer or a member of the committee of an association.

- (5) A person intending to make an application under subsection (3) or (4) must lodge with the registrar-general at least 21 days notice of intention to make the application.
- (6) On hearing an application under subsection (3) or (4), the Supreme Court may grant or refuse to grant the applicant leave to accept an appointment or to act as the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association, and may, when granting leave, make the grant subject to any conditions or limitations the court thinks fit.
- (7) On the application of the registrar-general, the Supreme Court may revoke or vary leave granted to a person by the court under subsection (6).
- (8) A person must not contravene the requirements of any conditions or limitations included in a grant of leave under subsection (6).

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

63A Disqualification from office—noncompliance with Act

- (1) This section applies if the registrar-general is satisfied that—
 - (a) a person is, or has been, the public officer or a committee member of an incorporated association; and
 - (b) the person or the association has failed to comply with this Act.
- (2) The registrar-general may apply to the ACAT for an order to disqualify the office-holder.
- (3) On application under subsection (2), the ACAT may make an order disqualifying the person from being the public officer or a committee member of an incorporated association for the period the ACAT considers appropriate if satisfied that—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) the person has failed to comply with this Act; or

- (ii) while the person was the public officer or a committee member of an incorporated association, the association failed to comply with this Act; and
- (b) having regard to the extent of the noncompliance, the disqualification is justified.
- (4) The ACAT may revoke the order on the application of the person against whom the order was made.

63B Disqualification from office—disqualified under other legislation

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person—
 - (a) has been disqualified from managing a corporation or an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation under—
 - (i) any of the following provisions of the Corporations Act:
 - (A) section 206B (1) (a) and (b) (Convictions);
 - (B) section 206B (3) and (4) (Bankruptcy or personal insolvency agreement);
 - (C) section 206E (Court power of disqualification—repeated contraventions of Act); or
 - (ii) any of the following provisions of the Corporations \(Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander\) Act 2006 (Cwlth):
 - (A) section 279-5 (1) (a) and (b) (Convictions);
 - (B) section 279-5 (3) and (4) (Bankruptcy or personal insolvency agreement);
 - (C) section 279-25 (Court power of disqualification—repeated contraventions of Act); and
 - (b) accepts an appointment or acts as the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association while the person is disqualified; and

(c) does not have the Supreme Court's leave to do so.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

(2) A person mentioned in subsection (1) may, after giving the registrar-general at least 21 days written notice, apply to the Supreme Court for leave to—

(a) accept an appointment or to act as the public officer; or

(b) a member of the committee of an incorporated association.

(3) On hearing an application, the Supreme Court may—

(a) give leave, including on any condition the court considers appropriate; or

(b) refuse to give leave.

(4) On the application of the registrar-general, the Supreme Court may revoke or vary leave granted to a person by the court.

(5) A person commits an offence if the person fails to comply with any condition imposed by the court under subsection (3) (a).

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

64 Vacancy in office of public officer

(1) An incorporated association may, by resolution, remove its public officer from office.

(2) The office of the public officer of an incorporated association is taken to be vacant if the public officer—

(a) is removed from office under subsection (1); or

(b) resigns from office; or

(c) dies; or

- (d) becomes bankrupt or personally insolvent; or
 - (e) is not physically or mentally fit to exercise the functions of office; or
 - (f) was convicted or released from imprisonment for an offence mentioned in section 63 (1) within 5 years immediately before the public officer's appointment, or is convicted of such an offence after taking office; or
 - (g) is disqualified from managing a corporation or an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation under—
 - (i) any of the following provisions of the Corporations Act:
 - (A) section 206B (1) (a) and (b) (Convictions);
 - (B) section 206B (3) and (4) (Bankruptcy or personal insolvency agreement);
 - (C) section 206E (Court power of disqualification—repeated contraventions of Act); or
 - (ii) any of the following provisions of the Corporations \(Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander\) Act 2006 (Cwlth):
 - (A) section 279-5 (1) (a) and (b) (Convictions);
 - (B) section 279-5 (3) and (4) (Bankruptcy or personal insolvency agreement);
 - (C) section 279-25 (Court power of disqualification—repeated contraventions of Act); or
 - (h) is subject to a disqualification order under section 63A; or
 - (i) ceases to reside in the ACT.
- (3) If a vacancy occurs in the office of the public officer of an incorporated association, the committee of the association must, within 14 days after the vacancy occurred appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

- (4) If the committee without reasonable cause does not comply with subsection (3), each member of the committee commits an offence.

Maximum penalty (subsection (4)): 2 penalty units.

64A Resignation of committee member

A member of the committee of an incorporated association may resign as a committee member by written notice given to the public officer.

65 Disclosure of material personal interest

- (1) If a member of the committee of an incorporated association has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a committee meeting, the committee member must—

- (a) as soon as the member becomes aware of the interest, disclose the nature and extent of the interest to the committee; and
- (b) disclose the nature and extent of the interest at the next general meeting of the association.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a material personal interest—

- (a) that exists only because the member—
 - (i) is an employee of the incorporated association; or
 - (ii) is a member of a class of people for whose benefit the association is established; or
- (b) that the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the association.

- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a member of the committee of an incorporated association has an interest in a contract or proposed contract and the member—
 - (a) is not required to disclose the interest because of subsection (2); or
 - (b) discloses the interest in accordance with subsection (1) and has complied with section 65A (1).
- (4) For subsection (3)—
 - (a) the contract is not liable to be avoided by the association on any ground arising from the fiduciary relationship between the member and the association; and
 - (b) the member is not liable to account for profits derived from the contract.
- (5) A disclosure of a material personal interest required by subsection (1) must give details of—
 - (a) the nature and extent of the interest; and
 - (b) the relation of the interest to the activities of the incorporated association.
- (6) The details mentioned in subsection (5) must be recorded in the minutes of the committee meeting at which the disclosure is made.

65A Matter on which committee member has material personal interest

- (1) A member of the committee of an incorporated association who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a committee meeting must not—
 - (a) be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or

- (b) vote on the matter.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a material personal interest—
 - (a) that exists only because the member belongs to a class of people for whose benefit the association is established; or
 - (b) that the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the association.
- (3) If there are not enough committee members to form a quorum to consider a matter because of subsection (1)—
 - (a) 1 or more committee members (including those who have a material personal interest in the matter) may call a general meeting; and
 - (b) the general meeting may pass a resolution to deal with the matter.

65B Dispute resolution procedure

- (1) The rules of an incorporated association must set out a dispute resolution procedure for dealing with any dispute under this Act or the rules between—
 - (a) a member and another member; or
 - (b) a member and the association.

Note Any power of an incorporated association to adjudicate a dispute under this section is subject to the rules of natural justice (see s 50).

- (2) A member may appoint any person to act on behalf of the member in the dispute resolution procedure.

- (3) In applying the dispute resolution procedure, the association must ensure that—
- (a) each party to the dispute has been given an opportunity to be heard on the matter which is the subject of the dispute; and
 - (b) the outcome of the dispute is determined by an unbiased decision-maker; and
 - (c) the decision-maker notifies each party to the dispute, in writing, about the decision and gives reasons for the decision; and
 - (d) to the extent that doing so is compatible with paragraphs (a) to (c), the dispute resolution procedure is completed as soon as is reasonably practicable; and
 - (e) the dispute resolution procedure includes an appeal process.
- (4) If a member has initiated a dispute resolution procedure in relation to a dispute between the member and the association, the association must not take disciplinary action against any of the following people in relation to the matter which is the subject of the dispute resolution procedure until the dispute resolution procedure has been completed:
- (a) the member who initiated the dispute resolution procedure (complainant member);
 - (b) a member of the association appointed by the complainant member under subsection (2) to act on behalf of the complainant member in the dispute resolution procedure.

65C Disciplinary action

- (1) This section applies if an incorporated association proposes to take disciplinary action against a member in relation to that member's status as a member of the association.

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the procedure (a disciplinary procedure) under which disciplinary action is taken must be in accordance with the procedure (if any) provided by the rules of the association.
- (3) In applying the disciplinary procedure, the association must ensure that—
 - (a) the member who is the subject of the disciplinary procedure—
 - (i) is told the grounds upon which the disciplinary action against the member is proposed to be taken; and
 - (ii) has been given an opportunity to be heard in relation to the matter; and
 - (b) the outcome of the disciplinary procedure is decided by an unbiased decision-maker; and
 - (c) the decision-maker notifies the member, in writing, about the decision and gives reasons for the decision; and
 - (d) the disciplinary procedure includes an appeal process; and
 - (e) to the extent that doing so is compatible with paragraphs (a) to (d), the disciplinary procedure is completed as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (4) A member of an incorporated association who is the subject of a disciplinary procedure must not initiate a dispute resolution procedure in relation to the matter which is the subject of the disciplinary procedure until the disciplinary procedure has been completed.

66 Information from officers

The registrar-general may, by notice served on a person who, from returns or other information lodged with the registrar-general, appears to be a member of the committee or the public officer of an incorporated association, require the person, within the time stated in the notice, to lodge with the registrar-general a notice—

- (a) indicating the person's current home address; and
- (b) stating whether or not the person holds the office stated in the registrar-general's notice to the person and, if not, to indicate the date when the person ceased to hold the office.

Note A person may ask the registrar-general to keep their contact details confidential (see s 13A (2)). However, a public officer must have at least 1 address publicly available for service of documents (see s 13A (4)).

Division 4.2 Duties of officers

66A Duty of care and diligence

An officer of an incorporated association must exercise the officer's functions and discharge the officer's duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable person would exercise if that person—

- (a) were an officer of the association in the circumstances applying at the time of the exercise of the function or the discharge of the duty; and
- (b) occupied the office held by, and had the same responsibilities within the association as, the officer.

66B Duty of good faith and proper purpose

An officer of an incorporated association must exercise the officer's functions and discharge the officer's duties—

- (a) in good faith in the best interests of the association; and
- (b) for a proper purpose.

66C Use of position

An officer of an incorporated association must not improperly use the officer's position to—

- (a) gain an advantage for the officer or another person; or
- (b) cause detriment to the association.

66D Use of information

- (1) This section applies if a person obtains information because the person is, or has been, an officer of an incorporated association.
- (2) The person must not improperly use the information to—
 - (a) gain an advantage for the person or another person; or
 - (b) cause detriment to the association.

Division 4.3 Register of members

67 Register of members

- (1) An incorporated association must keep and maintain a register of members in accordance with this section.
- (2) The register of members must contain the following information about each person who is a member of the association:
 - (a) the person's name and contact details;
 - (b) if applicable—the class of membership of the person;
 - (c) the date the person became a member of the association;
 - (d) anything required by the association's rules;
 - (e) anything else prescribed by regulation.

67A Inspection of register of members

- (1) A member of an incorporated association may apply to the committee of the association to allow the member to inspect the register of members.
 - (2) The committee must—
 - (a) allow the request; or
 - (b) refuse the request.
 - (3) The committee—
 - (a) must refuse the request to the extent that it would allow the member to access any personal information restricted under section 67B; and
 - (b) may refuse the request if satisfied that the member sought the inspection to use information on the register for a purpose that was—
 - (i) not directly related to the management or the purposes of the association; or
 - (ii) prohibited by the rules of the association; or
 - (iii) improper.
- Note* A dispute may be dealt with under an incorporated association's dispute resolution procedure (see s 65B).
- (4) If the committee allows the request, the committee must make the register of members available for inspection by the member—
 - (a) at a reasonable time or any time stated for the purpose in the rules of the association; and
 - (b) at—
 - (i) the address of the public officer of the association; or
 - (ii) the registered office of the association (if any); or

(iii) another place in the ACT nominated by the committee.

- (5) A regulation may provide for how the committee must deal with applications and make decisions under this section.

67B Restriction of access to personal information

- (1) A member of an incorporated association may apply to the committee of the association to restrict access to personal information of the member recorded in the register of members.
- (2) The application may seek to restrict access so that the personal information is available only to—
- (a) the public officer; and
 - (b) members of the committee other than a stated member or stated members of the committee.
- (3) The request may be made by—
- (a) the person; or
 - (b) if the person is a child—a parent or guardian of the person.
- (4) The committee must—
- (a) if satisfied that there are special circumstances which justify doing so, agree to the request; or
 - (b) refuse the request.
- (5) If the committee refuses the request, the committee must notify the person who made the request, in writing, about the decision and give reasons for the decision.
- (6) If the committee refuses the request, the committee must not release the personal information without the consent of the person unless at least 28 days have passed since the committee gave notice to the person under subsection (5).

Note A dispute may be dealt with under an incorporated association's dispute resolution procedure (see s 65B).

- (7) A regulation may provide for how the committee must deal with applications and make decisions under this section.

Division 4.4 General meetings

68 First annual general meeting

An incorporated association must hold its first annual general meeting within the period of 18 months commencing on the date when the association was incorporated.

69 Annual general meetings

An incorporated association must, in addition to any other meeting it holds, hold an annual general meeting, once in each calendar year, within the period of 5 months beginning at the end of the association's most recently ended financial year.

70 Special resolutions

- (1) A resolution of an incorporated association is taken to be a special resolution if—
- (a) it is passed at a general meeting of the association, being a meeting of which at least 21 days notice, accompanied by notice of intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution, has been given to the members of the association; and
 - (b) it is passed by at least $\frac{3}{4}$ of the votes of those members of the association who, being entitled to vote, vote personally or, if the rules of the association permit voting by proxy, vote by proxy at the meeting.

- (2) For this section, voting personally includes voting while taking part in a meeting conducted using a method of communication, or a combination of methods of communication, that allows a member taking part to hear or otherwise know what each other member taking part says without the members being in each other's presence.

Examples—methods of communication video conferencing software, instant messaging, telephone conferencing, in writing

Part 5 Record keeping and reporting

70A Application—pt 5

This part does not apply to an incorporated association that is an ACNC registered entity.

70B Definitions—pt 5

In this part:

auditor, of an association's statement of accounts, means a person who—

- (a) is not a member or officer of the association; and
- (b) has not prepared or assisted with the preparation of the accounts; and
- (c) is either—
 - (i) registered as an auditor under the Corporations Act; or
 - (ii) a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, the Institute of Public Accountants, or CPA Australia.

large association, for a financial year, means an association that has a total revenue for the financial year of $1 000 000 or more.

medium association, for a financial year, means an association that has a total revenue for the financial year of $400 000 or more but less than $1 000 000.

required statement means a statement of accounts—

- (a) for a small association—reviewed in accordance with section 75; or
- (b) for a medium association—reviewed or audited in accordance with section 75; or

(c) for a large association—audited in accordance with section 76.

reviewer, of an association's statement of accounts, means a person who—

- (a) is not an officer of the association; and
- (b) has not prepared or assisted with the preparation of the accounts.

small association, for a financial year, means an association that has a total revenue for the financial year of less than $400 000.

70C Exemption from revenue thresholds

- (1) For section 70B, definitions of large association, medium association and small association, the committee of an association may, for a financial year, ask in writing that the registrar-general disregard the association's revenue for the financial year.
- (2) The registrar-general may agree to the committee's request if the registrar-general is satisfied special circumstances apply to the association for the financial year.
- (3) If the registrar-general agrees to the committee's request, the registrar-general—
 - (a) must state whether the association is taken to be a large, medium or small association for the financial year for this part; and
 - (b) may impose conditions on the association.

71 Accounting records

An incorporated association must—

- (a) keep accounting records that correctly record and explain the transactions (including any transactions as trustee) and the financial position of the association; and

- (b) keep its accounting records in such a way that—
 - (i) true and fair accounts of the association can be prepared from time to time; and
 - (ii) a statement of the accounts of the association can conveniently and properly be reviewed or audited in accordance with this part; and
- (c) retain its accounting records for at least 7 years after the transactions to which they relate were completed.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

72 Annual statement of accounts

- (1) Before the end of the period within which the first annual general meeting or any subsequent annual general meeting of an incorporated association is required to be held under section 68 or 69, the committee of the association must prepare a statement of the association's accounts.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) The statement of accounts must not be misleading and must give a true and fair account of—
 - (a) the income and expenditure of the association during the most recently ended financial year of the association; and
 - (b) the assets and liabilities of the association at the end of that financial year; and
 - (c) any mortgages, charges or other securities of any description affecting any property of the association at the end of that financial year; and

- (d) for each trust of which the association was the trustee during a period in that financial year, being part or all of that financial year—
 - (i) the income and expenditure of the trust during that period; and
 - (ii) the assets and liabilities of the trust at the end of that period; and
 - (iii) any mortgages, charges or other securities of any description affecting any of the property of the trust during that period; and
- (e) any prescribed matters.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

73 Presentation of statement to members

- (1) At each annual general meeting of an incorporated association the following documents must be presented by the committee for the consideration of the meeting:
 - (a) the required statement of the association's accounts for the most recently ended financial year of the association;
 - (b) a copy of the reviewer's or auditor's report to the association in relation to the association's accounts for that financial year;
 - (c) a report signed by 2 members of the committee stating—
 - (i) the name of each member of the committee of the association during the most recently ended financial year of the association and, if different, at the date of the report; and
 - (ii) the principal activities of the association during the most recently ended financial year and any significant change in the nature of those activities that occurred during that financial year; and

(iii) the net profit or loss of the association for the most recently ended financial year.

- (2) The committee of a large association must ensure that the prescribed number of copies of the documents referred to in subsection (1) (a) and (b) are available for perusal by members of the association immediately before and during the annual general meeting.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

74 Review or audit of accounts

- (1) A medium and large association must appoint an auditor.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

- (2) For each financial year, the committee of an incorporated association must take reasonable steps to ensure that the following is done at least 14 days before the association's annual general meeting:

- (a) for a small association—the association's accounts for the financial year are reviewed by a reviewer;
- (b) for a medium association—the association's accounts for the financial year are reviewed or audited by an auditor;
- (c) for a large association—the association's accounts for the financial year are audited by an auditor.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

75 Review reports

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a reviewer is used by a small association to review the association's statement of accounts; or
 - (b) an auditor is appointed by a medium association to review the association's statement of accounts.

- (2) For a small association, a reviewer must—
- (a) undertake a review of the association's accounting records; and
 - (b) prepare a written report; and
 - (c) state in the report whether, on the basis of the review, anything has come to the reviewer's attention that causes the reviewer to believe that the accounting records do not satisfy the requirements of this part.
- (3) For a medium association, an auditor must—
- (a) undertake a review of the association's accounting records in accordance with the auditing standards; and
 - (b) prepare a written report in accordance with the auditing standards; and
 - (c) state in the report—
 - (i) whether, on the basis of the review, anything has come to the reviewer's attention that causes the reviewer to believe that the accounting records do not satisfy the requirements of this part; and
 - (ii) whether the reviewer has been given all information, explanation and assistance necessary for the conduct of the review; and
 - (iii) whether the association has kept accounting records sufficient to enable a statement of the association's accounts to be prepared and reviewed; and
 - (iv) whether the association has kept other records as required by this Act.
- (4) In this section:
- auditing standard*—see the Corporations Act, section 9.

76 Audit reports

- (1) This section applies if an auditor is appointed by a medium or large association to audit the association's statement of accounts.
- (2) The auditor must report to the association on the accounts required to be laid before the association at the annual general meeting and on the association's accounting records and other records relating to those accounts.
- (3) The auditor must, in a report under this section, state—
 - (a) whether the accounts are in the auditor's opinion properly drawn up—
 - (i) so as to give a true and fair view of matters required by section 72 (2) to be dealt with in the accounts; and
 - (ii) in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
 - (iii) in accordance with the accounting standards; and
 - (b) if, in the auditor's opinion, the accounts have not been drawn up in accordance with the accounting standards—
 - (i) whether, in the auditor's opinion, the accounts would, if drawn up in accordance with the accounting standards, have given a true and fair view of the matters required by section 72 (2) to be dealt with in the accounts; and
 - (ii) if, in the auditor's opinion, the accounts would not, if so drawn up, have given a true and fair view of those matters—the auditor's reasons for being of that opinion; and
 - (iii) if subparagraph (ii) does not apply—particulars of the quantified financial effect on the accounts of the failure to so draw up the accounts; and

- (c) any defect or irregularity in the accounts and any matter not set out in the accounts without regard to which a true and fair view of the matters dealt with by the accounts would not be obtained; and
 - (d) if the auditor is not so satisfied about any matter referred to in paragraph (a) or (b)—the auditor's reasons for not being so satisfied.
- (4) It is the duty of the auditor to form an opinion about each of the following matters:
 - (a) whether the auditor has obtained all the information and explanations that the auditor required;
 - (b) whether proper accounting records and other records have been kept by the association as required by this Act;and the auditor must state in the auditor's report particulars of any deficiency, failure or shortcoming in relation to any matter referred to in this subsection.
- (5) The auditor has a right of access at all reasonable times to the accounting records and other records of the association and is entitled to require from any officer of the association any information and explanations the auditor desires for the purpose of auditing the association's accounts.
- (6) The auditor's report must be attached to or endorsed on the accounts and must, if a member so requires, be read before the association at the annual general meeting, and is open to inspection by a member at any reasonable time.

- (7) The auditor or an agent of the auditor authorised by the auditor in writing for the purpose is entitled to attend any general meeting of the association and to receive all notices of and other communications relating to any general meeting that a member is entitled to receive and to be heard at any general meeting that the auditor attends on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in the capacity of auditor and is entitled so to be heard even if the auditor retires at that meeting or a resolution to remove the auditor from office is passed at that meeting.
- (8) If the auditor becomes aware that the association or the committee have made default in complying with section 69 or 73 relating to the laying of accounts before the annual general meeting of the association, the auditor must immediately inform the registrar-general by notice in writing and if accounts have been prepared and audited, send to the registrar-general a copy of the accounts and of the auditor's report on those accounts.
- (9) Except in a case to which subsection (8) applies, if the auditor, in the course of the performance of duties as auditor is satisfied that—
- (a) there has been a contravention of this Act; and
 - (b) the circumstances are such that in the auditor's opinion the matter has not been or will not be adequately dealt with by comment in the auditor's report on the accounts or by bringing the matter to the notice of the committee of the association;
- the auditor must immediately report the matter to the registrar-general by notice in writing.
- (10) In this section:
- accounting standard*—see the Corporations Act, section 9.

77 Reviewer's and auditor's liability

A reviewer or auditor of an incorporated association is not, in the absence of malice by the reviewer or auditor, liable to any action for defamation in relation to any statement that the reviewer or auditor makes, orally or in writing, in the exercise of functions as reviewer or auditor of the association.

78 Obstruction of auditor

An officer of an incorporated association must not, without lawful excuse—

- (a) refuse or fail to allow an auditor of the association access, for the purpose of auditing the accounts of the association, to any accounting or other records of the association in the officer's custody or control; or
- (b) refuse or fail to give the auditor, within a reasonable time, any information or explanation required by the auditor that is within the knowledge of the officer; or
- (c) otherwise hinder, obstruct or delay an auditor in the exercise of functions as auditor of the association.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

79 Registrar-general's power to require statements and reports

- (1) The registrar-general may, by written notice, require an incorporated association to lodge with the registrar-general any of the following documents of the incorporated association, in relation to a financial year that ended within the last 7 years:
 - (a) a statement of the association's accounts prepared under section 72;
 - (b) a copy of a reviewer's report under section 75;

- (c) a copy of an auditor's report under section 75 or section 76;
 - (d) a compliance statement;
 - (e) a prescribed document.
- (2) An association must lodge any documents requested within 2 weeks after the date of the notice, or any longer period allowed by the registrar-general.
- (3) An incorporated association commits an offence if it does not comply with the notice.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

- (4) In this section:

compliance statement means a statement signed by 2 members of the committee of the association certifying whether the provisions of this Act that apply to the association in relation to the financial year have, to the best of the members' knowledge at the time of lodging the statement, been complied with for—

- (i) the preparation of the annual statement of the association's accounts; and
- (ii) the reviewing or auditing of the accounts and the presentation of the required statement at the annual general meeting.

Part 6 Transfer of incorporation

81 Definitions for pt 6

In this part:

company limited by guarantee—see the Corporations Act, section 9.

constitution—see the Corporations Act, section 9.

corporation law—see section 82 (1).

82 Voluntary transfer of incorporation

- (1) An incorporated association may apply to the registrar-general for permission to apply for registration of the association under either of the following (a corporation law):
 - (a) the Corporations Act;
 - (b) the Corporations \(Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander\) Act 2006 (Cwlth).
- (2) An application for registration under the Corporations Act must be for registration as a company limited by guarantee.
- (3) The registrar-general must give the permission if—
 - (a) the association has, by special resolution, resolved to apply for registration of the association under a corporation law; and
 - (b) an application lodged with the registrar-general by the association—
 - (i) is signed by the public officer and 2 members of the committee of the association; and
 - (ii) is accompanied by any documents prescribed by regulation; and

- (iii) includes a statement to the effect that the special resolution mentioned in paragraph (a) has been passed by the association.

Note If a form is approved under s 126 for an application, the form must be used.

83 Cancellation where continued incorporation inappropriate

- (1) If the registrar-general is satisfied that the continued incorporation of an association under this Act would be inappropriate or inconvenient because of the registrar-general's assessment of—

- (a) the scale or nature of the activities of the association; or
- (b) the value or nature of the property of the association; or
- (c) the extent or nature of the association's dealings with persons who are not members or applicants for membership of the association;

the registrar-general may—

- (d) serve a notice on the association; and
- (e) give public notice in relation to the association.

Note Public notice means notice on an ACT government website or in a daily newspaper circulating in the ACT (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1).

- (2) A notice under subsection (1) (d) and (e) must—

- (a) contain a statement to the effect that the incorporation of the association will be cancelled under this section unless, within 2 months of the date when the notice was served or published, whichever is the later, the association—
 - (i) obtains the registrar-general's permission to apply for registration of the association under a corporation law; or

- (ii) by special resolution, resolves to implement an arrangement that, if approved of by the registrar-general, will preserve the continued incorporation of the association under this Act; and
- (b) set out the ground or grounds for the proposed cancellation.
- (3) The registrar-general may, if satisfied on application in writing by an association, extend the period for compliance with a notice referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) The registrar-general may approve of an arrangement referred to in subsection (2) (a) (ii) if satisfied that, subject to being implemented to the satisfaction of the registrar-general, it will preserve the continued incorporation of the association under this Act.
- (5) In considering an arrangement referred to in subsection (2) (a) (ii), the registrar-general may make the arrangement subject to conditions that, if properly observed by the association, will preserve the continued incorporation of the association under this Act.
- (6) If an association—
 - (a) has not complied with either of the requirements of a notice referred to in subsection (2); or
 - (b) has not implemented an arrangement as approved by the registrar-general;the registrar-general may—
 - (c) serve a further notice on the association; and
 - (d) give a further public notice in relation to the association.

Note Public notice means notice on an ACT government website or in a daily newspaper circulating in the ACT (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1).

- (7) A notice referred to in subsection (6) (c) and (d) must—
- (a) contain a statement to the effect that the incorporation of the association will be cancelled, unless within 1 month after the date when the notice was served or published, whichever is the later, the association shows cause why the incorporation of the association should not be cancelled by the registrar-general; and
 - (b) set out the ground or grounds for the proposed cancellation.
- (8) If the registrar-general has, in accordance with subsection (6), served a notice on an incorporated association and published a notice in relation to the association the registrar-general may, on the expiration of the period of 1 month referred to in the notice, cancel the incorporation of the association unless the registrar-general is satisfied within that period that the continued incorporation of the association under this Act would not be inappropriate or inconvenient.
- (9) A cancellation of incorporation under subsection (8) is a notifiable instrument.
- Note* A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.
- (10) The provisions of part 7 that relate to the cancellation of the incorporation of an association under the part apply in relation to the cancellation of the incorporation of an association under this section.

84 Membership of proposed company

Each person who was a member of an incorporated association immediately before its registration under the Corporations Act as a company limited by guarantee is, for the purposes of the association's application for that registration, taken to be a subscriber to the constitution of the proposed company.

85 Cancellation of incorporation following voluntary transfer

On the registration of an incorporated association under a corporation law, the registrar-general must cancel the incorporation of the association under this Act.

86 Effect of cancellation of incorporation

On the cancellation under section 85 of the incorporation of an association (the former association)—

- (a) this Act ceases to apply in relation to the former association; and
- (b) the body corporate previously constituted by the former association is taken to be subsumed in the body corporate constituted by registration under a corporation law (the company); and
- (c) any property or proprietary or other rights that were, immediately before the cancellation, vested in the former association are taken, subject to any trust affecting the property or part of it, to be vested in, and may be exercised or enforced by, the company; and
- (d) any liability, obligation or penalty that could have been enforced against or recovered from the former association immediately before the cancellation is enforceable against or recoverable from the company; and
- (e) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy that could, immediately before the cancellation, have been instituted, continued or enforced against the former association may be instituted, continued or enforced against the company.

87 Transfer of land to company

If, under section 86 (c), any land or interest in land (being land in the ACT) vested in a former association is taken to be vested in a company, the registrar-general must, on production of the certificate of incorporation of the company, enter the company as the registered proprietor of the land or interest in land on the land titles register.

Part 7 Winding-up

88 Voluntary winding-up

An incorporated association may be wound up voluntarily if the association has, by special resolution, resolved that it be wound up.

89 Application for winding-up by the court

An application to the Supreme Court for the winding-up by the court of an incorporated association may be made by the association, by a member or creditor of the association, or by the registrar-general.

90 Winding-up by the court

The Supreme Court may order that an incorporated association be wound up if—

- (a) the association has, by special resolution, resolved that it be wound up by the court; or
- (b) the association does not begin its operations within the period of 1 year beginning on the date of incorporation of the association; or
- (c) the association suspends its operations for a period exceeding 1 year; or
- (d) the association is unable to pay its debts; or
- (e) the association (not being an association incorporated under a declaration under section 15 (1)) has, in the opinion of the court, secured pecuniary gain, as trustee or otherwise, for its members; or
- (f) for an association incorporated under a declaration under section 15 (1)—the association has not complied with a condition to which the incorporation of the association is subject under section 15 (2); or

- (g) the association has engaged in activities outside the scope of its statement of objects; or
- (h) the committee of the association has acted in affairs of the association in the interests of the committee, or of a member or members of the committee rather than in accordance with the statement of objects of the association, or has acted in any other manner that appears to the court to be unjust or inequitable to the members of the association; or
- (i) the court is of the opinion that it is just that the association be wound up.

91 Application of Corporations Act

The Corporations Act, part 5.7 applies to the winding-up of an incorporated association subject to the modifications and adaptations stated in schedule 2.

92 Property of defunct association

- (1) On the dissolution or the completion of the winding up of an incorporated association, any surplus property of the association is, subject to any trust affecting the property or part of it, taken to—
 - (a) vest in another association (whether or not the other association is incorporated), being an association that complies with subsection (2) and that—
 - (i) has been nominated for this paragraph in the rules of the former association; or
 - (ii) if no association is nominated in those rules—has been nominated by special resolution of the former association; or

- (b) vest in a fund, authority or institution in Australia mentioned in the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cwlth), subdivision 30-B that—
 - (i) has been nominated for this paragraph in the rules of the former association; or
 - (ii) if a fund, authority or institution in Australia is not nominated in the rules—has been nominated by special resolution of the former association; or
 - (c) if no association, fund, authority or institution has been nominated in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b)—vest in the registrar-general.
- (2) For subsection (1) (a), an association is taken to comply with this subsection if it—
- (a) has objects substantially the same as the objects of the former association; and
 - (b) is not carried on for the object of securing pecuniary gain for its members; and
 - (c) has a provision in its rules requiring any surplus property of the association to be passed, on the dissolution or winding-up of the association, to another association that—
 - (i) has objects substantially the same as the firstmentioned association; and
 - (ii) is not carried on for the object of securing pecuniary gain for its members.

- (3) If, for subsection (1), a former association has nominated another association or a fund, authority or institution, by special resolution, the former association must lodge with the registrar-general a notice in writing, signed by at least 2 members of the committee of the former association, certifying that the special resolution was duly passed.

Maximum penalty: 2 penalty units.

- (4) A person aggrieved by the operation of subsection (1) in relation to the surplus property of a former association may apply to the Supreme Court for an order in relation to the property.
- (5) If an incorporated association has been wound up and, in accordance with subsection (1), land or an interest in land (being land in the ACT) vested in the incorporated association is taken to vest in another association, in a fund, authority or institution or in the registrar-general, the registrar-general must enter the entity in which the property is vested as the registered proprietor of the land or interest in land on the land titles register.
- (6) In this section:

surplus property means any property or interest in property of a former association that remains after the satisfaction of any debts or liabilities of the former association and any costs, charges or expenses incurred in the winding-up of the former association.

93 Cancellation of incorporation

- (1) If the registrar-general has reasonable grounds for believing that an incorporated association—
- (a) is not in operation; or
 - (b) has fewer than 5 members; or

- (c) was incorporated as a result of fraud or mistake; or
- (d) has not during the last 3 years convened an annual general meeting of the association in accordance with this Act; or
- (e) has not lodged an annual accounts document as required by the registrar-general; or
- (f) has lodged annual accounts documents in relation to the last 3 years and for each year a reviewer or auditor, in the course of the reviewer's or auditor's duties to examine the association's accounting records and other records, has stated that the reviewer or auditor is unable to determine if the association has been complying with this Act;

the registrar-general may—

- (g) serve a notice on the association; and
- (h) give public notice in relation to the association.

Note Public notice means notice on an ACT government website or in a daily newspaper circulating in the ACT (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1).

(2) A notice under subsection (1) (g) and (h) must—

- (a) contain a statement to the effect that if a reply to the notice from the association showing cause why the incorporation of the association should not be cancelled is not received by the registrar-general within the period of 2 months after the date when the notice was served or published, whichever is the later, the incorporation of the association will be cancelled; and
- (b) set out the ground or grounds for the proposed cancellation.

- (3) If the registrar-general has, in accordance with subsection (1), served a notice on an incorporated association and published a notice in relation to the association the registrar-general may, on the end of the period of 2 months referred to in the notice, in writing, cancel the incorporation of the association unless the registrar-general is satisfied within that period that the association—
- (a) is in operation; and
 - (b) has at least 5 members; and
 - (c) was not incorporated as a result of fraud or mistake; and
 - (d) has during the last 3 years convened an annual general meeting in accordance with this Act; and
 - (e) has lodged any required annual accounts documents; and
 - (f) if subsection (1) (f) applies—has taken reasonable steps to ensure future compliance with this Act.
- (4) A cancellation of incorporation under subsection (3) is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

- (5) If, under section 83 or subsection (3), the registrar-general cancels the incorporation of an association, the registrar-general must send to the public officer of the association at the address appearing in the registrar-general's records as the last notified address of the most recently appointed public officer of the association or, if there appears to be a vacancy in the office of the public officer, to a member of the committee of the association at the address that appears in the registrar-general's records as the last notified address of the association, a notice of the cancellation.

- (6) Despite the cancellation of the incorporation of an association under section 83 or subsection (3), any liability of an officer or member of the association existing at the time of cancellation continues and may be enforced as if the incorporation of the association had not been cancelled.
- (7) If the registrar-general is satisfied that the incorporation of an association was cancelled as the result of an error on the part of the registrar-general, the registrar-general may reinstate the incorporation of the association, and the association is then taken to have continued in existence as an incorporated association as if its incorporation had not been cancelled.
- (8) If, before the registrar-general cancels the incorporation of an association under section 83 or subsection (3), the incorporated association has commenced to be wound up under section 88 or 90—
 - (a) the registrar-general may cancel the incorporation despite the commencement of the winding-up; and
 - (b) the cancellation of the incorporation is not taken to affect the winding-up.
- (9) In this section:
annual accounts document means a document mentioned in section 79 (1).

94 Property of former incorporated association

- (1) If, under section 83 or 93 (3), the registrar-general cancels the incorporation of an association, and the winding-up of the association was not begun before the date of cancellation, any property or interest in property held by the association, subject to any trust affecting the property or interest, is taken to vest in the registrar-general.

- (2) If the incorporation of an association has been cancelled under section 93 (3) and land or an interest in land (being land in the ACT) vested in the incorporated association is taken to vest in the registrar-general under subsection (1), the registrar-general must enter the registrar-general as the registered proprietor of the land or interest in land on the land titles register.

95 Property vested in registrar-general

- (1) If the registrar-general is satisfied that under section 92 (1) or 94 any property or interest in property of a former association is vested in the registrar-general, whether solely or with any other person, the registrar-general may, subject to any trust affecting the property or interest, get in, sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with the property or interest or any part of the property or interest as the registrar-general thinks fit.
- (2) The power of the registrar-general to sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with property or an interest in property—
- (a) may be exercised solely or with any other person, by public auction, public tender or private contract, and in the manner, for the consideration and on the terms and conditions the registrar-general thinks fit; and
 - (b) includes the power—
 - (i) to rescind any contract and resell or otherwise dispose of or deal with the property or interest as the registrar-general thinks fit; and
 - (ii) to execute any contracts, instruments and documents that the registrar-general thinks necessary.
- (3) There is payable to the Territory, for the exercise of the registrar-general's powers under subsections (1) and (2), out of any income derived from, or the proceeds of sale of, disposition of or other dealing with, any property or interest in property, the commission (if any) prescribed.

- (4) The registrar-general must apply any moneys received in the exercise of a power given by this section in defraying the costs and expenses of and incidental to the exercise of the power and in making payments authorised by this section, and must pay the remainder (if any) of the moneys to the Territory.
- (5) A person making a claim in relation to any money paid to the Territory under subsection (4) may apply to the Supreme Court for an order for payment of an amount to the person and, if the court is satisfied that an amount should be paid to the person, it must make an order for the payment accordingly.
- (6) On the making of an order under subsection (5) for payment of an amount to a person or on the registrar-general notifying the Minister that the registrar-general is satisfied that an amount should be paid to a person out of money paid to the Territory under subsection (4), an amount equal to the amount stated in the order or the notification, is payable by the Territory to the person.
- (7) Nothing in this section is taken to deprive a person of another right or remedy to which the person is entitled against a liquidator of an incorporated association or another person.

96 Liability in relation to property vested in registrar-general

- (1) Property vested in the registrar-general under section 92 (1) or 94 is subject to all charges, claims or liabilities imposed on or affecting the property by a law about rates, taxes or any other claim or liability to which the property would have been subject had it continued in the possession, ownership or occupation of the association or former association.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) is taken to impose on the registrar-general or the Territory a duty, obligation or liability to do or suffer anything required to be done or suffered by a law of a kind referred to in that subsection other than the liability to satisfy or pay a charge, claim or liability referred to in that subsection out of the property of an association or former association to the extent that the property is, in the opinion of the registrar-general, available for and applicable to the satisfaction or payment of the charge, claim or liability.

97 Registrar-general's power to act for defunct association

- (1) If, after an incorporated association has been dissolved, or has been wound up, the registrar-general is satisfied—
- (a) that the association, if it still existed, would be legally or equitably bound to carry out, complete or give effect to some dealing, transaction or matter; and
 - (b) that, in order to carry out, complete or give effect to that dealing, transaction or matter, some purely administrative act, not being of a discretionary kind, should have been done by or on behalf of the association, or should be done by or on behalf of the association if the association still existed;

the registrar-general may, as representing the association or its liquidator under this section, do that act or arrange for that act to be done.

- (2) The registrar-general may execute or sign any relevant instrument or document adding a memorandum stating that the registrar-general has done so under this section, and any execution or signature under this section has the same force, validity and effect as if the association, when it still existed, had duly executed the instrument or document.

98 Records of property vested in registrar-general

The registrar-general must keep—

- (a) a record of property vested in the registrar-general under sections 92 (1) and 94 and of any transactions in relation to the property; and
- (b) an account of any money realised from the property and of the payment or distribution of the money; and
- (c) any other account, voucher, receipt or other document relating to the property or the money; for at least 7 years after the transaction to which the record, account, voucher, receipt or other document relates was completed.

Part 8 Investigation of association's affairs

99 Meaning of books in pt 8

- (1) In this part:

books includes bankers' books.

- (2) In this section:

bankers' books means—

- (a) books of a banking corporation, including any documents used in the ordinary business of a banking corporation; and
- (b) cheques, orders for the payment of money, bills of exchange and promissory notes in the possession or under the control of a banking corporation; and
- (c) securities or documents of title to securities in the possession or under the control of a banking corporation whether by way of pledge or otherwise.

100 Secrecy

- (1) A person who is, or has at any time been—

- (a) appointed for this Act; or
- (b) engaged as a member of staff of the registrar-general; or

- (c) authorised to exercise any function of the registrar-general, or any function on behalf of the registrar-general;

must not, except to the extent necessary to perform his or her official duties, or to exercise such a function, either directly or indirectly, make a record of, or divulge or communicate to any person, any information acquired by him or her because of his or her being or having been so appointed, engaged or authorised, or make use of any such information, for any purpose other than the performance of his or her official duties or the exercise of that function.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) is taken to preclude a person from—
 - (a) producing a document to a court in the course of criminal proceedings or in the course of any proceedings under this Act; or
 - (b) divulging or communicating to a court in the course of any proceedings referred to in paragraph (a) any matter or thing coming under his or her notice in the performance of his or her official duties or in the exercise of a function referred to in that subsection; or
 - (c) producing a document or divulging or communicating information to a person to whom, in the opinion of the registrar-general, it is in the public interest that the document be produced or the information be divulged or communicated; or
 - (d) producing a document or divulging or communicating information that is required or permitted by any Act of the Commonwealth or of the Territory to be produced, divulged or communicated.

101 Investigations by registrar-general

If the registrar-general has reasonable grounds for believing that an offence against this Act or the repealed Act, or an offence relating to an incorporated association, has been, is being, or will be committed, being an offence that involves fraud or dishonesty or concerns the management or affairs of an incorporated association, the registrar-general may make the investigations the registrar-general thinks appropriate for the administration of this Act.

102 Scope of registrar-general's powers

- (1) The powers of the registrar-general under this part may be exercised—
 - (a) for the purpose of ascertaining whether the repealed Act or this Act has been or is being complied with; and
 - (b) for the purpose of exercising a function of the registrar-general under this Act.
- (2) If it appears to the registrar-general that a person, or an association or other group of persons, not being an incorporated association or other body corporate of which the incorporation was effected or is recognised under a law in force in the ACT, is holding out himself, herself or itself, as an incorporated association, the registrar-general may exercise in relation to the person, association or group of persons all the powers that the registrar-general may exercise under this part in relation to an incorporated association for the purposes referred to in subsection (1) (a) and (b).

103 Production of association's books

- (1) The registrar-general may, by notice in writing—
 - (a) require an incorporated association to produce to the registrar-general, immediately or at a time and place stated in the notice, any books relating to the affairs of the association that are specified in the notice; or

- (b) require a person who is or has been an officer or employee of an incorporated association or who has acted as an agent, banker, lawyer or in any other capacity on behalf of an incorporated association (including an association that is being wound up or has been dissolved) to produce to the registrar-general immediately any books relating to the affairs of the association that are stated in the notice; or
 - (c) require a person to produce immediately to the registrar-general any books relating to the affairs of an incorporated association (including an association that is being wound up or has been dissolved) that are in the custody or control of the person.
- (2) If the registrar-general requires a person to produce books, the registrar-general may—
 - (a) if the books are produced—
 - (i) take possession of the books and make copies of or take extracts from them; and
 - (ii) require the person or any other person who was a party to compiling the books to make a statement providing any explanation that the person is able to provide in relation to a matter relating to the compilation of the books or to which the books relate; and
 - (iii) keep the books in the registrar-general's possession for as long as is necessary to enable the books to be inspected and copies of or extracts from them to be taken by or for the registrar-general; or
 - (b) if the books are not produced, require the person—
 - (i) to state, to the best of the person's knowledge or belief, where the books may be found; and

- (ii) to identify the person who, to the best of the firstmentioned person's knowledge and belief, last had custody of the books and to state, to the best of the person's knowledge and belief, where the identified person can be found.
- (3) If the registrar-general requires a person to produce books that are recorded, kept or reproduced electronically, the person is taken to have complied with the requirement if the person provides a printed or other reproduction of the information contained in the books.
- (4) If the registrar-general has power to require a person to produce books relating to the affairs of an association, the registrar-general may (whether or not the registrar-general requires the books to be produced) require the person to identify any property of the association and to explain the manner in which the association has kept account of the property.
- (5) If the registrar-general has possession of any book related to the affairs of an association, the registrar-general must permit any person who would be entitled to inspect the book if it were not in the possession of the registrar-general to inspect the book at any reasonable time.

104 Inspection of books held by lawyer

- (1) If—
 - (a) the registrar-general, under section 103, requires a lawyer to produce a book or to make a statement in relation to a book; and
 - (b) the book contains a privileged communication made by or on behalf of, or to, the lawyer; the lawyer may refuse to comply with the requirement unless the person to whom, or by or on behalf of whom, the communication was made (the third party) consents to the lawyer's compliance with the requirement.

- (2) If a lawyer refuses to comply with a requirement in relation to a book containing a privileged communication, the lawyer must immediately—
- (a) give the registrar-general who made the requirement, in writing—
 - (i) if the name and address of the third party are known to the lawyer—that name and address; and
 - (ii) sufficient particulars to identify the book or part of the book containing the communication; and
 - (b) if, under section 103 (2) (a) (ii), the lawyer was required to make an explanatory statement—comply with the requirement to the extent that it is possible to comply without disclosing the communication.

105 Liability of person producing books

A person is not be taken to be subject to any liability only because the person has complied with a requirement made under section 103 or 104.

Part 9 Offences and related matters

106 Proceedings for offences

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may be instituted by the registrar-general, within the period of 5 years after the offence was committed, or within any further period the Minister allows.
- (2) An offence against this Act is punishable on summary conviction.

107 Offences related to inspection of books

- (1) A person must not—
 - (a) without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement made of the person under section 103; or
 - (b) in purported compliance with a requirement made under part 8, give information or an explanation or make a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (c) without reasonable excuse, obstruct or hinder the registrar-general in the exercise of a function of the registrar-general under part 8.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) in relation to information or an explanation given or a statement made by the person if the person adduces evidence that the person believed on reasonable grounds that the information, explanation or statement was true and was not misleading, and that evidence is not rebutted by the prosecution.

- (3) A person is not excused from giving information or an explanation or making a statement relating to the compilation of an association's books or to any matter to which the books relate in compliance with a requirement made of the person under part 8 on the ground that the information, explanation or statement would or would tend to incriminate the person, but if, before giving information or an explanation or making a statement, the person claims that doing so would or would tend to incriminate the person, the information, explanation or statement is not admissible in evidence against the person in criminal proceedings other than proceedings under subsection (1).
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), information, an explanation or a statement given or made by a person in compliance with a requirement made of the person under part 8 is admissible in evidence in civil or criminal proceedings against the person.
- (5) If a person required to produce any books under this part has a lien on the books, the production of the books by the person is not taken to affect the lien.

108 Offences by officers of associations etc

- (1) A member of the committee of an incorporated association who knowingly fails to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the association has complied or is complying with this Act or with a condition imposed on the association under this Act commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) An officer of an incorporated association, or an incorporated association, who or that contravenes a condition imposed on the association under this Act by the registrar-general or the Minister commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (3) Proceedings for an offence against this section may be instituted against an officer of an incorporated association, and the officer may be convicted of the offence, whether or not proceedings in relation to the offence have been instituted against the association or the association has been convicted of an offence related to the firstmentioned offence.
- (4) Nothing in this section is taken to affect the liability of an incorporated association in relation to an offence committed by the association against this Act.

109 Offence—pecuniary gain

- (1) An incorporated association must not, as trustee or otherwise, secure pecuniary gain for its members.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an association incorporated under a declaration under section 15 (1).

110 Liability of members

If, under section 108 (1), a member or members of the committee of an incorporated association commit an offence in relation to a failure of the association to comply with section 109, the member or members is or are respectively liable, or jointly and severally liable, for any debt or liability incurred by the association because of the commission of the offence.

112 Offences by unincorporated bodies

If a person, or an association or other group of persons, not being an incorporated association or other body corporate of which the incorporation is recognised under a law in force in the ACT or under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory—

- (a) uses a name or title in which the word ‘Incorporation’ or an abbreviation or imitation of it appears or in which the abbreviation ‘Inc.’ or any imitation of it appears; or
- (b) otherwise holds out himself or herself, or itself, as being an incorporated association or other body corporate of which the incorporation was effected or is recognised under a law in force in the ACT;

the person, or each member of the association or other group of persons, commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units.

114 Investment with associations

- (1) An incorporated association must not, without the written approval of the registrar-general, invite a person other than a member or applicant for membership of the association to invest money with the association nor receive money from such a person for investment with the association.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) If an incorporated association receives money from a person in contravention of subsection (1)—
 - (a) the transaction is taken to be void; and
 - (b) the money, any interest on the money paid or payable to the association, and any profit derived from use of the money by the association, is recoverable by the person from the association as a debt due to the person.

- (3) An incorporated association may, subject to the rules, invite a member or applicant for membership of the association to deposit money with or lend money to the association, and may receive money from a member or applicant for membership.
- (4) The registrar-general may grant an incorporated association approval to invite a person referred to in subsection (1) to invest money with the association and approval to receive money from such a person for investment, and may make the grant subject to any conditions the registrar-general thinks fit.
- (5) An association that does not comply with a condition specified in a grant of approval given to the association under subsection (4) commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

115 Certificates as evidence

- (1) In any proceedings, a certificate of the registrar-general to the effect—
 - (a) that, on a date stated in the certificate, the association named in the certificate was or was not an incorporated association; or
 - (b) that, on a date stated in the certificate, there was no association incorporated under the name stated in the certificate; or
 - (c) that a provision of this Act stated in the certificate—
 - (i) had or had not been complied with at a date or within a period stated in the certificate; or
 - (ii) had been complied with at the date stated in the certificate but not before that date; or
 - (d) that, on a date stated in the certificate, the person named in the certificate was or was not shown by the registrar-general's records to be the public officer of an incorporated association named in the certificate; or

- (e) that, on a date stated in the certificate, the address stated in the certificate was the last address of the public officer of the incorporated association named in the certificate of which the registrar-general was notified; or
- (f) that a copy of the statement of the objects or the rules of an incorporated association named in the certificate, or a copy of a notice stating particulars of any trust relating to the incorporated association named in the certificate, is a true copy of the statement, the rules or the notice, at the date stated in the certificate; is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

- (2) In any proceedings, a certificate of incorporation issued under this Act or the repealed Act in relation to an association is taken to be conclusive evidence that the association was incorporated under the respective Act on the date stated in the certificate as the date of incorporation.
- (3) In this section—
 - (a) a reference to a copy of a document includes a reference to a print-out of the matters or some of the matters contained in the document and recorded in a computerised database comprising the matters contained in documents issued by or lodged with the registrar-general; and
 - (b) a reference to a document includes a reference to—
 - (i) an application lodged with the registrar-general under this Act; and
 - (ii) if a reproduction or transparency of a document lodged with the registrar-general has been incorporated in a register—the reproduction or transparency.

116 Copies or extracts of books as evidence

- (1) In any legal proceedings (whether under this Act or otherwise), a copy of, or extract from, a book relating to the affairs of an incorporated association is admissible in evidence as if it were the book or the relevant part of it on proof that the copy or extract is a true copy of the book or the relevant part of it.
- (2) For subsection (1), evidence that a copy of or an extract from a book is a true copy of the book or a part of the book—
 - (a) may be given by a person who has compared the copy or extract with the book or relevant party of the book; and
 - (b) may be given—
 - (i) orally; or
 - (ii) in writing; or
 - (iii) by an affidavit sworn before a person authorised to take affidavits.

Note It is an offence to make a false or misleading statement, give false or misleading information or produce a false or misleading document (see Criminal Code, pt 3.4).

117 Constructive notice of documents etc

- (1) A person is not taken to have knowledge of—
 - (a) the statement of the objects or the rules, or any of the content of that statement or the rules, of an association; or
 - (b) a document or the content of a document relating to an association; or
 - (c) any particulars relating to an association; only because—
 - (d) the statement, the rules, the document or a statement or notice of the particulars has been lodged with the registrar-general; or

- (e) the statement, the rules, the document or a statement or notice of the particulars is referred to in another document lodged with the registrar-general.
- (2) In any proceedings to which an incorporated association or a guarantor of an obligation of an incorporated association and a person dealing with the association or a person who has acquired rights from the association are parties, the association or the guarantor is not entitled to adduce evidence that—
- (a) the rules of the association have not been complied with; or
 - (b) the most recently appointed public officer of the association of whose appointment the registrar-general was notified is not the public officer of the association;
- unless the person—
- (c) had actual knowledge of that fact at the relevant time; or
 - (d) ought to have had knowledge of that fact at the relevant time because of the person's connection or relationship with the association.

Part 10 Notification and review of decisions

118 Meaning of reviewable decision—pt 10

In this part:

reviewable decision means a decision mentioned in schedule 3, column 3 under a provision of this Act mentioned in column 2 in relation to the decision.

119 Reviewable decision notices

If the registrar-general makes a reviewable decision, the registrar-general must give a reviewable decision notice to each entity mentioned in schedule 3, column 4 in relation to the decision.

Note 1 The registrar-general must also take reasonable steps to give a reviewable decision notice to any other person whose interests are affected by the decision (see ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008, s 67A).

Note 2 The requirements for reviewable decision notices are prescribed under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008.

119A Applications for review

The following may apply to the ACAT for review of a reviewable decision:

- (a) an entity mentioned in schedule 3, column 4 in relation to the decision;
- (b) any other person whose interests are affected by the decision.

Note If a form is approved under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008 for the application, the form must be used.

Part 11 Miscellaneous

119B Information sharing on ACNC registered entities

- (1) The registrar-general may enter into an arrangement with the Commissioner of the ACNC for the provision of information to the registrar-general about incorporated associations that are ACNC registered entities.

- (2) In this section:

Commissioner of the ACNC means the Commissioner of the ACNC established under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (Cwlth), section 110-5.

120 Extensions of time for applications etc

- (1) The registrar-general may, on the written application of an incorporated association, an officer of an incorporated association or a person authorised for this section by an association or a group of persons proposing to form an association, extend a period of time prescribed by this Act, whether or not the application is made before the period has expired.

Note A reference to an Act includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the Act, including regulations (see Legislation Act, s 104).

- (2) The registrar-general may make the extension of a period under subsection (1) subject to any condition the registrar-general thinks fit and may, by written notice to the association, vary or revoke the extension.

121 Registered office of incorporated association

- (1) An incorporated association may have a registered office in the ACT to which communications and notices may be addressed and that must be open for the hours (not being less than 3) between the hours of 9 am and 5 pm of each day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a public holiday that are stated by the association—
 - (a) in an application for incorporation under section 18 (1) (a) or 26 (2) (a); or
 - (b) in a notice given under subsection (2) or, if the association gives a notice under subsection (3), in that notice.
- (2) If an incorporated association opens a registered office subsequent to incorporation under this Act, it must, within 7 days of opening that office, inform the registrar-general by notice in writing of—
 - (a) the address of the registered office of the association; and
 - (b) the hours during which the office is required to be open under subsection (1).
- (3) An incorporated association having a registered office must, within 7 days of a change in the situation of that office or a change in the hours of opening of the office, inform the registrar-general by notice in writing of the relevant change.
- (4) This section does not apply to an ACNC registered entity.

122 Service of documents

- (1) Unless otherwise provided by this Act, service on an incorporated association of a document or process may be effected by—
 - (a) addressing it to the association and leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the address that appears in the registrar-general's records as the last notified address of the person who is, or was then, the public officer of the association; or

- (b) serving a copy of it personally on a member of the committee of the association; or
 - (c) if the association has a registered office—addressing it to the association and leaving it at, or, by sending it by post to, the registered office of the association; or
 - (d) if the association is an ACNC registered entity—giving the document or process in accordance with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (Cwlth), section 195-10.
- (2) If under this Act a document or process is served on the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association, the public officer or the member must, as soon as practicable after receiving the document or process, bring it to the attention of the committee of the association.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (3) If a person who is not the public officer or a member of the committee of an incorporated association—
- (a) receives a document addressed to the association; and
 - (b) was, at any time within the period of 2 years ended immediately before receiving the document, an officer of the association;

the person must, as soon as practicable after receiving the document, bring it to the attention of the committee of the association.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

123 Translation of instruments

If under this Act a person gives to or lodges with the registrar-general any instrument or a copy of any instrument and the instrument is not written in the English language, the person must at the same time give to or lodge with the registrar-general a certified translation of the instrument into the English language.

124 Powers of the court

On hearing an application under this Act, the court may make or refuse to make the order sought, and may make any other orders it thinks fit.

125 Determination of fees

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, determine fees for this Act.

Note The Legislation Act contains provisions about the making of determinations and regulations relating to fees (see pt 6.3).

- (2) A determination is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

126 Approved forms

- (1) The registrar-general may, in writing, approve forms for this Act.
- (2) If the registrar-general approves a form for a particular purpose, the approved form must be used for that purpose.

Note For other provisions about forms, see the Legislation Act, s 255.

- (3) An approved form is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

127 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note A regulation must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

- (2) A regulation may make provision in relation to—

- (a) prescribing model rules; and
- (b) lodging applications or other documents with the registrar-general; and

- (c) the verification of information required or permitted to be given to the registrar-general; and
 - (d) regulating the preparation, completion and signing of approved forms.
- (3) A regulation may create offences and fix maximum penalties of not more than 10 penalty units for the offences.
- (4) If—
 - (a) a document to be lodged under this Act is required to be verified and no way of verifying the document or its contents is prescribed by this Act; or
 - (b) the verification of a document to be lodged under this Act is not provided for by this Act;

the regulations may provide that the document is to be verified by a written statement made by a person prescribed under the regulations.

Some earlier republications were not numbered. The number in column 1 refers to the publication order.

Since 12 September 2001 every authorised republication has been published in electronic pdf format on the ACT legislation register. A selection of authorised republications have also been published in printed format. These republications are marked with an asterisk (*) in column 1. Electronic and printed versions of an authorised republication are identical.

6 Expired transitional or validating provisions

This Act may be affected by transitional or validating provisions that have expired. The expiry does not affect any continuing operation of the provisions (see Legislation Act 2001, s 88 (1)).

Expired provisions are removed from the republished law when the expiry takes effect and are listed in the amendment history using the abbreviation ‘exp’ followed by the date of the expiry.

To find the expired provisions see the version of this Act before the expiry took effect. The ACT legislation register has point-in-time versions of this Act.
