PART III—ADOPTIONS UNDER THIS ACT

Division 1—General

Power of Court

9. Subject to this Act, the Court may, on application, make an order for the adoption of a child who—

- (a) had not attained the age of 18 years before the date on which the application was filed; or
- (b) has been reared, maintained and educated by the applicants or either of the applicants, or by the applicant and a deceased spouse of the applicant, as his, her or their child under a de facto adoption.

Child over 18

10. An adoption order shall not be made if the child has attained the age of 18 years unless the Court is of the opinion that—

- (a) the applicants are persons of good repute; and
- (b) there are exceptional circumstances that justify the order.

Previous adoption immaterial

11. An adoption order may be made notwithstanding that the child has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act and whether in the Territory or elsewhere, previously been adopted.

Residence or domicile

12. (1) An adoption order shall not be made unless, when the application for the order was filed—

- (a) the applicants were resident or domiciled in the Territory; and
- (b) the child was present in the Territory.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), where the Court is satisfied that the applicants were resident or domiciled in the Territory, or that a child was present in the Territory, within 21 days before the date on which an application was filed, the Court may, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, presume that the applicants were resident or domiciled in the Territory, or that the child was present in the Territory, as the case may be, when the application was filed.

Married child

13. An adoption order shall not be made if the child is, or has been, married.

Frustration of immigration law

14. An adoption order shall not be made if the Court is of the opinion that it is being sought primarily as a means of evading the operation of a law of the Commonwealth relating to immigration.

Register and records of persons who apply to adopt

15. The Director shall—

- (a) keep a register of persons whose application for the placement of a child for the purposes of adoption has been approved; and
- (b) keep records of persons whose application for the placement of a child for the purposes of adoption—
 - (i) has been refused; or
 - (ii) has been approved, but for which the approval has been withdrawn.

Placement of child pending adoption

16. (1) On receiving a request in writing from the applicants for an adoption order, the Director may, if he or she considers that they are suitable persons with whom to place a child for the purpose of adoption—

- (a) include the names of the applicants on the register of persons seeking the placement of a child for the purpose of adoption; and
 - (b) place a child of whom he or she is the guardian in the custody of those applicants pending the determination of the application.
- (2) The Director shall not—
- (a) include the names of applicants on the register under subsection (1) unless he or she considers them to be suitable persons with whom to place a child for the purpose of adoption; or
 - (b) place a child in the custody of persons under subsection (1) unless he or she considers that the child would be suitable, having regard to the criteria specified in paragraph 19 (1) (c) for adoption by those applicants.

Review of Director's decision

17. (1) Where—

- (a) the Director refuses to include the names of applicants on the register; and
- (b) the applicants have, in writing, requested that he or she reconsider that decision;

the Minister shall convene a committee, consisting of not more than 3 persons appointed by him or her, to review the decision.

(2) A person is not eligible to be appointed as a member of a review committee unless the Minister is satisfied that—

- (a) the person is not an officer of the Housing and Community Services Bureau; and
- (b) the person has appropriate qualifications or experience.

(3) Having reviewed a decision, a committee may recommend to the Director that he or she confirm or vary the decision.

(4) On receiving a recommendation from a committee, the Director shall reconsider the decision and may confirm or vary it.

(5) Where the Director confirms or varies a decision he or she shall cause notice in writing of the decision to be given to the applicants.

Persons in whose favour adoption orders may be made

18. (1) Except as provided in this section, an adoption order shall not be made otherwise than in favour of a man and woman jointly, being a couple—

- (a) neither of whom is a parent of the child;
- (b) who, whether married or not, have lived together in a heterosexual relationship for a period of not less than 3 years; and
- (c) who, in the opinion of the Court, have demonstrated the stability of, and a commitment to, that relationship.

(2) An adoption order shall not be made in favour of a person who is not a parent of the child but has a relationship of the kind described in subsection (1) with a parent of the child unless—

- (a) the instrument of consent discloses consent to adoption by that particular person; and
- (b) the Court considers that it would not be preferable to make an order relating to guardianship or custody of the child.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), the Court may make an adoption order in favour of 1 person only after having regard to the wishes of the birth parents of the child.

(4) Except in circumstances described in subsection (2) an adoption order shall not be made in favour of 1 person if that person is married and is not living separately and apart from his or her spouse.

(5) An adoption order shall not be made in favour of a relative of the child unless—

- (a) the instrument of consent discloses consent to adoption by that particular relative; and
- (b) the Court is of the opinion that—
 - (i) there are circumstances why the relationships within the family of the child should be redefined as such an order would do; and
 - (ii) it would not be preferable to make an order relating to guardianship or custody of the child.

Criteria for Court's discretion

19. (1) An adoption order shall not be made if the child has not attained the age of 18 years unless—

- (a) the Director, or the principal officer of a private adoption agency that made the arrangements that have resulted in the application, has made a report in writing to the Court concerning the circumstances of the child and the proposed adoption;
- (b) the period within which any consent required may be revoked has expired without that consent having been revoked; and
- (c) after considering the report and any other evidence, the Court is of the opinion that—
 - (i) the applicants are persons of good repute and are fit and proper persons to fulfil the responsibilities of parents of a child (including protecting a child's physical and emotional well-being); and
 - (ii) the applicants are suitable persons to adopt the particular child having regard to their—
 - (A) ages, education and attitudes to adoption;
 - (B) physical, mental and emotional health, particularly in so far as it impacts on capacity to nurture the child; and
 - (C) any other relevant consideration; and
 - (iii) the welfare and interests of the child will be promoted by the making of the order.

(2) In deciding whether or not to make an adoption order, the Court shall have regard to—

- (a) where it is appropriate given the age and understanding of the child—the wishes of the child; and
- (b) any wishes expressed in an instrument of consent, including wishes as regards—
 - (i) the racial or ethnic background of the proposed adoptive parents;
 - (ii) the religious upbringing of the child after adoption; or

(iii) whether a single person might adopt the child.

(3) Where a child is under the guardianship of an authority in a State or another Territory having functions under the law of that State or Territory corresponding to those of the Director, the Court may consider a report from that authority concerning the circumstances of the child and the proposed adoption either in addition to or instead of a report referred to in paragraph (1) (a), and in such a case the reference to a report in paragraph (1) (c) shall be construed accordingly.

(4) For the purposes of ascertaining the wishes of the child under paragraph (2) (a), or any other relevant consideration in relation to the welfare and interests of the child, the Court may inform itself in such manner as it thinks fit.

Overseas child

20. (1) The following provisions of this section are in addition to, and do not derogate from, the provisions of section 19.

(2) An adoption order shall not be made if the child was brought from a place outside Australia for the purpose of adoption in Australia unless the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) the laws of the child's country of origin relevant to his or her emigration or adoption have been complied with;
- (b) arrangements have been made between the Minister and the appropriate authority in the child's country of origin to facilitate the bringing of children from that country to the Territory for the purpose of adoption in the Territory; and
- (c) any agency in the child's country of origin which made arrangements with a view to the adoption is approved for the purpose by the appropriate authority in that country.

Aboriginal child

21. (1) The following provisions of this section are in addition to, and do not derogate from, section 19.

(2) An adoption order shall not be made in respect of an Aboriginal child unless the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) it is not practicable for the child to remain in the custody of the birth parents or of a responsible person; and

- (b) the choice of the adoptive parents has been made having regard to the desirability of the child—
 - (i) being in the custody of a person who is a member of an Aboriginal community; and
 - (ii) being able to establish and maintain contact with his or her birth parents, any responsible person and the Aboriginal community of which the child is or was a member.

Notice of application for adoption order

22. (1) An adoption order shall not be made unless the applicants have caused notice in writing of the application and of the date fixed for the hearing of the application to be served, not later than 28 days before the date so fixed, on—

- (a) any person whose consent to the adoption is required but whose consent has not been given; and
- (b) any person (not being a person whose consent is required) with whom the child resides or who has guardianship or custody of the child.

(2) On application, the Court may dispense with the requirement for giving notice in accordance with subsection (1).

(3) Where it appears to the Court to be necessary in the interests of justice so to do, the Court may direct that notice of an application for an adoption order, and of the date fixed for the hearing of the application, be given to any person.

Parties to proceedings

23. The Court may permit such persons as the Court thinks fit to be joined as parties to proceedings on an application for an adoption order for the purpose of opposing the application or for the purpose of opposing an application to dispense with a requirement for a consent.

Notification to Director of adoption order

24. When an adoption order has been made, the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall notify the Director in writing accordingly.

Alternative orders on refusal of adoption order

25. (1) Where the Court refuses to make an adoption order, the Court may—

- (a) if of the opinion that the child's welfare and interests would be promoted by doing so—make an order relating to guardianship or custody of the child; and
- (b) make such other orders (if any) as it thinks fit.

(2) An order under paragraph (1) (a) may be made in favour of the Director or any other person.

Discharge of adoption order

26. (1) On application by a prescribed person, the Court may make an order (in this section referred to as a discharging order) discharging an adoption order if the Court is of the opinion that—

- (a) the adoption order, or any consent to the adoption, was obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means; or
- (b) there are other circumstances that justify the discharging order.

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1) (b), a breakdown in the relationship between the child and the adoptive parents shall not be taken to constitute a circumstance justifying a discharging order.

(3) A discharging order shall not be made if it appears to the Court that the making of the order would be prejudicial to the welfare and interests of the child.

(4) On an application under subsection (1), the Court may require the Director to investigate the matter and to provide a report in writing to the Court.

(5) A discharging order shall not be made unless the applicant has caused notice in writing of the application and of the date fixed for the hearing of the application to be served, not later than 28 days before the date so fixed, on each person whose consent to the adoption was required.

(6) On application, the Court may dispense with the requirement for giving notice in accordance with subsection (5).

(7) Where the Court makes a discharging order, the Court may, at the same time or subsequently, make such consequential or ancillary orders as it thinks fit to promote the welfare and interests of the child, or otherwise in the interests of justice, including orders relating to—

- (a) the name of the child;
- (b) the ownership of property;

- (c) guardianship or custody of the child; or
- (d) the domicile of the child.

(8) Upon the making of a discharging order, then, but subject to any order made under subsection (7) and to subsection 43 (3), the rights, privileges, obligations, liabilities and relationships under the law of the Territory of the child and of all other persons shall be the same as if the adoption order had not been made, but without prejudice to—

- (a) anything lawfully done;
- (b) the consequences of anything unlawfully done; or
- (c) any right or interest that became vested in any person;

while the adoption order was in force.

(9) Where an adoption order that has been discharged was made pursuant to a general consent, then, unless the Court otherwise orders, that consent remains effective for the purpose of a further application for an adoption order in respect of the same child.

(10) In this section—

“prescribed person” means the Minister, the Director, the Community Advocate, the child, an adoptive parent or a person whose consent to the adoption was required.

Division 2—Consents to adoptions

Consents of parents and guardians

27. (1) Subject to this Division, an adoption order shall not be made in respect of a child who has not attained the age of 18 years unless consent to the adoption has been given by each person who is an appropriate person ascertained in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person is an appropriate person in relation to a proposed adoption of a child if the person is—

- (a) in the case of a child who has not previously been adopted—
 - (i) each parent of the child; or
 - (ii) the guardian of the child; and
- (b) in the case of a child who has previously been adopted—each adoptive parent or guardian of the child.

(3) A reference in subparagraph (2) (a) (i) to a parent of a child shall not be read as including a reference to the father unless he is presumed to be the father under the Birth (Equality of Status) Act 1988.

Consent of applicant not required

28. Where a person whose consent to an adoption would, but for this section, be required is an applicant for the adoption order, the consent of that person is not required.

General or limited consents

29. (1) For the purposes of this Act, consent to the adoption of a child may be general or limited.

(2) A general consent shall be a consent to the adoption of the child by any person or persons in accordance with the law of the Territory, and shall have effect accordingly.

(3) A limited consent shall be a consent to the adoption of the child—

- (a) by a relative of the child;
- (b) by a person who has been appointed as a guardian of the child by order of a court;
- (c) by a person in whose custody the child has been placed by the Director in accordance with a law of the Territory; or
- (d) by a person referred to in subsection 18 (2).

Instrument of consent

30. A consent to an adoption shall be by an instrument substantially in accordance with the prescribed form, signed by the person giving the consent and attested as prescribed.

Revocation of consent

31. (1) A consent to the adoption of a child may be revoked by notice in writing served on the Registrar of the Supreme Court before the expiration of 30 days after the date on which the instrument of consent was signed or, if before the expiration of that period the person who gave the consent has served on the Registrar notice in writing that a further period of 14 days commencing on that expiration is required for the purpose of this section, at the expiration of that further period, but may not otherwise be revoked.

(2) Upon receiving a notice under subsection (1), the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall forthwith notify the Director in writing accordingly.

(3) When the period within which a consent may be revoked has expired, the Director shall notify the person who gave the consent in writing accordingly.

Access during revocation period

32. (1) A person whose consent to the adoption of a child is required is entitled to have access to the child before the expiration of the period during which that consent may be revoked unless the Director, by notice in writing served on that person, informs that person that access is denied.

(2) The Director shall not give a notice under subsection (1) unless satisfied that it is necessary for the purpose of protecting the welfare and interests of the child to do so.

Consents under law of a State or another Territory

33. A consent to the adoption of a child given by a person in accordance with the law of a State or another Territory that would be an effective consent under that law if the application had been an application for a corresponding order under that law is, if the consent of that person is required, an effective consent for the purposes of this Act.

Defective consents

34. (1) The Court may refuse to make an adoption order if it appears to the Court that—

- (a) any required consent was—
 - (i) not given in accordance with this Act; or
 - (ii) obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means;
- (b) an instrument of consent has been altered in a material particular without the authority of the person who gave the consent; or
- (c) when an instrument of consent was signed, the person who gave or purported to give the consent was not in a fit condition to give the consent or did not understand the nature of the consent.

(2) An adoption order shall not be made pursuant to an instrument of consent signed by the mother of the child before the birth of the child.

(3) An adoption order shall not be made pursuant to an instrument of consent signed by the mother of the child before the expiration of 7 days after the day on which the child was born unless—

- (a) the Court is of the opinion that there are circumstances that justify the instrument being treated as an effective consent; or
- (b) the consent—
 - (i) was given in accordance with a law of a State or another Territory; and
 - (ii) is, by virtue of section 33, an effective consent for the purposes of this Act.

Dispensing with consent

35. (1) On application, the Court may, by order, dispense with the requirement for consent of a person to the adoption of a child if the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) the person cannot, after reasonable inquiry, be identified or located;
- (b) the physical or mental condition of the person is such that he or she is not capable of considering properly the question whether consent should be given;
- (c) the person has abandoned or deserted, or has neglected or ill-treated, the child;
- (d) the person has, for a period of not less than 1 year, failed, without reasonable excuse, to discharge the obligations of a parent or guardian, as the case may be, of the child; or
- (e) there are any other circumstances that justify the requirement for the consent being dispensed with.

(2) On an application for an order under subsection (1), the Court may require the Director to investigate the matter and to provide a report in writing to the Court.

(3) In order to facilitate the making of arrangements with a view to the adoption of a child, on the application of the Director or the principal officer of a private adoption agency, the Court may make an order under subsection (1) before an application for an adoption order has been made, and the first-mentioned order has effect for the purpose of any subsequent application for an adoption order.

(4) On the application of the Director or of the person the requirement for whose consent was dispensed with, the Court may revoke an order made by virtue of subsection (3) at any time before making an adoption order.

Guardianship pending adoption

36. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and subsection 38 (4), where the consent of each person who is an appropriate person for the purposes of subsection 27 (1) has been given or the requirement for that consent has been dispensed with under subsection 35 (1), the Director is the guardian of the child (other than for the purpose of section 27) until—

- (a) an adoption order is made;
- (b) any consent given is revoked; or
- (c) the Court makes an order relating to the guardianship of the child.

(2) Where—

- (a) each person whose consent to the adoption is required has consented and has, in writing, authorised a private adoption agency to make arrangements with a view to the adoption; and
- (b) the principal officer of the private adoption agency informs the Director in writing that he or she is willing to assume the guardianship of the child;

the principal officer from time to time of the private adoption agency is the guardian of the child (other than for the purpose of section 27) until—

- (c) an adoption order is made;
- (d) any consent given is revoked; or
- (e) the Court makes an order relating to guardianship of the child.

(3) This section does not apply in relation to a child who is a ward within the meaning of the Children's Services Act 1986.

Guardianship pending adoption of overseas child

37. (1) This section applies in relation to a child—

- (a) brought from a place outside Australia for the purpose of adoption in Australia; or
- (b) adopted outside Australia, being an adoption that is not—
 - (i) to have the same effect as an adoption under this Act pursuant to section 55; or
 - (ii) the subject of a declaration under section 57.

(2) While a child to whom this section applies is domiciled or resident in the Territory, the Director is the guardian of the child until—

- (a) the child attains the age of 18 years;
- (b) an adoption order is made;
- (c) the Court makes an order relating to guardianship of the child; or
- (d) the child leaves Australia with the intention of remaining outside Australia permanently.

Transfer of guardianship of child pending adoption

38. (1) On receiving a request in writing by or on behalf of the authority in a State or another Territory having the guardianship of a child in respect of whom consents with a view to adoption in the Territory have been given or dispensed with, the Director may, in writing, declare that the child is under the guardianship of the Director while the child is domiciled or resident in the Territory.

(2) Where a declaration under subsection (1) has effect, then, while the child is domiciled or resident in the Territory, the Director is the guardian of the child until—

- (a) the child attains the age of 18 years;
- (b) an adoption order is made; or
- (c) the Court makes an order relating to the guardianship of the child.

(3) A declaration under subsection (1) ceases to have effect if the child ceases to be under the guardianship of the authority in the State or other Territory.

(4) Where, in the opinion of the Director, a law of a State or another Territory contains a provision corresponding to this section, the Director may request the authority having the guardianship of children pending adoption in that State or Territory to declare that, while a child of whom the Director is the guardian pursuant to this Act (being a child in respect of whom consents with a view to adoption in that State or Territory have been given or dispensed with) is domiciled or resident in that State or Territory, the child is under the guardianship of that authority.

(5) While a declaration made pursuant to a request under subsection (4) has effect, the functions and obligations of the Director as guardian of the child are suspended.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to the exercise by the Director of a function in respect of a child pursuant to an arrangement made under subsection (7).

(7) The Director may, on behalf of the Territory, make financial or other arrangements with an authority referred to in subsection (1) or (4) in respect of a child while the child is under the guardianship of the Director or that authority, as the case requires.

(8) The Director may make arrangements for the return of a child who is under the guardianship of the Director pursuant to this section to his or her former custody.

Review of status of child released for adoption

39. (1) Where—

- (a) all required consents to the adoption of a child have been given; and
- (b) the child has not been—
 - (i) placed for adoption within a year; or
 - (ii) adopted within a year after being placed for adoption;

the Director shall apply to the Court for an order under this section.

(2) On an application under subsection (1), the Court may—

- (a) review the status of the child; and
- (b) make such orders in relation to guardianship or custody of the child, or such other orders to promote the welfare and interests of the child, as the Court thinks fit.

Division 3—Conditional Orders

Adoption order subject to certain conditions

40. Where the Court is of the opinion—

- (a) that circumstances exist that justify it doing so, whether by reason of the age of the child or otherwise; and
- (b) that the birth parents and the adoptive parents have, after the required consents were given, agreed that the adoption order should be subject to certain conditions;

the Court may make the adoption order subject to either or both of the following conditions:

- (c) a condition that such birth parents and such relatives of the child as are specified in the order have such right of access to the child as is specified in the order;
- (d) a condition that the adoptive parents of the child provide information about the child to the Director or principal officer of a private adoption agency to be given to the birth parents at such periods and in accordance with such terms as are specified in the order.

Variation etc. of condition

41. (1) Where the Court is of the opinion that the welfare and interests of an adopted child would be best served by a condition referred to in section 40 to which the adoption order is subject being varied or revoked, the Court shall, on application by an adoptive parent, a birth parent who consented to the adoption or by or on behalf of the adopted child, by order vary or revoke the condition.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a report from the Director.

(3) A variation of a condition shall not be made so as to grant to a person greater rights of access to an adopted child unless the adoptive parents agree and the Court is satisfied that, so far as practicable, the wishes and feelings of the child have been ascertained and due consideration given to them having regard to the age and understanding of the child.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) the Court may inform itself in such manner as it thinks fit.

Cessation of condition

42. An adoption order ceases to be subject to a condition referred to in section 40—

- (a) when the condition is revoked; or
- (b) when the adopted child attains the age of 18 years;

whichever first occurs.

Division 4—Effect of adoption orders

General effect

43. (1) Subject to this Act and to the provisions of any law of the Territory that expressly distinguishes in any way between adopted children and children other than adopted children, upon the making of an adoption order, for all purposes—

- (a) the adopted child becomes in contemplation of law a child of the adoptive parents, and the adoptive parents become in contemplation of law the parents of the child as if the child had been born to the adoptive parents;
- (b) the adopted child ceases to be a child of the birth parents or of any person who was an adoptive parent before the making of the adoption order, and any such person ceases to be a parent of the child;
- (c) if the order is made in favour of a person referred to in subsection 18 (2)—the relationship of the child with the parent referred to in that subsection is not affected;
- (d) the relationship to one another of all persons (including the adopted child and the adoptive parents, birth parents or any former adoptive parent) shall be determined on the basis of the foregoing provisions of this subsection so far as they are relevant;
- (e) any existing appointment of a person as guardian of the adopted child ceases to have effect; and
- (f) any previous adoption of the child (whether under the law of the Territory or otherwise) ceases to have effect.

(2) Where—

- (a) 1 of the birth or former adoptive parents of a child has died; and

- (b) an adoption order is made in favour of a person referred to in subsection 18 (2) after that death;

the adoption does not exclude any right of inheritance that the child might otherwise have from or through the deceased person.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), for the purposes of any law of the Territory relating to a sexual offence, being a law under which the relationship between persons is relevant, an adoption order, or an order discharging an adoption order, shall not be taken to cause the cessation of any relationship that would otherwise have existed, and any such relationship shall be deemed to exist in addition to any relationship that exists by virtue of the application of that subsection or by virtue of the discharge of the adoption order.

Disposition of property

44. (1) Subsection 43 (1) has effect in relation to dispositions of property, whether by will or otherwise, and whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, except that the subsection does not effect a disposition of property—

- (a) by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died before the commencement of this Act; or
- (b) that has taken effect in possession before the commencement of this Act.

(2) Subsection 43 (1) does not apply in relation to an agreement or instrument (not being a disposition of property) made or executed before the commencement of this Act.

(3) Where—

- (a) before the commencement of this Act, a person made, by an instrument other than a will, a disposition of property;
- (b) the disposition had not taken effect in possession before the commencement of this Act; and
- (c) it did not appear from the instrument that it was the intention of that person to include an adopted child as an object of the disposition; that person may, notwithstanding that the instrument could not, apart from this subsection, be revoked or varied, by a like instrument, vary the first-mentioned instrument to exclude an adopted child (whether adopted under this Act or otherwise) from participation in any right, benefit or privilege under the instrument.

(4) In relation to a disposition of property by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died before the commencement of this Act, an adoption order made under this Act has the same effect as if the repealed laws had continued in force and the adoption order had been made under those laws.

(5) Nothing in section 43 or in this section affects the operation of any provision in a will or other instrument (whether made or coming into operation before or after the commencement of this Act) distinguishing between adopted children and children other than adopted children.

Names of adopted child

45. (1) Subject to subsection (2), upon the making of an adoption order, the adopted child shall have as his or her surname—

- (a) if both parents are known by the same surname—that surname; or
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) the maiden name or other surname of the child's mother;
 - (ii) the surname of the child's father; or
 - (iii) a surname formed by combining the mother's maiden name or other surname and the father's surname;

whichever the Court, on the application of either of the adoptive parents, approves in the adoption order.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), upon the making of an adoption order, the adopted child shall have as his or her forename or forenames such name or names as, on the application of the adoptive parents, the Court approves in the adoption order.

(3) Where, before the making of an adoption order, the adopted child had been generally known by a particular name, the Court may, in the adoption order, order that the child shall have that name.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the changing of any name of an adopted child, after the making of the adoption order, in accordance with the law of the Territory.

Effect of order on domicile

46. (1) Upon the making of an adoption order, the adopted child acquires the domicile of the adoptive parents at the date on which the adoption order was made and after that date the child's domicile shall be determined as if the child had been born to the adoptive parents.

(2) The domicile acquired under subsection (1) by an adopted child shall for all purposes be deemed to be also the child's domicile of origin.

Distribution of property by trustee or personal representative

47. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a trustee or personal representative may, subject to this section, convey, transfer or distribute property to or among the persons appearing to be entitled to the property without having ascertained whether or not an adoption order has been made as a consequence of which a person is or is not entitled to an interest in the property.

(2) A trustee or personal representative conveying, transferring or distributing property in the manner referred to in subsection (1) shall not be liable to a person claiming directly or indirectly by virtue of the making of an adoption order unless the trustee or personal representative had notice of the claim before the time of the conveyance, transfer or distribution.

(3) Nothing in this section prejudices the right of a person to follow property into the hands of a person, other than a bona fide purchaser for value without notice, who has received it.

Bequest by will to unascertained adopted person

48. (1) Where, under a will made after the commencement of this Act—

- (a) a disposition of property or of an interest in property (in this section called a "bequest") is expressed to be made by the testator to a person (in this section called the "beneficiary") who is not named but who is described as a child of the testator or of a spouse, parent, child, brother or sister of the testator, being a person who was adopted by another person; and
- (b) the personal representative of the testator is unable to ascertain the name and address of the beneficiary;

the personal representative shall give to the Public Trustee a copy of the will and a statement that he or she is unable to ascertain the name and address of the beneficiary.

(2) Where the Public Trustee is given a copy of a will under subsection (1), the Public Trustee shall, in writing, request the Director to ascertain and give to the Public Trustee the name and address of the beneficiary.

(3) Where the Director receives a request under subsection (2), the Director shall examine the records in the possession of the Director and, if necessary, make enquiries of a private adoption agency or other body or person in an endeavour to ascertain the name and address of the beneficiary or, if the beneficiary has died, the date of the death, and the Director shall inform the Public Trustee of the results of the examination and enquiries.

(4) If the information received from the Director does not disclose the name and address of the beneficiary, or discloses that the beneficiary has died, the Public Trustee shall inform the personal representative accordingly.

(5) If the information received from the Director discloses the name and address of the beneficiary, the Public Trustee shall, if the beneficiary has attained the age of 18 years—

- (a) ascertain whether the beneficiary wishes to accept the bequest;
- (b) if the beneficiary does not wish to accept the bequest—inform the personal representative accordingly;
- (c) if the beneficiary does wish to accept the bequest—inform the personal representative that the proceeds of the bequest should be transferred to the Public Trustee on behalf of the beneficiary; and
- (d) on receiving the proceeds of the bequest—transmit the proceeds to the beneficiary.

(6) If the information received from the Director discloses the name and address of the beneficiary, the Public Trustee shall, if the beneficiary has not attained the age of 18 years—

- (a) inform the personal representative that the proceeds of the bequest should be transferred to the Public Trustee to be held in trust for the beneficiary;
- (b) hold the proceeds of the bequest in trust for the beneficiary upon the trusts (if any) set out in or arising under the will until the beneficiary attains the age of 18 years; and

- (c) on the beneficiary attaining the age of 18 years—transfer the proceeds of the bequest to the beneficiary (unless the beneficiary then disclaims the bequest).

(7) Where the personal representative transfers the proceeds of a bequest to the Public Trustee under this section, the personal representative shall be taken to have transferred the bequest to the beneficiary.

(8) Where the Public Trustee gives to the personal representative a statement in writing to the effect that the beneficiary has disclaimed a bequest to which the beneficiary was entitled under the will that statement is, for the purpose of the administration of the estate by the personal representative, conclusive evidence that the beneficiary has disclaimed the bequest.

(9) The Public Trustee shall not, in information conveyed to a personal representative under this section, include particulars that identify or tend to identify the adopted person.

Gifts inter vivos

49. (1) Section 48 applies in relation to a deed executed after the commencement of this Act by which a gift of money is expressed to be made by a person (in this section referred to as the “donor”) to a person who is not named but who is described as the child of the donor or of a spouse, parent, child, brother or sister of the donor, being a person who has been adopted by another person.

(2) In the application of section 48 by virtue of subsection (1), that section has effect as if—

- (a) a reference in that section to a will were a reference to the deed of gift;
- (b) a reference in that section to the testator or to a personal representative were a reference to the donor; and
- (c) a reference in that section to property or to an interest in property were a reference to the money that is the subject of the gift.

Division 5—Interim orders

Making of order

50. (1) On an application to the Court for an adoption order, the Court may postpone the determination of the application and make an interim order in favour of the applicants for the custody of the child.

(2) An interim order may be subject to such terms and conditions relating to the maintenance, education and welfare of the child as the Court thinks fit.

(3) An interim order shall not be made in favour of any person unless an adoption order in respect of the child could be made in favour of the person.

Duration

51. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and to section 52, an interim order remains in force for such period, not exceeding 1 year, as the Court specifies in the order and for such further periods, if any, as the Court by order from time to time determines.

(2) An interim order shall not be in force for periods exceeding, in the aggregate, 2 years.

Discharge

52. (1) The Court may, at any time, make an order discharging an interim order, and may make such order for the custody of the child as the Court thinks fit.

(2) An interim order ceases to have effect upon the making of an adoption order in respect of the child, whether made in the Territory, a State or another Territory.

PART IV—RECOGNITION OF ADOPTIONS

Interpretation

53. In this Part—

“country” means a country other than Australia and includes a part of a country.

Australian adoptions

54. For the purposes of the law of the Territory, the adoption of a person (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in a State or another Territory in accordance with the law of that State or other Territory has, so long as it has not been rescinded under the law of that State or other Territory, the same effect as an adoption order made under this Act.

Overseas adoptions

55. (1) For the purposes of the law of the Territory, the adoption of a person (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in another country, being an adoption to which this section applies, has, so long as it has not been rescinded under the law of that country, the same effect as an adoption order made under this Act.

(2) This section applies to an adoption in a country if—

- (a) the adoption was effective according to the law of that country;
- (b) either—
 - (i) that country was the usual place of residence of the adoptive parents for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, or such lesser period as a court considers reasonable in the circumstances of the case, immediately before the commencement of the proceedings for the adoption; or
 - (ii) the Director or the principal officer of a private adoption agency has, before the adoption in that other country, agreed to the placement of the adopted child with the adoptive parents and the child is placed in accordance with the conditions of approval of the adoptive parents;
- (c) in consequence of the adoption, the adoptive parents had, or would have had if the adopted child had been under the age of 18 years, under the law of that country, a right superior to that of any birth parent in respect of the custody of the adopted child; and
- (d) under the law of that country the adoptive parents were, by virtue of the adoption, placed generally in the position of parents in relation to the adopted child.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), a court (including a court dealing with an application under section 57) may refuse to recognise an adoption as being an adoption to which this section applies if it appears to the court that the procedure followed, or the law applied, in connection with the adoption involved a denial of natural justice or otherwise failed to do justice.

(4) Where, in any proceedings before a court (including proceedings under section 57), the question arises whether an adoption is one to which this section applies, it shall be presumed that the requirements of subsection

(2) were satisfied and the adoption has not been rescinded, but that presumption is rebuttable.

(5) Except as provided in this section, the adoption of a person (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in a country outside Australia does not have effect for the purposes of the law of the Territory.

(6) Nothing in this section affects any right that was acquired by, or became vested in, a person before the commencement of this Act.

Support of adopted children

56. (1) Subject to this section, where—

- (a) a child is adopted in the Territory or elsewhere, whether or not the adoption is an adoption that has, under this Act, the same effect as an adoption order under this Act;
- (b) the adoption in relation to the child has been in force for a period not exceeding 12 months; and
- (c) the child is present in the Territory;

the Director may promote the welfare and interests of the child by providing support for a period not exceeding 12 months commencing on—

- (d) if the child was adopted in the Territory—the date of the adoption; or
- (e) if the child arrived in the Territory after having been adopted—the date of the arrival; and any person authorised in writing by the Director for that purpose has a right of access to the child during that period—

- (f) at times agreed between that person and the adoptive parents; or
- (g) in the absence of such agreement—at times specified by the Minister by notice in writing given to the adoptive parents.

(2) Where a child whose welfare and interests may be promoted by the Director under subsection (1) has, after being adopted but before arriving in the Territory, been resident in a State or in another Territory, the period during which the child may receive support from the Director is reduced proportionately to the period of such residence in that State or other Territory.

(3) In this section—

“support”, in relation to an adopted child, means the Director or a person authorised in writing by the Director visiting the child and the family in the child’s home environment, but does not include financial support.

Declarations of validity of overseas adoptions

57. (1) On an application by a person specified in subsection (2), the Court may make an order declaring that an adoption of a person was effected (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) under the law of another country, and that the adoption is one to which section 55 applies.

(2) The persons who may make an application under subsection (1) are the adopted child, an adoptive parent or a person tracing a relationship, by virtue of the adoption, through or to the adopted child.

(3) On an application under subsection (1), the Court may—

- (a) direct that notice of the application be given to such persons as the Court thinks fit;
- (b) direct that a person be made a party to the application; or
- (c) permit a person having an interest in the matter to intervene in, and become a party to, the proceedings.

(4) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (1), the Court may include in the order such particulars in relation to the adoption, the adopted child and the adoptive parents as the Court finds to be established.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (6), an order under subsection (1) does not affect—

- (a) the rights of another person unless that person was—
 - (i) a party to the proceedings for the order or a person claiming through such a party; or
 - (ii) a person to whom notice of the application for the order was given or a person claiming through such a person; or
- (b) an earlier judgment, order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) In proceedings in a court of the Territory, being proceedings relating to the rights of a person other than a person referred to in subparagraph (5) (a) (i) or (ii), the production of a copy of an order under subsection (1), certified by the Registrar of the Supreme Court to be a true copy, shall be evidence that an adoption was effected in accordance with the particulars contained in the order and that the adoption is one to which section 55 applies.
