

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

Radiation (Amendment) Act 1993

No. 32 of 1993

An Act to amend the Radiation Act 1983

[Notified in ACT Gazette S89: 1 June 1993]

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Radiation (Amendment) Act 1993.

Commencement

2. This Act commences on the day on which it is notified in the Gazette.

Principal Act

3. In this Act, “Principal Act” means the Radiation Act 1983.¹

Membership of Council

4. Section 8 of the Principal Act is amended by—
 - (a) inserting in paragraph (1) (b) “, being a person with expert knowledge of the physical properties or biological effects of ionizing radiation,” after “member”;
 - (b) inserting in paragraph (1) (c) “, being a person with expert knowledge of the physical properties or biological effects of ionizing radiation,” after “member”; and

- (c) omitting paragraph (1) (d) and substituting the following paragraph:

“(d) 2 persons nominated by the Minister.”.

Insertion

5. After section 15 of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:

Report to Minister

“15A. Where the Minister gives a written direction to the Chairperson requiring the Council to inquire into and report on a matter, the Council shall provide the Minister with a report on the matter, including a recommendation where appropriate, within the period specified in the direction.”.

Duration of licence

6. Section 31 of the Principal Act is amended by—

- (a) omitting from subsection (1) “until the expiration of the period of 12 months after the date on which it was granted” and substituting “for such period, not exceeding 5 years, as is specified in the licence”; and
- (b) omitting from subsection (2) “a further period of 12 months commencing on the expiration of the first-mentioned period of 12 months” and substituting “such further period as the Council determines not exceeding 5 years commencing on the expiry of the first-mentioned period”.

Duration of registration

7. Section 50 of the Principal Act is amended by—

- (a) omitting from subsection (1) “until the expiration of the period of 12 months after the date on which the apparatus was registered” and substituting “for such period, not exceeding 5 years, as is specified in the certificate”; and
- (b) omitting from subsection (2) “a further period of 12 months commencing on the expiration of the first-mentioned period of 12 months” and substituting “such further period as the Council determines, which period shall not exceed 5 years and shall commence on the expiry of the first-mentioned period”.

Appeals

8. Section 72 of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting from paragraph (k) “or” (last occurring); and
- (b) by adding at the end the following paragraphs:
 - “; (m) granting or renewing a licence under section 31 for a period of less than 5 years; or
 - (n) registering, or renewing the registration of, any irradiating apparatus for a period of less than 5 years”.

Notification of decisions by Council

9. Section 73 of the Principal Act is amended—

- (a) by omitting from paragraph (2) (l) “or” (last occurring); and
- (b) by inserting after paragraph (2) (m) the following paragraphs:
 - “(ma) granting or renewing a licence under section 31 for a period of less than 5 years; or
 - (mb) registering, or renewing the registration of, any irradiating apparatus for a period of less than 5 years”.

Transitional

10. (1) Where a licence was granted under section 29 of the Principal Act or renewed under section 31 of that Act before the commencement of this Act, then subject to the Principal Act as amended by this Act, that licence continues in force for the period it would have done but for the amendments effected by this Act.

(2) Where an irradiating apparatus is registered under section 48 of the Principal Act or the registration of an irradiating apparatus is renewed under section 50 of that Act before the commencement of this Act, then subject to the Principal Act as amended by this Act, the registration continues in force for the period it would have done but for the amendments effected by this Act.
