Statutory Appointments Act 1994 No 32 (repealed)

Republication No 3

Republication date: 28 May 2002

Amendments incorporated to 28 May 2002

As repealed by Act 2002 No 11

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Statutory Appointments Act 1994 (repealed). It includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 28 May 2002 and any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes).

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Australian Capital Territory

Statutory Appointments Act 1994 (repealed)

An Act to provide for consultation with Assembly committees in relation to statutory appointments

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Statutory Appointments Act 1994.

3 Meaning of statutory office

In this Act:

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155).

statutory office means an office or position (whether as a member of a Territory authority or otherwise) established by or under an Act.

3A Application

This Act does not apply, and shall be taken never to have applied, to an appointment under the Justices of the Peace Act 1989, section 3 (1) which was made prior to the commencement of the Statutory Appointments (Amendment) Act 1997.

4 Consultation regarding appointments

- (1) Where, by or under any Act, a Minister has power to appoint a person to a statutory office, the Minister shall—
 - (a) before making such an appointment, consult with—
 - (i) a standing committee of the Legislative Assembly nominated by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly for the purpose; or
 - (ii) if no committee has been so nominated—the Public Accounts committee of the Legislative Assembly; and
 - (b) not make such an appointment until—
 - (i) a recommendation made by that committee has been received; or
 - (ii) 30 days have elapsed since the consultation took place;
- whichever first occurs; and

- (c) in making such an appointment, have regard to any such recommendation.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to the appointment of a person under the Auditor-General Act 1996 to be the auditor-general or to act as the auditor-general as if the power to make that appointment were vested in a Minister, and in that application the reference in that subsection to the Minister shall be read as a reference to the Executive.

5 Disallowable instrument

An instrument by which an appointment referred to in section 4 is made is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

6 Exemptions

Sections 4 and 5 do not apply in relation to—

- (a) an appointment of a public servant to a statutory office (whether or not the Act by or under which the appointment is made requires that the appointee be a public servant); or
- (b) an appointment of a person to act in a statutory office for a period not exceeding 6 months, not being an appointment of the person to act in the office for a second or subsequent consecutive period; or
- (c) an appointment of a person to a statutory office the only function of which is to advise the appointing Minister.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.
