Republication No 10

Effective: 31 August 2011 – 20 September 2011

Republication date: 31 August 2011

Last amendment made by A2011-30

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Lands Acquisition Act 1994 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 31 August 2011. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 31 August 2011.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $110 for an individual and $550 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Lands Acquisition Act 1994

An Act relating to the acquisition of interests in land by the Executive and certain authorities and dealings with land so acquired, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Lands Acquisition Act 1994.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition 'authorised person—see section 4.' means that the term 'authorised person' is defined in that section.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Meaning of authorised person

- (1) A person is an authorised person for a provision of this Act if—
- (a) the Executive has, by writing, authorised the person to act under the provision; or
 - (b) the Executive has, by writing, authorised the holder or occupier of a particular office or position to act under the provision and the person holds or occupies, or is performing the duties of, the office or position.

- (2) For the compulsory acquisition of land by a utility under the Utilities Act 2000, section 104, an authorised person for the utility under that Act is also an authorised person for this Act.

Part 2 Temporary entry on, and occupation of, land

5 Powers additional to other powers

The powers conferred by this part are in addition to, and not in derogation of, the powers conferred by any other Territory law.

6 Notice to be given before powers exercised

- (1) A person shall not exercise a power conferred by this part in relation to particular land unless—
 - (a) the person has given written notice of his or her intention to exercise the power to each person whom the person believes, after diligent inquiry, to have an interest in the land, other than an interest under a mortgage, charge or other similar security; and
 - (b) at least 14 days have elapsed since the requirements of paragraph (a) were satisfied.
- (2) A notice shall—
 - (a) set out particulars of the intended exercise of the power in relation to the land; and
 - (b) give reasons for the exercise of the power; and
 - (c) include a statement to the effect that a person to whom the notice is given may, because of the exercise of the power, be entitled to compensation in accordance with part 7.

7 Power to enter on, and examine, land

An authorised person may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether land is suitable for a public purpose or of obtaining information in relation to land that, in the opinion of the authorised person, is, or may be, suitable for a public purpose—

- (a) enter upon the land, or upon adjoining land, with such persons, vehicles and things as are reasonably necessary for the purpose; and
- (b) make surveys, take levels, dig or bore into the land, examine the soil and do, in relation to the land, any other thing reasonably necessary for the purpose.

8 Power to occupy land temporarily

- (1) Where an acquiring authority holds an interest in land (the authority land), an authorised person may, with such other persons as are reasonably necessary, enter upon other land (the neighbouring land) being land within a distance of 500m from the nearest boundary of the authority land, and may temporarily occupy the neighbouring land for so long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of any works connected with the carrying out of a public purpose.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to neighbouring land—
 - (a) that is a garden, orchard or plantation attached to, or belonging to, a house; or
 - (b) that is a park, planted walk or avenue or ground ornamentally planted; or
 - (c) that is less than 500m from a dwelling house of the occupier of the neighbouring land.

9 Powers in relation to land temporarily occupied

- (1) While land is temporarily occupied under section 8, an authorised person may, in connection with the carrying out of a public purpose—
 - (a) construct, build or place any plant, machinery, equipment or goods on the land; and

- (b) take from, or deposit on, the land sand, clay, stone, earth, gravel, timber, wood or other materials or goods; and
 - (c) make roads, cuttings or excavations on the land; and
 - (d) erect buildings (including workshops and sheds) of a temporary character on the land; and
 - (e) manufacture or work materials of any kind on the land.
- (2) The power to take sand, clay, stone, earth or gravel is not exercisable in respect of a quarry, brick pit or other like place worked or used for getting materials for the purpose of sale.
- (3) An authorised person shall not exercise powers under subsection (1) so as to—
- (a) close, divert or narrow, or break the surface of, a road; or
 - (b) alter the position of any water, sewerage or gas main or pipe; or
 - (c) alter the position of any electricity or telecommunications cable or wire;

unless the authorised person has given reasonable notice, in writing, of his or her intention to do so to the utility or other person responsible for the road, main, pipe, cable or wire.

10 Obligations in relation to exercise of powers

An authorised person exercising powers under this part shall—

- (a) take all reasonable steps to ensure that the exercise of the powers causes as little detriment and inconvenience, and does as little damage, as is practicable to the land and to anything on, or growing or living on, the land; and
- (b) remain on the land only for such period as is reasonably necessary; and

- (c) remove from the land at the end of the occupation all plant, machinery, equipment, goods or structures brought onto, or erected on, the land other than any of those things that the owner or occupier agrees may be left on the land; and
- (d) leave the land, as nearly as practicable, in the condition in which it was immediately before it was occupied.

11 Order to enforce exercise of powers

(1) Where—

- (a) an authorised person is entitled to exercise powers under this part in relation to land; and
- (b) another person (the obstructing person) has hindered or obstructed, is hindering or obstructing, or proposes to hinder or obstruct the authorised person in the exercise of any of those powers; a court of summary jurisdiction may, on the application of the authorised person, make an order authorising a police officer or other person named in the order to use such assistance and force as are reasonably necessary to enable those powers to be exercised.

- (2) A copy of an application under subsection (1) shall be given to the obstructing person and that person is entitled to appear and be heard on the hearing of the application.

12 Exercise of powers not acquisition of interest in land

The exercise of a power under this part does not constitute the acquisition of an interest in land for this Act.

Part 3 Acquisition of interests

13 Modes of acquisition

An interest in land may be acquired under this Act—

- (a) by agreement under section 32; or
- (b) by compulsory process under section 33.

14 Nature of interests that may be acquired

- (1) The interests that may be acquired under this Act are—
 - (a) a legal or equitable estate or interest in land; and
 - (b) any other right (including a right under an option and a right of redemption), charge, power or privilege over, or in connection with, land or an interest in land.
- (2) Those interests include—
 - (a) an interest of the Territory, a State or another Territory in land; and
 - (b) an interest that did not previously exist in relation to particular land; and
 - (c) a restriction on the use of the land, whether or not annexed to particular land.

15 Authorities with limited powers

Nothing in this Act gives to an authority a power that the authority does not otherwise have.

16 Steps in acquisition by agreement

- (1) The principal steps in an acquisition under this Act by agreement are—
 - (a) the making of a pre-acquisition declaration under part 4; and

- (b) any reconsideration of the pre-acquisition declaration under part 4; and
 - (c) the authorisation of the acquisition under section 32; and
 - (d) the making of the agreement under part 5; and
 - (e) the taking of actions required by the agreement to complete the acquisition.
- (2) The making of a pre-acquisition declaration is not required if—
 - (a) the interest to be acquired is owned by another acquiring authority; or
 - (b) a certificate has been given under section 21.

17 Steps in acquisition by compulsory process

- (1) The principal steps in an acquisition by compulsory process are—
 - (a) the making of a pre-acquisition declaration under part 4; and
 - (b) any reconsideration of the pre-acquisition declaration under part 4; and
 - (c) the making of an acquisition declaration under part 5.
- (2) The making of a pre-acquisition declaration is not required if a certificate has been given under section 21.

18 Acquisitions to be in accordance with Act

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an acquiring authority shall not acquire an interest in land otherwise than in accordance with this Act unless—
 - (a) the regulations provide that this Act does not apply in relation to the acquisition, by the acquiring authority, of interests in land in specified circumstances and the acquisition is an acquisition in those circumstances; or

- (b) the acquisition is authorised by a Territory law (including a law passed or made after the commencement of this part) and that law, or another Territory law, expressly provides that the firstmentioned law has effect despite anything contained in this Act; or
 - (c) the acquisition is effected by a Territory law; or
 - (d) the acquisition is effected by an agreement made when there was no pre-acquisition declaration or certificate under section 21 in force relating to the acquisition.
- (2) Nothing in this Act prevents the benefit of a restriction on the use of land becoming vested in an authority by the operation of a law other than this Act.
- (3) This Act does not apply in respect of the withdrawal by the Executive from a lease of Territory land of all or part of the land comprised in the lease where the withdrawal is made in accordance with the provisions of the lease.

Part 4 Pre-acquisition procedures

Division 4.1 Pre-acquisition declarations

19 Declaration that land suitable for acquisition

- (1) The Executive may declare in writing that it is considering the acquisition by an acquiring authority of an interest in land (other than a mortgage interest) for a public purpose.
- (2) The declaration shall identify the acquiring authority, the land, the interest in the land and the public purpose.
- (3) Except where the interest is a restriction on the use of land, the Executive shall include in the declaration—
 - (a) a statement that the land appears to the Executive to be suitable for use, or for development for use, for a public purpose; and
 - (b) a statement setting out—
 - (i) particulars of the use to which the land will be put or for which it will be developed; and
 - (ii) the reasons why the land appears to be suitable for that use or for development for that use.
- (4) Where the interest is a restriction on the use of land, the Executive shall include in the declaration—
 - (a) a statement that it appears to the Executive to be appropriate for the acquiring authority to be given, for a public purpose, the benefit of the restriction on the use of the land; and
 - (b) a statement—
 - (i) explaining the nature of the restriction; and
 - (ii) setting out the reasons why it is appropriate for the acquiring authority to be given the benefit of the restriction.

- (5) The Executive may include in the declaration a statement that the proposed use of the land, or the proposed restriction on the use of the land, as the case may be, is connected with the implementation of a policy particulars of which are set out in the declaration.
- (6) The Executive shall give a copy of the declaration to each person who is registered under the Land Titles Act 1925 as the owner of an interest in the land affected by the declaration together with—
 - (a) a sketch showing the location of the land to which the declaration relates; and
 - (b) a statement setting out a summary of the principal rights conferred by this Act on persons whose interests in land are affected by a pre-acquisition declaration.
- (7) If documents referred to in subsection (6) are required to be given to 2 or more persons, the Executive shall, as far as practicable, ensure that the documents are given to the persons at or about the same time.
- (8) The declaration ceases to be in force if—
 - (a) the interest is acquired under this Act; or
 - (b) the declaration is revoked; or
 - (c) the declaration ceases to have effect because of section 22, 25 or 35 (2).
- (9) For this Act, an interest in land shall be taken to be affected by the declaration only if—
 - (a) the interest is the same as, includes or is included in, the interest in land specified in the declaration (the declaration interest); or
 - (b) the interest is some other interest in land that, if the declaration interest were acquired by compulsory process, would be in whole or in part divested, extinguished or diminished because of section 33 (5) (b).

20 Publication of pre-acquisition declarations

- (1) As soon as practicable after making a pre-acquisition declaration, the Executive must—
 - (a) publish a copy of the declaration in a daily newspaper; and
 - (b) give a copy of the declaration to the registrar-general.
- (2) A pre-acquisition declaration is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

21 Acquisitions where land required urgently etc

- (1) Where, in relation to the proposed acquisition of an interest in land by an acquiring authority, the Executive is satisfied that—
 - (a) there is an urgent necessity for the acquisition and it would be contrary to the public interest for the acquisition to be delayed by the need for the making, and the possible reconsideration, of a pre-acquisition declaration; or
 - (b) to require the making of a pre-acquisition declaration in respect of the proposed acquisition would result in a disclosure of information that would be prejudicial to the Territory;the Executive may certify in writing that it is so satisfied.
- (2) The certificate may include such information relating to the proposed acquisition as the Executive considers appropriate.
- (3) If the Executive gives a certificate, the interest may be acquired by the acquiring authority without the preparation of a pre-acquisition declaration.
- (4) The Executive shall—
 - (a) cause a copy of the certificate to be laid before the Legislative Assembly within 5 sitting days of the Assembly after the giving of the certificate; and

- (b) as soon as practicable, cause a copy of the certificate to be served on each person whom the Executive believes, after diligent inquiry, to be a person affected by the certificate.
- (5) A certificate is a notifiable instrument.
 - Note* A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.
- (6) The Executive may also publish a copy of the certificate in a daily newspaper.
- (7) The certificate ceases to be in force if—
 - (a) the interest is acquired under this Act; or
 - (b) the certificate is revoked.
- (8) For this Act, a person shall be taken to be affected by the certificate only if—
 - (a) the person is registered under the Land Titles Act 1925 as the owner of an interest in land to which the certificate relates (the certificate interest); or
 - (b) the person is an owner of some other interest in land that, if the certificate interest were acquired by compulsory process, would be in whole or in part divested, extinguished or diminished because of section 33 (5) (b).

22 Effect of s 21 certificate on pre-acquisition declaration

Where, after a pre-acquisition declaration has been made, the Executive gives a certificate under section 21 in relation to the same interest in land, the pre-acquisition declaration immediately ceases to have effect.

Division 4.2 Reconsideration of pre-acquisition declaration

23 Application for reconsideration of pre-acquisition of declaration

- (1) A person affected by a pre-acquisition declaration may apply to the Executive for a reconsideration of the declaration.
- (2) An application—
 - (a) shall be in writing; and
 - (b) shall set out the reasons for the application.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an application shall be made—
 - (a) if section 19 (6) required that a copy of the declaration be given to the person—within 28 days after the day on which the copy was given to the person; or
 - (b) in any other case—within 28 days after the first day on which the Executive has complied with the requirements of sections 19 (6) and 20 in relation to the declaration.
- (4) The Executive may, by writing and before the end of the period within which the person would otherwise be required to make an application, agree to an extension of that period.

24 Reconsideration of pre-acquisition declaration

- (1) Where the Executive receives an application for reconsideration of a pre-acquisition declaration, it shall, within 28 days after receiving the application—
 - (a) reconsider the application having regard to the reasons specified in the application and any other relevant matters; and
 - (b) by instrument in writing—
 - (i) confirm the declaration; or

- (ii) revoke the declaration; or
 - (iii) vary the declaration.
- (2) The Executive shall not vary the declaration in such a way that an interest in land that was not previously an interest affected (within the meaning of section 19 (9)) by the declaration becomes an interest so affected.
- (3) The Executive's decision shall include a statement of the reasons for the decision to confirm, revoke or vary the declaration.
- (4) The person who made the application may, by writing and before the end of the period of 28 days referred to in subsection (1), agree to an extension of that period.

25 Notification of confirmation of pre-acquisition declaration etc

- (1) An instrument under section 24 (1) that confirms or varies a pre-acquisition declaration is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (2) The Legislation Act 2001, chapter 7 (Presentation, amendment and disallowance of subordinate laws and disallowable instruments) applies to the instrument as if each reference in that chapter to 6 sitting days were a reference to 3 sitting days.
- (3) If the instrument is taken to be repealed under the Legislation Act 2001, chapter 7, the Executive must give written notice to everyone to whom a copy of the declaration was given under this part.
- (4) A notice under subsection (3) is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

30 Registration of authorising documents

- (1) As soon as practicable, and, in any event, within 7 working days, after an authorising document is made or given, or is varied or revoked, the director-general shall cause to be lodged with the registrar-general a memorandum setting out particulars of the document, or of the variation or revocation, as the case may be.
- (2) The registrar-general shall make such entries in the records kept by him or her as he or she thinks appropriate.
- (3) In this section:
working day means a day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a public holiday.

31 Owner of interest in land required to disclose existence of authorising documents

- (1) Where a copy of an authorising document has been given to a person (the owner) in accordance with this part, the owner shall not, at a time when the document is in force, enter into any agreement with another person in respect of the owner's interest in the land to which the document relates without first disclosing to the other person the existence of the document.
- (2) If the owner enters into an agreement with another person without making a disclosure as required by subsection (1)—
 - (a) the other person is entitled, by notice in writing given to the owner, to rescind or terminate the agreement; and
 - (b) if the other person has suffered loss or damage because of the failure to make the disclosure—the owner is liable to pay the amount of the loss or damage to the other person.
- (3) The rights conferred by subsection (2) are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other right or remedy under Territory law.

Part 5 Acquisition procedures

32 Acquisition by agreement

- (1) The Executive may authorise the acquisition under this Act by agreement of an interest in land other than land in a public park, by an acquiring authority for a public purpose.
- (2) The acquiring authority may then enter into an agreement for the acquisition of the interest if—
 - (a) a pre-acquisition declaration in relation to the acquisition has become absolute and is in force; or
 - (b) the Executive has given a certificate under section 21 in respect of the acquisition; or
 - (c) the interest is owned by the Territory or a Territory authority.
- (3) The Executive shall cause to be laid before the Legislative Assembly, within 15 sitting days of the Assembly after the agreement is entered into, a statement describing—
 - (a) the interest; and
 - (b) the situation of the land; and
 - (c) the price at which the interest is being, or has been, acquired; and
 - (d) the public purpose for which the interest is being, or has been, acquired.
- (4) Failure to comply with subsection (3) in relation to an acquisition does not invalidate the acquisition.

33 Acquisition by compulsory process

- (1) If, in relation to the acquisition of an interest in land by an acquiring authority—

(a) a pre-acquisition declaration has become absolute and is in force; or

(b) a certificate has been given under section 21;

the Executive may declare, in writing, that the interest is acquired by the acquiring authority by compulsory process.

(2) The declaration shall—

(a) identify the land concerned; and

(b) specify the public purpose for which the interest is being acquired.

(3) The declaration is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

(4) The Executive must also publish a copy of the declaration in a daily newspaper.

(5) On the notification of the declaration under the Legislation Act 2001, the interest is, by force of this section—

(a) vested in the acquiring authority; and

(b) freed and discharged from all other interests and from all trusts, restrictions, dedications, reservations, obligations, mortgages, encumbrances, contracts, licences, charges and rates.

(6) Where, because of subsection (5) (b), another interest in the land is, in whole or in part, divested, extinguished or diminished, that other interest shall, to that extent, be taken, for this Act, to have been acquired by compulsory process.

(7) For this Act, a person shall be taken to be affected by the declaration if—

(a) the person is an owner of the interest identified in the declaration; or

- (b) the person is an owner of some other interest in the land that, because of subsection (5) (b), is divested, extinguished or diminished.

34 When pre-acquisition declaration becomes absolute

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a pre-acquisition declaration is in force; and
 - (b) the requirements of sections 19 (6), 20, 28, 29 and 30 (1) have been complied with in relation to the declaration; and
 - (c) the requirements of the Legislation Act 2001 (as affected by section 25 (2) of this Act) have been complied with in relation to the declaration; the declaration becomes absolute in accordance with this section.

- (2) If no application for reconsideration has been made, the declaration becomes absolute at the end of 28 days after the last day on which such an application could have been made.
- (3) If, because of 1 or more applications for reconsideration, the declaration has been confirmed or varied by an instrument under section 24 (1) (Reconsideration of pre-acquisition declaration), then, unless the instrument is disallowed by the Legislative Assembly, the declaration (as confirmed or varied) becomes absolute on the day after the last day when the instrument could have been disallowed by the Legislative Assembly.

35 Notice requiring acquisition

- (1) Where—
 - (a) at least 28 days have elapsed since a pre-acquisition declaration became absolute; and
 - (b) the declaration is still in force; and

- (c) the interest in land to which the declaration relates has not been acquired;

a person who is an owner of the interest may, by written notice given to the Executive, require that the interest be acquired.

- (2) If the interest is not acquired by an acquiring authority within 3 months after the giving of the notice, the declaration ceases to have effect at the end of that period.
- (3) The person may, in writing and before the end of the period referred to in subsection (2), agree to an extension of that period.

36 Acquisitions not affected by failure to comply with post-acquisition requirements

Once an interest in land has been acquired by compulsory process, the acquisition is not affected by any later failure to comply with a requirement of this part that relates to the acquisition.

37 Entry into possession by acquiring authority

- (1) Where—
 - (a) an interest in land is acquired by an acquiring authority by compulsory process; and
 - (b) the interest entitles the authority to possession of the land;a person occupying the land on the date of acquisition is entitled, subject to this section, to remain in occupation of the land or of such part of the land as the person specifies, by notice in writing given to the Executive, for the period of 6 months or for a longer period fixed by agreement between the Executive and the person.
- (2) If the Executive is satisfied that it is essential that the acquiring authority enter into possession of the land or part of the land urgently, the Executive may give to the occupier written notice—
 - (a) stating its reasons for being so satisfied; and

- (b) fixing the date on which the person is to vacate the land or part of the land, as the case may be.
- (3) A notice under subsection (2) must set out the reasons for the Executive's decision.
- (4) The person to whom the notice is given ceases to be entitled to remain in occupation of the land, or the part of the land, as the case may be, on the day fixed by the notice.
- (5) The terms (including any amount payable in relation to occupation on and after the date of acquisition) on which the person remains in occupation of the land are the terms agreed by the Executive and the person or, if they cannot agree, the terms decided by the Executive.

Note The Executive's decision is a reviewable decision (see s 104AA), and the Executive must give a reviewable decision notice to the person (see s 104AC).

38 Notification of compulsory acquisition declarations

The Executive shall, within 14 days after notification under the Legislation Act 2001 of a declaration under section 33, cause to be given to each person whom the Executive believes, after diligent inquiry, to be a person affected (within the meaning of section 33 (7)) by the declaration the following documents:

- (a) a copy of the declaration;
- (b) a notice—
 - (i) stating that the person appears to be entitled to compensation in respect of the acquisition; and
 - (ii) setting out such other information with respect to the operation of this Act as the Executive considers appropriate;
- (c) a compensation claim form approved under section 118 (Approved forms) for section 56 (Claims for compensation).

39 Effect of acquisition of mortgage interest on rights of mortgagee

Where a mortgage interest is acquired by compulsory process, the mortgagee retains, in respect of so much of the mortgage debt as is not discharged by section 57, any rights and remedies that the mortgagee may have—

- (a) against the mortgagor; or
- (b) in respect of any interest in land that is still subject to the mortgage.

40 Correction of compulsory acquisition declarations

- (1) The Executive may, in writing, vary a declaration under section 33 (1) for the purpose of correcting a clerical error, or an obvious mistake, in the declaration.

- (2) A variation is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

- (3) Where the Executive varies a declaration, the following provisions have effect:

- (a) if the declaration has been notified under the Legislation Act 2001—this part has effect as if the declaration had been notified as varied;
- (b) the Executive shall cause a copy of the declaration, clearly showing the variation, to be given to—
 - (i) each person to whom a copy of the original declaration was given in accordance with section 38; and
 - (ii) any other person whom the Executive has reason to believe to be a person affected (within the meaning of section 33 (7)) by the declaration as varied.

41 Registration of compulsory acquisition declarations

- (1) As soon as practicable, and, in any event, within 28 days, after the notification under the Legislation Act 2001 of a declaration under section 33 (1) (Acquisition by compulsory process) or a variation under section 40 (1) (Correction of compulsory acquisition declarations), the director-general shall cause to be lodged with the registrar-general a memorandum setting out particulars of the declaration, or of the variation, as the case may be.
- (2) The registrar-general may—
 - (a) deal with and give effect to the declaration as if it were a grant, conveyance, or transfer of the acquired interest to the acquiring authority duly executed under the law in force in the ACT; and
 - (b) make such entries in the records kept by the registrar-general as are necessary having regard to the effect of section 33 (5).

Part 6 Compensation for compulsory acquisition of interests in land

Division 6.1 Entitlement to compensation

42 Entitlement to compensation

A person from whom an interest in land is acquired by compulsory process is entitled to be paid compensation by the Executive in accordance with this part in respect of the acquisition.

43 Mortgagees may waive rights in respect of mortgage interests

- (1) The mortgagee under a mortgage may, by written notice given to the Executive, waive the mortgagee's right to any compensation under this Act in respect of the acquisition of a mortgage interest.
- (2) The Executive may, by written notice given to a mortgagee from whom a mortgage interest has, or may have been, acquired by compulsory process, require the mortgagee, at his or her option—
 - (a) to make a claim under division 6.4; or
 - (b) to waive the right to compensation.
- (3) If a mortgagee does not, within 30 days after a notice is given to the mortgagee or such further period as the Executive, by writing, allows, make a claim for compensation, the mortgagee shall be deemed to have waived the right to compensation in respect of the acquisition of the mortgage interest.
- (4) A mortgagee who waives the right to compensation in respect of the acquisition of a mortgage interest—
 - (a) is debarred from recovering any compensation from the Executive, the Territory or the Commonwealth in respect of the acquisition; but

- (b) retains, in respect of the mortgage debt, any rights and remedies that the mortgagee may have—
 - (i) against the mortgagor; or
 - (ii) in respect of any interest in land that is still subject to the mortgage.

Division 6.2 Amount of compensation—interests other than mortgage interests

44 Division 6.2 does not apply in relation to acquisition of mortgage interests

This division does not apply in relation to the acquisition of a mortgage interest.

45 Amount of compensation—general principles

- (1) The amount of compensation to which a person is entitled under this part in respect of the acquisition of an interest in land is such amount as, having regard to all relevant matters, will justly compensate the person for the acquisition.
- (2) In assessing the amount of compensation to which the person is entitled, regard shall be had to all relevant matters, including—
 - (a) except in a case to which paragraph (b) applies—
 - (i) the market value of the interest on the day of the acquisition; and
 - (ii) the value, on the day of the acquisition, of any financial advantage, additional to market value, to the person incidental to the person's ownership of the interest; and
 - (iii) any reduction in the market value of any other interest in land held by the person that is caused by the severance by the acquisition of the acquired interest from the other interest; and

- (iv) where the acquisition has the effect of severing the acquired interest from another interest—any increase or decrease in the market value of the interest still held by the person resulting from the nature of, or the carrying out of, the purpose for which the acquired interest was acquired; and
- (b) if—
 - (i) the interest acquired from the person did not previously exist as such in relation to the land; and
 - (ii) the person's interest in the land was diminished, but not extinguished, by the acquisition; andthe loss suffered by the person because of the diminution of the person's interest in the land; and
- (c) any loss, injury or damage suffered, or expense reasonably incurred, by the person that was, having regard to all relevant considerations, including any circumstances peculiar to the person, suffered or incurred by the person as a direct, natural and reasonable consequence of—
 - (i) the acquisition of the interest; or
 - (ii) the making or giving of the pre-acquisition declaration or certificate under section 21 in relation to the acquisition of the interest;other than any such loss, injury, damage or expense in respect of which compensation is payable under part 7; and
- (d) subject to section 50, if the interest is limited as to time or may be terminated by another person—the likelihood of the continuation or renewal of the interest and the likely terms and conditions on which any continuation or renewal would be granted; and

- (e) any legal or other professional costs reasonably incurred by the person in relation to the acquisition, including the costs of—
 - (i) obtaining advice in relation to the acquisition, the entitlement of the person to compensation or the amount of compensation; and
 - (ii) executing, producing or surrendering such documents, and making out and providing such abstracts and attested copies, as the director-general, the solicitor-general, the chief solicitor or a person authorised under the Law Officers Act 2011, section 29 (1) (Person authorised by chief solicitor) requires.

46 Meaning of market value in div 6.2

For this division, the market value of an interest in land at a particular time is the amount that would have been paid for the interest if it had been sold at that time by a willing but not anxious seller to a willing but not anxious buyer.

47 Special provision where market value determined on basis of potential of land

Where the market value of an interest in land acquired by compulsory process is assessed upon the basis that the land had potential to be used for a purpose other than the purpose for which it was used at the time of acquisition, compensation shall not be allowed in respect of any loss or damage that would necessarily have been suffered, or expense that would necessarily have been incurred, in realising that potential.

48 No general market for interest acquired

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an interest in land (the old land) is acquired from a person by compulsory process; and

- (b) immediately before the acquisition, the person was using the old land, or intended to use the old land, for a purpose other than the carrying on of a business; and
 - (c) but for the acquisition, the land would have been, or would have continued to be, used for that purpose; and
 - (d) at the time of the acquisition, there was no general demand or market for land used for that purpose; and
 - (e) the person has acquired, or intends to acquire, another interest in other land (the new land) in substitution for the acquired interest and intends to use the new land for the same purpose.
- (2) The market value of the acquired interest on the day of acquisition shall be taken to be the greater of—
- (a) the amount that, apart from this section, would be the market value (if any) of that interest on that day; and
 - (b) the net acquisition cost, in relation to the interest in the new land.
- (3) The net acquisition cost, in relation to the interest in the new land, is the amount calculated in accordance with the formula:

where:

CA means the amount of the cost, or the likely cost, to the person of the acquisition of the interest in the new land.

E means the amount of the expenses and losses incurred, or likely to be incurred, by the person as a result of, or incidental to, ceasing to use the old land and commencing to use the new land for the same purpose.

FI means the present value of any real and substantial saving in recurring costs (relating to land or an interest in land) gained by the person as a result of the relocation.

49 Interest affected by planning restriction

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an interest in land is acquired from a person by compulsory process; and
 - (b) immediately before the acquisition, a planning instrument was in force having the effect of limiting or restricting the permissible use of the land to use for a purpose of a public nature; and
 - (c) the planning instrument was made to meet the needs of an acquiring authority; and
 - (d) the planning instrument was not in force in relation to the land at the time the person acquired the interest.
- (2) In determining the amount of compensation to which the person is entitled in respect of the acquisition of the interest—
 - (a) the limitation or restriction on the use of the land imposed by the planning instrument shall be disregarded; and
 - (b) it shall be assumed that the land was subject only to such limitations and restrictions as would have been likely if there had been no proposal to limit or restrict the use of the land to use for the purpose permitted by the planning instrument; and
 - (c) the amount of any compensation paid or payable to the person in consequence of the planning instrument shall be deducted from the compensation to which the person would otherwise be entitled.

50 Matters to be disregarded in assessing compensation

- (1) In assessing compensation, there shall be disregarded—
 - (a) any special suitability or adaptability of the relevant land for a purpose for which it could only be used pursuant to a power conferred by or under law, or for which it could only be used by a government or public authority; and

- (b) any increase in the value of the land caused by its use in a manner, or for a purpose, contrary to law; and
- (c) any increase or decrease in the value of the land caused by the carrying out of, or the proposal to carry out, the purpose for which the interest was acquired; and
- (d) any increase in the value of the land caused by the carrying out, after a copy of the pre-acquisition declaration or certificate under section 21 in relation to the acquisition of the interest was given to the person, of any improvements to the land, unless the improvements were carried out with the written approval of the planning and land authority; and
- (e) for an acquisition of land the subject of a rural lease granted for a term shorter than 21 years—the possibility of a further lease being granted in relation to the land under the Planning and Development Act 2007, section 254.

(2) In this section:

rural lease—see the Planning and Development Act 2007, section 234.

51 Acquisition of dwelling

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) an interest in land is acquired from a person by compulsory process; and
- (b) the interest entitled the person to occupy a dwelling on the land; and
- (c) immediately before the acquisition the person was occupying the dwelling as his or her principal place of residence; and

- (d) because of the acquisition, the person has ceased to be entitled to occupy the dwelling as his or her principal place of residence.
- (2) The amount of compensation to which the person is entitled in respect of the acquisition is the sum of $15 000 (or that amount as indexed by section 105) and the greater of the following amounts:
 - (a) the amount of compensation to which the person would, apart from this section, be entitled;
 - (b) the aggregate of the costs to the person of acquiring a reasonably equivalent interest in land that entitles the person to occupation of a reasonably equivalent dwelling.

52 Interest subject to mortgage

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an interest in land is acquired from a person (the owner) by compulsory process; and
 - (b) immediately before the acquisition, the interest was subject to 1 or more mortgages.
- (2) As a general rule, the compensation to which the owner is entitled in respect of the acquisition shall be determined as if the interest had not been subject to any mortgage.
- (3) If compensation is payable under this part to a mortgagee, the compensation payable to the owner is reduced by so much of the compensation payable to the mortgagee as represents the amount calculated according to section 54 (1) (a).
- (4) If a mortgagee waives the right to compensation in respect of the acquisition of a mortgage interest, the compensation to which the owner would otherwise be entitled is increased by such amount as the owner should justly receive as compensation in respect of interest upon the mortgage debt accruing from the time of the acquisition, or in respect of any other liability to the mortgagee.

Division 6.3 Amount of compensation—mortgage interests

53 Interpretation for div 6.3

- (1) For this division, money shall be taken to have been due to a mortgagee under, or to have been secured by, a mortgage at the time of acquisition of a mortgage interest only to the extent that, at that time—
 - (a) the right of the mortgagee to recover the money secured by the mortgage was not barred by a law relating to the limitation of actions; or
 - (b) the mortgagee was entitled to recover money secured by the mortgage by exercising a power of sale of, or other remedy in relation to, the interest in land subject to the mortgage.
- (2) For this division, the interest due to the mortgagee under a mortgage at a particular time is the interest that would be payable to the mortgagee if the mortgage were discharged at that time, other than so much (if any) of that interest as represents—
 - (a) costs of reinvesting the principal under the mortgage; or
 - (b) a loss, or possible loss, of interest on the reinvestment of the principal under the mortgage.

54 Amount of compensation

- (1) The amount of compensation to which a mortgagee is entitled under this part in respect of the acquisition of a mortgage interest under a mortgage (the relevant mortgage) is an amount equal to the sum of—
 - (a) so much of the sum of—
 - (i) the amount of the principal secured by the relevant mortgage at the time of acquisition of the mortgage interest; and

- (ii) the amount of any interest, costs or charges due to the mortgagee under the relevant mortgage at that time;

as does not exceed the amount of compensation payable under this Act to the mortgagor in respect of the acquisition of the interest in land that was subject to the relevant mortgage; and

- (b) any legal or other professional costs reasonably incurred by the mortgagee in relation to the acquisition of the mortgage interest, including costs of—

- (i) obtaining advice in relation to the acquisition, the entitlement of the mortgagee to compensation or the amount of compensation; and

- (ii) executing, producing or surrendering such documents, and making out and providing such abstracts and attested copies, as the director-general, the solicitor-general, the chief solicitor or a person authorised under the Law Officers Act 2011, section 29 (1) (Person authorised by chief solicitor) requires.

- (2) For subsection (1), if—

- (a) the relevant mortgage was the only mortgage over the interest in land immediately before the acquisition; or
 - (b) there were 2 or more mortgages over the interest in land immediately before the acquisition and the relevant mortgage had, at that time, priority over the other mortgage or mortgages;

the compensation payable to the mortgagor in respect of the acquisition of the interest in land shall be taken to be the compensation that would have been payable to the mortgagor if there had been no mortgage over the interest.

- (3) For subsection (1), if—

- (a) there were 2 or more mortgages over the interest in land immediately before the acquisition; and
- (b) the relevant mortgage did not have, at that time, priority over the other mortgage or mortgages;

the compensation payable to the mortgagor in respect of the acquisition of the interest in land shall be taken to be the compensation that would have been payable to the mortgagor if there had been no mortgage over the interest, reduced by the principal secured at the time of the acquisition by, and the interest, costs and charges due at that time under, a mortgage or mortgages having priority over the relevant mortgage.

55 Particulars of mortgages may be required

- (1) The Executive may, by written notice require a person from whom an interest in land, other than a mortgage interest, has been acquired by compulsory process, to provide the Executive with the following particulars:
 - (a) whether the interest was, immediately before the acquisition, subject to any mortgages;
 - (b) in relation to each mortgage (if any) to which the interest was, immediately before its acquisition, subject—
 - (i) the name and address of the mortgagee; and
 - (ii) the amount of principal secured by the mortgage at the time of the acquisition of the interest; and
 - (iii) the amount of interest, costs and charges due under the mortgage at that time.
- (2) If the person fails to provide the Executive with the particulars within 30 days after the giving of the notice, or such further period as the Executive by writing, allows, the Executive may agree with any person claiming to be a mortgagee of the interest in land as to the amounts due under the mortgage and the firstmentioned person is debarred from disputing the correctness of any amounts so agreed.

Division 6.4 Claims for, and offers of, compensation

56 Claims for compensation

- (1) A person who considers that he or she is entitled to be paid compensation in accordance with this part may make a claim for compensation.
 - (2) A claim—
 - (a) shall specify—
 - (i) the interest of the person that has been acquired by compulsory process; and
 - (ii) the amount of compensation the person claims in respect of the acquisition; and
 - (iii) if the claim is in respect of the acquisition of a mortgage interest under a mortgage—the amounts that, for division 6.3, are the amounts of—
 - (A) principal secured by the mortgage at the time of the acquisition of the interest; and
 - (B) any interest, costs and charges due under the mortgage at that time; and
 - (b) shall be given to the Executive.
- Note* If a form is approved under s 118 (Approved forms) for a claim, the form must be used.
- (3) A person who has made a claim may, by notice in writing given to the Executive, withdraw the claim.

- (4) Where a claim is withdrawn, this Act has effect as if the claim had never been made.
- (5) For this Act, a claim shall be taken to be made when it is given to the Executive.
- (6) The Executive must decide a claim within 42 days after the day the claim is made.
- (7) The claimant may agree in writing to an extension of the 42-day period before the end of the period.

57 Effect of compensation claim in respect of acquisition of mortgage interest

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a mortgage interest has been acquired from a mortgagee; and
 - (b) the mortgagee makes a claim for compensation in respect of the acquisition.
- (2) To the extent of the compensation payable to the mortgagee in respect of the acquisition, excluding amounts referred to in section 54 (1) (b), the acquisition shall, on the making of the claim, be taken to have discharged the liability of the mortgagor under the mortgage as from the time of acquisition.
- (3) On payment or tender of the compensation to the mortgagee, the mortgagee shall, if so required by the mortgagor and at the expense of the mortgagor, execute a discharge of the mortgage debt to the extent to which the mortgage debt is taken, by subsection (2), to have been discharged.

58 Amounts paid in respect of mortgage liabilities extinguished by s 57

- (1) Where an amount has been paid to or recovered by the mortgagee under a mortgage in respect of a liability that, upon the making of a claim by the mortgagee, is, by section 57, taken to have been discharged as from the time of acquisition of a mortgage interest under the mortgage—

- (a) the mortgagee is liable to repay that amount to the person who paid it; and
 - (b) the Executive may deduct from the compensation payable to the mortgagee and pay to the person who paid that amount so much of that amount as has not been so repaid.
- (2) A payment made by the Executive under subsection (1) (b) shall be deemed to have been made in discharge of the obligation of the mortgagee under subsection (1) (a).

59 Compensation for compulsory acquisition—Executive must accept or reject claim

- (1) If the Executive is satisfied that the interest in land stated in a claim was acquired by compulsory process from the claimant, the Executive must make an offer of compensation to the claimant that the Executive considers the claimant is entitled to in accordance with division 6.2 or division 6.3.

Note An offer is an internally reviewable decision (see s 104AA), and the Executive must give an internal review notice to the claimant (see s 104AB).

- (2) The internal review notice about the offer of compensation must include a statement—
- (a) that the claim is accepted; and
 - (b) about how the compensation offered is worked out.
- (3) If the Executive does not consider that the interest in land stated in the claim was acquired by compulsory process from the claimant, the Executive must reject the claim.

Note The decision to reject a claim is a reviewable decision (see s 104AA), and the Executive must give a reviewable decision notice to the claimant (see s 104AC).

- (4) If the Executive has not given an internal review notice or reviewable decision notice to the claimant within the 42-day period mentioned in section 56 (6), the Executive is taken to have rejected the claim.

60 Effect of ACAT decision

- (1) If the ACAT confirms the Executive's decision to reject a claim for compensation, the interest stated in the claim is taken, for this Act, not to have been acquired from the claimant by compulsory process.
- (2) If the ACAT sets aside the Executive's decision to reject a claim for compensation, and accepts the claim, the interest stated in the claim is taken, for this Act, to have been acquired from the claimant by compulsory process.

61 Consequences of not seeking ACAT review of decision to reject claim

- (1) This section applies if the Executive rejects a claim for compensation and—
 - (a) the claimant does not make an application to the ACAT in relation to the rejection within the period required under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008; or
 - Note* Requirements for applications to the ACAT, including when an application must be made, are prescribed under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008 (see s 10).
 - (b) each of the following applies:
 - (i) the claimant makes an application to the ACAT in relation to the rejection within the period required under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008;
 - (ii) the ACAT confirms the decision;

- (iii) it is at least 30 days since the ACAT made its decision, and no appeal in relation to the decision has been made to the Supreme Court.
- (2) The Executive may pay compensation under this part on the basis that the claimant was not, at the time of the acquisition to which the claim relates, entitled to the interest the subject of the claim.
- (3) If compensation is paid in relation to an interest that is inconsistent with the interest (the subject interest) the subject of the claim, no compensation is payable in relation to the subject interest.

62 Compensation for compulsory acquisition—claimant may accept or reject Executive’s offer

- (1) This section applies if the Executive makes an offer of compensation to a claimant under section 59 (1).
- (2) The claimant may, by written notice given to the Executive—
 - (a) accept the offer of compensation; or
 - (b) reject the offer of compensation, tell the Executive the amount of compensation that the claimant considers the claimant is entitled to, and state how the amount is worked out.

63 Compensation for compulsory acquisition—Executive to reconsider offer and make final offer

- (1) If the Executive receives a notice under section 62 (2) (b), the Executive must—
 - (a) reconsider the amount of compensation within 2 months (the 2-month period) after the day the Executive receives the notice; and
 - (b) consider the information included in the notice; and
