Long Service Leave (Contract Cleaning Industry) Act 1999

An Act to provide for long service leave for employees in the contract cleaning industry, and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Long Service Leave (Contract Cleaning Industry) Act 1999.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain words and expressions used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other words and expressions defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition 'section 29 register—see section 29.' means that the expression 'section 29 register' is defined in that section 29.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention appears (see Interpretation Act 1967, s 11F and s 11G).

3 What are cleaning work and the contract cleaning industry

- (1) For this Act, cleaning work is—
- (a) work carried out in the ACT that has, as its sole or main component, the bringing of premises into, or maintaining premises in, a clean condition; or
 - (b) work carried out by an employee outside the ACT that is taken to be cleaning work under section 4 (Work outside the ACT); or
 - (c) work declared by the Minister under section 3C (1) (c) to be cleaning work.

- (2) For this Act, the contract cleaning industry is the industry in which employers provide cleaning work to other people through the provision of employees' services.

3A Who is an employer

- (1) For this Act, a person is an employer—
- (a) if the person—
 - (i) is engaged in the contract cleaning industry in the ACT; and
 - (ii) employs (whether in the ACT or elsewhere) 1 or more people to carry out cleaning work; and
 - (iii) is not a person mentioned in subsection (2); or
 - (b) if the person is declared to be an employer by the Minister under section 3C (Declarations by Minister about coverage of Act).
- (2) The following are not employers for this Act:
- (a) the Territory;
 - (b) the Commonwealth;
 - (c) the Australian National University;
 - (d) the University of Canberra.

3B Who is an employee

For this Act, a person is an employee if—

- (a) the person is employed (whether in the ACT or elsewhere) by an employer to carry out cleaning work; or
- (b) if the person is declared to be an employee by the Minister under section 3C.

3C Declarations by Minister about coverage of Act

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, declare—
 - (a) a person to be an employer; or
 - (b) a person to be an employee or an employee of a particular employer; or
 - (c) a kind of work to be cleaning work.
- (2) The Minister may not declare under subsection (1) (a) a person mentioned in section 3 (2).
- (3) A person declared to be an employer by the Minister under subsection (1) (a) is taken, for this Act, to be engaged in the contract cleaning industry.
- (4) A person declared to be an employee of a particular employer is taken, for this Act, to be employed by the person who is declared to be the person's employer.
- (5) A declaration under subsection (1) is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Subordinate Laws Act 1989.

3D What is an employment period

- (1) An employment period of a registered employee is a period—
 - (a) beginning on a day when the person becomes an employee of an employer (and is not already an employee of another employer); and
 - (b) ending on the day when the person next ceases to be an employee of an employer (and is not already an employee of another employer).
- (2) For subsection (1), the continuity of the employment period of a registered employee who ceases to be the employee of an employer but on the next day becomes the employee of another employer is not interrupted by the change in employment.

- (3) For subsection (1), an employment period of a registered employee is taken to end on the last day of the employment period if, for the next employment period (the later period)—
- (a) the employer of the employee gives to the board a return under section 39 (Quarterly returns) showing that the employer made no payment of ordinary wages to the employee in the later period; or
 - (b) if the employee had 2 or more employers for the later period—each of the employers gives a return to the board showing that the employer made no payment of ordinary wages to the employee in the later period.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), a registered employee's employment period is taken to include any days when the employee does not carry out cleaning work because—
- (a) of incapacity for an injury for which the employee is entitled to be paid compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act 1951 by an employer; or
 - (b) the employee has been dismissed by an employer to ensure that the employee does not take long service leave while in the employer's employment.
- (5) For this section, a person is taken to have become an employee on the later of—
- (a) 23 June 2000; and
 - (b) the date when the person became an employee.

4 Work outside the ACT

Work carried out by an employee outside the ACT is taken to be cleaning work if—

- (a) that work would, if it were carried out in the ACT, be cleaning work; and
- (b) the employer of the employee give to the board a return under section 39 (Quarterly returns) and pays to the board the amount payable under section 39A (Levy payments) for the employment of the employee.

- (f) any other particulars that the board directs.

44 Decisions about ordinary wages by the board

- (1) This section applies if the board is of the opinion that the total ordinary wages stated in a return given to the board under section 39 (Quarterly returns) for a quarter for an employee is insufficient or excessive because of the nature of the cleaning work carried out by the employee in the quarter.

- (7) If the amount fixed under subsection (5) (b) is more than the amount shown as the total ordinary wages of the employee in the return, the employer must pay to the board the difference between the amount paid under section 39A (Levy payments) for the quarter and the amount that would have been payable if the amount fixed by the board had been shown in the return as the total ordinary wages of the employee for the quarter.
- (8) If the amount fixed under subsection (5) (b) is less than the amount shown as total ordinary wages of the employee in the return, the board must pay to the employer the difference between the amount paid under section 39A for the quarter and the amount that would have been payable if the amount fixed by the board had been shown

Schedule 1 Examples of calculation of leave payments

(see s 57)

Example 1

Full-time employee receiving above award

Year	Actual pay	Relevant annual award pay	Actual pay ÷ relevant annual award pay
Year 1	20800	19000	1.094736842
Year 2	21800	19000	1.147368421
Year 3	22000	19000	1.157894737
Year 4	22800	20000	1.14
Year 5	23000	21000	1.095238095
Year 6	23100	21000	1.1
Year 7	24100	21000	1.147619048
Year 8	24150	22000	1.097727273
Year 9	25000	22000	1.136363636
Year 10	25200	23000	1.095652174
Total	231950	207000	11.21260023

The total amount formula is—

$$\sum \text{relevant years} \left(\frac{\text{actual pay}}{\text{relevant annual award pay}} \right) \times \left(\frac{\text{current annual award pay}}{60} \right)$$

Applying the formula to this example gives:

$$11.2126 \times \left(\frac{23000}{60} \right) = 4298.16342$$

Which is $4298.16.

The weekly amount formula is:

As a weekly payment the amount would be:

$$4298.16 \div \left(\frac{13}{15} \times 10 \right) = $495.94.$$

Example 2

Part-time employee—5 days a week at various hours

Year	Actual pay	Relevant annual award pay	Actual pay÷ relevant annual award pay
Year 1	10400	19000	0.547368421
Year 2	11400	19000	0.6
Year 3	11400	19000	0.6
Year 4	15000	20000	0.75
Year 5	14000	21000	0.666666667
Year 6	11000	21000	0.523809524
Year 7	19000	21000	0.904761905
Year 8	5000	22000	0.227272727
Year 9	14000	22000	0.636363636
Year 10	8000	23000	0.347826087
Total	119200	207000	5.804068967

The formula:

$$\sum_{\text{relevant years}} \left(\frac{\text{actual pay}}{\text{relevant annual award pay}} \right) \times \left(\frac{\text{current annual award pay}}{60} \right)$$

Applying the formula to this example gives:

$$5.804069 \times \left(\frac{23000}{60} \right) = 2224.893104$$

Which is $2224.89.

The weekly amount formula is:

As a weekly payment, the amount would be:

$$2224.89 \div \left(\frac{13}{15} \times 10 \right) = $256.72.$$
