AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

Statute Law Amendment Act 2000

No 80 of 2000

An Act to amend or repeal certain Acts and regulations for the purpose of statute law revision

[Notified in ACT Gazette S69: 21 December 2000]

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Statute Law Amendment Act 2000.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act commences on the day it is notified in the Gazette.
- (2) However, a date mentioned (after ‘commencement:’) at the end of an amendment in a schedule has effect, or is taken to have had effect, as the commencement date of the amendment.

Examples

1 An amendment followed by ‘(commencement: 30 November 1999)’ indicates that the amendment is taken to have commenced on 30 November 1999.

2 An amendment followed by ‘(commencement: the day before the commencement of Schedule 3 to the X Act)’ indicates that the amendment comes into operation on the day before Schedule 3 to the X Act commences.

3 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to improve the quality of the statute law of the Territory by amending and repealing Acts and regulations for the purpose of statute law revision.

4 Amended Acts and regulations—schs 1-3

Schedules 1 to 3 amend the Acts and regulations mentioned in them.

5 Repealed Acts—schs 4-6

- (1) The Acts mentioned in Schedules 4 and 5 are repealed.
- (2) The provisions mentioned in Schedule 6 are declared to be laws to which the Interpretation Act 1967, section 42 applies.

Note Subsection 12 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1967 provides that notes in or to an Act are not part of the Act.

SCHEDULE 1

(See s 4)

MINOR AMENDMENTS

Gambling and Racing Control Act 1999

[1.1] Schedule 1 (subclause 5 (1))—

After “Commission” insert “(other than the Chief Executive)”
(commencement: 1 December 1999).

Explanatory note

This amendment removes a possible inconsistency with clause 1 of the Schedule. That clause provides for the chief executive of the Gambling and Racing Commission to be employed under the Public Sector Management Act 1994. Section 72 of that Act provides for a person to be engaged under contract for a period of up to 5 years. Subclause 5 (1), on the other hand, provides for a member of the Gaming and Racing Commission (which includes the chief executive) to be appointed for a period not exceeding 3 years. The amendment has the effect of removing the chief executive from the 3 year limit in subclause 5 (1) and allows the chief executive to be employed under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 under contract for up to 5 years.

SCHEDULE 2

(See s 4)

STRUCTURAL AMENDMENTS

Interpretation Act 1967

[2.1] Division 1 of Part 3—

Re-number as Division 3.1.

Explanatory note

This amendment renumbers a division in accordance with current drafting practice.

[2.2] Paragraphs 13 (2) (a) to (d)—

Re-number as paragraphs 13 (2) (b) to (e).

Explanatory note

This amendment is a renumbering of paragraphs consequential on the next amendment.

[2.3] Subsection 13 (2)—

Insert the following paragraph:

“(a) the form to be signed; or”.

Explanatory note

This amendment will make it clear that a form can require that it be signed to be properly completed.

[2.4] Division 2 of Part 3—

Re-number as Division 3.2.

Explanatory note

This amendment renumbers a division in accordance with current drafting practice.

[2.5] Section 25AB—

Omit “the Standards” substitute “Standards”.

Explanatory note

This amendment corrects an error of syntax.

[2.6] Heading to Division 3 of Part 3—

Omit the heading, substitute the following heading:

“Division 3.3—General provisions about functions and powers

Explanatory note

This amendment makes changes to the wording of a division heading and renumbers the division in accordance with current drafting practice.

SCHEDULE 2—continued

[2.7] New section 25B—

Before section 26 insert the following section:

“25B Provision giving function gives power to exercise function

“(1) A provision of an Act that gives an entity a function also gives the entity the powers necessary and convenient to exercise the function.

“(2) The powers given to an entity under subsection (1) are additional to any other powers of the entity under the Act or any other law.”.

Explanatory note

Section 25B clarifies the powers that are given to an entity by giving a function to the entity.

Subsection 25B (1) provides that the giving of a function also gives the powers necessary and convenient to exercise the function. The subsection will remove the need to include a standard ‘necessary and convenient’ power in an Act when giving functions to an entity.

Subsection 25B (2) makes it clear that the powers given to the entity under subsection 25B (1) are additional to other powers that it has under law.

The term entity is defined in the dictionary. Under the definition of function in the dictionary, references in section 25B to function will include duty (see also the definition of give).

[2.8] Sections 26A and 27—

Repeal the sections, substitute the following section:

“27 Power to make decision includes power to reverse or change

“(1) Power given by an Act to make a decision includes power to reverse or change the decision.

“(2) The power to reverse or change the decision is exercisable in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as the power to make the decision.”.

Explanatory note

Proposed section 27 replaces the part of repealed section 26A that relates to decisions. The remainder of the section is carried over in proposed sections 27C and 27D. The provisions of the repealed section 27 have been remade as sections 27E, 27G and 27H.

[2.9] Subsections 27A (3) and (6)—

Omit the subsections.

Explanatory note

This amendment is consequential on proposed section 27F which allows a single instrument to be made in exercise of 2 or more powers.

SCHEDULE 2—continued

[2.10] Division 3.4—

After section 27A insert the following Division and Division heading:

“Division 3.4—Instruments under Acts

“27B Meaning of matter in div 3.4

In this Division—

matter, in relation to an instrument, includes circumstance, place and person.

“27C Power to make instruments

If a provision of an Act gives a power that can be exercised by making an instrument, the provision gives power to make the instrument.

“27D Power to make instrument includes power to amend or repeal

“(1) Power given by an Act to make an instrument includes power to amend or repeal the instrument.

“(2) The power to amend or repeal the instrument is exercisable in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as the power to make the instrument.

“27E Power to make instrument includes power to make different provision for different categories etc

“(1) Power given by an Act to make an instrument includes power—

- (a) to make different provision with respect to different matters or different classes of matters; or
- (b) to make an instrument that applies differently by reference to stated exceptions or factors.

“(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a power given by an Act to make an instrument about particular matters (however described) includes power to make an instrument about 1 or more of those matters or a particular class of those matters.

“27F Single instrument may exercise several powers or satisfy several requirements

“(1) A power under an Act may be exercised with other powers to make a single instrument—

- (a) whether or not the powers are exercised in relation to separate provisions, some of the same provisions or all of the provisions of the instrument; or
- (b) whether or not the other powers are given under the same Act, another Act or any other Territory law.

‘Example—

If copies of a subordinate law are not available for purchase as required by subsection 6 (3) of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989, subsection 6 (4) of that Act requires a Minister to cause a statement to that effect, and the reason for their non-availability, to be laid before the Legislative Assembly. Subsection 27A (5) of this Act requires a similar statement to be presented to the Legislative Assembly if copies of an instrument mentioned in subsection 27A (1) are not available. Subsection 27F (1) allows a single statement to have effect for the Subordinate Laws Act 1989 and section 27A of this Act.

“(2) A statutory instrument, or a provision of a statutory instrument, is taken—

- (a) to be made under each power given by Territory law under which it could be made; and
- (b) to satisfy each requirement under Territory law that it could satisfy.

“(3) Subsection (2) applies to an instrument even though—

- (a) it is stated to be made under a particular Territory law (the authorising law) or a particular provision of the authorising law; and
- (b) it is stated to be made under a particular Territory law (the requiring law) or a particular provision of the requiring law.

“27G Relationship between authorising Act and instrument dealing with same matter

If an Act gives power to make an instrument about a matter, the instrument may make provision with respect to a particular aspect of the matter even though provision is made by the Act in relation to another aspect of the matter or in relation to another matter.

“27H Instrument may require the making of statutory declaration

“(1) If an Act gives power to make an instrument, the instrument may require the making of a statutory declaration.

“(2) Subsection (1) applies—

- (a) whether or not the Act authorises or requires penalties to be prescribed by instrument; and
- (b) if the Act authorises or requires penalties to be prescribed by instrument—irrespective of the level of penalties that may be prescribed.

Division 3.5—Appointments”.

Explanatory note

Division 3.4 is part of a rearrangement of the provisions in Part 3 to move them into groups according to subject matter.

Section 27B makes it clear that references to ‘matter’ in div 3.4 (sections 27B to 27I) include circumstances, places and people. It therefore affects the operation of the provisions in the division. In other words (relying, for example, on paragraph 27E (1) (a)), an instrument made for a purpose under an Act could be expressed to apply differently in different parts of the Territory.

Section 27C is a remake of existing subsection 26A (2) in simpler language. That subsection removed the need to include the words ‘in writing’ (or similar words) in legislation to ensure that something done under a power could be varied or revoked. Sections 27C and 27D operate to achieve this result.

Section 27D gives power to amend or repeal an instrument wherever power is given to make an instrument. The section also provides that, if the relevant Act has requirements for the making of an instrument (for example, there may be an obligation to consult with someone before making of the instrument), the requirements apply to an amendment or repeal of the instrument. Section 27D corresponds to former subsection 26A (1), which has been repealed by this Act.

Section 27E allows the exercise of statutory powers to be tailored to the particular needs of the situation. In particular, the section enables the same power to be exercised in different ways in relation to different matters (including circumstances, places and people). Subsection (2) indicates that a statutory power may be exercised in part. Subsection (3) amplifies the scope of the section by making it clear that a power can be exercised in relation to a single matter if necessary. Section 27E substantially re-enacts (using simpler English) former subsection 27 (2), which has been repealed by this Act.

Section 27F enables a single instrument to be used to exercise several powers rather than separate instruments if it would be more convenient to combine them into a single instrument. Under paragraph (1) (a), the exercise of several powers in a single instrument does not require the instrument to be structured so that each of the powers is ‘quarantined’ into a separate provision. The instrument can be set out in the way that best suits the exercise of the powers and is more helpful to the reader. Paragraph (1) (b) makes it clear that subsection 27F (1) applies whether the powers are given by the same Act, different Acts or a Territory law that is not an Act. Subsections 27F (2) and (3) complement subsection 27F (1) by providing that any available power can be used to support the validity of an instrument, whether or not the power is stated to be used. The subsections also indicate that a single instrument can be used to satisfy separate requirements to make instruments, and that an instrument is to be understood as satisfying every requirement that it can satisfy, whether or not it states that it is satisfying the requirement.

Section 27G is intended to avoid doubts about the possible validity of an instrument because of inconsistency with the authorising Act. Doubts may arise where the instrument and the Act that authorises the instrument each deal with the same matter. (This could arguably arise if, for example, an Act and instruments made under an Act deal with different parts of the same legislative scheme.) Normally an instrument under an Act cannot validly contradict a provision of the Act. Section 27G indicates that an instrument does not contradict the Act merely by dealing with a different aspect of the same matter. Section 27G substantially re-enacts (again, using simpler English) former subsection 27 (3), which has been repealed by this Act.

Section 27H makes it clear that an instrument may require a statutory declaration to be completed even though the penalty for a false declaration exceeds the maximum penalty that may be imposed by the instrument itself. Section 27H is a plain English re-enactment of former subsection 27 (4), which has been repealed by this Act.

Section 27I (formerly section 31 and relocated by another amendment) will also form part of Division 3.4.

The heading to Division 3.5 is intended to improve the arrangement of sections of the Act. The effect of inserting the heading is that sections 28 and 28A will constitute a Division about appointments.

[2.11] Section 29—

Relocate as section 13E in Division 3.1.

Explanatory note

This amendment relocates section 29 to improve the arrangement of sections of the Act.

[2.12] Heading to Division 3.6 of Part 3—

Before section 29A insert the following Division heading:

“Division 3.6—Delegations

Explanatory note

The heading to Division 3.7 is another provision intended to improve the arrangement of sections of the Act. The effect of inserting the heading is that sections 29A, 29B, 30, 30AA and 30AB will constitute a Division about delegations.

[2.13] Heading to Division 3.7—

Before section 30A insert the following Division heading:

“Division 3.7—Reports”.

Explanatory note

The heading to Division 3.7 is intended to improve the arrangement of sections of the Act. The effect of inserting the heading is that s 30A will constitute a Division about reports.

[2.14] Section 31—

Relocate as section 27I in Division 3.4.

Explanatory note

Section 31 has been relocated to improve the arrangement of sections of the Act.

[2.15] Section 31AA—

(a) Omit the section heading, substitute the following heading:

“Functions and powers etc of bodies”.

(b) Relocate after section 13BA as section 13BB.

Explanatory note

This amendment substitutes a more descriptive heading to the section and relocates it to improve the arrangement of sections of the Act.

[2.16] Division 4 of Part 3—

Re-number as Division 3.8.

Explanatory note

This amendment provides for a consequential renumbering of a division.

[2.17] Section 32—

Repeal the section, substitute the following section:

“32 Corporations liable to offences etc

“(1) A provision of an Act about offences punishable on indictment or summary conviction applies to corporations as well as to individuals.

“(2) A provision of an Act can apply to a corporation even though a contravention of the provision is punishable by imprisonment (with or without another penalty).

Example—

A provision of an Act contains the following penalty provision:

‘Maximum penalty: 2,000 penalty units, imprisonment for 1 year or both.’

The provision can apply to a corporation.

“(3) If a court convicts a corporation of an offence and, apart from this section, the penalty for the offence is a period of imprisonment only, the court may impose a maximum penalty of—

- (a) if the period of imprisonment is not longer than 6 months—50 penalty units; and
- (b) if the period of imprisonment is longer than 6 months but not longer than 1 year—100 penalty units; and
- (c) if the period of imprisonment is longer than 1 year but not longer than 2 years—200 penalty units; and
- (d) if the period of imprisonment is longer than 2 years but not longer than 5 years—500 penalty units; and
- (e) if the period of imprisonment is longer than 5 years—1,000 penalty units.

Note Section 33AA explains the meaning and value of penalty units.

“(4) A provision of an Act about a forfeiture or penalty payable to a party aggrieved applies to corporations as well as to individuals.”.

Explanatory note

Proposed subsections (1), (3) and (4) are a rewrite of existing section 32 in plainer English. The proposed subsections clarify the scope of the existing section. New subsection 32 (2) is intended to make it clear that an offence that is expressed to be punishable by imprisonment only can apply to corporations even though a corporation cannot be imprisoned. This is the existing law.

[2.18] Division 5 of Part 3—

Re-number as Division 3.9.

Explanatory note

This amendment provides for a consequential renumbering of a division.

[2.19] Division 6 of Part 3—

Re-number as Division 3.10.

Explanatory note

This amendment provides for a consequential renumbering of a division.

[2.20] Heading to section 37—

Omit the heading, substitute the following heading:

“37 Definitions for div 3.10”.

Explanatory note

This amendment provides for a consequential amendment of a section heading.

[2.21] Section 43—

After subsection (1) insert the following subsection:

“(2) An amending section or subsection is automatically repealed on the day after all of its provisions have commenced.”.

Explanatory note

Under subsection (2) a section or subsection that does no more than amend or repeal an Act or instrument will be automatically repealed when it has come into operation. The automatic repeal also extends to any related schedule or part of a schedule to which the section or subsection that lists Acts or instruments to be amended or repealed. See also the definitions of amending section or subsection and section (below).

[2.22] Subsection 43 (2)—

(a) After “subsection (1)” insert “or (2)”.

(b) Re-number as subsection 43 (3).

Explanatory note

This amendment is consequential on the previous amendment. It makes it clear that a repeal mentioned in new subsection (2) has the same effect as a repeal mentioned in existing subsection (2) (renumbered as subsection (3)). The amendment also provides for the consequential renumbering of the subsection.

[2.23] Subsection 43 (3)—

Renumber as subsection 43 (4).

Explanatory note

This amendment provides for the consequential renumbering of the subsection.

[2.24] Subsection 43 (4) (definition of amending Act)—

(a) Renumber paragraphs (f), (g), (h) and (i) as (g), (h), (i) and (j), respectively.

(b) After paragraph (e) insert the following paragraph:

“(f) a provision about the effect of notes;”.

Explanatory note

Amendment (a) anticipates amendment (b) by renumbering the paragraphs in the definition that follow the new paragraph.

Amendment (b) enables an Act that contains a provision about the effect of notes to be an ‘amending Act’ and therefore capable of automatic repeal under section 43 of the Interpretation Act 1967.

[2.25] Subsection 43 (4)—

(a) Insert the following definition:

amending section or subsection means a section or subsection that only amends or repeals an Act or instrument, and includes any other provision (for example, a schedule) that only identifies the Act or instrument amended or repealed by the section or subsection.

(b) Renumber as subsection 43 (5).

Explanatory note

Amendment (a) inserts definitions for new subsection 43 (2), which extends the scope of the section so that a section or subsection that amends or repeals legislation is also automatically repealed under section 43.

Amendment (b) provides for the consequential renumbering of the subsection.

[2.26] Dictionary (definition of calendar month, paragraph (a))—

Before “corresponding” insert “day before the”.

Explanatory note

This amendment is intended to ensure that the corresponding day of the next month is not counted for the definition of calendar month (see also the next amendment).

[2.27] Dictionary (definition of calendar month)—

Add the following examples:

“Examples—

1 The period beginning at the start of 5 July 2000 and ending at midnight on 4 August 2000 is a calendar month.

2 The period beginning at the start of 30 January 2001 and ending at midnight on 28 February 2001 is a calendar month. The calendar month ends on the last day of February because in that year February does not have a day corresponding to 29 January (because 2001 is not a leap year). If the period began at the start of 30 January 2004 (ie, a leap year), the calendar month would end at midnight on 29 February 2004.”

Explanatory note

This amendment inserts examples into the Act to explain the definition of calendar month.

[2.28] Dictionary (definition of disallowable instrument)—

Omit “under section 10 of”, substitute “for”

Explanatory note

This amendment updates the language of the definition consequentially on amendments of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989 made by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1999.

[2.29] Dictionary (definition of number, paragraph (b))—

Add at the end “of the alphabet”.

Explanatory note

This amendment makes a minor amendment to the definition of number to clarify that a ‘letter’ means a letter of the alphabet.

[2.30] Dictionary—

Insert the following definitions:

ACT means the Australian Capital Territory.

ambulance service means the ACT Ambulance Service under the Emergency Management Act 1999.

Australian driver licence means an Australian driver licence under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1999.

Note Australian driver licence is defined in the dictionary to that Act to mean a driver licence of any kind issued under the law of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory. It includes a driver licence issued under ACT law (see also definition of driver licence).

commissioner for housing means the Commissioner for Housing under the Housing Assistance Act 1987.

conservator of flora and fauna means the Conservator of Flora and Fauna under the Nature Conservation Act 1980.

daylight means the period in a day from sunrise to sunset.

dentist means a registered dentist under the Dentists Act 1931.

dental prosthetist means a registered dental prosthetist under the Dental Technicians and Dental Prosthetists Registration Act 1988.

dental technician means a registered dental technician under the Dental Technicians and Dental Prosthetists Registration Act 1988.

driver licence means a driver licence under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1999.

Note Driver licence is defined in the dictionary to that Act to mean a driver licence of any kind issued under that Act (see also definition of Australian driver licence).

gambling and racing commission means the Gambling and Racing Commission established under the Gambling and Racing Control Act 1999.

government solicitor means the Government Solicitor under the Government Solicitor Act 1989.

matter, for Division 3.4 (Instruments under Acts)—see section 27B.

night means the period between sunset on one day and sunrise on the next day.

pharmacist means a registered pharmacist under the Pharmacy Act 1931.

planning authority means the Australian Capital Territory Planning Authority under the Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991.

privacy commissioner means the Privacy Commissioner under the Privacy Act 1998 (Cwlth).

Territory plan means the Territory plan as in force from time to time under the Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991.

transitional includes saving.

veterinary surgeon means a registered veterinary surgeon under the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1965.

Explanatory note

The dictionary contains definitions of officials, things and concepts that are used from time to time in Territory laws. Once a term is defined in the dictionary it does not need to be defined again in Territory legislation. The definitions set out above represent a continuation of recent practice of adding to the list of terms defined in the Interpretation Act.

Legislation (Republication) Act 1996

[2.31] Paragraph 15 (1) (p)—

Renumber as paragraph 15 (1) (r).

Explanatory note

This amendment is a consequential renumbering of a paragraph.

[2.32] Subsection 15 (1)—

After paragraph (o) insert the following paragraphs:

“(p) inserts, omits or alters a note; or

“(q) updates a reference to the heading to a provision; or”.

Explanatory note

This amendment will enable notes in legislation, and references to provision headings, to be kept up-to-date using the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996. Notes in an Act are not part of the Act (see Interpretation Act 1967 s 12 (1), (4) and (5)) but are included to assist the reader by providing explanatory material about the Act. References to provision headings are included in legislation (usually in brackets) to assist the reader of legislation to gain an immediate understanding of the context of cross-references.

Subordinate Laws Act 1989

[2.33] Subsection 5 (3)—

Omit the subsection.

Explanatory note

Subsection 5 (3) is not needed after the enactment of sections 10B and 10C of the Interpretation Act 1967. Section 10B provides that the provisions of an Act providing for its commencement commence on the date of notification. Section 10C contains provisions dealing with the commencement of Acts by notice. The omission of subsection 5 (3) will enable a commencement notice for an Act to be published in the Gazette on the same day the enactment of the Act is notified in the Gazette.

SCHEDULE 3

(See s 4)

TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS

Administration and Probate Act 1929

[3.1] New section 128—

After section 127 insert the following section:

“128 Application of amendments made by Administration and Probate (Amendment) Act 1996

The following provisions as amended or inserted by the Administration and Probate (Amendment) Act 1996 (and any other consequential amendments made by the Schedule to that Act) apply only in relation to the distribution of the estates of people who die on or after 1 May 1996:

- (a) section 12;
- (b) section 22;
- (c) heading to Part 3A;
- (d) heading to Division 1 of Part 3A;
- (e) section 44;
- (f) heading to Division 2 of Part 3A;
- (g) section 45A;
- (h) section 49BA;
- (i) paragraphs 49D (3) (a) and (b);
- (j) heading to Division 3 of Part 3A;
- (k) headings to Parts 3B and 3C;
- (l) section 65;
- (m) section 69;
- (n) section 95;
- (o) Schedule 6.”.

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of section 4 of the Administration and Probate (Amendment) Act 1996. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

Children and Young People Act 1999

[3.2] Subsection 245 (2)—

After “Minister” insert “must”.

Explanatory note

This amendment corrects an omission.

Dangerous Goods Regulations 1978

[3.3] Subparagraph 59 (2) (b) (i)—

Omit the subparagraph, substitute the following subparagraph:

“(i) has been convicted in the Territory or elsewhere of an offence relating to firearms or explosives and sentenced to imprisonment for 1 year or longer and has been released from that imprisonment less than 5 years before the application; or”

Explanatory note

This amendment is consequential on section 14 of the Crimes Act 1974, which abolished penal servitude. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

Duties Act 1999

[3.4] New Chapter 13—

After section 253 insert the following Chapter:

“CHAPTER 13—TRANSITIONAL

“254 Application of Act to instruments

Except as provided by this Part, this Act applies in relation to an instrument first executed on or after 1 March 1999.

“255 Continued operation of Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 in relation to instruments

“(1) Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, that Act continues to apply in relation to—

- (a) a transfer, or an agreement for a transfer, of an estate in fee simple; and
- (b) a Crown lease (not being a lease referred to in paragraph (c)), or a transfer or an agreement for a transfer of a Crown lease; and

- (c) a Crown lease granted to the lessee of a previous Crown lease (whether or not of the same parcel of land) because of the surrender of the previous Crown lease; and
- (d) a lease of land (not being a Crown lease or a lease for residential purposes); and
- (e) a transfer or assignment, or an agreement for a transfer or assignment, of a lease of land (not being a Crown lease); that was first executed before 1 March 1999.

“(2) In its continued application under subsection (1), section 29 of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 has effect as if the reference in paragraph (1) (b) of that section to section 37A of the City Area Leases Act 1936 were a reference to section 178 of the Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991.

“256 Application of ch 2

“(1) Subject to section 257, the duty charged by Chapter 2 is charged on dutiable transactions that occur on or after 1 March 1999.

“(2) Dutiable transactions that occurred before 1 March 1999 are not to be aggregated under section 24.

“257 Transfers back from a nominee

“(1) Section 57 applies in relation to—

- (a) a transfer of dutiable property to a trustee; and
- (b) the payment of duty on that transfer;

before 1 March 1999 if the transfer back to the transferor occurs on or after that day.

“(2) In its application under subsection (1), section 57 has effect as if the reference in subsection (2) of that section to duty paid in relation to an initial transfer included a reference to stamp duty paid under the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 in relation to such a transfer.

“258 Credit for duty paid on the acquisition of a business

“(1) Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, subsections 64E (2) and (3) of that Act continue to apply in relation to an acquisition of a business in relation to which tax had been paid under section 64A of that Act.

“(2) In its continued application under subsection (1), subsection 64E (2) of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 has effect as if the reference in paragraph (a) of that subsection to stamp duty included a reference to duty chargeable under this Act.

“(3) In its continued application under subsection (1), subsection 64E (3) of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 has effect as if the reference in that subsection to stamp duty included a reference to other duties.

“259 Application of ch 3

The duty charged by Chapter 3 is charged on transactions that occur on or after 1 March 1999.

“260 How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions

“(1) The reference in section 90 to a period of 3 years is a reference to a period of 3 years ending on or after 1 March 1999.

“(2) However, acquisitions that occurred before 1 March 1999 are not to be aggregated under that section.

“261 Application of ch 4

“(1) Subject to subsection (2), the duty charged by Chapter 4 is charged on—

- (a) sales and purchases of marketable securities; and
- (b) associated transactions referred to in paragraph 118 (1) (d);

that take place on or after 1 March 1999.

“(2) Section 125 applies in relation to sales and purchases of marketable securities made before 1 March 1999 if the liability for duty under that section arises on or after that day.

“262 Continued application of Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 in relation to marketable securities

Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, that Act continues to apply in relation to—

- (a) a sale or purchase of marketable securities referred to in section 38 of that Act that occurred before 1 March 1999; and
- (b) a transfer of marketable securities referred to in section 44 of that Act that was made before 1 March 1999; and

- (c) a change in the beneficial ownership of a marketable security to which section 49F of that Act applied and that was made before 1 March 1999.

“263 Application of ch 5

“(1) Subject to subsection (2), the duty charged by Chapter 5 is charged on lease instruments that are first executed on or after 1 March 1999.

“(2) The duty charged by Chapter 5 is applicable to a lease instrument that was first executed before 1 March 1999 if a variation made to the lease on or after that day increases the cost of the lease.

“(3) Section 148 applies to a lease instrument in relation to which stamp duty was paid before 1 March 1999 if the lease is terminated on or after that day.

“(4) In its application under subsection (3), section 148 has effect as if the references to duty in subsections (1) and (4) of that section included references to stamp duty.

“(5) Section 149 applies to a lease instrument in relation to which stamp duty was paid before 1 March 1999 if the lease is varied on or after that day so as to reduce the total cost of the lease.

“(6) In its application under subsection (5), section 149 has effect as if the references to duty in subsections (1) and (3) of that section included references to stamp duty.

“264 Application of ch 6

The duty charged by Chapter 6 is charged—

- (a) in relation to the hire of goods by a person who is a commercial hire business—on the hiring charges received by the person on or after 1 March 1999; and
- (b) in relation to the hire of goods by a person who is not a commercial hire business—on a hire of goods that is entered into by the person on or after 1 March 1999.

“(1) Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, that Act continues to apply in relation to—

- (a) hiring charges received by a commercial hirer before 1 March 1999; and
- (b) a transaction entered into before 1 March 1999 that is—
 - (i) an equipment financing arrangement; or
 - (ii) a hiring (not being an equipment financing arrangement) where the amount of the charges for the hiring exceeds the duty-free threshold; being a transaction under which hiring charges are payable to a person who is not a commercial hirer.

“(2) In this section commercial hirer, duty-free threshold, equipment financing agreement and hiring charge have the same respective meanings as in Part VIB of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 immediately before that Act was repealed.

“266 Application of ch 8

“(1) The duty charged by Chapter 8 is charged on—

- (a) the amount of a premium paid on or after 1 March 1999 in relation to a contract that effects general insurance; and
- (b) the sum insured by a policy of life insurance, other than a temporary or term insurance policy, executed on or after 1 March 1999; and
- (c) the first year’s premium in relation to a policy of temporary or term insurance, or a life insurance rider, executed on or after 1 March 1999; and
- (d) a premium paid on or after 1 March 1999 in relation to a policy of disability income insurance, being insurance under which an amount is payable in the event of the disablement of the insured by accident or sickness.

“(2) For this section, a payment of a periodic premium in relation to disability income insurance that is continued, but not renewed, on the payment of the premium is taken to be paid in relation to a new policy of disability income insurance.

“267 Continued operation of pt IV of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987

Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, that Act continues to apply in relation to—

- (a) premiums received, whether in Australia or elsewhere, in relation to life insurance effected in relation to a person domiciled in the Territory when the insurance was effected, being life insurance provided by a life insurance policy executed before 1 March 1999; and
- (b) premiums received before 1 March 1999, whether in Australia or elsewhere, in relation to general insurance effected in relation to—
 - (i) property situated in the Territory when the insurance was effected; or
 - (ii) any act or omission occurring in the Territory; and
- (c) premiums received in the Territory before 1 March 1999 in relation to general insurance, other than the insurance referred to in paragraph (b), if—
 - (i) tax or stamp duty is not payable under a corresponding law in relation to the premium; or
 - (ii) tax or stamp duty payable under a corresponding law in relation to the premium has not been paid.

“268 Refunds where premiums are returned

“(1) Section 182 applies in relation to tax paid under Part IV of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 on premiums paid in relation to insurance that was general insurance within the meaning of that Act.

“(2) In its application under subsection (1), section 182 has effect as if—

- (a) a reference in that section to duty included a reference to tax paid under Part IV of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987; and
- (b) a reference in that section to dutiable premium included a reference to taxable premium; and
- (c) a reference in that section to a person to whom section 180 applies included a reference to a person to whom section 36A of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 applied.

“269 Refund on cancellation of policy of life insurance

“(1) Section 188 applies in relation to tax paid under Part IV of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 on premiums paid in relation to insurance that was life insurance within the meaning of that Act.

“(2) In its application under subsection (1), section 188 has effect as if a reference in that section to duty included a reference to tax paid under Part IV of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987.

“270 Application of ch 9

“(1) Subject to subsection (2), the duty charged by Chapter 9 is charged on—

- (a) an application to register a motor vehicle made on or after 1 March 1999; and
- (b) an application to register a motor vehicle made before 1 March 1999 in relation to which a certificate of registration is issued on or after that day.

“(2) Duty is not chargeable under Chapter 9 in relation to an application to register a motor vehicle if the vehicle is a used motor vehicle and—

- (a) duty has been paid in relation to the registration under section 56A of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987; or
- (b) a return has been lodged by a licensed vehicle dealer under section 56D of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 in relation to a sale of the vehicle to the applicant.

“271 Continued operation of certain provisions of pt IV of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987

“(1) Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, sections 56A, 56B and 56D of that Act continue to apply in relation to a sale of a used vehicle made by a licensed vehicle dealer before 1 March 1999.

“(2) Despite the repeal of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987, section 56F of that Act continues to apply in relation to tax paid under Part IV of that Act on a sale of a used vehicle by a licensed vehicle dealer.

“272 Certificates of exemption

“(1) A certificate in effect under section 62 of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 immediately before 1 March 1999 is, on and after that day, to be taken to have been issued under section 222.

“(2) A certificate to which subsection (1) applies that was issued for a reason referred to in paragraph 62 (1) (a) of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 is, on and after 1 March 1999, to be taken to have been issued for the corresponding reason referred to in paragraph 222 (1) (a).

“273 Duty and tax paid under the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987

If an assessment or reassessment of duty is required to take into consideration another amount of duty paid, a reference in this Act to duty includes a reference to stamp duty, tax and duty within the meaning of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 that had been paid in accordance with the provisions of that Act.

“274 Stamping under the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987

An instrument is duly stamped for this Act if, immediately before 1 March 1999, it was duly stamped for the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987.

“275 Determined duties and taxes

“(1) Despite the repeal of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987, a determination under that Act in relation to stamp duty, duty or tax payable under a continuing provision, being a determination in force immediately before 1 March 1999, continues in force on and after that day for that provision.

“(2) In subsection (1)—

continuing provision means a provision of the Stamp Duties and Taxes Act 1987 that continues to apply on and after 1 March 1999 under this Part.

“276 Expiry of Part

“(2) This Part is declared to be a law to which the Interpretation Act 1967, section 42 applies.

“Note Sections 8, 18, 21, 30 and 31 of the Duties (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 1999 have not been re-enacted in this Part. The effect of those provisions was saved under the Interpretation Act 1967, section 42 by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2000 (see sch 6).”.

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of relevant provisions of the Duties (Consequential and Transitional) Provisions Act 1999. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5. The Act is also included in Schedule 6.

Gambling Legislation Amendment Act 1999

[3.5] Schedule 3—

Omit “Subparagraph 45 (1) (d) (i)”, substitute “Subparagraph 51 (1) (d) (i)” (commencement: 30 November 1999).

Explanatory note

This amendment corrects a cross-reference.

Gaming and Racing Control (Consequential Provisions) Act 1999

[3.6] Schedule (Further amendments of the Gaming Machine Act 1987)—

Omit “and 60B (1) and (2), sections 60D and 60E, subsection 60G (2), section 60K”.

Explanatory note

This amendment omits a reference to provisions that were to be inserted in the Gaming Machine Act 1987 by another Bill that had not passed when the Gaming and Racing Control (Consequential Provisions) Act 1999 was passed.

Juries Act 1967

[3.7] Paragraph 10 (a)—

Omit “penal servitude or”.

Explanatory note

This amendment is consequential on section 14 of the Crimes Act 1974, which abolished penal servitude. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

Land (Planning and Environment) Act 1991

[3.8] Section 187A (as inserted by Act 1999 No 73)—

Re-number as section 187AA.

Explanatory note

This amendment corrects an unintended duplication of section numbers.

[3.9] New Part 8—

After section 288 insert the following Part:

“PART 8—TRANSITIONAL

“289 Status of leases and licences

“(1) Subject to section 290, a lease or licence granted or continued, or purported to have been granted or continued, under a repealed Act and in force immediately before 2 April 1992 is taken, on and after that day, to have been granted under this Act.

“(2) In this section—

repealed Act means any of the following Acts:

- Leases Act 1918 No 2
- Leases (Special Purposes) Act 1925 No 11
- City Area Leases Act 1936 No 31.

“290 Continued application of certain repealed Acts and provisions

“(1) Despite the repeal of the Australian National University (Leases) Act 1967, that Act continues to apply in relation to a lease granted under, or continued in force by, that Act and in force immediately before 2 April 1992.

“(2) Despite the repeal of the Canberra College of Advanced Education (Leases) Act 1977 and subject to subsection (3), that Act continues to apply in relation to a lease granted under that Act and in force immediately before 2 April 1992.

“(3) For subsection (2), section 5 of the Canberra College of Advanced Education (Leases) Act 1977 is taken to apply as if that section had been amended by omitting ‘in perpetuity’.

“(4) Despite the repeal of the Church Lands Leases Act 1924, sections 5, 6, 8 and 10 of that Act continue to apply in relation to a lease granted under that Act and in force immediately before 2 April 1992.

“(5) In a continuing lease, a reference to improvements is to be read as a reference to improvements other than improvements by way of clearing, draining, grading, filling, excavating or levelling made by the Territory or the Commonwealth or the cost of which the Territory or the Commonwealth has paid.

“(6) Despite the repeal of the City Area Leases Act 1936, the following sections of that Act continue to apply:

- (a) in so far as the section relates to a continuing lease in which provision is made for the land comprised in the lease to be used for a purpose specified in subsection 8A (1) of that Act—section 8A;
- (b) in so far as the section relates to a variation of a continuing lease in respect of which notice under section 18A of that Act was given before the commencement day—section 18B;
- (c) in so far as the section relates to a continuing lease in respect of which notice under the section was given before the commencement day—section 22;
- (d) in so far as the section relates to a continuing lease specified in subsection 28A (1) of that Act—section 28A;
- (e) in so far as the section relates to a continuing lease specified in subsection 28DA (1) of that Act—section 28DA;
- (f) in so far as the section relates to a sub-lease specified in subsection 30A (2) of that Act and in force immediately before 2 April 1992—section 30A.

“(7) Despite the repeal of the Leases (Special Purposes) Act 1925, sections 5AC, 5AD, 5A and 5B of that Act continue to apply in relation to a lease of Territory Land—

- (a) granted under subsection 3 (2) of that Act as in force immediately before 11 May 1989; and
- (b) in force immediately before 2 April 1992.

“(8) Despite the repeal of the Leases (Special Purposes) Act 1925, subsection 5BA (6) of that Act continues to apply in relation to a lease granted under that Act and in force immediately before 2 April 1992.

“(9) In this section—

continuing lease means a lease granted or continued, or purported to have been granted or continued, under the City Area Leases Act 1936 and to which section 289 of this Act applies.”.

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of the relevant provisions of Part IV of the Land (Planning and Environment) (Consequential Provisions) Act 1991. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

Land Titles Act 1925

[3.10] New Part 20—

After section 179 insert the following Part:

“PART 20—TRANSITIONAL

“180 Savings of titles with words ‘no survivorship’ endorsed

Despite the repeal of sections 126 and 127 of this Act made by the Land Titles (Amendment) Act 1995, subsection 126 (2) (so far as it requires the sanction of the court or the judge for any dealings) and section 127 continue to apply to a registered title that on 19 June 1996 had the words “no survivorship” endorsed on it.”.

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of section 68 of the Land Titles (Amendment) Act 1995. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

Liquor Act 1975

[3.11] Section 4—

Omit “, unless the contrary intention appears”, substitute “the following definitions apply:”.

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Interpretation Act 1967 s 11G).”.

Explanatory note

The omitted words are no longer required because of s 11G of the Interpretation Act 1967 (see also the definition of definition in the dictionary to that Act).

SCHEDULE 3—continued

[3.12] Section 4 (definition of fire commissioner)—

Omit the definition.

Explanatory note

This amendment omits a definition which is no longer required because the same term is defined in the dictionary to the Interpretation Act 1967.

[3.13] Subsection 175 (3)—

Omit the subsection.

Explanatory note

This amendment omits a subsection which is no longer necessary. The section no longer contains any reference to the registrar of motor vehicles whose functions have been taken over by the road transport authority (see also the definition of road transport authority in the dictionary to the Interpretation Act 1967).

[3.14] Section 176—

Omit “the Commissioner for Australian Capital Territory Revenue”, substitute “commissioner for revenue”.

Explanatory note

The omitted words are no longer required because of the definition of commissioner for revenue in the dictionary to the Interpretation Act 1967.

Listening Devices Act 1992

[3.15] Section 2 (definition of defined offence, paragraph (a))—

Omit “penal servitude for life”, substitute “life imprisonment”.

Explanatory note

This amendment is consequential on section 14 of the Crimes Act 1974, which abolished penal servitude. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

Occupational Health and Safety Act 1989

[3.16] Subsections 25G (4) and (5)—

Omit “authority”, substitute “commissioner” (commencement: immediately after the commencement of section 10 of the Occupational Health and Safety (Amendment) Act (No 2) 1999).

Explanatory note

This amendment corrects a minor error in the Occupational Health and Safety (Amendment) Act (No 2) 1999.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

[3.17] Subsection 96C (1)—

Omit “authority”, substitute “commissioner” (commencement: immediately after the commencement of section 13 of the Occupational Health and Safety (Amendment) Act (No 2) 1999).

Explanatory note

This amendment corrects a minor error in the Occupational Health and Safety (Amendment) Act (No 2) 1999.

Powers of Attorney Act 1956

[3.18] New sections 19 and 20—

After section 18 the following sections are inserted:

“19 Instruments not invalid on account of form

This Act does not affect the validity and effectiveness of an instrument purporting to create a power of attorney merely because the instrument is not in or to the effect of a form in the Schedule.

“20 Status of certain instruments in effect before 28 May 1992

“(1) In this section—

instrument means an instrument purporting to create a power of attorney having effect immediately before 28 May 1992.

“(2) An instrument is taken to be as valid and effective as if—

- (a) the amendments of sections 2, 12, 13, 15, 17 and the Schedule made by the Powers of Attorney (Amendment) Act 1992; and
- (b) sections 3AA, 3AB, 3AC, 3AD and 13A of this Act;

had been in operation when the instrument was executed.

“(3) Without limiting subsection (2), an instrument in or to the effect of the form in the Schedule as in force immediately before 28 May 1992, has effect on and after that date as if the instrument was in or to the effect of form 2 in the Schedule.

Explanatory note

Section 19 avoids doubt about the validity of powers of attorney that are not expressed in the same terms as a form in the Schedule to the Act. The section continues the effect of subsection 11 (3) of the Powers of Attorney (Amendment) Act 1992. That Act is repealed by Schedule 5.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

Section 20 applies to powers of attorney that were in operation immediately before 28 May 1992 when the Powers of Attorney (Amendment) Act 1992 came into operation. Subsection (2) provides that the validity of a power of attorney is to be assessed as if the amendments effected by the Powers of Attorney (Amendment) Act 1992 had been in operation when the instrument was executed. Subsection (3) makes it clear that a power of attorney made in accordance with the form in the Schedule to the Powers of Attorney Act 1956 as in force immediately before 28 May 1992 has the same effect as if it had been made in accordance with form 2 in the Schedule to that Act as in force on and after that date. The section continues the effect of subsections 11 (1) and (2) of the Powers of Attorney (Amendment) Act 1992. That Act is repealed by Schedule 5.

Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1993

[3.19] Subsection 3 (1) (definition of ACT sentence of imprisonment, paragraph (a))—

Omit the paragraph.

Explanatory note

This amendment is consequential on section 14 of the Crimes Act 1974, which abolished penal servitude. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

Public Health (Consequential Amendments) Act 1999

[3.20] Schedule 1—

Omit the amendments of the Motor Traffic Act 1936.

Explanatory note

See explanatory note after next amendment.

[3.21] Schedule 2—

Omit the amendments of the following regulations:

- Motor Omnibus Regulations
- Taxi and Private Hire Car Regulations.

Explanatory note

The amendments omitted from the Public Health (Consequential Amendments) Act 1999 are redundant following the repeal of the Motor Traffic Act 1936 and the Taxi and Private Hire Car Regulations by the Road Transport Legislation Amendment Act 1999, and the lapse of the Motor Omnibus Regulations because of the repeal of the Motor Traffic Act 1936.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

Public Health (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1997

[3.22] Schedule 3—

Omit the amendments of the Motor Traffic Act 1936.

Explanatory note

See explanatory note after next amendment.

[3.23] Schedule 4—

Omit the amendments of the following regulations:

- Motor Omnibus Regulations
- Public Health (Barbers' Shops) Regulations
- Public Health (Boarding-houses) Regulations
- Public Health (Dairy) Regulations
- Public Health (Infectious and Notifiable Diseases) Regulations
- Public Health (Laundries, Dry Cleaning Establishments and Dye Works) Regulations
- Public Health (Meat) Regulations
- Public Health (Private Hospitals) Regulations
- Public Health (Sale of Food and Drugs) Regulations
- Taxi and Private Hire Car Regulations.

Explanatory notes

1 The amendments of the Motor Traffic Act 1936, the Motor Omnibus Regulations and the Taxi and Private Hire Car Regulations are redundant following the repeal of the Motor Traffic Act 1936 and the Taxi and Private Hire Car Regulations by the Road Transport Legislation Amendment Act 1999, and the lapse of the Motor Omnibus Regulations because of the repeal of the Motor Traffic Act 1936.

2 The amendments of the various public health regulations are redundant following the repeal of all of these regulations by the Public Health Regulations 2000.

Taxation Administration Act 1999

[3.24] New Part 12—

After section 140 insert the following Part:

“PART 12—TRANSITIONAL

“141 Investigations and legal proceedings

Despite section 41 of the Interpretation Act 1967—

- (a) an investigation in respect of a right, privilege, obligation or liability under the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 must be instituted or continued after 1 March 1999 in accordance with this Act; and
- (b) any document or other thing duly obtained or retained by the Commissioner under section 12 of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 must be dealt with under sections 85 and 86 of this Act; and
- (c) a legal proceeding in respect of a right, privilege, obligation or liability under the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 that is commenced after 1 March 1999 must be conducted in accordance with Division 5 of Part 11 of this Act.

“142 Interest and penalty tax

Despite section 41 of the Interpretation Act 1967, if a tax default occurred before 1 March 1999 and continues in whole or in part after that date, the taxpayer is liable for interest or penalty tax in relation to the period beginning on that date in accordance with this Act.

“143 Assessments and payments

Despite section 41 of the Interpretation Act 1967, if a tax liability arose before 1 March 1999, that liability must be dealt with under this Act, in relation to any action taken or obligation arising after that date in relation to the liability, as if—

- (a) an assessment duly made under sections 15 and 20 of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly made under sections 5 and 11 of this Act; and

- (b) an amended assessment duly made under section 22 of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 were a reassessment duly made under section 9 of this Act; and
- (c) a compromise assessment duly made under section 22A of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly made under section 12 of this Act; and
- (d) any notice duly given under the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 of, or of the withdrawal of, an assessment referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) had been duly given under this Act; and
- (e) a notice duly given to an agent of a nonresident under subsection 44 (1) of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly given under subsection 55 (2) of this Act; and
- (f) a notice duly given to a debtor of a taxpayer under subsection 43 (1) of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly given under subsection 54 (2) of this Act; and
- (g) an objection duly lodged under Part XII of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly lodged under Part 10 of this Act; and
- (h) a decision on an objection duly made under subsection 89 (3) of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 were a determination duly made under section 104 of this Act; and
- (i) a notice duly given under subsection 89 (3) of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly given under section 105 of this Act; and
- (j) an application duly made to the tribunal under section 91 of the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987 had been duly made under section 107 of this Act.

144 Expiry of pt 12

“(2) Sections 141 to 143 are declared to be laws to which the Interpretation Act 1967, section 42 applies.

Note Sections 142-144 continue the effect of sections 12-14 of the Taxation Administration (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 1999. The Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2000 inserted sections 142-144 and repealed the remaining provisions of the Taxation Administration (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 1999. Those remaining provisions dealt with the preservation of decisions and appointments under the Taxation (Administration) Act 1987, and made consequential amendments. The effect of the relevant remaining provisions was saved under the Interpretation Act 1967, section 42 by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2000 (see sch 6).”.

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of relevant provisions of the Taxation Administration (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 1999. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5. The Act is also included in Schedule 6.

Territory Owned Corporations Act 1990

[3.25] Schedule 4 (clause 4)—

Omit “(4)”, substitute “(5)”.

Explanatory note

This amendment relates to a modification of section 16 of the Act in relation to ACTEW Corporation Limited. In 1995 when Schedule 4 was added, section 16 consisted of 3 subsections and the modification took the form of an additional subsection. In 1998 a new subsection (4) was added to section 16 giving rise to an apparent duplication. The amendment renumbers the 1995 modification so that it is consistent with section 16 as amended in 1998.

Trespass on Territory Land Act 1932

[3.26] Section 3 (definition of the Motor Traffic Act)—

Omit the definition.

Explanatory note

This amendment removes a definition that is no longer required.

[3.27] Section 3—

Omit “vehicle has the same meaning as in the Motor Traffic Act.”.

Explanatory note

This amendment removes a definition that is no longer required.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

Trustee Companies Act 1947

[3.28] New section 36—

After section 35 the following section is inserted:

“36 Transitional

The fees mentioned in sections 18 and 18A are payable only in relation to estates committed to the administration or management of a trustee company on or after 1 December 1992.”

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of section 8 of the Trustee Companies (Amendment) Act 1992. That Act is repealed by Schedule 5.

Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) Act 1983

[3.29] Section 2 (definition of damages, paragraph (a))—

Omit “and”, substitute “but”.

Explanatory note

This amendment improves the syntax.

[3.30] Section 2 (definition of guardian)—

Omit “Director of Family Services”, substitute “chief executive responsible for administering Chapter 2 (General objects, principles and parental responsibility) of the Children and Young People Act 1999”.

Explanatory note

This amendment brings the description of an official up-to-date.

[3.31] Subsection 5 (2)—

Omit “, unless the contrary intention appears”.

Explanatory note

The omitted words are no longer required because of s 11G of the Interpretation Act 1967 (see also the definition of definition in the dictionary to that Act).

[3.32] Subsection 10 (5) (definition of ambulance officer, paragraph (a))—

Omit “ACT Ambulance Service”, substitute “ambulance service”.

Explanatory note

This amendment simplifies the description of the service. The ambulance service is to be defined in the dictionary to the Interpretation Act 1967.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

[3.33] Subsection 10 (5) (definition of firefighter, paragraph (a))—

Omit “Australian Capital Territory Fire Brigade”, substitute “fire brigade”.

Explanatory note

This amendment simplifies the description of the service. The fire brigade is defined in the dictionary to the Interpretation Act 1967.

[3.34] Paragraph 63 (1) (d)—

Omit the paragraph.

Explanatory note

This amendment omits a reference to the Registrar of Motor Vehicles. The road transport legislation that commenced on 1 March 2000 is administered by the Australian Capital Territory Road Transport Authority which is constituted by the Chief Executive of the Department of Urban Services (see the Road Transport (General) Act 1999, s 16 (2)). One consequence of this is that paragraph 63 (1) (c) of this Act applies to the authority and paragraph 63 (1) (d) is now redundant.

[3.35] Subsection 63 (2)—

Omit the subsection.

Explanatory note

This amendment has the effect of removing a definition of chief police officer that is not necessary because it is defined in the dictionary to the Interpretation Act 1967.

[3.36] Subsection 66 (3) (definition of infringement notice, paragraph (d))—

Omit “, the Motor Traffic Act 1936”.

Explanatory note

This amendment omits a reference to an Act that has been repealed.

[3.37] Paragraph 71 (1) (b)—

Omit “of compensation”.

Explanatory note

This amendment gives effect to an amendment that was intended to be made by the Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) (Amendment) Act 1999 but may not have had effect because the words to be omitted were misdescribed.

SCHEDULE 3—continued

[3.38] Section 73—

Repeal the section, substitute the following section:

“73 Regulation-making power

The Executive may make regulations for this Act.”.

Explanatory note

This amendment substitutes the current form of regulation making power. Because of section 2A of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989, the substituted section has the same effect as the former section but is more concise.

Wills Act 1968

[3.39] New Part 5—

After section 34 insert the following Part:

“PART 5—TRANSITIONAL

“35 Application of amendments and provisions

“(1) The provisions set out in column 2 of the table to this section as amended or inserted by the Wills (Amendment) Act 1989 (the 1989 amendment) apply only in relation to wills made or republished after 24 March 1989.

“(2) The provisions set out in column 3 of the table to this section as amended or inserted by the Wills (Amendment) Act 1991 (the 1991 amendment) apply only in relation to wills taking effect after 7 November 1991.

15		section 31C

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of section 4 of the Wills (Amendment) Act 1989 and section 17 of the Wills (Amendment) Act 1991. In each case, the date mentioned in relation to an amendment or a provision is the date when the amendment or provision commenced. ‘Republication’ refers to the re-execution of a will that has been revoked. The amending Acts are repealed in Schedule 5.

Workers’ Compensation Act 1951

[3.40] New Part 8—

After section 28 insert the following Part:

“PART 8—TRANSITIONAL

“29 Injuries received before 13 January 1998

If the death or incapacity of a worker, or a loss or condition suffered by the worker, results from an injury received, or deemed to have been received by virtue of section 9, before 13 January 1998, this Act as in force immediately before 13 January 1998 continues to apply in relation to the injury.”.

Explanatory note

This amendment continues the effect of section 9 of the Workers’ Compensation (Amendment) Act 1997. That Act is repealed in Schedule 5.

SCHEDULE 4

(See s 5 (1))

REPEAL OF AMENDING ACTS WITHOUT SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

Explanatory note for sch 4

The Acts repealed by this Schedule are amending Acts enacted on or before 1 January 2000 that do not include substantive provisions, that is, they do no more than amend or repeal other laws. The Schedule includes Acts enacted with substantive provisions that were subsequently omitted.

The purpose of the Acts in this Schedule ended when the last of the amending or repealing provisions commenced (or their substantive provisions were omitted). The effect of repealed amending Acts is preserved by the Interpretation Act 1967, section 39.

The repeal of the pre-1 January 2000 Acts by this Schedule complements a provision included in the Interpretation Act 1967 last year that provides for the automatic repeal of amending Acts enacted after 1 January 2000 when all their provisions have commenced (see s 43).

When the repeal of the remaining pre-1 January 2000 amending Acts is completed, it will be easier for users of ACT legislation to be certain that they have found all legislation on a particular topic. At the present time, some substantive provisions are located in pre-1 January 2000 amending Acts and are not included in republications of ACT laws.

Amending Acts with substantive provisions are repealed in Schedule 5.

SCHEDULE 5

(See s 5 (1))

REPEAL OF AMENDING ACTS WITH SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS THAT ARE NO LONGER NEEDED OR ARE BEING RELOCATED

Explanatory note for sch 5

The Acts repealed by this Schedule are amending Acts enacted on or before 1 January 2000 that contain substantive provisions (that is, non-amending or repealing provisions). The substantive provisions are usually of a transitional nature. The substantive provisions are given in brackets at the end of each Act reference (eg '(s 4)').

Substantive provisions are no longer included in amending Acts. Amending Acts enacted after 1 January 2000 are automatically repealed under the Interpretation Act 1967, section 43 when they have been completely commenced.

Subsection 43 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1967 saves the effect of transitional and validating provisions that are repealed. The effect of repealed amending Acts is preserved by the Interpretation Act 1967, section 39.

The substantive provisions contained in Acts repealed by this Schedule are generally exhausted. However, any ongoing legal operation of the provisions is saved by the Interpretation Act 1967, subsection 43 (1).

Nevertheless, if the provisions appear to have (or potentially have) ongoing practical operation, they have been relocated to the relevant Principal Act by amendments in Schedule 3. This will assist readers of legislation to find them easily. In other cases, if there is any doubt about the ongoing operation of the provisions, the effect of the provisions has been saved by the application of the Interpretation Act 1967, subsection 42 (2) (see subsection 5 (2) of this Act and Schedule 6). The application of the subsection is explained in Schedule 6.

The repeal of the Acts in this Schedule will not, therefore, affect any residual legal operation that they may have.

DECLARED LAWS WHOSE REPEAL DOES NOT END THEIR EFFECT

Explanatory note for sch 6

Subsection 42 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1967 enables a declaration to be made about an Act (or a provision of an Act) that has the effect of preserving its legal effect despite its repeal (see also s 37, definition of Act).

A declaration may be made under subsection 42 (2) about an Act whether or not the Act (or provision) contains a transitional, validating or related provision the legal effect of which would, in any event, be automatically preserved under subsection 42 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1967 (see s 42 (3)). Section 42 is additional to, and does not limit, other provisions of Division 6 of Part 3 of the Interpretation Act 1967 eg section 41 (see s 42 (5)).

Subclause 5 (2) of this Act contains a declaration under subsection 42 (2) and this Schedule lists the provisions to which the declaration applies. The Acts containing the provisions are repealed by Schedule 5.

The declaration under subsection 42 (2) is made ‘out of an abundance of caution’. For most (if not all) of the provisions mentioned in this Schedule, their effect is automatically saved by subsection 42 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1967 (or another provision of that Act). However, the making of the declaration removes any doubt about the matter. (Doubts could, for example, otherwise be raised about whether the relevant provision was of a kind to which subsection 42 (1) applies or that a contrary intention displacing the subsection was to be found in the repealed Act or elsewhere.)

The making of the declaration enables the Acts mentioned in this Schedule to be repealed (in Schedule 5) with confidence that any residual effect of their substantive provisions is not altered by the repeal.
