About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Court Procedures Act 2004 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 19 June 2025. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 19 June 2025.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $160 for an individual and $810 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Court Procedures Act 2004

An Act to provide for certain matters relating to courts and tribunals, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Court Procedures Act 2004.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition 'fee, for part 3 (Court and tribunal fees)—see section 12.' means that the term 'fee' is defined in that section for part 3.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Objects of Act

- (1) The objects of this Act include—
- (a) recognising the importance of court procedures in our system of justice; and
 - (b) facilitating cooperation between ACT courts in the common goals of—
 - (i) improved access to justice through the development of procedures that are, as far as practicable, the same for all ACT courts; and

(ii) better court procedures.

(2) In this section:

court includes a tribunal that is a prescribed tribunal under section 6.

5A Main purpose of civil procedure provisions

(1) The main purpose of the civil procedure provisions is to facilitate the just resolution of disputes—

- (a) according to law; and
- (b) as quickly, inexpensively and efficiently as possible.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the main purpose includes the following objectives:

- (a) the just resolution of the real issues in civil proceedings;
- (b) the efficient use of the judicial and administrative resources available for the purposes of the court;
- (c) the efficient disposal of a court's overall caseload;
- (d) the timely disposal of civil proceedings;
- (e) the resolution of disputes at a cost that is proportionate to the importance and complexity of the matters in dispute.

(3) The civil procedure provisions must be interpreted and applied, and any power or duty imposed by them (including the power to make rules) must be exercised or carried out, in the way that best promotes the main purpose.

(4) The parties to a civil proceeding must help the court to achieve the objectives.

(5) In this section:

civil procedure provisions means—

- (a) the rules made under section 7, in their application to civil proceedings; and
- (b) any provision of this Act in relation to the practice and procedure of a court in civil proceedings.

court includes a tribunal that is a prescribed tribunal under section 6.

- (3) This section does not limit any inherent or other power of a court, judge, magistrate or prescribed tribunal to control proceedings.

8 Approved forms

- (1) The rule-making committee may approve forms—
 - (a) for this Act; or
 - (b) for use in or in relation to ACT courts, prescribed tribunals and their registries.

76E Address and contact details of people generally must not be disclosed under div 8.2A

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the prosecutor is required under this division to do any of the following (a disclosure obligation):
 - (i) give an accused person a copy of, or a notice about the right to inspect, information, a document or another thing;
 - (ii) allow the accused person or their lawyer to inspect the information, document or other thing; and
 - (b) complying with the disclosure obligation would—
 - (i) disclose an address or contact details of a witness proposed to be called by the prosecutor or any other living person; or

- (ii) allow the address or contact details to be worked out; and
 - (c) the address or contact details are not relevant to the prosecution case or the defence case.
- (2) The prosecutor must comply with the disclosure obligation to the extent possible without—
 - (a) disclosing the address or contact details; or
 - (b) allowing the address or contact details to be worked out.

Examples

- 1 The prosecutor redacts a person's address or contact details from a copy of a document given to the accused person.
 - 2 The prosecutor, when allowing the accused person to inspect something with a person's address or contact details on it, temporarily conceals the address or contact details so it cannot be read by the accused person.
 - 3 The prosecutor does not give the accused person a copy of a document that consists solely of the address or contact details of a person, and notifies the accused person why the document was not disclosed.
- (3) The court may make an order requiring the prosecutor to comply with subsection (2) in a particular way or subject to particular conditions.
 - (4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the court is satisfied that—
 - (a) it is in the interests of justice (including the right of the accused person to prepare for the hearing of the evidence for the prosecution) that the person's address or contact details be disclosed; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) disclosure of the address or contact details is not likely to create a reasonably foreseeable risk to the welfare or safety of the person or any other person; or
 - (ii) if there is a risk mentioned in subparagraph (i)—the interests of justice outweigh the risk.

- (5) This section does not apply to the disclosure of a person's address or contact details in general terms that does not—
- (a) disclose the person whose address or contact details it is; or
 - (b) allow the person whose address or contact details it is to be worked out.

76F Material used to give evidentiary certificate need not be disclosed under div 8.2A

- (1) This division does not require a prosecutor to give an accused person a copy of, or a notice about the right to inspect, any information, document or other thing that was prepared or used only in the course of giving an evidentiary certificate.
- (2) In this section:
- evidentiary certificate* means a certificate that, under a territory law, is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

76G Sanctions for non-compliance with disclosure requirements

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the prosecutor in a criminal proceeding seeks to adduce evidence in the proceeding; and
 - (b) the prosecutor failed to disclose the evidence to an accused person in accordance with this division.
- (2) The court may refuse to admit the evidence.
- (3) The court may grant an adjournment to a party to the proceeding (other than the prosecutor) if admission of the evidence would prejudice the case of the party.

76H Effect of div 8.2A on other laws

- (1) This division does not limit another territory law that requires the prosecution in a criminal proceeding to disclose something to an accused person.

Note Territory law includes the common law (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1, def territory law and law, of the Territory).

- (2) This division does not require the disclosure by the prosecutor of anything that is the subject of—
- (a) a claim of privilege or public interest immunity; or
 - (b) an immunity conferred by a law applying in the ACT or elsewhere; or
 - (c) a prohibition or restriction under a law applying in the ACT or elsewhere on the disclosure of the thing to the accused person (a non-disclosure obligation).
- (3) However, if the prosecutor does not disclose something mentioned in subsection (2), they must instead give the accused person a statement that—
- (a) describes the thing to the extent possible without—
 - (i) prejudicing a claim or intended claim of privilege or immunity or an application in relation to a non-disclosure obligation; or
 - (ii) contravening a non-disclosure obligation; and
 - (b) outlines the nature of the claim or intended claim of privilege or immunity or the non-disclosure obligation that applies to the thing.
- (4) A statement under subsection (3) must be given to the accused person—
- (a) if the thing was not disclosed under section 76B—at the same time as disclosure is required under section 76B (3); or

- (b) if the thing was not disclosed under section 76C—as soon as possible after the thing comes into the prosecutor’s possession or control, or to their notice.

6 Expired transitional or validating provisions

This Act may be affected by transitional or validating provisions that have expired. The expiry does not affect any continuing operation of the provisions (see Legislation Act 2001, s 88 (1)).

Expired provisions are removed from the republished law when the expiry takes effect and are listed in the amendment history using the abbreviation ‘exp’ followed by the date of the expiry.

To find the expired provisions see the version of this Act before the expiry took effect. The ACT legislation register has point-in-time versions of this Act.
