Justice and Community Safety Legislation Amendment Act 2010 (No 4)

A2010-50

An Act to amend legislation about justice and community safety

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Justice and Community Safety Legislation Amendment Act 2010 (No 4).

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act (other than schedule 1, part 1.9 and part 1.10) commences on the 7th day after its notification day.

Note The naming and commencement provisions automatically commence on the notification day (see Legislation Act, s 75 (1)).

- (2) Schedule 1, part 1.9 and part 1.10 commence on a day fixed by the Minister by written notice.

Note 1 A single day or time may be fixed, or different days or times may be fixed, for the commencement of different provisions (see Legislation Act, s 77 (1)).

Note 2 If a provision has not commenced within 6 months beginning on the notification day, it automatically commences on the first day after that period (see Legislation Act, s 79).

3 Legislation amended—sch 1

This Act amends the legislation mentioned in schedule 1.

[1.9] New section 79 (3)

insert

- (3) The commission may, but need not, reopen a complaint if the commission considers that it would be reasonable to do—
- (a) because of new information received about the complaint; or
 - (b) because of exceptional circumstances.

Example—exceptional circumstances

It appears to the commission that the original investigation was defective in some way.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

Part 1.4 Land Titles Act 1925

[1.10] New section 50 (3A)

insert

- (3A) However, if a memorial is in relation to the surrender of a lease by an owners corporation under the Unit Titles Act 2001, section 49A, the registrar-general may dispense with the production of the duplicate certificate of title if the owners corporation makes a statutory declaration that—
- (a) the certificate of title cannot be produced and why it cannot be produced; and
 - (b) the requirements for the surrender of the lease under the following have been met:
 - (i) the Unit Titles Act 2001, section 49A;
 - (ii) section 86.

[1.11] New section 86 (3A)

insert

- (3A) If an owners corporation surrenders the lease on behalf of a lessee under the Unit Titles Act 2001, section 49A, the endorsement or memorandum of surrender must be—
- (a) signed by the owners corporation; and
 - (b) accompanied by evidence of the resolution under the Unit Titles Act 2001, section 109 authorising the surrender.

Part 1.5 Legal Profession Act 2006

[1.12] Section 47 (3)

substitute

- (3) However, the licensing body—
- (a) must not impose a condition on a barrister practising certificate unless the bar council has agreed to or recommended the condition; and
 - (b) must impose a condition on a barrister practising certificate if the bar council has agreed to or recommended the condition.

 - (b) an owner of a unit in the units plan has not surrendered the lease of the owner's unit.
- (2) The owners corporation may surrender the lease of the owner's unit on behalf of the owner if—
 - (a) the owners corporation gives the owner 3 months written notice of the surrender; and

Note For how documents may be served, see the Legislation Act, pt 19.5.
 - (b) the owner does not give the owners corporation a written objection to the surrender; and

- (c) after the end of the 3-month notice period, the surrender is authorised by an unopposed resolution.
- (3) The owners corporation may also do anything on behalf of the owner that is necessary to make the surrender effective.

Example

The owners corporation may deal with a mortgagee in relation to the unit to obtain the mortgagee's consent to the surrender.

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).
