APPLICATION TO CORRECT A REGISTERPRIVACY COLLECTION STATEMENT (PRIVACY ACT 1988 (C'WLTH))*PRIVACY NOTES

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 authorises the Registrar-General to collect the information required by this form in processing your application. The Registrar-General prevents any unreasonable intrusion into a person's privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (C'wlth). However, the Registrar-General provides identifiable information to law enforcement organisations and authorised organisations that have the legal authority to request information under prescribed circumstances.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This form can be used to correct information kept in a register by the Registrar-General. This form may not be used to change the name of a child. An application to register a change of name for a child form must be completed and lodged for this purpose. If the correction relates to a birth registration for a child, both parents named on the certificate must sign and provide identification. If one parent is deceased, a copy of the death certificate is required. If the correction relates to a death registration, an immediate family member or the person who provided the information at time of registration must sign and provide identification. Please note that causes of death can only be changed by the medical practitioner who supplied the original information or by the coroner's office in the case of a coronial. If the correction relates to a marriage registration either party may apply to correct information relating to their details, however both parties must sign and provide identification. If one party is deceased a death certificate is required. In each circumstance, evidence of the correct information is required.

FEES CURRENT TO 30 JUNE 2007

There is no fee to lodge an application to correct a register, however a fee does apply if a new certificate is required after the correction is made. If you wish to apply for a certificate after the correction is made please complete an application for certificate form.
