Form 3.54 Small Claims Court—default judgment

Court Procedures Rules 2006

(see r 3757 (Small Claims Court—default judgment) and r 3765 (Small Claims Court conference—failure to attend))

In the Small Claims Court of the Australian Capital Territory

Application No	of (year)
(name) Applicant
(name) Respondent
The Court enters judgment as follows:
*Amount stated in claim
The applicant recover against amount):	the respondent (state	$
The respondent pay $ (amour	ut) to the applicant.

Filed for the applicant by:

(the applicant's address for service and telephone number (if any) or, if the applicant is represented by a solicitor and the solicitor is the agent of another solicitor, the name and place of business of the other solicitor)

Approved form under Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8

page 1

*Debt declaration

The Court declares:

- *The applicant is not indebted to the respondent.
- *The applicant is indebted to the respondent in the amount of:

*The applicant is not indebted to the respondent in an amount exceeding the amount of:

amount exceeding the amount of:

The applicant recover against the respondent the following amount for fees, charges and out-of-pocket expenses:

*Amount not stated in claim—damages to be assessed

The applicant recover against the respondent damages to be assessed.

*Other orders sought in claim

Judgment for the applicant against the respondent with orders to be decided.

$

$

Date:

Registrar