IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The public officer is responsible for acting as a point of contact between the association and the community, and is expected to be able to represent the association in dealings with this office under the Associations Incorporation Act 1991 (the Act) and the Associations Incorporation Regulation 1991 (the Regulation). Section 57 of the Act requires that the public officer be at least 18 years of age and be a resident of the ACT. In turn, it will be necessary to provide the full ACT residential address of the public officer. Section 122 of the Act provides for service on an incorporated association of a document or process by leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the address of the public officer.

The Act prohibits any person from serving as the public officer if he/she is insolvent or bankrupt, without leave from the ACT Supreme Court under S.63 of the Act. A search should be conducted of the records held by the Insolvency and Trustee Service Australia (ITSA) before accepting the nomination of a person as the public officer. For more information or to conduct a search, visit the ITSA website at www.itsa.gov.au.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Section 9 of the Associations Incorporations Act 1991 provides for the Registrar-General to collect the information for the purpose of establishing and maintaining the register of incorporated associations. The register is available for search pursuant to Section 11 of the Act, to any person upon payment of a fee. The register is also made available to a range of government agencies for law enforcement, administrative and statistical purposes.
