ACT GOVERNMENTBirths, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997*

Registrar-General's Office

APPLICATION TO REGISTER A CHANGE OF NAME FOR A CHILDPRIVACY COLLECTION STATEMENT (PRIVACY ACT 1988 (C'WLTH))*PRIVACY NOTES

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 authorises the Registrar-General to collect the information required by this form in processing your application. The Registrar-General prevents any unreasonable intrusion into a person's privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (C'wlth). However, the Registrar-General provides identifiable information to law enforcement organisations and authorised organisations that have the legal authority to request information under prescribed circumstances.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This form can only be used to register a change of name for a child whose birth is registered in the ACT, or who is currently a resident of the ACT and has been for more than 3 months. If the child was born overseas they must be an Australian citizen or permanent Australian resident.

The Registrar-General will not register a change of name unless satisfied of the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed and that the change is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purpose. The Registrar-General will not accept an application to register a change of name for a child if a change of name has been registered within the last 12 months. The Registrar-General will not register a change of name if, as a result, the name would become a prohibited name.

REFERRAL TO THE AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE (AFP) AND OTHER AGENCIES AND CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

This form and any evidence produced in support of this application may be directed to the AFP to assist the Registrar-General in assessing your application. This form may also be directed to agencies including (but not limited to) other Birth, Death and Marriage Registries, the Passports Office, Department of Immigration and Citizenship, and Motor Vehicle Registries to assist the Registrar-General in assessing your application. Usually these referrals are simply to verify the evidence that you have provided in making your application. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency prior to being able to register the change of name application. It is extremely important that all identity documents are accurate and reflect the correct identity information.

In all cases it is necessary for you to consent for the Registrar-General to require the AFP or other agency to release information available to them that may assist the Registrar-General in making his/her decision. As a result, as you complete this form it is assumed that you are consenting to the release of information by these agencies in support of your application.

PARENTAL CONSENT AND CONSENT FROM A CHILD OVER 14 YEARS OF AGE

If the child's birth registration includes details of two parents, both parents must apply and consent to the registration of the change of name. One parent may apply if they are the only parent on the child's birth registration or if one parent is deceased, in which case a death certificate is required. If either parent cannot be found or refuses to consent to the application to change the child's name, a Supreme Court order approving the proposed change is required. If the child has attained the age of 14 years, the child must also consent to the application to change their name.

REGISTRATION AND NOTIFICATION OF A CHANGE OF NAME

If the application to register a change of name is approved, an entry will be created in the change of name register. If the child was born in the ACT, the new name will also be noted on the birth registration and will appear on all birth certificates issued after registration of the change of name. If the child was born in another State or Territory within Australia, the Registrar-General of that jurisdiction will be notified of the change of name, and may appear on birth certificates subsequently issued by that jurisdiction.

FEES CURRENT TO 30 JUNE 2008

The fee to lodge an application to register a change of name is $86.00. This fee is non-refundable regardless of whether the application is registered. Upon registration a further $35.00 fee is payable to obtain the certificate of change of name or an updated birth certificate. If the certificate is to be sent by post a $5.00 registered person to person postage fee applies, or $16.00 if it is sent by international registered post. Payment may be made by cash, credit card, EFTPOS, money order or cheque, all cheques and money orders should be made payable to the Registrar-General.
