GENERAL INFORMATION

A notice to terminate a civil partnership may only be withdrawn by the party, or parties, who gave the termination notice, before the end of 12 months after the day the termination notice was given to the Registrar-General.

If the notice is given to the Registrar-General by only 1 party, it is effective only if:

- a copy of the notice has been served personally on the other party; and,
- the attached statutory declaration is completed by the person who served the withdrawal of termination notice, including the date on which it was served.

To serve this notice personally on a party, the person serving the notice must:

- give the party a copy of the notice;
- if the party does not accept the notice, put the copy down in the party's presence and tell the party in general terms what it is; or,
- if the person serving the notice is prevented from approaching the party by violence or threat of violence, or by a court order, put the copy down as near as practicable to, but in sight of the party.

A civil partnership is terminated upon the death or marriage of either party.

Please note 3 forms of current identification must be provided upon lodgement of this form. If lodged by both parties, each person must provide 3 forms of identification.
