

DEATH REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Form 210 -DRS

Births Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997
Births Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 1998

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This form is used to collect particulars prescribed in the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 and the Births Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 1998 to register the death of a person who died in the Australian Capital Territory. You can access legislation at www.legislation.act.gov.au. You may also obtain further information and forms from www.ors.act.gov.au

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR NOTIFICATION

The funeral director or person who arranges for the disposal of human remains in the ACT must, within 7 days after the date the remains are disposed of, give the Registrar-General a written statement containing certain information. Disposal of remains includes cremation, burial, placing the remains in the custody of an educational or scientific institution for the purpose of medical education or research, or removal from the ACT. If the remains are removed from the ACT, the funeral director or person who arranges the removal should also provide a written statement within 28 days of the disposal outside the ACT to the Registrar-General containing certain information. If the remains have not been disposed of within 30 days of the date of death, the funeral director or the person having custody of the remains must provide a written statement to the Registrar-General containing certain information. This form is to be used to provide this information to the Registrar-General.

CORONIAL INQUESTS

Where a death is subject to a coronial inquest a death certificate may not be issued with a cause of death until the Coroner's Office has notified this office of the cause of death. The Registrar-General may issue a death certificate after registration without a cause of death until such time as the Registrar-General has been provided with the Coroner's findings.

PRIVACY INFORMATION

The Births, Deaths and Marriages registration Act 1997 authorises the Registrar-General to collect the information required by this form. The Registrar-General prevents any unreasonable intrusion into a person's privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (C'wlth). The Registrar-General may provide identifiable information to law enforcement organisations and authorised organisations that have legal authority to request information under prescribed circumstances. Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through Certificate Validation System (CVS) and the National Document Verification System (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by external agencies using CVS and/or DVS.
