NOTES ON COMPLETION OF FORM

- This form must be used by the Registrar-General to place a Registrar-General's Caveat over a property.
- When a relevant deed is deposited, the Registrar-General will enter a Registrar-General's Caveat, forbidding the registration of dealings not in accordance with Section 124(3) of the Land Titles Act 1925. In this case, the Registrar-General's Caveat is entered/withdrawn at the expense of the applicant. It will not be necessary to produce the Certificate of Title at the time of the deposit of a deed.

The purpose of entry of the Registrar-General's Caveat is to afford protection to persons with beneficial or equitable interests in the land by warning persons dealing, and where appropriate, preventing registration of dealings contrary to the interests of those persons.

It should be noted that a Registrar-General's Caveat entered to protect the terms of a trust deed in relation to property, will not be removed automatically.

On the removal of such Caveats, the Registrar-General will no longer require evidence that the Caveat is being removed with the consent of the beneficiaries. However, the Registrar-General will be concerned that no apparent conflict of interest arises from a request for removal.

Such Caveats may be removed by lodging a blank Withdrawal of Caveat form for the Registrar-General to complete together with the common lodgement fee and any supporting evidence.

- Dealing with land subject to a Registrar-General's Caveat - Parties intending to deal with land subject to a Registrar-General's Caveat may search the Registrar-General's Caveat and the relevant deed deposited. Generally, that party should decide whether the registered proprietor has the capacity to deal with the land. Supporting evidence in the form of a declaration may be required.

Upon lodgement of a dealing with land subject to a Registrar-General's Caveat, the Registrar-General may enquire as to whether the dealing is contrary to the interests of the beneficiaries and may refuse to register the dealing. Supporting evidence in the form of a statutory declaration may be required.
