CERTIFICATIONS

Any inapplicable certification statement(s) must be deleted.

Certification statements must be made by the Certifier, being one of the following:

- a. A legal practitioner
- b. A mortgagee corporation
- c. If the applicant is not represented by a legal practitioner the applicant (i.e. self- represented party)
- d. If a party to an instrument is not represented by a legal practitioner that party (i.e. self-represented party)

All certifications apply where the Certifier is a legal practitioner.

The first two listed certifications do not apply where the Certifier is a self-represented party or mortgagee corporation. Self-represented parties and mortgagee corporations are only required to make certifications relating to retaining evidence to support the registry instrument or document and ensuring the registry instrument or document is correct and compliant with relevant legislation and any prescribed requirement.

Note: - An attorney or a body corporate cannot make certification statements.
