1 15 Application for legal assistance
2 Section 25 (1)

3 substitute

- 4 (1) An application for legal assistance must be made in writing.

5 Note If a form is approved under s 99 for this provision, the form must be 6 used (but see s (2)).

- 7 (1A) However, subsection (1) does not apply to legal assistance
8 consisting of—

- 9 (a) legal advice; or
10 (b) duty lawyer services; or
11 (c) minor legal assistance.

12 16 Section 25

13 renumber subsections when Act next republished under Legislation
14 Act

15 17 Sections 26 and 27

16 substitute

17 26 Deciding applications for legal assistance

- 18 (1) Each application for legal assistance must be decided by—

- 19 (a) the chief executive officer; or 20 (b) an officer of the commission authorised by the chief executive 21 officer; or
22 (c) if a direction under subsection (3) applies to the application—
23 the commission.

- 24 (2) Each application must be decided in accordance with this Act and,
25 in particular—

- 1 (a) any direction by the Minister under section 8 to apply a 2 funding agreement; and
- 3 (b) any guidelines by the commission under section 12; and
- 4 (c) the priorities decided under section 10 (1) (g).
- 5 Note Section 28 provides for circumstances in which legal assistance may be 6 provided.
- 7 (3) The commission must give, and make known to the public,
8 directions about the particular kinds of application that must be 9 decided by the commission.
- 10 (4) For subsection (1), the decision maker may make any inquiries and 11 obtain any reports and advice (including the opinion of counsel) that 12 the decision maker considers appropriate.
- 13 (5) The cost of making inquiries or obtaining reports or advice under 14 subsection (4) is payable—
- 15 (a) if the decision maker under subsection (1) decides that the cost 16 should be paid by the applicant—by the applicant; or
- 17 (b) in any other case—out of the fund.
- 18 (6) If the application is approved, the decision maker must also decide, 19 in accordance with guidelines under section 11 (Guidelines for 20 allocation of work) and section 12 (Guidelines for provision of 21 assistance)—
- 22 (a) whether the assistance is to be given by an officer of the 23 commission or a private legal practitioner; and
- 24 (b) the nature and extent of the assistance to be given; and
- 25 (c) whether the assistance is to be given free, or on any of the 26 conditions mentioned in section 31 (1) (Contribution towards 27 costs and expenses).

1 27 Ending or changing legal assistance

2 The decision maker under section 26 may, in relation to approved
3 legal assistance—

- 4 (a) end the assistance; or
- 5 (b) change the nature or extent of the assistance; or
- 6 (c) impose a condition under section 31 (1) (Contribution towards 7 costs and expenses) on the giving of further assistance; or
- 8 (d) change a condition imposed under section 31 (1) on the giving
9 of further assistance.

10 18 Circumstances in which legal assistance may be
11 provided
12 Section 28 (1)

13 substitute

14 (1) Subject to this section, and section 28A, legal assistance may be 15 provided to a person under this Act only if—

- 16 (a) the person is in need of that legal assistance because the person
17 cannot afford the cost of obtaining the assistance from private 18 legal practitioners; and
- 19 (b) it is reasonable in all the circumstances to provide the legal 20 assistance.

21 (1A) However, subsection (1) does not apply to legal assistance
22 consisting of—

- 23 (a) legal advice; or
- 24 (b) duty lawyer services; or
- 25 (c) minor legal assistance.

19 Section 28

renumber subsections when Act next republished under Legislation Act

20 Legal assistance under the convention
Section 28A (1)

substitute

- (1) A person is entitled to legal assistance if—
- (a) the person applies for legal assistance to obtain recognition or enforcement of a decision given in a proceeding in a contracting state in accordance with the convention; and
 - (b) the chief executive officer is satisfied that the person has received legal aid in accordance with the convention, article 1 for the proceeding.

21 New section 30A30A Minor legal assistance

- (1) The commission may provide minor legal assistance to a person in accordance with guidelines under section 12.

Example of minor legal assistance

assistance with writing a letter or the completion of a form

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

- (2) Minor legal assistance may be given subject to any of the following conditions:
- (a) that the person pays to the commission a contribution of a stated amount towards the cost to the commission of providing the assistance;

- 1 (b) that the person makes a payment or payments to the 2 commission in relation to any out-of-pocket expenses incurred,
3 or to be incurred, by the commission in providing the
4 assistance.

5 22 Security for payment of contribution
6 Section 31A (1)

7 substitute

- 8 (1) If the provision of legal assistance is subject to the condition
9 mentioned in section 31 (1) (c), the chief executive officer may 10 lodge with the registrar-general for registration a notice certifying
11 that an amount payable to the commission under section 31 is a
12 charge on land stated in the notice.

13 23 Arranging for services of private legal practitioners
14 Section 32 (1)

15 substitute

- 16 (1) The commission must keep a list of private legal practitioners who 17 have told the commission that they are willing to act for legally
18 assisted people—
19 (a) generally; or
20 (b) in particular kinds of matters; or 21 (c) in particular courts or before particular tribunals.
