Personal Property Securities Bill 2010

A Bill for

An Act relating to personal property securities to make provision consequent on the enactment by the Parliament of the Commonwealth of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cwlth)

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

1 Part 1 Preliminary

2 1 Name of Act

3 This Act is the Personal Property Securities Act 2010.

4 2 Commencement

5 (1) Division 2.1 commences on the day after this Act's notification day.

6 Note The naming and commencement provisions automatically commence on 7 the notification day (see Legislation Act, s 75 (1)).

8 (2) The remaining provisions commence on—

9 (a) a day fixed by the Minister by written notice; or

10 (b) if a day has not been fixed before the day of the registration
11 commencement time—the day of the registration
12 commencement time.

13 Note 1 A single day or time may be fixed, or different days or times may be 14 fixed, for the commencement of different provisions (see Legislation 15 Act, s 77 (1)).

16 Note 2 For the meaning of registration commencement time see the Personal 17 Property Securities Act 2009 (Cwlth).

18 (3) A day may not be fixed under subsection (2) (a) that is earlier than 19 the day of the registration commencement time.

20 (4) The Legislation Act, section 79 (Automatic commencement of 21 postponed law) does not apply to this Act.

22 3 Notes

23 A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

24 Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of 25 notes.

1 4 Expiry—Act

2 This Act expires 2 years after division 2.1 commences.

Part 2 Savings and transitional provisions

Division 2.1 General

5 Definitions

In this Act:

existing Act means the Instruments Act 1933.

existing motor vehicle provisions means the Sale of Motor Vehicles Act 1977, part 4A (other than section 32F).

director-general means the director-general under the NSW Act.

migration time—see the PPS Act, section 306.

NSW Act means the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 (NSW).

PPS Act means the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cwlth).

PPS register—see the PPS Act, section 10, definition of register.

PPS registrar—see the PPS Act, section 10, definition of Registrar.

pre-PPS transitional period means the period—

(a) commencing at the migration time or an earlier time prescribed by regulation; and

(b) ending at the registration commencement time.

registration commencement time—see the PPS Act, section 306.

REVS means the register kept under the NSW Act, section 4.

transitional security interest—see the PPS Act, section 308.

6 Giving information to the Commonwealth

- (1) The registrar-general is authorised to give the Commonwealth, the PPS registrar or any other officer of the Commonwealth the information recorded in, or concerning the use of, any register, book or index kept under the existing Act that the registrar-general considers appropriate in order to assist the Commonwealth in establishing the PPS register.
- (2) The registrar-general may give the information in whatever form (including by means of electronic data or in a form approved for the PPS Act) that the registrar-general considers appropriate.
- (3) This section has effect despite anything in another territory law.

7 Territory not liable—PPS transitional matters

- (1) The Territory, or an officer, employee or agent of the Territory, does not incur liability for an act or omission done honestly and without recklessness if the act or omission is a PPS transitional matter or arises (directly or indirectly) from a PPS transitional matter.

- (2) In this section:

PPS transitional matter means—

- (a) the giving of information to the Commonwealth, the PPS registrar, any other officer of the Commonwealth or any other person for the purpose of assisting the Commonwealth in establishing the PPS register; or
- (b) a request to the director-general to give information to the Commonwealth, the PPS registrar, any other officer of the Commonwealth or any other person for the purpose of assisting the Commonwealth in establishing the PPS register; or
- (c) the exercise of a function under, or the administration of, this part.

8 Transitional regulations

- (1) A regulation may prescribe transitional matters necessary or convenient to be prescribed because of the enactment of this Act.
- (2) A regulation may modify this part (including in relation to another territory law) to make provision in relation to anything that, in the Executive's opinion, is not, or is not adequately or appropriately, dealt with in this part.
- (3) A regulation under subsection (2) has effect despite anything elsewhere in this Act or another territory law.

9 Application of Legislation Act, s 88

This part is a law to which the Legislation Act, section 88 (Repeal does not end effect of transitional laws etc) applies.

Division 2.2 Interests in motor vehicles

10 Existing motor vehicle provisions cease to have effect at registration commencement time

- (1) The existing motor vehicle provisions cease to have effect in relation to motor vehicles at the registration commencement time, except as otherwise provided by this division.
- (2) If an existing provision (the primary provision) is continued in effect by this division, any other provision of the existing motor vehicle provisions that is mentioned in the primary provision is also continued in effect to the extent necessary for the purposes of the continued application of the primary provision.

(3) This division has effect—

- (a) despite anything in the existing motor vehicle provisions; and
- (b) in relation to the existing motor vehicle provisions that this division continues in effect after the registration commencement time even after the existing motor vehicle provisions are repealed by this Act.

11 Search certificates and notices

Section 32D of the existing motor vehicle provisions continues to apply after the registration commencement time in relation to any certificate issued under that section before that time.

Note 1 The director-general may continue to issue certificates under the NSW Act, s 8 (5) during a post-PPS transitional period as to the state of REVS in relation to motor vehicles at any time in the 7 years before the registration commencement time. The provisions of that Act, s 8 will continue to apply to these certificates. A NSW regulation may make provision in relation to the issue of certificates during a pre-PPS transitional period.

Note 2 For the NSW provisions—

- post-PPS transitional period means the period of 7 years commencing at the registration commencement time; and
- pre-PPS transitional period—see s 5.

12 Enforcement of interests in motor vehicles

Subject to the PPS Act, chapter 9 (Transitional provisions), section 32E, section 32G and section 32H of the existing motor vehicle provisions continue to apply to an interest in a motor vehicle if the interest is created before the registration commencement time.

1 Division 2.3 Interests to which Instruments
2 Act 1933 applies

3 13 Existing Act ceases to have effect at registration
4 commencement time

- 5 (1) The existing Act ceases to have effect at the registration 6 commencement time, except as otherwise provided by this division.
- 7 (2) If a provision of the existing Act (the primary provision) is 8 continued in effect by this division, any other provision of the 9 existing Act that is mentioned in the primary provision is also 10 continued in effect to the extent necessary for the purposes of the 11 continued application of the primary provision.
- 12 (3) This division has effect—
- 13 (a) despite anything in the existing Act; and
- 14 (b) in relation to a provision of the existing Act that this division
15 continues in effect after the registration commencement time
16 even after the existing Act is repealed by this Act.

17 14 Registrar-general may refuse to exercise registration
18 functions

- 19 (1) The registrar-general may refuse to exercise a registration function 20 during the pre-PPS transitional period.
- 21 (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the registrar-general may refuse to 22 exercise a registration function during the pre-PPS transitional 23 period in relation to a matter that was not finally determined or 24 concluded immediately before the commencement of that period.
- 25 (3) In this section:
- 26 registration function means any of the registrar-general's functions
27 under the existing Act relating to the registration of instruments for 28 the existing Act.

- 1 15 Registrable instruments executed before commencement
2 time
- 3 (1) Nothing in this division is intended to affect the continued validity
4 and enforceability of any registrable instrument that is in effect
5 immediately before the time when the existing Act ceases to apply 6 because of section 13.
- 7 (2) Any instrument executed before the registration commencement
8 time that has not been (but could have been) registered under the 9 existing Act immediately before the registration commencement
10 time is taken to have had effect in accordance with its terms 11 immediately before that time.
- 12 (3) Any instrument executed before the registration commencement
13 time that has not been (but could have been) registered under the 14 existing Act as a variation, renewal, assignment or discharge of an 15 instrument immediately before the registration commencement time
16 is taken to have effect in accordance with its terms immediately 17 before that time.
- 18 (4) This section has effect subject to the PPS Act, chapter 9 19 (Transitional provisions).
- 20 16 Enforcement of interests
- 21 (1) Subject to the PPS Act, chapter 9 (Transitional provisions), any 22 provision of the existing Act with respect to enforcement of an 23 interest continues to apply in relation to—
- 24 (a) a transitional security interest; and
- 25 (b) any registrable instrument (within the meaning of the existing 26 Act) executed before the registration commencement time.
- 27 (2) In this section:
- 28 enforcement, of an interest, includes priority of an interest.

1 17 Fees payable

2 Any fee that is payable under the existing Act immediately before 3 the registration commencement time continues to be payable and 4 may be recovered by the registrar-general in a court of competent 5 jurisdiction after the registration commencement time.

1 Part 3 Legislation amended and
2 repealed

3 18 Legislation amended—schs 1-3

4 This Act amends the legislation mentioned in schedules 1 to 3.

5 19 Legislation repealed

6 (1) The Instruments Act 1933 (A1933-25) is repealed.

7 (2) All legislative instruments under the Instruments Act 1933
8 (A1933-25) are repealed.

Part 3.4 Sale of Motor Vehicles Act 1977

[3.4] Sections 32A to 32F

substitute

32A Liability of dealer to creditor if security interest defeated

(1) This section applies if—

(a) a motor vehicle is purchased from a dealer by a non-dealer;
and

(b) at any time before payment of the purchase price, the dealer had notice that the vehicle was subject to a security interest within the meaning of the PPS Act; and

(c) immediately before payment of the purchase price, the security interest had not been discharged or cancelled.

(2) The dealer is liable to the person who had the security interest for any loss of the person because of the operation of the PPS Act, part 2.5 (Taking personal property free of security interests) in relation to the interest.

(3) However, the dealer is not liable to the person if the dealer purchased the motor vehicle free from the security interest of the person because of the operation of the PPS Act, part 2.5 in relation to the interest.

(4) In this section:

non-dealer means a person who is not a dealer.

payment, of a purchase price, means—

(a) if the purchase is not by an exchange—giving valuable consideration for the purchase price; or
