19 New division 6.3A*insertDivision 6.3A Conciliation of privacy complaints*44A Definitions—div 6.3A

In this division:

conciliation, of a privacy complaint, is a process in which—

- (a) the parties give willing and informed agreement to take part; and
- (b) the information privacy commissioner impartially helps the parties resolve some or all of the complaint; and
- (c) the parties decide the outcome, usually with advice from the commissioner.

conciliation agreement—see section 44E (1).

parties, to the conciliation of a privacy complaint, means the complainant and respondent in relation to the complaint.

44B Parties must attend conciliation

- (1) The parties to the conciliation of a privacy complaint must attend the conciliation.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person is a party to the conciliation; and
 - (b) the information privacy commissioner tells the person, in writing, to attend the conciliation at a stated time and place; and
 - (c) the person does not attend the conciliation at the stated time and place.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- 1 (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse
2 for not attending the conciliation at the stated time and place.

3 Note The defendant has an evidential burden in relation to the matters
4 mentioned in s (4) (see Criminal Code, s 58).

5 44C Attendance at conciliation—people other than parties

- 6 (1) The information privacy commissioner may allow people other than 7 parties to attend the conciliation if the commissioner considers that 8 their attendance will help the conciliation.
- 9 (2) However, neither party may be represented by anyone else in the 10 conciliation unless the commissioner is satisfied that the 11 representation is likely to substantially help the conciliation.
- 12 (3) The information privacy commissioner may also, in writing, ask a 13 person other than a party to attend the conciliation if satisfied that the 14 person's attendance is likely to help the conciliation.

15 44D Conduct of conciliation

16 Conciliation is to be conducted in the way the information privacy
17 commissioner decides.

18 Example

19 The commissioner may decide that a privacy complaint is to be split and the parts
20 are to be conciliated separately.

21 44E Conciliated agreements

- 22 (1) If a complaint is resolved by conciliation, the information privacy
23 commissioner may help the parties make a written record
24 (the conciliation agreement) of the agreement they have reached.
- 25 (2) If a conciliation agreement is made—
- 26 (a) each party to the agreement must sign the agreement; and
- 27 (b) the commissioner must give each party a copy of the conciliation 28 agreement.

- 1 44F Use of conciliation agreement by commissioner
- 2 (1) The information privacy commissioner may use information in a
- 3 conciliation agreement, whether for dealing with the complaint to
- 4 which the agreement relates or otherwise, only if the parties to the
- 5 agreement agree to the use by the commissioner of the agreement, or
- 6 the part of the agreement, containing the information.
- 7 (2) An agreement to allow the commissioner to use a conciliation
- 8 agreement, or part of a conciliation agreement, may be in the
- 9 conciliation agreement or elsewhere.
- 10 (3) If the parties agree to the use by the commissioner of the conciliation
- 11 agreement, or a part of the agreement, the commissioner may use
- 12 anything in the conciliation agreement, or the part of the agreement,
- 13 as the commissioner considers appropriate.
- 14 44G End of conciliation
- 15 (1) Conciliation of a privacy complaint ends if—
- 16 (a) agreement is reached on the matters being conciliated, whether
- 17 or not a conciliation agreement is made, and the parties end the
- 18 conciliation; or
- 19 (b) the parties agree to end the conciliation; or
- 20 (c) a party withdraws from the conciliation; or
- 21 (d) the information privacy commissioner is satisfied that the
- 22 conciliation is unlikely to be successful.
- 23 (2) If the conciliation ends, the commissioner must, as soon as
- 24 practicable, tell the parties that the conciliation has ended and why it
- 25 has ended.
- 26 (3) If the conciliation ends because subsection (1) (a) applies, the
- 27 information privacy commissioner may close the complaint.

44H Admissibility of evidence

(1) This section—

(a) applies to—

(i) a communication made between people attending a conciliation (including the information privacy commissioner); and

(ii) a document (whether delivered or not) prepared in relation to the conciliation; but

(b) does not apply to a conciliation agreement, or part of a conciliation agreement, if the parties have agreed under section 44F to allow the commissioner to use the agreement or part of the agreement.

(2) The Evidence Act 2011, section 131 (Exclusion of evidence of settlement negotiations) applies to the communication or document as if the communication or document were a communication or document mentioned in that Act, section 131 (1).

44I Conciliation attendees protected from civil liability

20 Section 45

2 conciliation, whether or not a conciliation agreement is made in 3 relation to the complaint.
- 4 (3) The commissioner must give written notice to the complainant and 5 the respondent for the complaint telling them—
- 6 (a) that the commissioner is reasonably satisfied that the act or
