

Statute No. 27

ACADEMIC PROGRESS STATUTE 1995

Citation

1. This Statute may be cited as the Academic Progress Statute 1995.

Repeal

2. The Academic Progress Statute 1990 is repealed.

Definitions

3. In this Statute, unless the contrary intention appears:
"Academic Board" means the Academic Board of the University established by section 19 of the Act;
"appropriate review authority" means an authority referred to in section 4;
"faculty" means a faculty determined by the Council under section 8 of the Act;
"Faculty Board" means the Board of Studies of a faculty of the University.

Appropriate review authority

4. For the purposes of this Statute, the appropriate review authorities are:
 - (a) the Academic Board; and
 - (b) the Faculty Boards; and
 - (c) a committee or committees appointed by resolution of the Academic Board.

Academic progress rules

- 5.(1) The Council may make rules, not inconsistent with the Act or a Statute, dealing with the academic progress of students.
 - (2) Rules made under subsection (1) may provide for an appropriate review authority:
 - (a) to review the academic progress of a student; and
 - (b) to take action in respect of a student whose academic progress in a course of study, or in a unit of a course of study, is found to be unsatisfactory by the appropriate review authority, including action:
 - (i) prohibiting the student from continuing with, or taking, any course of study or any unit of a course of study, or taking any examination in such a course or unit; or
 - (ii) prohibiting the student from continuing with, or taking, any course of study, or any unit of a course of study, or taking any examination in such a course or unit, otherwise than in accordance with such conditions as are specified in the direction.
 - (3) Rules made under subsection (1) that empower an appropriate review authority (other than the Academic Board) to take action in respect of a student may also